

SOCIAL AND OTHER INTERESTS OF WOMEN

Society

Beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding Wednesday evening of Miss Lura Marie Harlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Harlin, and Dr. Charles Oliver Burgess, son of Dr. George Burgess of Monmouth, Ill., which took place at the home of the bride's parents, 530 N. Main st., at 8:30 o'clock.

The bride was attended by Mrs. H. R. McCartney, nee Edna Meyers of Winnepeg, Can., as matron of honor, and Dr. Burgess was attended by William Harlin, brother of the bride. The little Misses Marguerite and Ermagarde Freyer were flower girls. The scheme of the wedding was yellow and white. An arch of greenery was constructed in the bay window in the living room, which was banked with greenery and yellow chrysanthemums and here the ceremony was read by Rev. Father Baynton, arch-deacon of St. James' Episcopal church.

The wedding party descended the stairs as Irvin Dolk, harpist, played the wedding march, the little flower girls, in blue frocks, coming first, then the matron of honor and the bride, who was met at the foot of the steps by her father, who gave her away at the altar. Mrs. McCartney wore her wedding gown and carried yellow chrysanthemums. The bride was lovely in a simple creation of white charmeuse with a gracefully draped skirt made entrain and a shadow lace bodice with a touch of duchess lace at neck and sleeves. She wore a full length veil and carried a shower of bride's roses and valley lilies.

A reception for 150 guests followed the ceremony. The centerpiece on the dining table was an empire basket of Madame Ward roses. Mrs. H. V. Kimball assisted. Guests from out of the city were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Carroll of Byron, O., Dr. Wagner and Miss Ida Long of Kalamazoo, Mich., Miss Dora Ballou of Cadillac, Mich., Miss Lillian Stoeck, Miss Lena Burgess, Willard Murdock, August Johnson and Eugene Nussle of Monmouth, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Burgess left shortly after the ceremony for a short eastern trip. After Dec. 1 they will be at home to friends in Monmouth. The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's college at Knoxville, Ill., and the groom of the University of Illinois and the P. and S. Medical school.

A wedding of interest to a large circle of friends took place Wednesday in Grand Forks, N. D. when Miss Charlotte Black of that place became the bride of Clifford Maurer Loutz, of South Bend. The ceremony took place at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norma N. Black, 301 Chestnut st. in a bower of ferns and American beauty roses, canopied with white ribbons. Rev. William H. Matthews, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiated.

The only attendant was little Miss Margaret Douglas, who carried a ring in an American beauty rose. Miss Margaret Sargent played the piano, and Miss Clara Wolff the violin. The bride's gown was of brocade crepe meteor with duchess lace waist, made with full train and she wore a full length veil.

A reception followed the ceremony. The dining table was adorned with yellow and white roses. Guests from out of the city were Mrs. W. H. Loutz of South Bend, mother of the groom, Mrs. Fred B. Black of Day, Mich., and Mrs. William Hutchinson of Milwaukee, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Loutz left shortly after the ceremony for a trip into Canada. They will be at home after Nov. 1 at 615 Rush st. The bride's going away gown was a brown mixture with a brown hat.

The bride's father is the editor of a Grand Forks newspaper. The groom is assistant cashier of the Chapin State bank.

Miss Cecelia A. Burkhard of St. Joseph, and Chester McGrath of Sioux City, Ia., a former Notre Dame student, were quietly married at 5:30 o'clock Thursday morning in Sacred Heart chapel at Notre Dame. Rev. Matthew Schumacher, C. S. C., performed the ceremony. Miss Catherine Kane of Williamsport, Pa., who for two years was Mr. McGrath's roommate in St. Joe hall, was best man.

The groom was graduated in law from the university in 1912. He played fullback on the varsity football team in 1911 and was popular among the students during his four years at Notre Dame. The young couple will live in Sioux City after a short wedding trip.

Mrs. J. B. Mills of Memphis, Tenn., guest of Mrs. D. E. Baker, and charter member of the Wednesday club, was present at the meeting of the club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Mary Chapin on W. Colfax av. Mrs. Mills had not attended a meeting for 18 years. Mrs. Walter Funk led in the discussion of Niagara and Managua. The club will meet again next week with Miss Chapin.

A pretty October wedding took place at nine o'clock Thursday morning at St. Patrick's church, when Miss Clara Stults of South Bend and Frederick Ellsworth Reichard of Miamisburg, O. were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. John F. DeGroot. Miss Sarah Reichard, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid and Elo Stults, brother of the bride, served as groomsmen.

The bride was charming in a gown of embroidered net over muslin. She wore a full length veil fastened with orange blossoms and carried bride's roses. The bridesmaid wore a white voile gown and picture hat and carried pink roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stults, 1223 S. Franklin st. Covers were laid for 50 relatives and friends. The house was attractively arranged with flowers in a scheme of pink and white.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Reichard left for a short wedding trip in the east, after which they will go to Miamisburg to live. The out of town guests present at the wedding were Miss Sarah and George Reichard of Miamisburg, James Corbett and daughter, Miss Mary, of Port Wayne, Mrs. George Bolinger and son, Mrs. P. A. Edwards of South Whitley, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Colbert and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Colbert of Mishawaka.

The recall of its meaning and the extent and results of its use in the United States were the topics discussed in an interesting manner by Mrs. Ryell T. Miller before the members of the current events department of the Progress club Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Miller also touched upon the points of likeness between the impeachment of Gov. Sulzer or New York and Mayor Gill of Seattle, shown in the latter case how the recall worked and the part which women had in the case as voters.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thomas Gallagher of 636 Sheridan road, Chicago, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Grace Katherine, to Francis Hugh McKeever, formerly of South Bend and a Notre Dame student.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Yoder entertained at dinner at noon Thursday in honor of Mr. Yoder's eighty-fifth birthday anniversary, the guests being their children and their families. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Yoder of New Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. William Yoder, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chiles, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Yoder and the Misses Matilda and Beryl Yoder. The table held a centerpiece of garden flowers.

Invitations have been issued by Miss Anne DuShane for a 4 o'clock tea at the Lexington tea room Saturday afternoon, complimenting Miss Hilda Stedman, whose marriage to Henry B. Cross will take place Nov. 1.

A number of special features were introduced at the fortnightly dancing party for the married folks of the Commercial Athletic club Wednesday evening. Several cotillion figures were given with favors for each. Mattes' orchestra played the program of dances. Refreshments were served at 10:30 o'clock. The committee for the occasion included W. D. Puterbaugh, A. F. Fischer and Harry Bagby. The committee for the next dance will be W. W. Schneider, Nelson L. Jones and Ralph H. Seely.

The Violet club was pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. L. C. Crail at her home on Kenwood av. The afternoon was spent at cards at which favors were won by Mrs. Bert Norton, Mrs. F. W. Evans and Mrs. Sylvia Riffel. The hostess served dainty refreshments. In two weeks the club will meet with Mrs. Mae Rupe, 501 S. Lafayette st.

Members of the Select Pedro club were guests of Mrs. Anthony Mayerhoff, 1018 Carroll st., Wednesday afternoon, making up three tables at cards. The first favor went to Mrs. B. M. Cox, the second to Mrs. Ed Spangle and the guest favor to Mrs. Lola Hummer. Dainty refreshments were served after the games. The club is planning to entertain their husbands Oct. 22 at the home of Mrs. Frank Kugel, 1017 Riverside drive. The next regular meeting will be in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Fred Nelderauer, 1017 Carroll st.

AMERICAN GIRL WILL NOT BE DUCHESS

LADY ALASTAIR INNES-KER. LONDON, Sept. 27.—The birth of an heir to the Duke and Duchess of Roxburghe has made a decided change in the dreams of Lady Alastair Innes-Ker, who was Miss Anna Breeze of New York. Lady Alastair's husband was heir to the title until the arrival of his eldite stranger. The coming of the Roxburghe heir, whose mother also is an American woman, Mae Golet, has also destroyed the chances more than likely, of Lady Innes-Ker's own son ever holding the title. But Lady Innes-Ker is in no way disgruntled. She was one of the first to offer congratulations to the duke and duchess, and so far as any one can observe her nose is not the least bit out of joint.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

MAKING HER LIFE LESS MONOTONOUS

The Woman Who Would Remain Young and Interesting Must Create Interests For Herself Outside Her Routine.

The woman who complains of the monotony of life should take a leaf from the note-book of the woman of 53 who graduated this summer from a college in Nebraska.

If the woman were asked if she found life monotonous she would probably laugh at the question. And she would tell you beamingly and enthusiastically that she found every minute of life full of zest and satisfaction. In all probability, she hasn't time enough to enjoy all the good things she finds in life.

Not every woman of 53 can go to college and graduate. But she can take up some one study or subject of reading and find out thereby how full of interest life is and what a big proposition it is.

How many, as they look up at the stars at night, realize what a universe of wonder and mystery is over them? Probably very few. Most of us take the stars for granted and give little thought to them. But if we did nothing but read a few of the popular books of astronomy, life would have larger meaning for us, and an evening on the piazza or the sea beach, greater enjoyment.

If we would make a point of learning something about the wild flowers that we pass every day in a brief walk or see from the trolley or train, we would find our walk or ride more enjoyable.

There are scores of other things about us on all sides just as interesting. And there is more to the study of them than is seen at first glance. For everything that nature makes is a marvel of workmanship, no matter how tiny it may be. And when one begins to understand the wonderful mechanism, the perfection and beauty, even in what one has always thought a weed, a feeling of interest, almost of affection, springs up for it, that gives a zest and delight to the study of it that no one can appreciate until he has experienced it.

Unseeing and Unthinking. And with all these wonders about us, it is strange that we go on our way unseeing, unthinking, and complaining that life is dull and monotonous; while they have been put here for the very purpose of preventing life from being flat and monotonous.

And what this woman has accomplished, and what many another woman, even older—last year a woman of 80 graduated from college—has accomplished shows that women can do if they will.

Age is no handicap. In fact such interests keep one young. The thing to do is to resolve upon some such course. And now in the idle days when one has time to think, is the opportunity to look ahead and plan out some study or reading for the winter months that are coming.

The woman who wants to keep young, the woman who wants to be interesting, the woman who wants to be popular, the woman who says she is bashful and has nothing to talk about—all these and many others who want greater joy in life will find this the road to their desires. The only way to prove it, is to travel it. Unfamiliar to many women seem distinguished to set out on the journey. They prefer to buy something in a bottle to keep them young, or something at the beauty specialists to make them popular.

But this is the far more interesting and the surer method. For it keeps the spirit young and enthusiastic. It fills one with the joy of life. And this makes one entertaining and sought after. It gives that magnetism that attracts. Better yet, it gives one's self greater joy in living, and that is the most important of all.

Lafayette to witness the Purdue-Wisconsin game and to be the guests of friends for a few days.

Mrs. E. T. Larrabee of Star City is the guest for several days of Mr. and Mrs. Paxton in South Bend. Mrs. Larrabee expects to spend the winter in New York city.

George Robertson and family are the guests of friends in Chicago for a few days.

Mrs. Frank Blair and son, Harold, of Laporte are the guests for a few days of Mrs. Blair's daughter, Miss Mary Blair.

Mrs. T. J. Creel of Angola left Wednesday for her home, after a brief visit with her daughter, Joyce, at St. Mary's.

The Ellsworth Store

The Stamp of Fashion.

Some Seasons it is the waist, others the sleeves, but this season it is the skirt which establishes the Date of the Garment—and no one who sees the Gowns and frocks in this Ellsworth Showing can doubt of their Smartness. Nor, can anyone question the Smartness of the Reception Wraps because they likewise bear the Stamp of Fashion.

When in Black and White we set it down that this Special Showing of Afternoon Gowns, Reception Wraps and Dancing Frocks would be the Most Exquisite ever brought to South Bend—Even Outdoing Our Previous Displays—we meant what we said. This is indeed a Fashion Showing Extraordinary—a Display thus far Much Admired and Deserving of Much Admiration. It's Well Worth a Trip Down Town Just to See.

Almost every style that is being shown has a High Girdle—and a good many have the upper parts of the bodices of Transparent Stuffs—Marquissette or Chiffon Embroidered—and Opening over Lace and Net Chemisettes.

Sashes are Pleated—Some Dresses have Tunics or Hip Draperies, Showing all hat is left of the Pannier which the designers hreathened to revive wo years ago.

The Colors too, have the Richness of Autumn about them—Golden Browns, Purples, Taupe, Blues and Blacks, Navy of course.

And, as for Reception Wraps—the same tendencies—those of Fall 1913—are Clearly Apparent in the Wraps in this Unusual style Showing now in progress at the Ellsworth Store—the Wraps also have all the Richness of Autumn about them, especially in their Colorings.
