BULL MOOSE SAVES MAN FROM DROWNING

Man was Hanging to a Log When Animal Came Along and Gave Him a Lift.

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, Minn., Aug. 4.—A thrilling escape from drowning in Rainy river, near Fort Francis, Ont., by catching hold of the antlers of a big bull moose, which was swimming across the river, was the experience Monday of Clyde W. Buell, Minneapolis, a junior academic student of the state university.

Buell was out on a raft of logs which after striking a jam disintegrated and clinging to a single piece of timber Buell was carried toward the rapids. He had given up hope when he saw the moose with its head and antlers above water swimming from the rapids. Buell let loose of his log and grabbed the moose, shifted himself to the animal's back and rode to shallow water. The moose fought hard but would sink beneath the water and soon gave up and swam ashore.

BOY FATALLY WOUNDS HIS YOUNG PLAYMATE

Is the Third Shooting in Chicago Involving Small Boys in Four Days.

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—Angelo Roggo, five, was shot and probably fatally wounded Monday by his playmate, Tony Acady, six. The shooting was the third involving small boys within four days. Efforts of the police to question the Acady boy were unsuccessful. He burst into tears at every question.

The two boys were left alone to play in the kitchen of the Acady home while their mothers were "visiting." A little later the Roggo lad was found lying on the floor with a pistol wound in his back. Young Acady fled, but later was captured. The revolver with which the shooting was done belonged to the boy's father.

TEMPORARY MORTGAGE OF $30,000 IS PLACED

Loan Made to Enable the Y. M. C. A. to Pay For New Boys' Building.

A loan of $30,000 by the Y. M. C. A. from Myron Campbell, trustee, has been secured by a mortgage on the new building for the boys' department which has just been filed for record.

The loan was authorized at a joint meeting of the board of directors and trustees on July 21 in order to pay the contractors as the building is nearing completion. The amount is covered by pledges obtained during the campaign for funds which was held just before work on the boys' building was begun. These pledges, however, are not due for some time, but the mortgage is intended as temporary to meet the expenses until the pledges are collected.

INDIANA MAY BE RICH IN 210 YEARS.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 5.—Because the ten states to which he made offers of gifts of 1,000 each last winter have either neglected to answer or been slow to take up the proposition, Adolph Melzer, philanthropist and friend of animals, of this city, has withdrawn his offer and instead will make the state of Indiana a gift of $5,000 to be invested in such a way that in 210 years it will amount to $20,500,000. The entire amount is to be devoted to the relief of dumb animals. Melzer's correspondence with Gov. Ralston is not completed. The Evansville man proposes to deposit his money in any bank named by the governor, to revert to him if the next legislature does not pass the necessary bill legalizing the proposed transaction.

RURAL CARRIER IS CHASED BY A RACER

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Aug. 5.—Rollyn Barnes, rural route carrier from the Shelbyville postoffice, when delivering mail on a motorcycle, ran over the head of a blue racer. He was horrified to see the snake seemingly racing after him. He attempted to outrun the reptile, but found that impossible. Dismounting, he found a club, but the reptile had been dead for sometime. Its head had been caught in the sprocket of his machine and was mashed to a pulp.

SAMUEL DIXON,
Candidate for Councilman in the Fourth Ward.

The legislative powers of a city are vested in the city council. This body passes upon franchises and other matter of the highest importance to the people. Many cities have suffered from the ignorance and lack of qualifications of its councilmen. A city of our size needs councilmen of the highest caliber, honesty, energy, judgment and courage to stand for the right. No man is entitled to sit in the city council who is dishonest, a weakling or a trimmer.

No man in the fourth ward has higher or better qualifications for this position than Samuel Dixon of River Park. He will be a credit to the city and the people who elect him. His friends are rallying to his support and we freely predict that he will sit in the next city council.

A vote for him is a step toward good government.—Advertisement.

JOHN A. HANS

Candidate For Democratic Councilman-at-Large.

JOHN A. HANS.

Experience is an undenied teacher, and this is one claim on which John A. Hans, councilman of the First ward, makes claim to being fitted for the office of councilman-at-large, and for which he asks the voters of the city to nominate him at the Democratic primary next Wednesday.

As councilman of the First ward he has made a record for looking strictly after the interests of the taxpayers of his ward, and in securing recognition of a number of improvements that were badly needed in that part of the city. As a councilman he made an efficient representative of the people and promises to carry out a similar policy for all the people so far as lies in his power, if nominated and elected councilman-at-large.

Mr. Hans has a wide acquaintance, and during his term as councilman he has given close attention to municipal affairs and is now qualified by experience to carry out the duties of the office to which he aspires. He is a friend of the wage-earner and any promise that he makes in this line there is every assurance that he will diligently carry it out if placed in office.

He favors the progress and advancement of the city and believes in every department being conducted along strictly business lines, but at the same time as economically as possible and in just accord with the city finances without adding burden to the taxpayer.

Mr. Hans was born in Mishawaka in 1860 and is 52 years old. For 27 years he has worked as a blacksmith at the South Bend Plow Works and is a laborer and knows what it is to do a good day's work for a good day's pay. He has been a life-long democrat and his father before him was affiliated with the same party. He has had four years experience as a member of the council and is well informed as to municipal affairs and conduct of civic business.
