

CAR STRIKE GROWS AS MORE MEN JOIN RANKS OF UNION

Traction Officials Assert Ninety Percent of Regular Traffic Schedules Being Maintained Despite Lack of Men.

UNION MEN ASSERT CARS ONLY RUN AROUND Y

Not a Passenger Car Has Left Logansport Since Friday Night and Blockade Not to be Lifted Today.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 25.—Fully 90 per cent of the regular traffic schedules on interurban lines was maintained Sunday, the second day of the strike of motormen and conductors on four electric railroads in the state...

As on Saturday, two policemen rode each car to the city limits and returned on the next in-bound car. Union men declared that the policemen were riding farther and preventing their organizers talking with the trainmen in an endeavor to induce them to go in the strike.

Two men who had joined the strike called at the traction headquarters Sunday and asked to be permitted to return to work, according to the interurban owners.

Union men assert that cars were run out of the traction station here today to the Y, turned round and returned to the sheds as if they had just come in from a run. They say this is resorted to give the appearance of maintaining the schedules.

At a meeting of the union Sunday afternoon, C. E. Perry and William Maloney were elected delegates to the local Central Labor union. They will attend the meeting of the central body and report on the progress of the strike Monday night.

Blockade Continues. LOGANSPORT, Ind., Aug. 25.—For 48 hours the tie-up on the Indiana Union Traction lines in this city has been complete and indications Sunday night are that the blockade will not be raised Monday.

Not a passenger car has left this city since Friday night and at the station here it was announced Sunday night that no effort will be made to move the cars Monday.

At no point on the I. U. T. has the suspension of traffic necessitated by the strike of the train side crews caused more annoyance. Striking I. U. T. motormen and conductors who reside here went to Peru Sunday to perfect the organization there if possible.

WILL KEEP JOHNSON OFF LONDON STAGE

Negro's Bragging Talk Turns Manager Against Him.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The Music Hall "Artists Federation" won a victory when Henry Tozer announced that "Jack" Johnson, negro pugilist, would not appear Monday night as advertised. Tozer said he did not care to put Johnson on after reading Johnson's bragging interviews in the newspapers.

MAN SUFFRAGET GIVEN FOUR LOVELY NECKTIES

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Alfred H. Brown will start a tour of the state Monday night as a representative of the Men's League for Women's Suffrage, and to show that they appreciate his efforts, the women presented him part of his "going away costume."

Brown attended four separate suffrage teas and at each one was given a new necktie. One is blue and white, another yellow and black, a third of white satin, embroidered in yellow with "votes for women," and the fourth, the crowning creation, is of purple, green and white.

'SHOULD WORRY' SAYS HARRY THAW

Remarks That He Escaped Death Chair Twice and is Not Fearful of Going Back to Matteawan.

SHERBROOKE, Que., Aug. 25.—Harry K. Thaw, reconciled with his Canadian lawyers to the procedure to be followed on Wednesday, when, according to present plans, he will be arraigned in the superior court on a writ of habeas corpus, spent a restless Sunday in the Sherbrooke jail, and announced that no matter if Wm. Travers Jerome did take charge of New York state's case, he (Thaw) was not fearful of the outcome.

"I faced the death chair twice," said Thaw. "Why should I worry about going back to Matteawan?" Sunday Thaw said he had not summoned the Pittsburgh detective, Roger O'Mara. Subsequently he amended this. "I expect to see Roger," he admitted.

Wants Publicity. Thaw's lawyers brought about a truce in the breach that far a time threatened by agreeing to let Thaw manage the "publicity" end of his case.

He has been told that he is likely to be deported to Vermont after the immigration authorities take him into custody, and he made a request for a list of the leading newspapers of that state.

"I may have some very important statements to give them," he said. Two conferences—in one of which Thaw participated—were held Sunday by the Thaw lawyers. The chief counsel, Mr. Greenshields, was absent. He will not return from Montreal until Monday. But Charles D. White, W. C. McKown, Col. Harry Fraser, ex-Gov. Wm. A. Stone of Pennsylvania, and W. A. Blakely of Pittsburgh, district attorney of Allegheny county, spent a good part of the day in going over the ground.

Mr. Blakely said he came as a personal friend of the Thaw family.

PORTE IS FIRM FOR ADRIANOPLE

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The sublime porte has opened direct negotiations with the Bulgarian delegate, M. Nochevitch, who has remained in Constantinople since he went there at the outbreak of the second war to negotiate an understanding with Turkey. It is understood that the porte remains firm with regard to Adrianople and Kirk Kilissh, but is prepared to make concessions in other quarters.

Pierre Loti, the French writer, under Constantinople date, sends to the Daily Telegraph a vivid story of his impressions on visiting Adrianople and the surrounding districts. Mr. Loti says:

"The Bulgarians have made of Thrace a desert surpassing in abomination everything I had been told, and all that I imagined. With what fury these Christian liberators worked in order to accomplish so much destruction in a few months."

He describes orgies and massacres and violation and desecration in all the Turkish villages and asserts that Adrianople itself only escaped by a miracle, because the Turks arrived a day earlier than was expected and so defeated the Bulgarian plans for a similar massacre there.

FASHIONABLE HOUSE FOR AMBASSADOR PAGE

Dukes and Lords and Earls Are Near Neighbors of American Envoy.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—U. S. Ambassador Walter Page, housed at Clarence's since he arrived in London, has been negotiating for an ultra-fashionable residence in Grosvenor square, one of the most exclusive neighborhoods.

His immediate neighbors will be the Duke of Manchester on one side and Lord Farquhar on the other, with houses owned by the Duke of Portland, Earl Fitzwilliams, Lord Haversham and Lady Vincent nearby.

He will not state the annual rental but said it was "not excessive." He will take possession the last of September.

RAINS AND MODERATE TEMPERATURES FOR WEEK

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Moderate temperatures throughout the coming week, except in the far southwest, and irregular local rains were forecast Sunday for the coming week by Chief Marvin of the weather bureau. The weekly forecast says:

"The distribution of atmospheric pressure over the northern hemisphere is such as to indicate a continuance of moderate temperatures for the season the coming week in all parts of the country except the far southwest where readings will be above normal.

EARLY TO BED AND EARLY TO RISE IS BURLESON MOTTO

However, Postmaster General Doesn't Always Go Right to Sleep But Reads in Bed Sometimes.

BY BURTON K. STANDISH WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Postmaster Gen. Burleson is one of those "early to bed; early to rise" fellows. When Frank H. Hitchcock was postmaster general, he never got down to his office before about noon, and he never left there until the wee sma' hours of the morning. Burleson has reversed the process.

"I get up every morning about 5 o'clock, but I'm in bed all the time, and resting. As soon as I get up in the morning, I read the papers and eat breakfast at 6 o'clock. By 9 I am at my office. I never eat lunch and work right through until 5 o'clock when I call it a day unless as something detains me. Apparently the system is a good one, because I thrive on it."

Burleson is now wearing his justly famous crinkly summer clothes. When he was in congress his colleagues used to remark that they hadn't thought possible for a man to get so many wrinkles in a light linen suit as Burleson did. However, cool the Texan may look in his airy clothes, the effect it destroyed by his persistent wearing of a black felt "pill-box" sort of a hat.

Stephenson's Memoirs. Isaac Stephenson of Wisconsin is writing his memoirs. That is, the senator, who admits that he could never star as a literary person, has employed an able assistant to write them for him.

They should prove interesting "copy" when completed for Stephenson is the Croesus of the senate, its oldest member, and the last of the old lumber barons of the Northwest, who went into the Wisconsin and Michigan woods penniless and came out rich beyond the wildest dreams.

Stephenson is 74, a fact about which he is proud to boast. He is always ready with advice to young men on how to get rich, but his advice is of the sterling, pioneer kind which includes a course in "back to nature," and some regular muscular work.

He never does much work around the senate, although he is on the job regularly. He slumps in his chair and chews tobacco faithfully during his waking moments, and votes say on any question that the old republican guard favors. Back home in Marinette, Wis., he has a yacht, some automobiles and a couple of lumber factories. At various places in the upper peninsula and in Canada, Wis., he has paper mills and other plants.

And all of these, including a giant office building in Milwaukee, came from lumber. Sen. Stephenson started as a cook at $18 a month in a lumber camp, sixty-two years ago. Today he doesn't know how much money he has—and brags about his ignorance.

McReynolds a Bachelor. The single blessedness of Atty. Gen. McReynolds is worrying capital matrons with marriageable daughters not a little bit. Sen. McReynolds says, "My bachelorhood is due to the exceeding wisdom of the women of my acquaintance," was the way the attorney general defended himself to a friend who recently twitted him about his never having married.

SUNDAY SONGS MAKE MEDLEY

At Next Band Concert at Court House Interesting Production Will Be Given.

The work of compiling and arranging a number of songs which were most popular during the recent Billy Sunday revival campaign has been completed and the medley will be produced by Elbel's band at the concert next Saturday evening at the court house square. The medley contains 12 songs and it will require about 15 minutes to play them.

It is introduced with the arrival of the band at the tabernacle playing, "Onward Christian Soldiers," which is followed by extracts from the little red song book, "Great Revival Hymns," in the following order:

No. 5, "True Hearted—Whole Hearted"; No. 33, "All the Way for Jesus"; No. 17, "Sall On"; No. 72, "The Light of His Wonderful Love"; No. 113, "Jesus Is Calling"; "The Brewers' Big Horses' Can't Run Over Me"; No. 131, "All Hail Immanuel"; No. 307, "We're Marching to Zion"; No. 105, "Shall We Gather at the River?"; No. 103, "At the Cross"; No. 108, "The Hallelujah Song"; and, No. 22, "I Am Coming Home."

That latter is embellished by inserting "The Star Spangled Banner" for one section of the band during the song. It required a great deal of study and labor to complete this arrangement, which was done by a member of the band, who is quite modest about it and wishes his name withheld.

"THE TANGO CURVE" FOOLS THE ELKHART BLUE SOX

Howlett's Clowns, a bunch of comedian ball players from Detroit, proved tantalizing puzzles to Elkhart's prided Blue Sox Sunday and the Sox went down to defeat, 9 to 4. All of the visitors were attired in clown costume and gave the seven hundred fans present. A novel exhibition of high class baseball and comedy.

Henroin, the visitor's pitcher claimed that his new curve "the tango" was responsible for the victory.

Thaw's Legal Battery

TO BRING CHARGE OF CONSPIRACY

Sulzer "War Board" in New Move Will Attempt Indictment of Several Members of New York Legislature.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 25.—An effort will be made this week, according to confidantes of Gov. Sulzer, to procure the indictment of several members of the legislature who were most active in the impeachment of the governor, and also of certain men high in Tammany hall who are not officially connected with the legislature. One of the charges, it is said, will be criminal conspiracy.

This is the latest strategic move of the Sulzer "war board" as outlined Sunday by Judge Lynn J. Arnold, one of Gov. Sulzer's most trusted advisers. During the last ten days lawyers who volunteered to assist Gov. Sulzer have been busily engaged gathering evidence, touching this alleged conspiracy and it was announced Sunday that they had procured sufficient data to justify them in placing the matter in the hands of Dist. Atty. Whitman of New York with a demand for an impeachment trial.

Gov. Sulzer spent a quiet day at the executive mansion. Mrs. Sulzer's condition continues to improve. Acting Gov. Glynn was at his summer home on the Hudson throughout the day. Mr. Glynn's adherents derided the latest move of the Sulzer forces and declared that it would prove absolutely ineffective.

When they were brought in again Monday morning Judge Steis delivered a lecture to the men that brought tears to their eyes. He reminded them that they had a mother who had not brought them up to be drunkards. Fitzgerald was again told to go to his room. "This time he will get there for a policeman will be sent along with them."

Anderson's case was held over until Tuesday morning. In the meantime it is probable that arrangements will be made to send him to some institution.

Carried Concealed Weapons. Joseph Szarka was given the minimum fine for carrying concealed weapons, $5 and costs.

CHARGES SAND WAS STOLEN AT NIGHT

Attorney General Honan Files Suit Against Lake Sand Company in Laporte Court. LAPORTE, Aug. 25.—Atty. Gen. Honan has brought action in the Laporte circuit court against the Lake Sand Co., an Illinois corporation, alleging the illegal taking of sand from along the lake front between Chicago and Michigan City, and asking for a restraining order and a permanent injunction. It is alleged that this company, with others, has been operating barges under cover of darkness and by means of suction pumps have drawn the sand from the lake bottom until the beach has been materially damaged, that deep holes have been made and that human life has been endangered in consequence. Atty. Gen. Honan contends that the state has control of the shore line under the supervision of the United States government.

DECLARE MULHALL CHARGES WERE FALSE

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 25.—The charges made before the senatorial investigating committee by Martin M. Mulhall against Frank Feeny, a labor leader of this city, were declared to be "false and without foundation" in a committee report accepted by the Central Labor union here Sunday. The committee was appointed last month to investigate charges that Feeny had been on Mulhall's payroll and had assisted him to break a printers' strike in this city.

LAPICO BOUND OVER FOR SHOOTING MAN

Men Who Broke Promise to Refrain from Drink Given Severe Lecture by Steis.

Dominick Lapico, who shot Joe Staltare, was bound over to the grand jury of the circuit court from police court Monday morning. His bond was fixed at $500. An echo of the latter advertising case that was in court last week was heard in the Lapico case. When the lottery case came up it was dismissed and a new affidavit filed. No arrest was made and the attorneys for the defense raised an objection.

JUDGE BRINGS TEARS TO EYES OF PRISONERS

Affidavit Attached and Withdraw and Man Is Rearrested in Court.

Andrew Anderson and Pierce Fitzgerald were in court again Monday morning for being drunk. Both of them were up Saturday on the same charge. They promised by all that was great and good that they would not drink again. Fitzgerald was ordered to go back to Cassopolis at that time.

When they were brought in again Monday morning Judge Steis delivered a lecture to the men that brought tears to their eyes. He reminded them that they had a mother who had not brought them up to be drunkards. Fitzgerald was again told to go to his room. "This time he will get there for a policeman will be sent along with them."

GIVES THREE PLAYERS AND $15,000 FOR OUTFIELDER

Kansas City Slugger Goes to St. Louis at Fancy Figure. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 25.—C. Walker, Kansas City Blues' outfielder, belongs to the Browns, following the biggest baseball deal ever pulled by Pres. Hedzes in which he says he gave Mack Allison, Peter Compton and Bunny Brief and a wad of cash estimated at $15,000 for the outfielder. Walker, a Washington discard, is champion extra base slugger of the American association. He has made 143 hits and scored 83 runs in 594 times at bat.

FORBES MIFFED OVER NAMING OF HARRISON

Governor General of Philippines Sends in His Resignation and Will Quit in Week. MANILA, Aug. 25.—W. Cameron Forbes, governor general of the Philippines, since Nov., 1909, today sent his resignation to Washington. It is effective Sept. 1, when Forbes will leave for the United States. It was only Saturday, Forbes says, that he was apprised of the appointment of Francis Burton Harrison of New York as the new Philippine governor and he is admittedly a little "miffed."

HIGMAN PARK INN BURNS TO GROUND

Fire Department at Benton Harbor Refuses Aid as There Was No Water on Ground—Guests All Escaped.

While the guests at Higman Park Inn, near Benton Harbor, were sleeping soundly at 5 o'clock Monday morning, fire broke out and burned the building to the ground. All of the guests dressed and hurried from the building before the fire gained much headway.

The fire was the most spectacular ever seen at the Lake Michigan summer resort. In the gory dawn of the early morning, the blaze started and burned for an hour. Cottagers and people who were staying at the hotel fought the fire but were unable to stop it. There is but one fire tank at the park and there was only a small amount of water in this. Handcapped by the lack of water supply the volunteer fire fighters could do nothing and it was necessary to form a bucket brigade and carry water to the burning building.

Calls were sent to the Benton Harbor fire department, but the companies at that place are said to have refused to go to the assistance of the people at Higman park. The chief of the fire department said that it would be impossible to fight the fire without water and would not send his trucks out.

Several prominent men who make their summer homes at Higman park went to Benton Harbor in automobiles and almost begged the brigade and carry water to the burning building.

The damage done to the building will run between $5,000 and $6,000. Manager Flood, however, immediately announced tentative plans for a new building on the site of the burned structure.

LOTS OF OLD AND NEW AMERICANS COMING IN

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Immigration officials were swamped Monday when liners arrived with 2,733 returning tourists and 5,067 steerage passengers aboard. Before night other steamships are expected with 2,996 cabin and 4,690 steerage passengers.

CARMEN SYLVIA'S NEPHEW NEW PRINCE OF ALBANIA?

VIENNA, Aug. 25.—A message from Bucharest Monday said that the powers have agreed to accept the prince of Wied, nephew of Carmen Sylvia, queen of Romania, as ruler of Albania. The prince was born in 1873 and is a Protestant. He married Princess Pauline of Wurtemberg in 1898.

EDISON ON VACATION

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—When Thomas A. Edison joined his family near Boston today for an automobile tour through New England, he started his first vacation in two years.

WENT TO PRISON FOR DRUG CURE

Former Laporte Boy Seeking Pardon in Colorado for a Crime He Never Committed. Said He Wrecked Train.

LAPORTE, Aug. 25.—Declaring that he confessed to wrecking a train at Fowler, Colo., in October, 1903, in order that he might be placed where he would be cured of the drug habit, Tommy Gerbick, a former Laporte boy, is seeking a pardon from the pardon board of Colorado, where he is serving a life term in the Colorado state prison. The young man said that he had become a slave to the drug habit and that realizing he would never quit the habit as long as he was able to get the drug he got himself placed in prison to keep from wrecking his life. Now that he has been without the drug for several years he is seeking a pardon, saying that he is cured of the habit.

The crime for which Gerbick was committed occurred on the Santa Fe railroad. Shortly afterwards a hobo was arrested and was identified by a number of persons as a man found near the scene of the wreck acting suspiciously. Ragged and worn out by traveling, the man had no spirit and through the trial, which was held in a short time, he never uttered a word in defense. He served sentence from 1903 until 1909, when he died in prison, his lips still closed.

Bragged of Crime. About a year afterwards a sailor named Gerbick, or Gerbrush as he was known then, left a United States training ship at Portland, and while drunk and under the influence of cocaine, bragged that it was he that wrecked the Santa Fe train seven years before.

He said, "I am the man who wrecked the Santa Fe train at Fowler, Colo. I'm the man some other man is doing time for. I'm the other man who pulled the spikes from the ties on the night of October 31, 1903. I'm the man the Colorado authorities want."

In explanation of this assertion he now says: "After the dope began to leave my system and while I was desperately fighting the craving for it, I realized that if I went free I would return to the old life of drug dreams. I was determined to say nothing until I had been cured of the habit. Only God knows what the keeping of that resolution cost me. But it has remained me and now I want to prove my innocence."

Gerbick says that he does not regret the three years which he has served in prison. He hopes now that he has broken himself of the awful habit he will be able to get his liberty. Harry B. Darling, secretary of the Indiana state board of pardons, has become interested in the case. He in Omaha recently saw the secretary of the Colorado board and interceded in behalf of the boy.

Gerbick is remembered here as a red haired, barefooted boy. His father was yardmaster on the Lake Shore railroad. He went west several years ago, before that time working at the Rumely factory.

MERCURY GOES ONE DEGREE LOWER AGAIN

Falling back to the low mark for the summer, Sunday the silver thread in the thermometer found its way to the 55-degree mark, one point below the minimum for Friday. At 6 o'clock in the evening it was again falling toward the same point, recording 59 above, while at 7 o'clock an official record showed it at the 54-degree mark and promising to fall even lower before morning.

TO PROBE SHOOTING OF AMERICAN MISSIONARY

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 25.—Lewis Heck, acting vice consul, on orders from the U. S. embassy, started for Armenia Monday to investigate the murder of the Rev. Charles H. Holbrook of Lynn, Mass., an American missionary.

BABY IS SWIMMER

FLUSHING, L. I.—Katherine Brown, three years ago, daughter of a champion long distance swimmer, won a medal for fancy diving and swimming.
