

SPOOK AND LADY ARE BIG FEATURES

Interesting Stunts Pulled at the High School Night at the Y. M. C. A.—J. M. Studebaker Sr., Hears Cheers.

One grand time was the opinion of everyone who attended the annual high school reception held at the Y. M. C. A. Friday night. Robert Buechner as Grand "Spook" and Dorothy Brugger as Grand "Spookette" presided over the festivities. The inaugural of these two celebrities was attended by a dance of four witches and four skeletons. The society prize for the most number of introductory subscriptions was won by the Euglossians, while the seniors carried off the class prize. Lisle Kreighbaum won the $5 gold piece for the most subscriptions turned in by an individual. Donald Livingston won the prize of three tickets for having the second highest number. The following received a prize of one season athletic ticket for their work in the contest: Raymond Phillips, Bernice Augustine, Virginia Schneider, Edith Emmons, Robert Snyder, Helen Jackson, Loyal McMillan, Verna Rallsback, Erma Sawyer and Marie Jackson. Lisle Kreighbaum, Donald Livingston, Raymond Phillips, Bernice Augustine, Virginia Schneider, Robert Snyder, Edith Emmons, Helen Jackson, Loyal McMillan and Verna Rallsback won a free subscription to the Interlude for their efforts. One of the features of the evening was the celebration of the 80th birthday anniversary of J. M. Studebaker, one of the original donors of the building. Mr. Studebaker was called on the phone and the receiver was taken off that he might hear the cheers given in his honor. Following this came the basketball contest between the Eugos and Cloos, which was won by the former by a score of 9 to 7. A unique dressing contest followed, which was won by the juniors, Willard Hiapp being the successful entrant wearing the colors of '13. Previous to the dressing contest some enterprising juniors climbed to the top of the building and let their class banner down through the skylight. Sometime later the seniors annexed their banner. The scooter race was billed next and was won by Dorothy Dally of the seniors, after a hard fight by Marie Jackson of the juniors. The faculty easily demonstrated their superiority over the students' volleyball team by a score of 15 to 8. The faculty disguised themselves by wearing masks over their eyes, although the majority of them were easily recognized. The class stunts were the next offering and they were very entertaining if some of them were not original. The seniors took first with a satire on "Seeing the new building." The juniors were second with a mock wedding in which "Miss" Lisle Kreighbaum was wedded to Master Ellis Dean. The sophomores presented the "Faculty Picnic" and the freshmen offered the "Symphony Orchestra." All were decidedly good.

FEDERAL SOLDIERS GUARDING DEPUTIES One Version is That Members Proposed to Carry Out Their Threat to Abandon the Mexican Capital.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 11.—The chamber of deputies is surrounded by federal troops Friday night and several hundred others are inside the building. It is reported that Pres. Huerta intends to dissolve the body. One version of the affair is that the deputies purposed to carry out their threats to abandon the capital owing to alleged lack of guarantees for their personal safety and that Pres. Huerta's action was intended to prevent them fulfilling this purpose. BATTLE RAGING. EL PASO, Texas, Oct. 11.—A battle between 3,000 federal troops under General Marcelino Caraveo, J. Manilla and Jose Salazar and the rebel command of Generals Chao and Rosalia S. Hernandez began Friday morning at Diaz station, 23 miles north of Jiminez, Chihuahua, according to an official message from Gen. Mercado of Chihuahua City to the Juarez fed-erals. The Juarez military authorities have been unable to obtain any details of the fighting up to a late hour. The troops engaged in the battle are the same which fought north of Santa Rosalia a week ago, in which the federal forces were victorious. If the federal force is successful in the battle against Chao's rebels they will continue southward to Torreon as orders from Secy. of War Blanquet were received by the Chihuahua military to rush as many men as possible to Torreon to assist in retaking the town from the rebel forces who are in control there.
