

COULD NOT SLEEP

Mr. Schleusner in Misery From Kidney Complaint. Doan's Gave Complete Relief.

"Heavy work brought on my kidney complaint," says Wm. Schleusner, 6408 Suburban Ave., Wellston, Mo. "One morning when shoeing a horse I was taken with a sudden pain in my back and fell flat on the floor. If I had been hit with a trip hammer, I couldn't have suffered more. I stayed in the house for five weeks and the pain was wearing the life out of me. At times, I couldn't get a wink of sleep because of the misery and I had to get up every few moments to pass the secretions that were highly colored, of foul odor, filled with sandy sediment and terribly scalding. My bladder felt as though it were falling. The pain brought stupor and a reeling sensation in my head; the torture of it cannot be described. If I got onto my feet I couldn't walk but felt dizzy and all in a flutter and everything would turn black. My head ached so it seemed as though my eyes were being dragged out. I started using Doan's Kidney Pills and I was soon rid of all the trouble."

His father had taken him out to the golf course. That evening he seemed to be ill at ease. "Willie," said his mother, "what is the matter with you? I wish you'd stop scratching yourself." "I don't know what's the matter, but I guess I must have got some of those golf bugs on me," was Willie's reply.

She Had a Heart.

"I never expected to see it."
"What?"
"Two suburbanites fighting over a cook."
"Which won?"
"The smaller of the two combatants. The cook couldn't stand to see a little man getting the worst of it, so she signed up on the spot for three weeks."

Spared.

"Did you get an interview with that foreign celebrity?"
"Yes," said the star reporter. "And he shook hands with me cordially when I left."
"What did he do that for?"
"I suspect he was grateful because I didn't ask him what he thought of America."

Not His Business.

"Have you covered that story of Penman, the novelist?" asked the editor.
"I have not, sir," was the reporter's reply.
"Were you not 'old to cover it?"
"Yes, sir, but it was not my business to cover his stories. I'm not a bookbinder, sir."

A HANDICAP.

"I wouldn't have my boy taught grammar at all, if I had my way."
"That's a strange idea. Why not?"
"I intend that he shall be a writer of popular songs."

Uncertain.

"You haven't congratulated our friend on being elected to the legislature."
"Being elected to the legislature," said Senator Sorghum, "is more or less uncertain. Out my way it can mean either a good start in life or a poor finish."

Great Practice.

"Where did you learn such a curve?"
"Throwing paper wads around a girl's head to reach a boy sitting two seats in front."

Couldn't Stand It.

Mrs. Speedem—Horace, where on earth did you hear such a vulgar expression? Don't ever let me hear that word again. It gave me quite a shock!

"You have some fine sirloin steak."
"Yes," replied the dealer; "remarkably fine. Shall I cut you a slice?"
"Oh, no. I merely stopped in to congratulate you."

Shameless.

"I fear Githers is a political trickster."

DUEL INDEFINITELY PUT OFF

How Wisconsin Congressman Turned Challenge to Deadly Combat Into Matter of Ridicule.

The story of the Potter-Pryor duel, the famous challenge of Civil war times whereby a Wisconsin congressman by ridicule put dueling in disrepute, recalled by the death of one of the participants, is told in interesting style in the June number of the Wisconsin Magazine of History, quarterly publication of the State Historical society.

Roger A. Pryor, the Virginia congressman who figured in the episode, died a few months ago in New York city. It was he upon whom John Fox Potte of East Troy, Walworth county, then representative of the First congressional district of Wisconsin, during April, 1890, brought nationwide ridicule in answer to a challenge to a duel. Congressman Potte offered to fight with bowie knives at a distance of four feet, but Pryor refused because they were "so demitition vulgar."

Most of Mr. Potte's bowie knives, including the one he purchased for the duel and others sent to him after the affair, are now on exhibit in the State Historical museum, Madison.

Exit Dish towels.

No more sticky plates and no more dishes dried on dish towels.

These are two of the things for which the Y. M. C. A. training schools for home assistants is standing. The school was started in answer to the demand for home assistants on the new domestic service plan which have come into the central branch employment bureau. Within the last six months 500 calls for home assistants have come in, and 170 have been successfully filled.

"There should never be a sticky plate after the home assistant has finished the course," Miss Grace H. White, placement secretary, says. "The girls are taught how to make their own soda preparation for cleansing the tea-box, the kitchen closets, etc., and how to clean a sink and a kitchen range so that it shines."

"Dishes are never dried with a dish towel, but always scalded and allowed to dry without a streak."

Verdict Against House Cat.

The department of agriculture has pronounced the house cat an enemy to mankind and has recommended its extermination. It expresses the opinion that the cat destroys more wild birds and young poultry than all their natural enemies combined, that it does not even keep the rats away, that it spreads disease, that it does much harm and little good.

Newfoundland's Memorial Day.

Newfoundland celebrated July 1 this year, but not as Canada does. It was observed throughout the island as Memorial day, in honor of those who laid down their lives during the war. Next year it is proposed to hold the commemoration earlier in the season.

Birds Have Right of Way.

Fowl have the right of way in air, warns the director of military aeronautics. This is justice indeed, since birds flew first.

But this is not all. Recently many towns along the Atlantic coast have been visited with dead bird showers. Aviators flying by a town would see a flock of wild fowl coming their way. They would set their machine guns and let the bullets fly.

Presently a prominent citizen walking below would be hit with a large bloody bird. He complained to the department of agriculture. Then the federal migratory bird law between the United States and Great Britain was referred to, and it was found that shooting birds from airplanes is unlawful.

It Has Happened Before.

As his relatives and friends are aware, George Wharton Pepper is a nonsmoker.

Not long ago Mr. Pepper was about to entertain some distinguished guests whom he delighted to honor.

His first move in the direction of their entertainment was to procure and send to the house some particularly choice Havana cigars, which "set him back" to the tune of 50 cents each. But it seems the cigars arrived before it was made known at home that the guests were expected.

That evening Mrs. Pepper said to her husband: "Some cigars came for you today—evidently a gift from some one. Knowing you didn't smoke, I gave them to men who were working in the house."—Philadelphia Ledger.

MARRIED IN BATHING SUITS

Ceremony Certainly Saved Bride and Groom Considerable Expense in Wedding Finery.

The funniest wedding I ever saw was when camping last summer, writes a correspondent of the Chicago Tribune. A girl friend and her father were there and she met a young man whom she grew fond of in a short time. One night he asked her father for her hand, but father objected because of the short acquaintance. The next morning the couple met and planned to elope, but somehow father "got wise," so this was spoiled. When swimming that afternoon they met again and the girl happened to mention that her father had gone to the village and would not return until evening. The boy said: "This is our time." A minister was on the shore and they went to him and asked to be married at once. The ceremony was performed on the beach, the couple attired in their bathing suits.

Is it Possible to Legislate Life and Brains?

Swift & Company is primarily an organization of men, not a collection of brick, mortar, and machinery.

Packing Plants, their equipment and usefulness are only outward symbols of the intelligence, life-long experience, and right purpose of the men who compose the organization and of those who direct it.

Will not Government direction of the packing industry, now contemplated by Congress, take over the empty husk of physical property and equipment and sacrifice the initiative, experience and devotion of these men, which is the life itself of the industry?

What legislation, what political adroitness could replace such life and brains, once driven out?
