MRS. FREDERICK BURNHAM PREFERS HUNTING BIG GAME TO ATTENDING SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

Mrs. Frederick Burnham is not a society matron, but a huntress. She has hunted big game in all parts of the United States, Alaska and Canada, and recently started on a trip into darkest Africa to bag a few elephants and rhinos. "Society functions" have no appeal to Mrs. Burnham. She would rather take her rifle and a couple of Indian guides and burrow deep into the jungle in search of big game.
