"The Greatest Thing in Life"

An ARICRAFT Picture

What about the little girl in France that your soldier-boy wrote about? Are her clothes startling? Is she snappy? Is she the kind of girl you think she is? A gay butterfly, frivolous, deceitful?
D. W. Griffith introduces you.

Lillian Gish is the girl. Love does not run smoothly. There's a garlic-fumed farmer and a snob.

But something happened that made a big difference. There are worse things than garlic and snubs do change.
