

OLD FOLKS FIND CROXONE RELIEVES ALL KIDNEY AND BLADDER MISERIES

Drives Rheumatic Pains Away, Few Doses Relieve Backache and Bladder Disorders.

neys new strength to do their work properly. It neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous uric acid substances that lodge in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; and makes the kidneys filter and sift out the poisonous waste matter from the blood and drive it out of the system.

It matters not how old you are or how long you have suffered. Croxone is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it without results. There is nothing else like it. It starts to work immediately and more than a few doses are seldom required to relieve even the most chronic, obstinate case.

An original package costs but a trifle and all druggists are authorized to return the purchase price if Croxone should fail in a single case.

Sleep disturbing bladder weakness, backache, rheumatism, and the many other kidney ailments which so commonly come with declining years, need no longer be a source of dread and misery to those who are past the middle age of life. Croxone relieves all such disorders because it reaches the very cause of the trouble. It soaks right into the kidneys, through the walls and linings, cleans out the little filtering glands and cells, and gives the kidneys new strength to do their work properly.

Both Tarkington, one of the authors of the play, was reading the manuscript to an elderly aunt, before it was turned over to Will Hodge who was to star in the piece. Mr. Tarkington's voice became a steady, unbroken reading and every now and then he would drop it and become less clear. When this happened his aunt—interested in the story and not wanting to miss any of it—would querulously interrupt: "Don't mumble your words," a remark that became very funny to the playwright as he heard it again and again and when, several months later, he took his aunt to see the play, she heard with astonishment those words of her own. The humor of the situation was felt by the aunt and she jokingly declared that she should have part of the royalty on the play.

Edison's talking pictures will be seen at the Oliver all next week, opening Monday afternoon. The performance will show that the device is everything that has been said of it. The sounds coming from the mouths of the actors in perfect harmony with the movement of the lips and the accompanying gestures, that the words can be heard in every corner of the theater. You must see these talking pictures to believe them and to know that the old master Thomas A. Edison has scored once more, and heavily too. There are no two ways about it—the talking pictures must be seen to be appreciated. There will be a performance every afternoon and night.

A melodrama conventionally made up of stock properties such as the escaped convict and the dynamiter bomb with clock to blow up the detective. Such offerings are put together to serve a well-defined following: are commercial offerings.

At Surprise theater today with two good comedies, "Bachelor Billie," and "The New Baby."

There is no lack of singing on the new bill at the Orpheum and the best of it is all first class. The opening act of Ross and Sherman, billed as rathskeller entertainers, furnishes a program of four lively songs, three of which are new here. A easy Jones parody with the woman member of the team playing on a saxophone builds up a neat finish.

Another singing act, the Rossell trio, follows immediately with a decided hit. Their harmony numbers are splendidly arranged, the single selection, "Lovelight Bay," left a splendid impression and when they closed with a selection in Italian from Verdi's "Rigoletto" the applause was tremendous. This is one of the best singing organizations heard here for a long time.

The great Howard, a Scotch ventriloquist of ability, was well received. He uses a dentist office and appliances with his two dummy figures and extracts not only a tooth but a lot of real fun out of the incident. His work is clever and the idea an original one. Howard was once a doctor in the English army and the act is based on an actual experience.

Lydell, Conley and Lydell scored the comedy hit of the night in realistic mimicry, mimicry and with the grotesque dancing of Lydell. The latter is an eccentric comedian, who works in the audience part of the time and kept the audience interested every minute.

The bill closes with Carlos' circus of trained dogs and ponies and it is a well arranged act.

Romance, blended with the thrill of danger and doubt; loyalty, emphasized by surrounding treachery and intrigue; the impulse of daring and the ecstasy of hazard; the tense struggle of souls in combat; the high, heroic desire and deadly reckless ambition and the misery of its climax; the power of the love of the woman.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 26.—The state board of pardons Wednesday ended its fall session and in a few days will submit its recommendations to Gov. Ralston. A large number of the petitions for clemency were from convicts serving life sentences.

Mrs. Ralph Nalley, 18 years old, with her seven-months-old babe in her arms appealed to the board to free her 26-year-old husband from the state reformatory.

Nalley was convicted for entering a store to commit a larceny. At the time the couple had been married but seven months and since then his wife has earned her living by sewing.

THE COMMON LAW

a dramatization of Robt. W. Chambers' sensational novel will be the attraction at the Oliver Friday evening. The book was widely read and the play is said to closely follow the story, on all of the important points, making it especially interesting to those who are familiar with the novel.

"OFFICER 666." "Officer 666" is a good natured "copper" and theatergoers have laughed their heads off at his ineffectual efforts to arrest the high-toned thief, who, in the play, finally purloins the uniform of the brave officer and makes his "getaway," not, however, before many thrilling episodes have cropped up in the three acts Augustin McElough, the author of the farce, takes to tell his most amusing story. "Officer 666" will be the attraction at the Oliver Saturday, matinee and night. Special bargain prices have been arranged for the matinee—twenty-five cents in the balcony and fifty cents on the main floor with all seats reserved.

"MAN FROM HOME." The character to be played by Miss Lydia Knott in "The Man From Home," at the Auditorium next week when the Grayce Scott players present that remarkable play, is that of a haughty aristocratic English dowager whose most frequent remark is, "Don't mumble your words," a remark of repeated, becomes very amusing. The remark, by the way was written into the play by accident.

Both Tarkington, one of the authors of the play, was reading the manuscript to an elderly aunt, before it was turned over to Will Hodge who was to star in the piece. Mr. Tarkington's voice became a steady, unbroken reading and every now and then he would drop it and become less clear. GIRLS IMPLICATED TO FACE JUVENILE COURT

Wife of Bishop Moreland Successfully Opposes Resolution to Dismiss Charges.

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Sept. 26.—Mrs. W. H. Moreland, wife of Bishop Moreland of the Episcopal diocese, successfully opposed a resolution offered by two members of the probation committee of the juvenile court which provided for the dismissal of all proceedings against Marsha Warrington and Lola Norris, whose elopement to Reno, Nev., with Maury I. Diggs and F. Drew Caminetti resulted in the conviction of the men for violation of the Mann white slave act. The resolution was defeated by a vote of four to three and the girls will be taken before the juvenile court and placed under restriction.

"Both of these girls are going about the streets shopping and laughing and chatting with friends," said the bishop's wife. "Some restraint should be placed upon them."

WIFE FINDS HUSBAND HANGING IN THE ATTIC

Clarence Rowley Ends His Life at Michigan City—Take Body to Elkhart.

ELKHART, Ind., Sept. 26.—Clarence Rowley, aged 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Rowley of 836 Grant st., Elkhart, committed suicide by hanging in his home at Michigan City at 5:45 o'clock Thursday morning.

Mr. Rowley's body was found by his wife hanging to a rafter in an attic off the kitchen of their home. The discovery was made after she had been awakened by the alarm clock. Missing her husband she made a search.

Although Rowley was in good health he had often threatened suicide, it is said. His wife went visiting Tuesday, leaving a note explaining her absence. When she returned in time for supper it is said he was in an unpleasant humor, and spats followed. Rowley went to Michigan City four months ago and was engaged as a steelworker in the car shops.

Warren Rowley and Undertaker Charles Walley went to Michigan City Thursday morning to bring the body to Elkhart.

Your Rowley is survived by his parents, a brother, Charles Rowley, and a sister, Miss Bertha Rowley. At one time he was a teamster in the employ of the C. G. Conn Co. here. His father has long been a metalworker in that company's factory.

IF 25c WORTH OF PICRIC OF CITRIC acids will, through careful quantitative tests made day by day, prove that the escape of albumen can be counteracted and that Bright's Disease is now curable by Fulton's Renal Compound if taken in hand soon enough, it is the duty of every one interested to test this fact. Kidney ailments (old-time kidney medicine) are counter-indicated except where there is suppression. With an agent to counteract renal degeneration Bright's Disease becomes a curable ailment. Where the heart is not broken down and there is recuperative power. The new agent, Fulton's Renal Compound, is a mild infusion without stimulants, sedative or heart agents. Its motive being to counteract renal degeneration it can be seen that the usual heart, stimulative and tonic treatment which extreme cases may require can be taken with it without conflict. It commonly gets results alone if given soon enough. The substance of the formula surrounds each bottle. If you have Bright's Disease you owe it to yourself and family to try Fulton's Renal Compound before giving up. It can be had at Woods' Strickland's. Ask for pamphlet on our investigation into the curability of Bright's Disease, or write John J. Fulton Co., San Francisco, Advertisement.
