JEW'S CELEBRATE THEIR NEW YEAR

Services Began in Local Synagogues Wednesday and Feast Will Continue Until Saturday Night.

The Jewish New Year began Wednesday and ceremonies will be held up to late Friday night in the Jewish synagogues of the city.

Thursday morning the year will be officially heralded by the sounding of coronets in various churches.

The music will be especially beautiful at the services. At Temple Beth-El music revised by the Jewish-American composer, Schlessinger, from some of the old traditional hymns that are centuries old will be rendered.

The great personal sacrifices and religious allegiance is manifested by the orthodox Jews who will continue their services up to Friday night.

At 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening services at Temple Beth-El will begin by a sermon by Rabbi Cronbach when he will use "Union and Strength" as his subject.

An effort to organize a federation among local Jewish charities is being made by Rabbi Cronbach.

On Thursday night the services at the temple will complete the New Year's ceremonies, when the rabbi will talk on the subject, "Another Year."

Temple Beth-El religious school will begin Friday. A children's orchestra will be supplied this year and Miss Dora Hershonow will succeed Dr. Chas. Rosenbury as organist.

ON THE GRIDIRON

CHICAGO.

Coach A. A. Stagz of Chicago, announced Thursday that after practice today he would pick the Maroon eleven which will face Indiana in Chicago Saturday.

ILLINOIS.

Secret practice has been inaugurated by Coach Zupp at Illinois. Candidates for the squad are kept working by electric light until late every evening.

WISCONSIN.

Struggle was abandoned at Wisconsin Tuesday to give the squad a rest before Saturday's game with Lawrence. Coach Juneau lined 40 men up at the goal line and at the crack of a pistol sent them racing to the center of the field to get a lip on the fastest members of the squad.

PURDUE.

Coach Smith announced Thursday that Dailley would work at center for Purdue against Wabash Saturday.

SHE CHASES MAN.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 2.—After an exciting chase covering nearly a mile, Miss Helen Shepard, a young society woman, Wednesday captured Ernest Quinby, who she alleges, snatched her purse. Quinby also was identified by others who saw the robbery.

GARDINER LOST TO THE HARVARD ELEVEN

Star Tackle Who Broke His Arm in 1911 is Advised to Stay Out of the Game.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 2.—Tudor Gardiner, star tackle of the Harvard varsity eleven of 1911, and a leading candidate for end on the present crimson team, probably will never play football again.

Gardiner was lost to the Harvard team Wednesday when physicians advised against his playing. He broke his forearm in the Harvard-Princeton game two years ago and the injury kept him out of the game last year.

Under the test of two weeks' practice the arm has been found too weak to allow him to play with reasonable safety.

His absence, together with the illness of Millholland and Dana and the ineffectiveness of Smith, has left Harvard with only three available ends, instead of the seven who started the practice season.

RECRUITS ALLOW THREE SAFETIES

Philadelphia Uses Second String Men in Game But They Force Washington to Hustle to Win Contest.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Washington made it three straight shutouts by winning from Philadelphia Wednesday one to nothing. Again the champions played none but second string men, but they forced the locals to hustle in order to win.

Bentley, a Washington recruit, pitched almost as good ball as his opponent. He was relieved to make way for a pinch-hitter in the eighth. Gallia pitched the ninth inning for Washington and retired the Athletics in order.

MACKMEN WILL BEGIN TRAINING FOR GAMES

Men Who Were Responsible for the Pennant to be Sent Against New York.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2.—Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics, returned Wednesday night with his "cub" players who have been used in the series just completed against Washington and Thursday the American league champions, weather permitting, will start the final games of their regular schedule with New York.

It is expected that Mack will present his strongest lineup in order that team work may be perfected for the world's series next week.

The first string players of the Athletics have been allowed to take things easy since they clinched the pennant. They were expected to start Wednesday a course of training that would put them on edge for the opening game with the New York Giants next Tuesday, but rain which fell in almost a continuous downpour prevented them from practicing at Shibe park.

Manager Mack will place his full strength in the field against New York for the series of three games scheduled to be played Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

WOMEN CAN'T SMOKE. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2.—Despite a storm of protest from women of the city, the New exclusive hotel Vendig, will not rescind a rule which allows women to smoke in the dining room.
