Law and Order League Petitions Mayor Keller to Have "Colonel's" Permit to Run Saloon Revoked.

Steps to deprive Col. Joseph M. Sullivan, proprietor of the Nickel hotel, cafe and saloon, were taken by the St. Joseph County Law and Order League Thursday, in an affidavit and petition filed with Mayor Fred W. Keller. The petition demands that Sullivan be required to appear before the city executive and answer a complaint that he has violated the state liquor license law several times in the past four years, and urging that his license be revoked.

Sullivan has been cited by Mayor Keller to appear for a public hearing Monday when the matter will be thrashed out. According to the affidavit, the Nickel Cafe liquor license expires May 15, and Sullivan is now making an effort to get it renewed. Action was taken at this particular time to prevent its renewal.

The complaint was made by Warren E. Johnson, one of the 15 men at the head of the Law and Order Enforcement league. It points out that Sullivan—the agent for the saloon—is not a responsible person to be allowed to keep a saloon. Six specific violations are outlined in the affidavit.

The affidavit points out the following violations—one on the blank day of February, 1914; one on the blank day of January, 1914; one on the day of 1912. (It being alleged this conviction was made in Justice of the Peace court, before George Zinky); and two during July, 1913.

This will be the first occasion on which Mayor Keller has been called to act in such judicial capacity since his installation Jan. 5. The hearing will be public and will be in his office. Three convictions if sustained are necessary to revoke a saloonkeeper's license.

Minnesota Flagship.
The flag of Rear Admiral Badger now floats from the Minnesota, which he has taken for his flagship.
The stars and stripes wave over the Terminal hotel, where Rear Admiral Fletcher, chief in command of land operations, has established his headquarters.
A serious situation confronts the people of Vera Cruz. With business paralyzed and stores closed, many families are without food and appeals have been sent to Consul Canada for relief. Hundreds of families were driven from their homes by the fighting in the streets and are camped upon the sandy plains flanking the city without food or shelter.
Plan Temporary Government.
The American naval authorities hoped that the city would be rid of "snipers" by night, so that Rear Admiral Fletcher could organize a temporary government for the city. It is the desire of Admiral Fletcher and Consul Canada to restore a semblance of normal conditions as soon as possible so that the refugees may be cared for. Shopkeepers have been invited to reopen their stores, being promised full protection by the naval police force.
Communication with Mexico City was still interrupted and keen anxiety was felt over the safety of Americans who were believed to be on their way to this city.
An alarming report that federal troops under General Maas had blown up a train load of refugees on the Inter-oceanic railway were circulated here but could not be confirmed.

Conspicuous for their gallantry were Ensigns Townsend and Badger, who led the advance which drove the rebels from the buildings in the vicinity of the Diligencia hotel. A number of Mexicans had taken refuge in

TISSUE BUILDING

Tissue is the doctor's name for body cells. It is to our bodies what coal is to an engine. Every day we burn up a certain amount of tissue. Therefore new tissue must be built to take the place of the lost fuel. The food we eat makes this new tissue and in a healthy person gives enough fuel to replace the loss. People get thin, and "run down" because they do not get enough nourishment from their food to supply the needed fuel. When the weakened system does not do its duty you must have a "tissue builder." Father John's Medicine is a real tissue builder because it actually makes new flesh and tissue. When you take Father John's Medicine, the actual food elements of which it is composed give you new strength, and enable the organs of the body to resume their work. Father John's Medicine soothes and heals throat and lungs, treats colds, bronchitis, asthma. People gain weight steadily while taking it. Father John's Medicine is for sale in South Bend by Conley Drug Co., 124 N. Washington st., and Michigan st., also Public Drug Store, Strickel & Steinel, 124 N. Michigan st., and practically all other drug stores in the city. If you have any difficulty in getting Father John's Medicine from your druggist, write to Father John's Medicine, Lowell, Mass., enclosing one dollar for a full sized bottle.

Fletcher Headquarters in Hotel.
The stars and stripes wave over the Terminal hotel, where Rear Admiral Fletcher, chief in command of the land operations, has been made the headquarters. He uses as his offices the apartments occupied by Envoy John Lind when he was here. Admiral Fletcher's staff is composed of the following: Capt. Harry McCl. Huse, chief of staff; Commander Stone, Lieutenant Commander C. Kalbfus, Naval Constructor Richard D. Gatewood, Lieutenant Albert M. Cohen, ordnance officer; Lieutenant George McCours, aide and secretary; Ensign Harold Debel and Ensign Mack L. Hessel, aides; Surgeon Middleton S. Elliott and Paymaster Christopher J. Peoples.
Temporary hospitals have been established throughout the city, the chief one being in the Plaza hotel, which is in charge of Dr. Elliott, of the dreadnaught Florida.
Members of the American medical corps have been installed in the San Sebastian hospital where there are a number of wounded Mexicans.
Early today a number of machine guns were brought ashore from the newly arrived battleships, some of them being posted on the flat roofs of the adobe houses. Sunrise found the roof of the parochial church, the largest building in the city, swarming with bluejackets, ready to pick off any Mexican "snipers" that might show themselves.
Machine Gun on Roof.
A machine gun was placed upon the roof of the Hotel Diligencia the upper rooms of this hotel and were firing from the windows. When the Americans broke down the doors the two gallant ensigns led in the hand-to-hand fighting which followed in the rooms and corridors. The quarters were too close for firing so the Americans and Mexicans grasped their guns by the barrel and clubbed each other. Several men were shot down in the attack upon this Mexican barricade.

Among the Americans who were quartered in the hotel when the fighting began, but who escaped from the dangerous positions, were Mrs. Charles R. Hudson, wife of the vice president of the Mexican National railway line; Dr. and Mrs. Tozzer, of Harvard university, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Ryder.
Americans Offer to Nurse.
Two American women, Mrs. Mary Crow and Mrs. Harry Archer, who had fled here from Mexico City, offered their services as nurses, and assisted in caring for the wounded.
The Americans on the firing line suffered greatly from lack of water. They were under orders not to drink the city water for fear it might contain poison and most of them had exhausted the contents of their canteens.
A number of Mexicans, mostly women with babies in their arms, appealed to American sailors and marines for food. Most of the appeals were heeded, notwithstanding the fact that the hard work ashore had made "Jack" a hungry man himself.
It was estimated that by nightfall today there would be upwards of 5,000 marines and sailors on shore and that all danger to Americans from Mexican irregulars in the city proper would be passed.
