

ATHLETICS GET TWO IN THREE

Bender Holds Cleveland at His Mercy Until the Seventh When He Eases Up and Allows Them a Few Runs.

CLEVELAND, July 12.—Philadelphia made two out of three Friday, defeating Cleveland 11 to 5. Bender had Cleveland at his mercy until the seventh when he eased up and allowed hits which scored five runs. Kahler was driven from the box in the sixth, the Athletics having then scored eight runs.

Blanding, who finished in the box, was poorly supported. Cleveland tried out three subs in the last three innings, Bates at third base, Leibold in center field and Bassler catching. Flies to left field were numerous. Graney getting seven and O'Driscoll six. Cleveland . . . 000 000 140—5 8 3 Philadelphia . . . 130 005 020—11 15 0 Kahler, Blanding and O'Neil, Bassler; Bender and Sehag, Umpires, Connolly and McGreevey.

BOEHLING NOW HAS A TEN STRAIGHT RECORD

Errors by Detroit Are a Great Help to Washington in a Five to Two Victory.

DETROIT, July 12.—Detroit's errors helped Pitcher Joe Boehling to his ninth straight victory Friday, Washington winning the last game of the series 5 to 2. In only two innings was the young left-hander unsteady. In the second he hit Veach with the ball and Stanage solved his delivery for a three-bagger, giving Detroit its first run.

Washington . . . 103 100 000—5 8 1 Detroit . . . 010 010 000—2 6 4 Boehling and Henry; Willett, House, Lake and Stanage, Umpires, O'Loughlin and Hildebrand.

FOUR RUN LEAD IS WINNER FOR BROWNS

St. Louis Drives Bedient From the Mound and Boston Fails to Overtake Them.

ST. LOUIS, July 12.—St. Louis took a lead in the first inning that Boston could not overcome and won 5 to 1. The visitors lone tally in the first inning was the result of singles by Speaker and Lewis and Hamilton's error.

St. Louis drove Bedient off the mound in the first inning when they scored four runs on three passes, singles by Shotten and Johnston and Agnew's double.

In the seventh inning doubles by Brief and Williams netted another run. The locals fielding although erratic at times was snappy. Agnew with a double and two singles, in as many attempts led the batters.

Boston . . . 100 000 000—1 7 1 St. Louis . . . 400 000 100—5 10 2 Bedient, Leonard, Maloy and Carrigan; Hamilton and Agnew, Umpires—Dineen and Egan.

ONE BAD INNING HELPS CARDINALS

Manager Huggins Hit in Head During Game and Will Have to Loaf Few Days.

BOSTON, July 12.—Tyler, the Boston pitcher, had one bad inning Friday and St. Louis won the last game of the series by a score of 4 to 4.

A home run by Connolly with a man on base gave Boston a lead in the first inning, but St. Louis overcame this in the sixth when Huggins was hit by a pitched ball, and singles by Magee, Oakes, Whitted, a sacrifice by Ketchey, a single by Evans and errors by Tyler and Maranville gave the visitors four runs.

St. Louis . . . 000 014 010—6 8 9 Boston . . . 200 002 000—4 6 5 Burke, Sallee and Wingo; Tyler and Rariden, Umpires—Klem and Orth.

TOTS DROP GAME TO ED SMITH'S CREW

Bowman Big Noise When He Allows Only Three Hits and Comes Across With a Double.

TERRE HAUTE, July 12.—Bowman held the local club to three hits Friday, one of them being an infield tap and Grand Rapids won, 3 to 1. In addition to this the visiting pitcher delivered a two-base hit in the eighth with two men on winning the game.

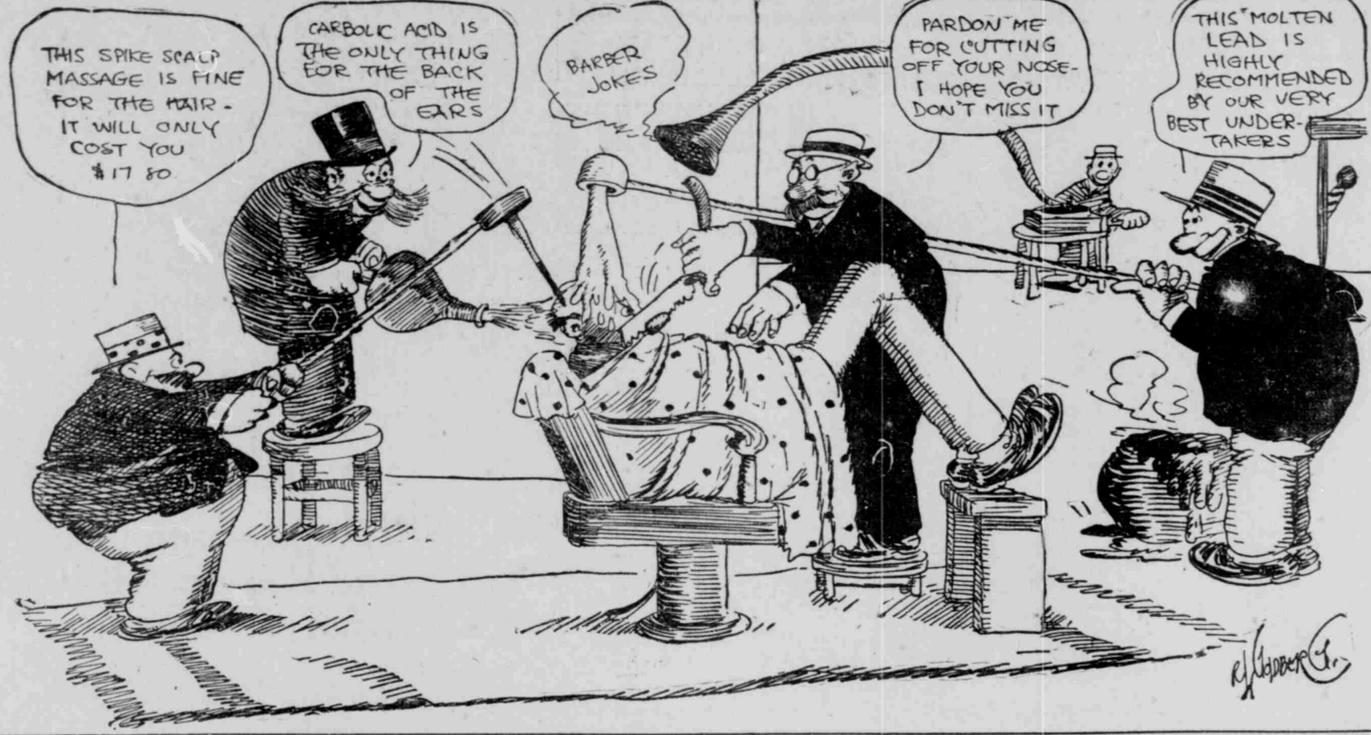

Grand Rapids 010 000 020—3 6 1 Terre Haute . . . 100 000 000—1 3 1 Bowman and Lake; Gilbert and Hargrove, Umpire—Flynn.

Pittsburgh Takes a Lead of Four Runs in the First Inning and Are Never Headed During the Contest.

PHILADELPHIA, July 12.—Pittsburgh made a clean sweep of the series of four games here, the visitors winning Friday by 7 to 2. The affair was devoid of interest owing to the Pittsburgh team taking a lead of four runs in the first inning on three passes by Marshall, singles by Butler and J. Miller and an error by Lobert. Hendrix pitched in fine form and seldom had to extend himself to prevent the home players from scoring.

Manager Dooin again shifted his outfielders and stationed Magee on first base, owing to an injury to Luderus' arm, in an effort to strike a winning combination.

Pittsburgh . . . 400 001 110—7 9 2 Philadelphia . . . 000 001 010—2 7 3 Hendrix and McCarthy; Marshall, Rixey and Howley, Umpires, Brennan and Eason.

Benton Pitches Great Ball Against Brooklyn Until the Eighth When Three Men Score.

BROOKLYN, July 12.—Cincinnati, winning again Friday by 5 to 3, took all four games of the series with Brooklyn. Benton pitched shutout ball up to the eighth inning, when, with Cuthbert out, Wheat was safe on Groh's high throw after a good stop. Doubert tripled, Smith doubled and Fisher singled, three runs resulting.

Tinker tripled off Yingling in the second and scored on Groh's out. Devoe singled in the third and advanced on Beecher's double, but on Marsans's grounder to Smith was out at the plate. Marsans stole second and scored with Beecher on Dodger's single. Groh's single, Clark's triple and Benton's hit added two more runs in the fourth and Yingling was replaced by Stack, who blanked the visitors during the remainder of the game.

Cincinnati . . . 012 200 000—5 13 2 Brooklyn . . . 000 000 030—3 8 3 Benton and Clark; Yingling, Stack and Miller and Fischer, Umpires, Quigley and Emslie.

DAYTON WINS OUT IN TENTH INNING

Singles by DeHaven and Sykes and a Pass to Wickland Defeats Springfield.

DAYTON, July 12.—Singles by DeHaven and Sykes, a pass to Wickland and Martin's sacrifice fly gave Dayton a two to one victory over Springfield in the tenth inning Friday.

Springfield . . . 000 000 100—1 5 3 Dayton . . . 000 000 100 1—2 9 1 Merchant and Snyder; Pieh and Warren, Umpire—Ross.

MILK WAGON HORSE IS TRACK SENSATION.

HAVING WON $15,000 ON HALF MILE TRACKS, NOTA PRIME, TRAINED BY HUSBAND AND WIFE, GOES AFTER GRAND CIRCUIT STARS.

It was the romance of a plow-horse, R. T. C., that was the talk of grand circuit after the ex-plow-horse won the M. and M. at Detroit. This year a milk wagon horse bids fair to add a parallel to harness horse racing.

It even goes the plow-horse romance one better, for it was a woman who gave Nota Prime the training that enabled the mare to graduate from the milk wagon to the race tracks. About four years ago Prime Wright, a Yankee farmer from Washington,

NOTA PRIME, THE EX-MILK-WAGON HORSE, WITH HER OWNERS AND TRAINERS, THE WRIGHTS.

Conn., and her wife, Mrs. Nota Wright, invested $125 in a likely looking colt. They named her Nota Prime—the combination of their own given names.

The principal duty of this colt was to haul milk three miles from the Wright farm to the depot. Mrs. Wright tried out the colt against other horses on the road. So did her husband, and Nota Prime beat everything in sight, even while hooked to the heavy milk wagon. A watch showed Nota Prime was doing the three miles in about nine minutes.

There was nothing left around Washington for Nota Prime to beat, so the Wrights decided to try her out on the neighboring half-mile tracks. She made good and in September, 1911, they started to campaign her. In 1912 Nota Prime won 13 races on American half-mile tracks and five on Canadian tracks, netting close to $15,000 for her owners.

This year a relative has charge of the farm and Prime and Nota have their mare on the grand circuit with every prospect of making good. She has a mark of 2:14 on half-mile tracks.

INTERSTATE LEAGUE IS GROWING STRONGER

Erie and Youngstown Only Teams That Are Making Money—Dawson May Resign.

With Erie and Youngstown the only clubs in the Interstate league that are drawing crowds, the existence of the Central's sister circuit is threatened. Wheeling, Canton and Zanesville have been losing money for their owners all season and all of these clubs threaten to blow up.

Thursday, the Wheeling magnates tried to test just how much the fans of Smoketown cared for baseball and staged a booster day. Only 500 bugs turned out to show their appreciation of the national pastime and there is now talk to the effect that the Stogies will be transferred. Newark, O., and Jamestown, N. Y., are mentioned as the places in line for the franchise.

At Canton, the situation is just as bad as at Wheeling. The Chinamen must be helped to the extent of $2,000 by next Monday or the franchise will

J. EVERS BANISHED; CUBS ARE ROUTED

Giants Conduct Merry Slaughter, Getting a Total of 22 Hits and Seven Passes Off Chicago Twirlers.

NEW YORK, July 12.—The New Yorks overwhelmed their old rivals, the Chicago Cubs, at the Polo grounds Friday 14 to 4. The locals hit Lavender, Pierce and Richie for 22 hits and drew seven passes. Including hits, passes and errors, 22 New Yorkers reached first base.

Chicago started with a four run lead, but soon fell to pieces after Manager Evers was ordered from the field in the third inning for disputing Umpire Byron's decision calling Cooper safe on a steal. Chicago hammered Tesreau hard, but could do nothing with Fromme. Doyle had three hits and two passes in five times up and scored four runs. Fletcher and Murray each made four hits. The

YANKS TAKE TO THE SLANTS OF O'BRIEN

Chicago, July 12.—New York played a gripping game today and defeated Chicago 11 to 1. Buck O'Brien, the former Boston twirler, made his debut in a Chicago uniform and was hit so hard that he had to retire in favor of White.

With White pitching the game became a farce, the visitors scoring seven runs before a man was retired. C. Smith was sent to the rescue and he had little difficulty in preventing New York from scoring.

The locals were saved a shutout when doubles by Chase and Bodie netted a lone score. Keating was almost invincible, Callahan's men getting five hits, only two of which were bunched. Cree hit the ball over the left field fence for a home run with the bases full.

New York . . . 003 017 000—11 17 0 Chicago . . . 010 000 000—1 5 4 Keating and J. Smith; O'Brien, White, C. Smith and Schalk and Kuhn, Umpires, Evans and Sheridan.

The Elliott Giants will go to Shipshewana Sunday to meet the Grays of that place. Teams wanting games with the Giants should address Manager, 118 S. Polk st., or phone Bell 757 or Home 5629.

Chicago fielding feature was a marvelous running catch by Miller off Mearle in the seventh inning.

Chicago . . . 022 000 000—4 8 6 New York . . . 003 023 008—14 22 1 Lavender, Pierce, Richie and Bresnahan; Tesreau, Fromme and Wilson, Meyers, Hartley, Umpires, Rigler and Byron.

RATTLING GOOD GAMES ON TODAY

Factory League Teams Matched for Hard Battles for Pennant—Double Header at Singers.

Battles royal were scheduled at every diamond where the six teams in the factory league met in the struggle for the News-Times pennant Saturday afternoon. Two highest teams in the circuit in a double-header, the two in the central division and the tail-enders were matched and every manager was confident.

Probably the game to attract the most attention was the one between Singers and Studebakers at the sewing machine park. The Singers are fighting to keep the lead and a perfect score, while the Wagonmakers were eager to overhaul their opponents. This will probably be a pitchers battle.

For the leaders, Davidson will work in the first game, while Yocke will represent his team in the second. Manager Richards of the invaders is sure that he is going to win one of the games. He figures that if he wins the first one, the second is liable to come his way. "Louie" Segety, manager of the Singers, looks at things in a different light and expects to grab off both games, as he has two good hurlers to throw for him. Snips Schafer will pitch the second game of the afternoon.

At Springbrook, the Plowboys and Watchmakers will hook up and this is going to be some game at that. George Casaday, the leader of the Plow Co. nine, has several new men on his roster and with Cliff Cassidy in the box, he should be able to break into the "won" side of the column.

Over in our sister city, the Dodge and Ball Bands will fight out their differences. Not because it will change their positions any, no matter who wins, but just for the simple reason that both are Mishawaka teams is each desirous of winning. The rivalry there is pretty hot and they are both going in to find out which is the best in the town.

BEN KOEHLER MAY GO UP TO MAJORS

With Ben Koehler playing the game of his life this year with Grand Rapids, batting .336 and standing fifth in the league, reports are circulating around that he is slated for another rise to the majors. Not only that, but it is said that Manager Ed Smith has already turned down a couple of offers for his services.

Ben has been up once. That was in 1903 and 1905 with the St. Louis Americans. He started his baseball career right here in South Bend in 1901 and the following year was sent to Battle Creek. The next two years saw him playing with Atlanta of the Southern league. Then he made his rise to the big show, staying there for two years.

After these two years he was shifted back to the minors, going to St. Paul. In 1908 he came to South Bend and stayed here until the close of the season last year and then became a member of the Grand Rapids crew.
