

LOWER DUTY ON CHEAP MACHINES

Much Progress is Made in the Senate When Automobile and Metal Schedules Are Up For Action.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Senate democrats succeeded Tuesday for the first time in speeding up consideration of the tariff bill, making considerable progress in the metal schedule despite protests of Senators Oliver, Smith of Michigan, Cummins and Smoot against many of the rates. Chief opposition centered in the rates on automobiles which the committee fixed at 15 per cent on cars valued at $1,000 or less, 30 per cent on cars valued at more than $1,000, and less than $1,500, 45 per cent on cars valued at $1,500 and over and 50 per cent on automobiles parts. Senators Cummins and Smoot both insisted that the rates on completed cars would be useless, because all foreign cars would be brought in at the 30 per cent rate, in parts. Sen. Thomas, for the finance committee, said he could see no calamity if all automobiles came in at 30 per cent. The other rates, Sen. Cummins asserted, were a "mere pretense" and he advocated a flat duty on all automobiles of 25 per cent. Sen. Williams remarked "There are a lot of fools in this country that will insist upon completed and ill-omened birds, thinking they are better, and these rates are fixed for them." The rates were not changed.

No Increase on Iron. Efforts of Sen. Oliver also were unavailing to increase the rates on iron products. His argument was that bar iron was more costly of production than the conversion of steel from pig iron. Before consideration of the schedule began Sen. Saulsbury of Delaware, discussed the tariff generally, predicting success for the bill and assailing protection and socialism as "Twin evils and ill-omened birds." Sen. Brandegee sought to amend the automobile rates by making the rates on chassis equal to the rates on finished cars, 45 per cent on chassis of high priced cars, 30 per cent on chassis of cars valued at $1,000 or less than $1,500 and 10 per cent on chassis of cars valued at less than $1,000. The amendment was lost 45 to 21. Senators Bristow, Crawford, Gronna, Jones, Sherman and Sterling of the minority, voting with the democrats against it. The committee rates were then approved.

The 25 per cent rate on bicycles and motorcycles at once was agreed to. Axles at ten per cent, blacksmith's tools and bolts at five per cent and nuts and washers at ten per cent encountered no effective opposition. Other rates approved were nut locks, 25 per cent; chains of iron and steel, 20 per cent; sprocket chains, 25 per cent; welded steel tubes, pipes, etc., 20 per cent; sword blades and side arms, 30 per cent.

An amendment by Sen. Gallinger to substitute the Payne-Aldrich rates for the proposed rates on table knives and such cutlery was voted down, 45 to 17, the committee rates of 20 per cent and 30 per cent prevailing. Sen. Gallinger said that even under the existing rates domestic manufacturers had difficulty meeting foreign competition.

MAN ACCUSED BY GIRLS IS ACQUITTED
Chicago Millionaire Produces Alibi Covering His Movements For the Day.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—Vigorous denial of the charges made against him by two little girls was made Tuesday by David G. Maxwell, a wealthy box manufacturer on trial before Judge Gemmill. "Their statements are absolutely false," Through his own testimony and that of other witnesses Maxwell produced an alibi covering the entire afternoon and evening of July 29 when he is accused of having taken the girls into his home, incidentally the charges for a united party began to wane still more.

WANT VOTERS TO PICK THE NEW POSTMASTER
With Alleged Announcement That Bell Will be Barred, Trouble Starts Anew.

ELKHART, Ind., Aug. 6.—With the alleged announcement accredited to a prominent democrat organization leader to the effect that James A. Bell, a well-known anti-organization man would be barred from the coming democratic city convention, the postoffice agitation broke out afresh Tuesday and incidentally the chances for a united party began to wane still more. "Mark my word there is going to be something doing mighty soon, goath and an end to high standing Tuesday." "We have not heard a thing from Mr. Barnhart for several days and if he is letting this matter slide along thinking that we will get whipped into line, he is mistaken. We are going to have an election for the postmastership here or not an anti will support the ticket this fall." "No postmaster election, no support of the city ticket" seem to be the slogan of the so-called faction.

BUSINESS MEN WILL AID IN HOME COMING

ELKHART, Ind., Aug. 6.—A home coming week project, advanced by the Willis concert band, was given a decided boost Tuesday night when the Elkhart Business Men's association decided to co-operate with the musicians and make the event one of the most notable in the history of the city.

It is probable that the last week in September will be the date of the event. A band tournament, water carnivals, sports of all kinds and numerous other good things are on the program.

JUDGE WALKER IS DEAD

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 6.—Judge C. Walker, 75 years old, a former judge of the Marion county superior court and a prominent republican, died at his home here Tuesday. Mr. Walker came to Indianapolis in 1873. He had previously lived in Richmond, Ind., and served two terms as a member of the state legislature. During the time he was a member of the legislature Mr. Walker was chairman of the judiciary committee and was influential in the revision of the divorce laws of the state.

MISSING GIRL FOUND IN A VACANT HOUSE

Hidden in Closet Sunday and recently Varnished Door Refused to Open.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—After being locked in the closet of a vacant house for nearly 72 hours, five-year-old Annie Newman was released from her prison Tuesday afternoon. She was so weak from the want of food that it is feared she will die. Their was a belief that she had been stolen by gypsies. Together with several playmates, the child was playing "hide and seek" on Saturday afternoon in a vacant house, four doors from her home at East Chicago, Ind. She hid in the closet and closed the door which had been recently varnished.

She was found by a real estate agent who was showing prospective buyers through the house. The door had stuck and the girl had been unable to open it.
