

CONSULAR AGENT NOT RECOGNIZED BY GEN. BRAVO

Six Americans Executed by Federal Commander, Who Refused to Allow U. S. Representative to Interfere.

WILSON MAY GET MORE INFORMATION

Dr. Wm. Bayard Hale, Who Was in Mexico City With John Lind, is Due at Washington Tuesday.

EAGLE PASS, Tex., Aug. 31.—Gen. Bravo, federal commander at Torreón, Mex., refused to recognize the United States consular agent, George G. Carothers, when the latter protested against the recent execution of six Americans in that city, according to declarations of Frank and Milton Chissum and Andrew Odell, Americans, who arrived at Piedras Negras, "constitutionalist" headquarters, from Torreón yesterday.

NOTHING NEW

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Secy. of State Bryan upon his return today from a short lecture trip, announced that nothing had been received at the state department from Mexico City to cause any alarm or to change the diplomatic situation that exists between this government and the provisional government in Mexico City.

DR. HALE RETURNING

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, Aug. 31.—Dr. Wm. Bayard Hale, who is now on his way to Washington and should arrive there Tuesday, is expected to be back before Pres. Wilson and Secy. of State Bryan important facts in the Mexican situation which have bearing on the negotiations between the two countries.

HONOR MCCORMICKS

PARMA, Italy, Aug. 31.—The municipality has conferred honorary citizenship on Mr. and Mrs. Harold P. McCormick of Chicago, in acknowledgment of their generosity toward the erection of a monument here to Verdi.

HORSES BANISHED BY NEW YORKE OFFICE

Automobiles Will be Used Exclusively in the Future in Carrying the Mails.

LEMBER PLANT BURNS

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 31.—The plant of the Tellico River Lumber Co. near Tellico Plains was completely destroyed by fire last night. The loss is estimated at $150,000. The plant was owned by Babcock Bros. of Pittsburgh and employed 450 men.

TRIED TO GET AWAY WITH A MAIL BOX

A mail box at Circle and Washington avenues was torn from its hinges Sunday afternoon and an attempt was made to open it, but residents of that section of the city interfered and succeeded in capturing the man.

MANY OFFERING AID TO HEAD OF MEXICO

Hundreds of Persons, Including Thirty Constables, Are Injured—Hospitals Can't Care For Wounded.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 31.—A wave of patriotism appears to be sweeping over Mexico, and from many states and from all classes, it is announced, assurances of allegiance and offers of service are being received daily by Pres. Huerta and his minister of war.

ATTORNEYS PLAN FIGHT TO DEFEAT HABEAS CORPUS

Claim That It Will Not Be Sustained and That if It is an Appeal Will Keep Thaw in Canadian Jail.

PRISONER IS NOT TO FILE ANY SUIT

Signs Affidavit Freeing Boudreau of Any Blame For His Arrest—Incensed at Action Taken by Chief.

SHERBROOKE, Que., Aug. 31.—Harry K. Thaw's lawyers, swept off their feet yesterday by the sudden move of Wm. Travers Jerome in obtaining through John Boudreau, the Coaticook chief of police, a writ of habeas corpus requiring Thaw's production in the superior court here on Tuesday, spent the day in conferences and tonight gave renewed expression to their belief that the writ would not be sustained.

RIOTING RESUMED IN DUBLIN STRIKE

Wave of Patriotism Seems to be Sweeping Over Republic and Drills Are Being Held in Every City.

DUBLIN, Aug. 31.—The fierce rioting in connection with the tramway strike was renewed Sunday. Hundreds of persons including 30 constables were injured. On Saturday 60 or more persons were injured in hospitals are so crowded that many had to be sent to their homes for treatment.

TWO DROWNINGS SUNDAY; ALMOST

Man Leaps From Bridge, Another Falls Into Lake—So They Tell Reporter.

Casualties on Sunday almost reached two, according to the reports that were sent to the police station, but a foot-sore and weary reporter who reached his office at an early hour Monday morning, announced that both strokes were the work of a bunch of practical jokers.

SOLDIERS WILL LEAVE PORTER TRACK TODAY

Members of the invading army that has for the last few days been encamped on the Mineral Springs race track at Porter, Ind., are to be back home before night, according to word received Monday from Indianapolis.

PACIFIC END NOW ALMOST COMPLETE

Last Barrier to Panama Canal is Blown Away While Spectators Look On.

FALLS OFF MOTORCYCLE

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY CITY TODAY

Work Horse Parade in the Morning Promises to be One of the Best Affairs Ever Held in South Bend.

NUMEROUS PICNICS ON FOR AFTERNOON

Day Will End the Summer Season and Large Crowds Are Expected to Attend the Many Different Functions.

South Bend's wheels of commerce will shut down for an all-day holiday today, and the city will join in a grand celebration of Labor day. Stores, business houses, banks, concerns of all kinds and factories will lock their doors, giving the employes a day's vacation.

LABOR

Out of chaos, out of muck I arose and did my work While the ages changed and sped I was toiling for my bread Underneath my sturdy blows Rarest fell and cities rose And the hard, reluctant soil Blossomed richly from my toil. Palaces and temples grand I wrought I with my cunning hand, Rich indeed was my reward— Stunted soul, and body scarred With the marks of scourg and rod I, the tiller of the sod. From the cradle to the grave I slumbered through the world—a slave! Crushed and trampled, beaten, cursed, Serving best, but served the worst, Starved and cheated, gouged and spoiled, Still I builded, still I toiled, Undernourished, underpaid In the world myself had made

Up from slavery I rise, Dreams and wonder in my eyes, After brutal ages past, Coming to my own at last I was slave—but I am free! I was blind—but I can see! I, the builder, I, the maker, I, the calm tradition-breaker, Slave and serf and clod no longer, Know my strength—and who is stronger? I am done with ancient fronds, Ancient lies and ancient gods— All that sham is overthrown, I shall take and keep my own, Unimpassioned, unafraid, Master of the World I've made!

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY CITY TODAY

Work Horse Parade in the Morning Promises to be One of the Best Affairs Ever Held in South Bend.

NUMEROUS PICNICS ON FOR AFTERNOON

Day Will End the Summer Season and Large Crowds Are Expected to Attend the Many Different Functions.

South Bend's wheels of commerce will shut down for an all-day holiday today, and the city will join in a grand celebration of Labor day. Stores, business houses, banks, concerns of all kinds and factories will lock their doors, giving the employes a day's vacation.

LABOR

Out of chaos, out of muck I arose and did my work While the ages changed and sped I was toiling for my bread Underneath my sturdy blows Rarest fell and cities rose And the hard, reluctant soil Blossomed richly from my toil. Palaces and temples grand I wrought I with my cunning hand, Rich indeed was my reward— Stunted soul, and body scarred With the marks of scourg and rod I, the tiller of the sod. From the cradle to the grave I slumbered through the world—a slave! Crushed and trampled, beaten, cursed, Serving best, but served the worst, Starved and cheated, gouged and spoiled, Still I builded, still I toiled, Undernourished, underpaid In the world myself had made

Up from slavery I rise, Dreams and wonder in my eyes, After brutal ages past, Coming to my own at last I was slave—but I am free! I was blind—but I can see! I, the builder, I, the maker, I, the calm tradition-breaker, Slave and serf and clod no longer, Know my strength—and who is stronger? I am done with ancient fronds, Ancient lies and ancient gods— All that sham is overthrown, I shall take and keep my own, Unimpassioned, unafraid, Master of the World I've made!

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY CITY TODAY

Work Horse Parade in the Morning Promises to be One of the Best Affairs Ever Held in South Bend.

NUMEROUS PICNICS ON FOR AFTERNOON

Day Will End the Summer Season and Large Crowds Are Expected to Attend the Many Different Functions.

South Bend's wheels of commerce will shut down for an all-day holiday today, and the city will join in a grand celebration of Labor day. Stores, business houses, banks, concerns of all kinds and factories will lock their doors, giving the employes a day's vacation.

LABOR

Out of chaos, out of muck I arose and did my work While the ages changed and sped I was toiling for my bread Underneath my sturdy blows Rarest fell and cities rose And the hard, reluctant soil Blossomed richly from my toil. Palaces and temples grand I wrought I with my cunning hand, Rich indeed was my reward— Stunted soul, and body scarred With the marks of scourg and rod I, the tiller of the sod. From the cradle to the grave I slumbered through the world—a slave! Crushed and trampled, beaten, cursed, Serving best, but served the worst, Starved and cheated, gouged and spoiled, Still I builded, still I toiled, Undernourished, underpaid In the world myself had made

Up from slavery I rise, Dreams and wonder in my eyes, After brutal ages past, Coming to my own at last I was slave—but I am free! I was blind—but I can see! I, the builder, I, the maker, I, the calm tradition-breaker, Slave and serf and clod no longer, Know my strength—and who is stronger? I am done with ancient fronds, Ancient lies and ancient gods— All that sham is overthrown, I shall take and keep my own, Unimpassioned, unafraid, Master of the World I've made!

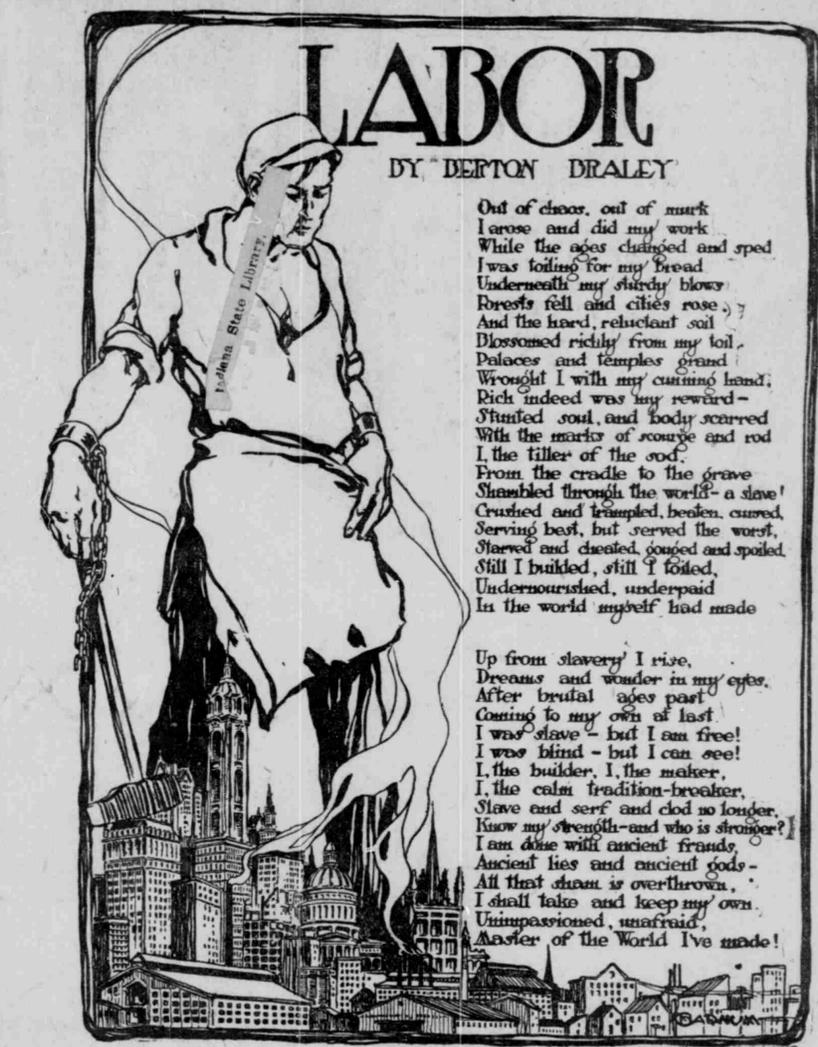

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY CITY TODAY

Work Horse Parade in the Morning Promises to be One of the Best Affairs Ever Held in South Bend.

NUMEROUS PICNICS ON FOR AFTERNOON

Day Will End the Summer Season and Large Crowds Are Expected to Attend the Many Different Functions.

South Bend's wheels of commerce will shut down for an all-day holiday today, and the city will join in a grand celebration of Labor day. Stores, business houses, banks, concerns of all kinds and factories will lock their doors, giving the employes a day's vacation.

RIOTING RESUMED IN DUBLIN STRIKE

Wave of Patriotism Seems to be Sweeping Over Republic and Drills Are Being Held in Every City.

TWO DROWNINGS SUNDAY; ALMOST

Man Leaps From Bridge, Another Falls Into Lake—So They Tell Reporter.

SOLDIERS WILL LEAVE PORTER TRACK TODAY

Members of the invading army that has for the last few days been encamped on the Mineral Springs race track at Porter, Ind., are to be back home before night, according to word received Monday from Indianapolis.

PACIFIC END NOW ALMOST COMPLETE

Last Barrier to Panama Canal is Blown Away While Spectators Look On.

FALLS OFF MOTORCYCLE

Henry Cotter is Badly Bruised About His Head.

DEPARTMENTS FALL OUT

Lafayette Police and Firemen Engage in Fight.

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY CITY TODAY

Work Horse Parade in the Morning Promises to be One of the Best Affairs Ever Held in South Bend.

NUMEROUS PICNICS ON FOR AFTERNOON

Day Will End the Summer Season and Large Crowds Are Expected to Attend the Many Different Functions.

South Bend's wheels of commerce will shut down for an all-day holiday today, and the city will join in a grand celebration of Labor day. Stores, business houses, banks, concerns of all kinds and factories will lock their doors, giving the employes a day's vacation.

LABOR

Out of chaos, out of muck I arose and did my work While the ages changed and sped I was toiling for my bread Underneath my sturdy blows Rarest fell and cities rose And the hard, reluctant soil Blossomed richly from my toil. Palaces and temples grand I wrought I with my cunning hand, Rich indeed was my reward— Stunted soul, and body scarred With the marks of scourg and rod I, the tiller of the sod. From the cradle to the grave I slumbered through the world—a slave! Crushed and trampled, beaten, cursed, Serving best, but served the worst, Starved and cheated, gouged and spoiled, Still I builded, still I toiled, Undernourished, underpaid In the world myself had made

Up from slavery I rise, Dreams and wonder in my eyes, After brutal ages past, Coming to my own at last I was slave—but I am free! I was blind—but I can see! I, the builder, I, the maker, I, the calm tradition-breaker, Slave and serf and clod no longer, Know my strength—and who is stronger? I am done with ancient fronds, Ancient lies and ancient gods— All that sham is overthrown, I shall take and keep my own, Unimpassioned, unafraid, Master of the World I've made!

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY CITY TODAY

Work Horse Parade in the Morning Promises to be One of the Best Affairs Ever Held in South Bend.

NUMEROUS PICNICS ON FOR AFTERNOON

Day Will End the Summer Season and Large Crowds Are Expected to Attend the Many Different Functions.

South Bend's wheels of commerce will shut down for an all-day holiday today, and the city will join in a grand celebration of Labor day. Stores, business houses, banks, concerns of all kinds and factories will lock their doors, giving the employes a day's vacation.

LABOR

Out of chaos, out of muck I arose and did my work While the ages changed and sped I was toiling for my bread Underneath my sturdy blows Rarest fell and cities rose And the hard, reluctant soil Blossomed richly from my toil. Palaces and temples grand I wrought I with my cunning hand, Rich indeed was my reward— Stunted soul, and body scarred With the marks of scourg and rod I, the tiller of the sod. From the cradle to the grave I slumbered through the world—a slave! Crushed and trampled, beaten, cursed, Serving best, but served the worst, Starved and cheated, gouged and spoiled, Still I builded, still I toiled, Undernourished, underpaid In the world myself had made

Up from slavery I rise, Dreams and wonder in my eyes, After brutal ages past, Coming to my own at last I was slave—but I am free! I was blind—but I can see! I, the builder, I, the maker, I, the calm tradition-breaker, Slave and serf and clod no longer, Know my strength—and who is stronger? I am done with ancient fronds, Ancient lies and ancient gods— All that sham is overthrown, I shall take and keep my own, Unimpassioned, unafraid, Master of the World I've made!

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY CITY TODAY

Work Horse Parade in the Morning Promises to be One of the Best Affairs Ever Held in South Bend.

NUMEROUS PICNICS ON FOR AFTERNOON

Day Will End the Summer Season and Large Crowds Are Expected to Attend the Many Different Functions.

South Bend's wheels of commerce will shut down for an all-day holiday today, and the city will join in a grand celebration of Labor day. Stores, business houses, banks, concerns of all kinds and factories will lock their doors, giving the employes a day's vacation.

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY CITY TODAY

Work Horse Parade in the Morning Promises to be One of the Best Affairs Ever Held in South Bend.

NUMEROUS PICNICS ON FOR AFTERNOON

Day Will End the Summer Season and Large Crowds Are Expected to Attend the Many Different Functions.

South Bend's wheels of commerce will shut down for an all-day holiday today, and the city will join in a grand celebration of Labor day. Stores, business houses, banks, concerns of all kinds and factories will lock their doors, giving the employes a day's vacation.

LABOR

Out of chaos, out of muck I arose and did my work While the ages changed and sped I was toiling for my bread Underneath my sturdy blows Rarest fell and cities rose And the hard, reluctant soil Blossomed richly from my toil. Palaces and temples grand I wrought I with my cunning hand, Rich indeed was my reward— Stunted soul, and body scarred With the marks of scourg and rod I, the tiller of the sod. From the cradle to the grave I slumbered through the world—a slave! Crushed and trampled, beaten, cursed, Serving best, but served the worst, Starved and cheated, gouged and spoiled, Still I builded, still I toiled, Undernourished, underpaid In the world myself had made

Up from slavery I rise, Dreams and wonder in my eyes, After brutal ages past, Coming to my own at last I was slave—but I am free! I was blind—but I can see! I, the builder, I, the maker, I, the calm tradition-breaker, Slave and serf and clod no longer, Know my strength—and who is stronger? I am done with ancient fronds, Ancient lies and ancient gods— All that sham is overthrown, I shall take and keep my own, Unimpassioned, unafraid, Master of the World I've made!

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY CITY TODAY

Work Horse Parade in the Morning Promises to be One of the Best Affairs Ever Held in South Bend.

NUMEROUS PICNICS ON FOR AFTERNOON

Day Will End the Summer Season and Large Crowds Are Expected to Attend the Many Different Functions.

South Bend's wheels of commerce will shut down for an all-day holiday today, and the city will join in a grand celebration of Labor day. Stores, business houses, banks, concerns of all kinds and factories will lock their doors, giving the employes a day's vacation.

LABOR

Out of chaos, out of muck I arose and did my work While the ages changed and sped I was toiling for my bread Underneath my sturdy blows Rarest fell and cities rose And the hard, reluctant soil Blossomed richly from my toil. Palaces and temples grand I wrought I with my cunning hand, Rich indeed was my reward— Stunted soul, and body scarred With the marks of scourg and rod I, the tiller of the sod. From the cradle to the grave I slumbered through the world—a slave! Crushed and trampled, beaten, cursed, Serving best, but served the worst, Starved and cheated, gouged and spoiled, Still I builded, still I toiled, Undernourished, underpaid In the world myself had made

Up from slavery I rise, Dreams and wonder in my eyes, After brutal ages past, Coming to my own at last I was slave—but I am free! I was blind—but I can see! I, the builder, I, the maker, I, the calm tradition-breaker, Slave and serf and clod no longer, Know my strength—and who is stronger? I am done with ancient fronds, Ancient lies and ancient gods— All that sham is overthrown, I shall take and keep my own, Unimpassioned, unafraid, Master of the World I've made!

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY CITY TODAY

Work Horse Parade in the Morning Promises to be One of the Best Affairs Ever Held in South Bend.

NUMEROUS PICNICS ON FOR AFTERNOON

Day Will End the Summer Season and Large Crowds Are Expected to Attend the Many Different Functions.

South Bend's wheels of commerce will shut down for an all-day holiday today, and the city will join in a grand celebration of Labor day. Stores, business houses, banks, concerns of all kinds and factories will lock their doors, giving the employes a day's vacation.

RIOTING RESUMED IN DUBLIN STRIKE

Wave of Patriotism Seems to be Sweeping Over Republic and Drills Are Being Held in Every City.

TWO DROWNINGS SUNDAY; ALMOST

Man Leaps From Bridge, Another Falls Into Lake—So They Tell Reporter.

SOLDIERS WILL LEAVE PORTER TRACK TODAY

Members of the invading army that has for the last few days been encamped on the Mineral Springs race track at Porter, Ind., are to be back home before night, according to word received Monday from Indianapolis.

PACIFIC END NOW ALMOST COMPLETE

Last Barrier to Panama Canal is Blown Away While Spectators Look On.

FALLS OFF MOTORCYCLE

Henry Cotter is Badly Bruised About His Head.

DEPARTMENTS FALL OUT

Lafayette Police and Firemen Engage in Fight.

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY CITY TODAY

Work Horse Parade in the Morning Promises to be One of the Best Affairs Ever Held in South Bend.

NUMEROUS PICNICS ON FOR AFTERNOON

Day Will End the Summer Season and Large Crowds Are Expected to Attend the Many Different Functions.

South Bend's wheels of commerce will shut down for an all-day holiday today, and the city will join in a grand celebration of Labor day. Stores, business houses, banks, concerns of all kinds and factories will lock their doors, giving the employes a day's vacation.

LABOR

Out of chaos, out of muck I arose and did my work While the ages changed and sped I was toiling for my bread Underneath my sturdy blows Rarest fell and cities rose And the hard, reluctant soil Blossomed richly from my toil. Palaces and temples grand I wrought I with my cunning hand, Rich indeed was my reward— Stunted soul, and body scarred With the marks of scourg and rod I, the tiller of the sod. From the cradle to the grave I slumbered through the world—a slave! Crushed and trampled, beaten, cursed, Serving best, but served the worst, Starved and cheated, gouged and spoiled, Still I builded, still I toiled, Undernourished, underpaid In the world myself had made

Up from slavery I rise, Dreams and wonder in my eyes, After brutal ages past, Coming to my own at last I was slave—but I am free! I was blind—but I can see! I, the builder, I, the maker, I, the calm tradition-breaker, Slave and serf and clod no longer, Know my strength—and who is stronger? I am done with ancient fronds, Ancient lies and ancient gods— All that sham is overthrown, I shall take and keep my own, Unimpassioned, unafraid, Master of the World I've made!

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY CITY TODAY

Work Horse Parade in the Morning Promises to be One of the Best Affairs Ever Held in South Bend.

NUMEROUS PICNICS ON FOR AFTERNOON

Day Will End the Summer Season and Large Crowds Are Expected to Attend the Many Different Functions.

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY CITY TODAY

Work Horse Parade in the Morning Promises to be One of the Best Affairs Ever Held in South Bend.

NUMEROUS PICNICS ON FOR AFTERNOON

Day Will End the Summer Season and Large Crowds Are Expected to Attend the Many Different Functions.

South Bend's wheels of commerce will shut down for an all-day holiday today, and the city will join in a grand celebration of Labor day. Stores, business houses, banks, concerns of all kinds and factories will lock their doors, giving the employes a day's vacation.

LABOR

Out of chaos, out of muck I arose and did my work While the ages changed and sped I was toiling for my bread Underneath my sturdy blows Rarest fell and cities rose And the hard, reluctant soil Blossomed richly from my toil. Palaces and temples grand I wrought I with my cunning hand, Rich indeed was my reward— Stunted soul, and body scarred With the marks of scourg and rod I, the tiller of the sod. From the cradle to the grave I slumbered through the world—a slave! Crushed and trampled, beaten, cursed, Serving best, but served the worst, Starved and cheated, gouged and spoiled, Still I builded, still I toiled, Undernourished, underpaid In the world myself had made

Up from slavery I rise, Dreams and wonder in my eyes, After brutal ages past, Coming to my own at last I was slave—but I am free! I was blind—but I can see! I, the builder, I, the maker, I, the calm tradition-breaker, Slave and serf and clod no longer, Know my strength—and who is stronger? I am done with ancient fronds, Ancient lies and ancient gods— All that sham is overthrown, I shall take and keep my own, Unimpassioned, unafraid, Master of the World I've made!

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY CITY TODAY

Work Horse Parade in the Morning Promises to be One of the Best Affairs Ever Held in South Bend.

NUMEROUS PICNICS ON FOR AFTERNOON

Day Will End the Summer Season and Large Crowds Are Expected to Attend the Many Different Functions.

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY CITY TODAY

Work Horse Parade in the Morning Promises to be One of the Best Affairs Ever Held in South Bend.

NUMEROUS PICNICS ON FOR AFTERNOON

Day Will End the Summer Season and Large Crowds Are Expected to Attend the Many Different Functions.

South Bend's wheels of commerce will shut down for an all-day holiday today, and the city will join in a grand celebration of Labor day. Stores, business houses, banks, concerns of all kinds and factories will lock their doors, giving the employes a day's vacation.

LABOR

Out of chaos, out of muck I arose and did my work While the ages changed and sped I was toiling for my bread Underneath my sturdy blows Rarest fell and cities rose And the hard, reluctant soil Blossomed richly from my toil. Palaces and temples grand I wrought I with my cunning hand, Rich indeed was my reward— Stunted soul, and body scarred With the marks of scourg and rod I, the tiller of the sod. From the cradle to the grave I slumbered through the world—a slave! Crushed and trampled, beaten, cursed, Serving best, but served the worst, Starved and cheated, gouged and spoiled, Still I builded, still I toiled, Undernourished, underpaid In the world myself had made

Up from slavery I rise, Dreams and wonder in my eyes, After brutal ages past, Coming to my own at last I was slave—but I am free! I was blind—but I can see! I, the builder, I, the maker, I, the calm tradition-breaker, Slave and serf and clod no longer, Know my strength—and who is stronger? I am done with ancient fronds, Ancient lies and ancient gods— All that sham is overthrown, I shall take and keep my own, Unimpassioned, unafraid, Master of the World I've made!

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY CITY TODAY

Work Horse Parade in the Morning Promises to be One of the Best Affairs Ever Held in South Bend.

NUMEROUS PICNICS ON FOR AFTERNOON

Day Will End the Summer Season and Large Crowds Are Expected to Attend the Many Different Functions.

South Bend's wheels of commerce will shut down for an all-day holiday today, and the city will join in a grand celebration of Labor day. Stores, business houses, banks, concerns of all kinds and factories will lock their doors, giving the employes a day's vacation.

LABOR

Out of chaos, out of muck I arose and did my work While the ages changed and sped I was toiling for my bread Underneath my sturdy blows Rarest fell and cities rose And the hard, reluctant soil Blossomed richly from my toil. Palaces and temples grand I wrought I with my cunning hand, Rich indeed was my reward— Stunted soul, and body scarred With the marks of scourg and rod I, the tiller of the sod. From the cradle to the grave I slumbered through the world—a slave! Crushed and trampled, beaten, cursed, Serving best, but served the worst, Starved and cheated, gouged and spoiled, Still I builded, still I toiled, Undernourished, underpaid In the world myself had made

Up from slavery I rise, Dreams and wonder in my eyes, After brutal ages past, Coming to my own at last I was slave—but I am free! I was blind—but I can see!