ENGAGED TO TWO; KILLED HIMSELF

Dr. R. M. Van Cleave of Muncie, It is Claimed, Could Not Bear to Face Consequences of His Act.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 10.—That Dr. R. M. Van Cleave of Muncie, who was found dead at a hotel in Terre Haute Sunday evening, committed suicide because he was engaged to two young women and could not bear to face the consequences of his duplicity, developed Monday when it became known that one of his fiancées was Miss Cressah Hindbaugh of Indianapolis, the Indianapolis Star said Wednesday morning.

The story as printed by the Star was obtained from Miss Hindbaugh's sister, Miss Betty Hindbaugh, a trained nurse.

The story continues: "My sister is crushed," said Miss Hindbaugh, "and is so overcome by grief that she will not speak to any one of us and just lies and stares into space. For four years she was engaged to Dr. Van Cleave and they were to have been married the latter part of this month."

According to Miss Hindbaugh's story, the young physician spent Friday evening and part of Saturday here with her sister planning for the wedding that was to have taken place in a few weeks, saying when he left that he was returning to Muncie, Illinois, where he was to have married Miss Lillian Brosman, a trained nurse, who he met while an interne at a Terre Haute hospital. He telephoned Miss Brosman that he had missed his train and would come later. Instead he went to his room where he was found Sunday by Miss Brosman's sister and friends who had gone in search of him.

Miss Hindbaugh is quoted as saying, "as soon as my sister is able we shall go for an extended trip west and probably shall never return to Indianapolis."

ITCHED FOR 20 YEARS, RESINOL CURED IN 10 DAYS

Baltimore, Md., July 10, 1913.—"About twenty years ago both my legs began to itch from ankle to knee. Little pimples came out that looked very much like heat. The itching and burning was something terrible. I would start to scratch and could not stop. I would even scratch through the skin and that of course would leave a sore which I was compelled to bandage. "I tried several prescriptions and treatments, but received not a particle of benefit—no more than if the treatments were cold water. I then began to have very little faith in anything and of course could do nothing but scratch away. After suffering constantly for twenty years, a friend recommended Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. From the very first application I found relief, and was entirely cured in ten days. The itching and stinging sensations have ceased and my skin is as smooth as a child's." (Signed) Charles Warner, 1123 N. Stricker St.

Physicians have prescribed Resinol for eighteen years and every druggist in the country sells Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. For free trial, write to Dept. 14-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.—Advertisement.

Theatres

"THE CLOWN AND THE PRIMA DONNA."

An unusually powerful Vitagraph drama with Maurice Costello in the leading part, will be presented Wednesday and Thursday at the Americana theater. The story is told of a beautiful Italian singer in a wandering troupe in Italy. A too persistent lover kills her father, who quarrels with him when he forces his embraces on his daughter. Afterwards the girl becomes famous and goes to America, where she becomes the leading singer of an opera company. There she meets her former suitor, who again conspires against her, this time adding a rival prima donna who is jealous of the new favorite. He tries to poison her in a cup of wine which she drinks during the performance but her life is saved by a former clown with the wandering players, who has acted as her guardian during the many trials of her life.

"THE HEART OF A JEWESS."

A genuine story of Jewish life in two reels, enacted by Jewish characters. The character work is excellent and the production one that holds the interest throughout. The schaden, or matchmaker, succeeds in mixing things up badly for Rebecca. Jake is lured away to get a $10,000 bribe, but when he reports for his bargain Rebecca quite properly repudiates him and ultimately finds happiness with David, foreman of the tailor shop. The atmosphere of this is perfect and the argument between the Jewish guests at the wedding quite amusing. An entertain number, this Victor film will be shown at the Surprise theater today.

ARREST DEALER AFTER ALL MORNING CHASE

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—J. A. Wigmore, Cleveland real estate dealer, Tuesday surrendered himself to deputy sheriffs who spent the morning chasing him, carrying a warrant for his arrest in their pockets. Wigmore was released on $25,000 bail.

BOOK FOR THE SHOPPER

A clever idea or facilitating shopping is being introduced into South Bend by the Wyman store. The plan is a neat little book filled with gummed labels bearing the name and address of the customer. When a purchase is made the shopper will hand one of the labels to the clerk who pastes it on the bundle, thus doing away with the annoyance of giving her name and address and insuring the correct address. The books are being mailed to all their charge customers.
