Miss Mary M. McCarty, of St. Louis arrived here Sunday and will teach the Boyer school. Following the resignation of Miss Murphy, who taught the school until Christmas, Supt. Joseph King was compelled to substitute himself as teacher until Miss McCarty was employed. Withers, President of the Harris Teacher's College of St. Louis.

A team belonging to Peter Rignon, of River aux Vases, became frightened at an automobile at the corner of Main and Merchant, Monday and ran away. The horses drawing a wagon ran up Merchant, over Fourth to the street which turns East over Nannum's Hill to the St. Mary road thence South on the St. Mary road to the bridge below Thomas Straghan's residence. The team was captured after a wild ride on horseback made by Emanuel Thumore, of River aux Vases, a friend of Rignon, who arrived in town just in time to make the chase. One of the horses was injured, the wagon overturned, and the tongue and single tree broken.

The support being given the Dancing Club of this city must certainly be encouraging to those who conceived the idea and organized the class. The success of the school, thus far, is due the management and the fact that they at once secured the services of an expert teacher, one who has an established reputation in such a metropolitan as St. Louis. In securing Miss Guenther to interpret and teach the new dances, the promoters are to be congratulated, for it is through her thorough knowledge of the art and the gentle fairy-like manner of conducting the class that so much enthusiasm has been created and such progress made by the pupils in mastering the terpsichorean intricacies of modern times. Aside from conducting several private dancing classes, Miss Guenther is a Physical Culture teacher in the Public Schools of St. Louis. The class, which has a membership of about fifty, are indeed lucky and should continue with the interest heretofore shown, thereby taking advantage of the limited number of lessons which are to be given by this efficient teacher.

New Dancing Lessons.

A good chance to see the Tango and other new dances. The Noble Theatre is soon to put on the new motion picture dancing lessons. These lessons represent the first attempt ever made to teach the very latest and most popular dances by motion pictures. The Tango, Turkey Trot and Hesitation Waltz are taught by New York's most famous instructors, Mr. Wallace McCutcheon and Miss Joan Sawyer, who are dancing instructors to New York's famous "Four Hundred."

These motion picture dancing lessons will teach every one of such desire to become an accomplished dancer, even those who think they "just can't learn."

Arrangements have been made to run the first of these dancing lessons Monday night, February 2nd.

No one should miss this opportunity of seeing the much talked of Tango correctly danced. Admission 5 and 10 cts. Silver coupons given on this night.

On February 1st, the express companies will put into operation the new rates ordered by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Under the present tariff it costs 65 cents to send a 5-pound package from New York to St. Louis. Under the new rates the cost will be 32 cents. Other reductions are in proportion.

Mrs. H. C. Ziegler will give a Euchre at the New Grand Theatre on Monday, February 16, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and 8 o'clock in the evening, for the benefit of the Building Fund. The euchre in the evening will be followed by a dance. A special feature will be a fortune wheel. Admission 25 cents.

Count Alexander M. Loehwitzky, LL. D., Russian Reformer and Political Exile of Russia, provided an evening of intensely interesting and educational entertainment at the New Grand Theatre, Wednesday evening of this week. The Colonel lectured on "A Russian Nobleman's Story of Siberian Exile and Escape," and other facts equally as interesting concerning the Russian Government. The lecture is booked out by The International Entertainment Bureau.

Miss Murphy, of St. Louis who for several months taught the Boyer school, was married to John Leykan, of Kirkwood, on December 31st, at St. Theresa's church, St. Louis. The couple will make their home in Des Moines, Iowa, where the groom is engaged in business.

Marshal Robert Abernathy and wife were most agreeably surprised at their home in this city on last Sunday evening by a number of neighbors and friends. The cause of the unexpected invasion on the Marshal's domicile was the fact that that day marked the 17th anniversary of their marriage. An evening of enjoyment marked the occasion.

Next Monday is Candlemas Day. It is also Ground Hog Day. On this day, it is said, Mr. G. Hog sneaks out cautiously from its winter quarters taking weather observations. If he sees his shadow, he goes a-sneaking back—signifying 6 weeks more of winter weather. If he does not see his shadow, he snuffles the air, wiggles his tail and remains out—and we have 6 weeks more of winter, anyhow.

Last Monday while Robert Vineyard was out performing the customary work required of him as a section-hand on the Frisco road, a number of the members of the Mutual Protective League, to which he and his wife belong, appeared at his home with saws and bucks, got busy and "staid with it" until a big pile of wood had been mutilated. Upon returning home that evening Mr. Vineyard not only found the results of the saw and buck, but also an invitation requesting himself and wife to partake of a supper prepared by the Ladies of the League at their hall. The supper was followed by a dance.
