GERMAN EXHIBITS ARE TO BE SEEN AT PANAMA FAIR

Fund is Being Raised by Subscription and is Expected to Go Near Million Mark—Line Gives $50,000.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Fifty thousand dollars has been subscribed by the Hamburg-American line, through Director Ballin, for the expense of making an unofficial exhibit of German manufactures at the Panama exposition to be held the year after next at San Francisco.

The announcement was made Saturday at the New York offices of the company by William G. Sichel, a vice director of the line. The company asks for additional subscriptions both here and in Germany, and the manner in which they will be received probably will be announced within a few days.

The project was launched in Germany by Director Ballin, who has a wide acquaintance in official circles there. The government decided not to participate officially owing to a depression in the machinery business which leads experts to believe that the display would not be complete, and could not, therefore, be taken up as a national matter.

Certain German manufacturers had already spoken of exhibiting their wares and at this point Mr. Ballin came forward with a subscription of $50,000 in behalf of the company. At the same time the Hamburg-American line will give a reduction in freight rates on such goods as are being forwarded to San Francisco for display in the exposition.

It is believed that many persons in Germany will join in a popular subscription and that at the same time there will be numerous citizens of this country, either of Teutonic birth or origin, whose affection for the Fatherland will lead them to aid the project. It has been suggested by Mr. Ballin that the enterprise, which may become a private one, would be aided materially if the people of San Francisco would give free a site for the required buildings. Just what structures may be erected depends entirely upon the amount of money which can be raised.

The sum may vary from two or three hundred thousand to a million dollars. The expense of installing the exhibits is always large, especially in the case of foreign countries, where the freight charges are heavy and supplies must be obtained far from home.

USE AIRSHIP IN AN EARLY MORNING CALL

Two Airmen Drop In on Newport Acquaintance and Join Him at Breakfast.

NEWPORT, Aug. 30.—Mr. Hugh de L. Willoughby received a novel call Sunday morning when two airmen, Messrs. Gerold Hanley and Morris, his instructor, flew from Providence in their hydroplane and landing on the water facing his villa, joined Mr. Willoughby at breakfast, after which they returned to Providence, thirty miles distant, the whole trip taking less than two hours and a half, with one hour for breakfast.

Mr. Willoughby is now overhauling the engine in his new airship, the Pelican III, and expects to make a flight the latter part of the week. Mr. William Thaw, who had had his hydro-aeroplane at Watch Hill the early part of the season, has had the machine shipped to Newport, and will fly in the vicinity next week.

POOR TO GET THE ESTATE

Brother and Sister Fall in Attempt to Break Will.

RIVERHEAD, L. I., Aug. 31.—Surrogate Nicol of Suffolk county admitted to probate Saturday the will of Andrew Jackson Smith of Patchogue. The decision follows a contest made by a brother and a sister of the testator, who declared that Mr. Smith, who was 92 years old, was incompetent to make a will and was under undue influence.

The estate amounts to about $25,000. In the will it is left to Sidney Girard of the Citizens' National bank of Patchogue, who may use it for the benefit of the poor of Patchogue or in any other way he sees fit.

FIND TAN SHOE AND A WOMAN'S FOOT IN SHARK

Fish is Captured in Nets and When It is Cut Open Fishermen Make Find—Try to Find the Owner.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—The foot of a woman wearing a tan shoe and a knitted stocking was cut from the stomach of a man-eating shark by fishermen in the Atlantic ocean off Spring Lake beach, N. J., according to the fishermen themselves, and William I. Ohmer, manufacturer of Dayton, O., who said he saw the foot and who has a summer home there.

The shark, which was described as being 15 feet in length and weighing 800 pounds, became entangled in the nets of the fishermen, and when they went out in small boats to make the daily haul on Monday they found the shark whipping the nets about and tearing them.

Capt. Combes, in command of one of the fishing boats and one of the best known fishermen along the New Jersey coast, drew in one of the nets with five of his men. When they got the monster to the surface they gaffed him while he was trying to overturn the boat.

As he turned over on his back dead it was decided that he was too big to get into the boat to take ashore, so it was decided to cut him open and take ashore a full length section to prove his size.

Fishermen always cut open sharks to see what they have inside of them. The shark's belly was a wash with the boat's unswale when the knife was applied, and Capt. Combes and his five men were horrified to see the foot of a woman fall out of the stomach into the boat. They released the shark's carcass and took the foot ashore.

Ohmer was fishing near by in a pleasure boat, and he said last night that he not only had seen the shark, but the shark from which it was cut. He said the foot had been bitten off of a woman's leg between the knee and the ankle and that all of the stocking had come away with it.

"From the condition of the foot and the shoe it could not have been in the shark's stomach long," said Mr. Ohmer. "If the woman was dead when he swallowed her foot she could not have been dead long."

No reports were found of any woman who had lost a foot through an encounter with a shark. One of the puzzling things was that the foot was said to have a shoe on it, proving the woman was not a bather. She might have fallen overboard and then been attacked by the shark.

LAND LOGIC!

In a sparsely settled community land is priced for its farm productive value only.

Start a little settlement of people in the center of the farm and the land at once takes on an added value as used for dwellings or commercial purposes.

As the population of a city increases, the land values grow bigger—and in far greater proportion than the growth in population.

South Bend has approximately 60,000 people and land values within the city limits of about 7,000,000 Dollars.

When South Bend doubles its population its land values will approximate 20,000,000 Dollars.

This increase in land values is gradual, is going on every day and year.

It has made your neighbor rich or has provided him a competence for old age.

You owe it to yourself and your family to share in the growing values of South Bend real estate.

OUR $1.00 DOWN—50 CENTS A WEEK PLAN OF PAYMENT MAKES IT EASY FOR YOU TO OWN REAL ESTATE. NO INTEREST OF TAXES FOR A TERM OF YEARS.
