

STREET CAR MEN PLAN FIGHT TO CURB ACCIDENTS

Many "Don'ts" Offered at Employees' Picnic to be Placed Where the Traveling Public Can Read.

Don't wear hobble skirts if you want to get on a street car.
Don't fall on the conductor if you weigh over 300 pounds.
Don't try to learn to get off a moving car if you are a woman.
Don't get off a car like a woman if you are a man.

These are some of the many "Don'ts" turned in at the contest held by the C. S. R. & N. I. Railway company, in which W. V. McKesson won first prize. The "Don'ts" contest was one of the features of the first annual picnic of the railway company held Wednesday and Thursday at Springbrook park.
Over 400 "Don'ts" were turned in, and they will be submitted to the committee on safety at a monthly meeting next Monday night. From the long list, the "Don'ts" will be selected which apply to general public, and will be posted in conspicuous places on the street cars. Humorous "Don'ts" will also be placed before the public eye, while those that apply to the conductors and motormen will be posted in the car barns and around the yards.
It is hoped through the powerful hints to keep a warning before the people all the time and so lessen the number of accidents on the street and interurban car lines.

Some of the Don'ts.
The list turned in by McKesson, which won the prize, includes: "Don't open the doors to take on or let off passengers until the car has stopped."
"Don't fall to make necessary safety stops at all intersecting points."
"Don't bring your car to a stop with a jerk."
"Don't reverse the current to make a stop only in cases of absolute necessity."
"Don't run at high speed around curves where your view is obstructed."
"Don't try and signal a car to stop with your foot."
"Don't fall to look both ways when flagging railroad crossings."
"Don't start your car while passengers are yet standing on the ground."
"Don't run at high speed over switches."
"Don't proceed on single track without being sure you have the right-of-way."
"Don't fall to close all switches on main lines."
"Don't pass another car that is taking on or letting off passengers, without stopping for signals to come ahead."
"Don't allow women or children to stand on running board or step."
"Don't leave your doors open on inside of double track."
"Don't take any chances."
"Don't touch broken wires."
"Don't put hand or arms out of window."
"Don't walk or drive behind a car without seeing if another car is coming on opposite tracks."
"Don't face backward in getting off."
"Don't stand in tracks when signaling car."
"Don't stand in the vestibule."
"Don't get excited if carried by your stop and jump off."
The last day of the picnic proved a success, and the company will have another one next year. Elaborate preparations will be made for next year's program and events. It will be held either after or before the rush summer season as it was this year.
The car men baseball team easily defeated the shop forces in the chief event of the program, Thursday, walking away with a big score. When the game closed, presumably at about the ninth inning, the tally as well as could be remembered stood at 21 to 5 in favor of the team selected from the car barns.
The program of events took up the greater part of the day. The results were:
Bill posting contest—F. C. Gabriel.
Order taking contest for railway trainmen—E. J. Berny, first; George Teets, second.
Hoop rolling contest—Fred Post.
Tub race for men—Chas. Hullinger, first; C. Steel, second.

wan, was nearly lynched. When Lanyon tried to get through the crowd that surrounded the jail, before Jerome had been liberated on bail, he was halted by a burly, red-faced Canadian policeman, who grabbed Lanyon by the collar.
"Not so fast, there," said the policeman, sharply.
"I am an officer, a deputy keeper of the Matteawan asylum," retorted Lanyon. "Oh no, you're not, you're a detective and you're here trying to kidnap Thaw," cried a man in the crowd. Lanyon was rushed by the crowd and would have suffered serious injury if the constables had not gone to his assistance.
Mr. Marechal wanted to know why no warrants had been issued for the three men who were playing cards with Jerome. He declared that it could plainly be shown that malice lay behind the charge and consequently he said the New Yorker would be acquitted without difficulty.

HUMAN BODY FULL OF MICROBES

Most People Die Before Their Time — Through Carelessness.

Science has proven that there are millions of germs in each cubic inch of air we breathe.

Some of these germs are not disease-bearing, but many of them are known as pathogenic or disease germs.

The reason that most of us escape tuberculosis, etc., is merely due to the fact that the vital resistance of the body is such that these germs do not have any effect, or are destroyed by natural processes.

Most people who have catarrh, intestinal trouble, uric acid in the system or do not properly digest their food, constantly invite the cultivation of disease-bearing germs, which in the end means premature death.

It seems to be the most natural thing in the world for many sufferers of chronic diseases to neglect themselves.

Sometimes they will take treatment for a few days at a time, from the family physician or take a few bottles of patent medicine, then go along in the same old way until attacked by some fatal condition.

Health would practically be within the reach of all if each individual only understood the necessity of keeping their natural resistance up. This, of course, depends on the healthy condition of the blood stream. The most learned physicians of the present time now understand that these conditions are cured through the blood stream by increasing the number of red corpuscles and stimulating all metabolic processes. This does away with surgery in many cases, although surgery at times is necessary.

Today the great pathological institutes for original research work, the heads of the great established laboratories of the world, have come to realize that the cure of most diseases can be accomplished without surgery and that this can be done through the blood stream.

Dr. Barlett the specialist in charge of the United Doctors South Bend institute, has for years kept abreast of every advance in medical science and has proven to many people of South Bend and the surrounding country that many so-called surgical diseases can be cured through the scientific administration of medicine. Of course the successful treatment of disease must depend on a thorough understanding of any case and an absolute diagnosis of the conditions present.

Through years of experience, scientific knowledge and modern equipment the doctor is enabled to correctly diagnose nearly every doubtful and deep-seated condition presented to him, he has received many flattering letters from grateful patients in and about South Bend which voice as nothing else can the appreciation with which his services are meeting. The doctor treats all chronic and nervous diseases, including Goitre, Intestinal Troubles, Rectal Diseases, Epilepsy, and all Special Diseases of Men and Women. The doctor can be consulted at the South Bend institute which is located on the second floor of the Toepf Building opposite the Post Office between the hours of 9 and 12 a. m., 2 and 5 p. m., 7 and 8 p. m. and Sundays from 10 to 12 a. m. Examination and consultation free.

Doctors who examined the pugilist said the enormous muscles saved Johnson from a probable fracture of the spine.
