The concert and dance given by the Ste. Genevieve Band last Monday evening at the New Grand Theatre drew a large and appreciative audience. The offering was something out of the ordinary as it has been a long time since our citizens have heard a concert of such caliber. The program was composed of many pleasing numbers which were accepted by the audience in a manner which gave evidence of their complete satisfaction. Miss Erline Dempsey rendered two vocal selections which were vigorously applauded. Ste. Genevieve has a first-class band and the assistance and encouragement given them by the citizens at their concert is proof that everybody realizes what a valuable asset a good band is to a community.

The Ste. Genevieve Club in featuring Miss Guenther and Mr. Hofmeister in the late dances, at the New Grand Theatre Saturday night offered to the large gathering of dance-lovers an unusual and highly interesting program. Miss Guenther and Mr. Hofmeister in their several interpretations held the onlookers spellbound as with light steps, subtle movements and graceful poses they cleverly illustrated the purely artistic terpsichors of the present time. The costumes worn by Miss Guenther were beautiful and designed especially so as to lend a proper view of the little movements of which the dances are an artistic display. The dance was a success and aside from delighting over the feature dancing the participants had a most enjoyable time executing the many new steps they have recently mastered under the able direction of their teacher, Miss Guenther. The music for the exhibition dances was furnished by Miss Vich while an orchestra supplied music for the general dance.
