

McREYNOLDS TO PUSH TRUST FIGHT

Will Attempt to Enlist United States Attorneys Throughout Country Instead of Confining All to Special Assistants.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Attorney Gen. McReynolds is making a vigorous effort to expedite pending anti-trust investigations, and to keep abreast with all current complaints of violations of the Sherman law.

As a step in that direction, the attorney general has decided to utilize to the fullest extent possible the services of the United States attorneys throughout the country instead of largely confining anti-trust inquiries, as has been the custom, to the few special assistants in the department of justice. The plan is to reinforce the force of the staff of special anti-trust lawyers in the department with the services of the United States attorneys. As new charges of monopoly and restraint of trade are received they will be referred in many instances to conveniently located United States attorneys equipped to undertake investigations.

In that way it is expected the anti-trust work which is growing fast, will be conveniently distributed and the crowded condition at Washington relieved. With that policy in view the attorney general is giving unusual attention to the character and ability of the men he is selecting for United States attorneys.

It was pointed out Friday that a mammoth task faces the attorney general and G. Carroll Todd, his assistant in charge of anti-trust work. There are many cases pending in the courts, especially a large number filed in the closing days of the Taft administration, which must be prepared for trial. In addition investigations of great moment have been undertaken and rarely a day passes that the department does not hear of some new trust. Among the big investigations under way which are to be expedited are those of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad and the American Smelting & Refining Co. The former is nearly completed but the end of the latter is not yet in sight.

DIAZ SAYS HE HAS NO ORDERS AS YET

All He Knows About Being Summoned Back to Mexico He Read in Paris Papers, He States.

PARIS, Sept. 20.—Gen. Felix Diaz, who has just returned here from Huertala, told the Associated Press Friday that he had seen the dispatch from Mexico City in the Paris newspapers announcing that he had been summoned back to Mexico by President Huerta, but that this was all he knew about the matter. Thus far, he said, he had received no order of recall and would remain in Paris until he did so, holding himself in readiness to start at a moment's notice.

"I am a soldier and always am prepared to go anywhere at any time in obedience to my superiors when I am ordered," added Gen. Diaz. Asked if President Huerta would support his candidacy for chief executive of Mexico, Gen. Diaz replied that Gen. Huerta would take no interest in the election beyond that of seeing it properly carried out. He seemed confident, however, of the success of his candidacy, for which he declared his friends in Mexico were now working hard. He also was optimistic with regard to the situation in general in Mexico and thought that everything now pointed to the early re-establishment of peace.

During his stay in Europe Gen. Felix Diaz has been in poor health. He complained that he had not recovered from the rigors of his three months imprisonment in an underground cell in the old Spanish prison in Vera Cruz after his unsuccessful attempt to foment a revolution in October of last year.

According to one of his secretaries, Gen. Diaz feels that the United States government may be unfriendly toward his ambition to become president of Mexico. He said that Gen. Diaz said that friendship for the United States will be one of the cardinal policies should he become president of Mexico.

LONDON STRIKE SITUATION BETTER

Busmen Agree to Truce Pending Arbitration of Demands. Danger of Railway Tie Up Not Over.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The strike situation in London was improved Friday night. The busmen who had not already gone out agreed to a truce pending arbitration by the board of trade of their demands on the employers.

The motormen and conductors of the Tilling Omnibus company, however, will remain idle meanwhile, which will keep 500 buses off the street. Two of the motor bus companies which have agreed to recognize the men's unions, will continue to operate their vehicles even if arbitration fails.

The danger of a railroad strike is not yet over. The Liverpool strikers have accepted the offer of the managers to reinstate men who are willing to handle traffic which, under the law, the companies must accept, but they made their acceptance conditional upon the acquiescence of the men in Birmingham and other strike centers to the plan.

Birmingham labor leaders are still attempting to force a general strike. They met the committee of the National union Friday and the result of the decisions reached will be announced Saturday.

The strike has extended to Sheffield, Crewe, Derby and other places. Dublin was quiet Friday night, but the number of strikers there has increased. A heavy rain storm broke up a big parade.

At Manchester the trade of the port is paralyzed. Five thousand dockmen are now on strike and the port is closed to business.

RACING AUTOMOBILE GOES THROUGH FENCE

Mechanician of Bob Burman May Die as Result—On Way to Ft. Wayne Races.

YPSILANTI, Mich., Sept. 20.—Running at a high rate of speed Bob Burman's racing automobile, driven by his mechanic, Carl R. Klein of Fresno, Calif., crashed through a fence near here Friday evening, turned turtle and rolled down a steep embankment. Klein, caught in the debris, was seriously injured and may die. Edward Konarsky of Detroit, who was riding with him, was tossed from the machine. He sustained a broken arm and numerous bruises. The car was wrecked.

Klein was taken to a hospital at Ann Arbor. Late Friday night he had only partly recovered consciousness. He is believed to be injured internally.

Klein was driving the car to Fort Wayne, Ind., where Burman was scheduled to race Saturday. It is claimed they had been delayed in starting from Detroit and were attempting to make up lost time. When they neared a point where a traffic and an interurban bridge turn from the main road at different angles, Klein mistook the interurban bridge for the other. When Klein saw his mistake, he turned off the road. His car struck a rut, Konarsky said, and was through the fence before Klein could regain control.

EX-CONGRESSMAN TO LEAD GRAND ARMY MEN

Washington Gardner of Albion, Mich., Elected Commander-in-Chief at Chattanooga.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 20.—Former U. S. Cong. Washington Gardner of Albion, Mich., Friday was elected commander in chief of the Grand Army of the Republic at the final business session of the 47th annual encampment. Detroit, Mich., earlier in the day was selected as the meeting place for the 1914 encampment.

Other officers elected by the national commission were: Thomas S. Soward, Guthrie, Okla., senior vice commander; William L. Rose, Pittsfield, Me., junior vice commander; J. K. Weaver, Morristown, Pa., surgeon general; and Horace M. Carr, Carson, Kas., chaplain general.

Immediately after the election of officers was completed the new commander in chief announced the appointment of Oscar A. James, Detroit, Mich., as adjutant general and Col. D. R. Stovitz of Buffalo, N. Y., as quartermaster general.

Commander in Chief Gardner was born in Morrow, O., in February, 1845. At the age of 16 he enlisted in company D, 4th Ohio Volunteer Infantry. He was on duty continuously from 1861 under Buell in the Army of the Ohio, under Rosecrans in the Army of the Cumberland, and under Thomas and Sherman in the campaign against Atlanta until disabled by a gunshot wound during the battle of Resaca, May, 1864. For several years after the war Commander Gardner attended college and later was a professor in Albion college, Mich. He served for five years as secretary of state for Michigan and for 12 years represented the third Michigan district in the United States congress. Since his retirement from congress he has been chiefly engaged in educational work for a Chicago publishing firm.

MOOSE LODGE DENIES TREASURER ABSCONDED

Assert That Earl W. Fish Has Been Called East to Bedside of Sick Father.

Statements that the lodge treasurer, Earl W. Fish, 824 N. Lafayette st., had embezzled funds belonging to the order were strongly denied by officials of the Loyal Order of Moose No. 555, Friday night.

Fish has been called to the bedside of his father at Albany, N. Y., and his sudden departure caused a rumor that he had absconded with a large sum of money from the treasury. The books of the lodge have not been audited, say the officials, and they are certain that he has not absconded. He is under a bond for considerable more than he is charged with taking from the treasury.

The charge originated outside the lodge hall. Fish left the city on a midnight train last Saturday for the east. He had been out of the lodge several days previous to that at his sudden disappearance started the rumor. His wife was shocked when the news when it reached her and cried in grief. The lodge will investigate the source of the rumor that started what they hold as an attack on a brother.

LEONARD OLIVER IS ONCE MORE IN TOILS

Man Arrested in South Bend For Robbing Wife Held in Laporte on Larceny Charge.

LAPORTE, Ind., Sept. 20.—Leonard Oliver, alias Phil Dunkin, alias Harry Duncan, whose home is in South Bend, was brought back to this city Friday from Michigan City on a charge of stealing about $100 worth of diamonds from Mrs. John Plichte, a widow on the night of July 2. Oliver refused to talk about the case. According to the story of the woman they were riding when Oliver known to her as Phil Dunkin, wanted to know what she had done with her diamonds. She became frightened at his actions and jumped from the rig. She said he also jumped out and knocked her down. Placing his knee on her throat she said he snatched two diamond rings and a pair of earrings.

Oliver was arrested in South Bend last spring by Detectives Lane and Cutting on a charge of larceny. He was married in South Bend and a few days later was charged with

WILSON AND MARSHALL ATTEND VAUDEVILLE

Both Slip in Unknown to Crowd and Also to Each Other—President Enjoys the Show.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Pres. Wilson sat in the balcony of a vaudeville theater Friday night and enjoyed the show much more than he did a week ago when he occupied a stage box for his first sight of vaudeville. Before every time a joke was cracked the president noticed the crowd was gazing at him, and it spoiled his evening. This time he slipped quietly with Dr. Grayson and a secret service man and was not recognized during the performance. He did not wait for some pictures depicting Harry Thur's adventures in Canada, leaving as the lights were dimmed and walking back to the white house while a crowd waited around the white house automobile out in front.

SPEAKS AT BOTH CITIZEN AND REPUBLICAN MEETS

Earl S. Findley, Negro, seems to be popular as a South Bend orator. Friday night he stepped into the limelight at both the republican and citizens' meeting. Findley claimed to be affiliated with the republican party when he addressed the session in the Summers building.

As soon as the meeting had adjourned he went to the citizens' meeting, where a number of the voters of his party had assembled to support Fred Keller. He addressed his brothers, upholding moral principles. The Negro voters of the city will organize a Keller club next Friday night. The attendance at the meeting Friday night was not large.
