SHE'S CARRYING THE FIGHT FOR RIGHT TO VOTE TO THE HIGHEST COURT IN THE LAND

MRS. M'KENZIE GORDON AND BABY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 20.—Right up to the highest court in the land is to go the appeal of Mrs. Ethel Coope Gordon, wife of Mackenzie Gordon, an Englishman, that she be permitted her inalienable rights of citizenship as bestowed upon her by the male electors of California.

The California supreme court decided against Mrs. Gordon when she brought suit to compel Registrar Zemaneky to register her as an American citizen.

"It is not merely my own citizenship that is involved," said Mrs. Gordon. "There are 4,000,000 women in the equal suffrage states, and many of these are doubtless in the same predicament as myself. I think it is a matter which should be sifted thoroughly and settled.

"It is," she said, with a laugh "just another fight for suffrage that I am making alone."

So in the Gordon household there is just one American citizen, Mackenzie Gordon, Jr., 5 months old, whose ballot is worrying him not at all.

"My mother," said Mrs. Gordon, "would have the same standing I have were it not for the fact that my father is dead. She is an American and he was an Englishman. Because she is a widow she votes while I, because my Scotch husband is alive, can have no voice in my country's affairs."

As a final shot at interpreting citizenship, Mrs. Gordon declared: "If they give us equal rights really, it should mean that my husband by marrying me became an American citizen. If a foreign woman marries an American man, she can vote at once. Why should not the same apply to a foreign man?"

INDIANA WOMAN WILL HEAD W. R. C.

Mrs. Ida S. McBride, of Indianapolis Elected National President—Well Known Here.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 20.—The election here of Mrs. Ida S. McBride, of Indianapolis, to the presidency of the National Woman's Relief corps brought great rejoicing to all the Indiana organizations in Chattanooga. It had been predicted that Mrs. McBride would easily win, even though three other states and the District of Columbia had candidates.

Nominated by Mrs. Mary Sims. From the moment of the presentation of the name of Mrs. McBride by Mrs. Mary Sims, of Frankfort, the result was never in doubt. One by one the other candidates withdrew until Mrs. McBride stood alone. With an enthusiastic outburst of applause, the Indianapolis woman was elected by acclamation, an honor that has fallen to only one other woman, she, too, of Indianapolis, Mrs. Agnes Hill. It is an interesting coincidence that Mrs. Sims nominated Mrs. McBride and Mrs. Hill, thus gaining a reputation for sponsoring winners.

Mrs. Hill, too, was the director of Mrs. McBride's campaign. The Indiana delegation of the Woman's Relief corps must have had early information regarding Mrs. McBride, for when her election had been so happily brought about, Mrs. Cora C. Scott, of Indianapolis, president of the Woman's Relief corps, of George H. Thomas Post, of which the new national president is a member, marched down from the gallery with her arms filled with American Beauty roses.

Makes Speech of Thanks. These she presented to Mrs. McBride amid the plaudits of the convention. Mrs. McBride made a happy little speech, expressing her thanks to both the convention and to her sisters from back home. The election of Mrs. McBride delighted every Hoosier here. It is said that Mrs. Sarah White of Rockville probably will be honored with appointment as Mrs. McBride's secretary.

The other officers elected by the Woman's Relief corps were Mrs. Chloe A. Warren, of Plainville, Conn., senior vice president; Mrs. Mahalia A. Archer of Chattanooga, junior vice president; Mrs. Abbie Lynch, of Pittsburgh, treasurer, and Mrs. Sarah J. Bradford, of Livingston, Mont., chaplain. Mrs. McBride and her manager, Mrs. Hill, are well known in South Bend. Both women attended the state convention of the W. R. C. held here a year ago.

DR. THOMSON'S EYE TALKS

(TALK NO. 177.)

Unnatural. Some people who wear glasses never seem to be at home in them. They either throw the head too far back or too far forward. They seem to be constantly trying to get the eyes and the glasses into focus with each other. No movement of the head seems to be natural. The cause of this is nearly always a carelessness in adjusting the frames. If they are too high the wearer must stoop forward to see through them. If too low he must tip his head backward. If too small he will be compelled to "dodge the rims" every time he looks to one side. If they are just right he will have none of these troubles. He will think no more of his glasses than of his coat. They will fit him becomingly and he will wear them naturally. I only sell the "just right" kind.

WOMAN STRANGLED TO DEATH ON DROP OF WATER

It was learned Friday night that the direct cause of the death of Mrs. Charlotte Krienke, 1225 W. Jefferson boulevard, Thursday night, was by strangulation on a drop of water. It was first reported that Mrs. Krienke had died from the effects of blood poisoning.

According to report Friday night, Mrs. Krienke about a week ago attempted to chop some wood. During the act a splinter was pushed into her hand. In a few days blood poisoning developed, which a few days ago caused lockjaw.

Thursday night a spoon was inserted between the woman's teeth to pry her mouth open in order to give her some water. She was unable to swallow and the first drop strangled her to death.

Mrs. Krienke was 61 years old. HOLD ANNUAL BANQUET. The Polonia club will hold its annual banquet on the night of Sept. 30. This year the event will be held in St. Hedwige hall.
