

VEHICLES TAKE TO HEAVY GROUNDS; BEAT HOOSIERS

Hard Downpour Soaks Field, But Game is Called After an Hour's Delay—Final Outcome is Nine to Two.

A sloppy diamond brewed sloppy fielding at Springbrook park yesterday afternoon and the Hoosiers were forced to drop their initial game of the Flint series to the Vehicles by a score of 9 to 2.

A heavy downpour which lasted about 30 minutes before the game was called put the grounds in such a condition that it was thought for a while that the tilt would have to be called off altogether.

Hixon appeared on the mound for the Hoosiers and allowed the Vehicles but eight safeties. Morton, the minister-pitcher, officiated for the Vehicles. He was a trifle wild at times, but held the Hoosiers to seven safeties.

Edmiston started the first frame for the Vehicles with a triple on the third ball pitched. However, he was kept from scoring when Pahlman flew to Korfhagen and Thebo flew to Patterson, who pegged home in time to get Edmiston.

The Hoosiers held the Michigananders runless until the third when they pushed over two counters. Vesmer whiffed. Morton sent a Texas leaguer over Stevenson's head and Edmiston was hit. Pahlman's drive was touched by Hixon and Stevenson fielded it in time to get the runner at first.

The Hoosiers' first counter came in the fourth. Stevenson was out when he grounded to third, but Arndt singled to center. Patterson walked a drive at Morton and the Flint pitcher threw it into the right field bleachers allowing Arndt to make the trip home. Pait took third. Lane fanned and Foley popped to Morton.

In the half of the fourth the Vehicles went out and by means of four errors and a double, put over three runs. Love was safe when Lane dropped his fly. Dunn sent a grounder to Korfhagen, who threw wild when he tried to get Love at second. Murray flew to Patterson. Vesmer doubled to left and Dunn and Love scored. Morton was safe when Stevenson booted his grounder and Vesmer scored. Stevie tried to toss to the catcher but missed. Dobbins then hurried the ball to third and caught Morton. Pahlman went down Foley to Arndt.

The Vehicles drew blanks in the fifth and sixth, although in the sixth Thebo led with a double. He was wedded to the base, however, as Hoffman, Love and Dunn flew respectively to Dobbins, Grodick and Stevenson.

A fast drive to Hixon. It was a smoky one but the Hoosier southpaw held on to it. Thebo was hit and Hoffman singled through second. Love scored Thebo with a safety through the same hole and Dunn scored Love and Hoffman with a triple to left and scored himself when Dobbins missed Grodick's throw-in. Lane dropped Murray's fly, but the side was retired with a double kill when Vesmer hit Stevenson. Stevenson caught Murray at second and Foley whipped the pill to Arndt in time to get Vesmer.

The Hoosiers got their second and last counter in the eighth. Stevenson walked, stole second and scored when Arndt pole one through short. Patterson fanned and Lane ended the game by fling to Edmiston.

THE BOX SCORE ANNEX BY MURRAY. Two games with Flint today. The first called for 10 this morning. The second at 3 o'clock. Keifer will pitch the first one. Either Schorr or Duffy will work in the afternoon game.

It will be the last home game for some time. The Hoosiers will journey to Saginaw for two games on Sunday and Monday.

Doc Schmick departed from our midst yesterday and forgot to tell Ed Smith of his intentions. Ed was rather peeved as Doc cost real money but was lucky in the fact that he had Harry Arndt to shove in at first.

Lane, a new man, was sent to center in place of Arndt. The going out there was so damp that it would hardly be to attempt to draw a line on his ability from the form he displayed yesterday.

It was some rain at Springbrook although folks who don't go out say it didn't rain down town. That is not until about 5 o'clock.

The diamond looked like a miniature lake, but the sun came out and with the assistance of some good brooms, part of the water was swept away. But there was some left even after the game was finished.

Patterson pulled a pretty throw in the first inning catching Edmiston at the plate. His next effort went way wide of the plate and a couple of runs came home.

That ball was hard to handle yesterday especially when it came floating along on the water in the infield. The locals had more chances on infield hits and so made more poor tosses.

Arndt came near being put out of the game when Korfhagen tossed love to first. Harry stopped it and fell towards first intending to pick up the ball and make the play. Vesmer was coming fast and stepped on Arndt's head. He tried his best to prevent an accident and his whole weight did not fall on Harry, otherwise a serious injury might have resulted.

Korfhagen is picking up in his hitting. He batted an even thousand, getting two hits and two walks in four trips to the plate.

Flint scored three runs on one hit in the fourth. Four errors helped them across. Dunn and Edmiston were the lads who came through with three base hits. Both drives were lost in the clouds and rolled way back to deep left.

NATIONALS WIN AND DROP GAME

BOSTON, May 30.—The Red Sox and Senators shook even in their double header Friday afternoon the visitors winning the first battle 1 to 0, and losing the second game, 6 to 5, after ten innings of the most exciting kind of baseball. Washington took the lead in the second game right at the start, scoring two runs in the first inning. This was overcome in the fourth by good hitting by the locals.

The game then went along until the tenth when with two out Scott singled to left, scoring Henriksen. Lewis sent over the winning run with a hit to deep short which he beat out, allowing Engle to tally.

REVOLUTION IN BALL CIRCLES IS PROMISED CHICAGO, May 30.—Predictions of a revolution that will shake organized baseball from top to bottom and result in a series of new affiliations were made Friday by Pres. James A. Gilmore of the Federal league as the insurgent chief watched the rain drops that prevented the Chicago and the Indianapolis Peds from keepings their first date of the season.

The upheaval, according to Gilmore, will occur within 6 days and will be complete and thorough to the last detail. That's as far as the third league executive would discuss his prophecy, but from various remarks, it seems that he believes the American association, the International league and the Western league, at least, will be among the first to figure in the shifting process.

Gilmore would not go into details regarding what sort of a make-up baseball government would assume after the revolution, but apparently he wouldn't be the least bit surprised to see the association and International league and possibly the Western circuit pulled away from the organized game and form a confederacy with the independents.

BUFF-FEDS HIT BALL AT OPPORTUNE TIMES BUFFALO, May 30.—Earl Moore held the Brooklyn Federals scoreless here Friday until the ninth inning when the Tiptops tallied once on two hits. Their rally came to nothing, however, and Buffalo took the second straight by a 5 to 1 score. Marion pitched fair ball for Brooklyn, but the Buff-Feds hits were timely. Boog and Westerfield were in the limelight in the ninth.

Errors by both teams accounted for more than half the runs.

BALTIMORE, May 30.—In a lifeless exhibition of baseball Pittsburgh won the second game of the series from the Terrapins, 7 to 5, Friday. In the second inning both teams engaged in an old fashioned slugfest with the visitors starting the show by knocking out five runs. Then Baltimore took a turn at the stick and batted out four runs. THE GIANTS DEFEATED AFTER ELEVEN INNINGS

Wabash Scores Two Runs in Ninth But Notre Dame, Through the Aid of Kelly, Starts Rally, Tying Count.

After Wabash had sent over two runs in the first half of the ninth, Notre Dame evened up the count by tallying two in her half and went out in the 11th, drawing first blood in the two-game series with the downstater in a spectacular battle which ended 4 to 3.

"Moke" Kelly, the gold and blue captain, was the hero of the tilt. With his team two runs behind in the ninth, the heady leader, as pinch hitter, laid down a perfect bunt that started his men on a rally that tied the count. Again in the 11th "Kelly" was the big noise. He led off with a double to left and tallied the winning run a moment later on Duggan's single.

Nichols opened the ninth for Wabash with a pretty Texas leaguer. Korhs batted at the time. Kelly pegged wild to second in an effort to get Nichols, giving both an extra base. Coffing hit to D. Newning, who held Nichols at third and got Coffing as first. Stagg's pop to Newning, but Dale scored Nichols and Kerns by a single to right. Dale was forced on Sturgis' grounder.

Get Two in Ninth. With Notre Dame two runs to the lead, Kelly went in to bat for Sheehan, and beat out a bunt. Lathrop hit a hard grounder at Coffing, who fumbled long enough to allow both runners to get safe. Duggan grounded to short, forcing Lathrop at second. Farrell then doubled to right center and Kelly and Duggan counted, tying the score. Farrell was caught in an effort to reach third. Bjojn fanned.

Rain was falling heavily during the ninth and after waiting ten minutes for it to cease, the teams went back to fight it out. Wabash went down in order in her half of the tenth. In Notre Dame's turn at bat D. Newning hit over the third sack and fell flat in the mud in the batting box, but managed to get two bases on the clout. Coffing pulled down what appeared to be a safe drive over the box from Meyers' bat and doubled Newning at second by tossing to Nichols. Two strike outs and a pop fly is the story of Wabash's efforts in the 11th.

Kelly opened the 11th for Notre Dame by driving a double to left. Finney dropped the ball on Lathrop's third strike and when Dale neglected to touch the bag on Finney's throw to first he was safe. Kelly swung to third. Eddie Duggan singled to right, driving in Kelly with the winning run. Rain fell frequently throughout the game and time was called twice to allow minor-league cloudbursts to spend themselves.

Score in Fifth. Lathrop opened the fifth with a stinging double just inside the right field foul line. He stole third and romped home on Farrell's long fly to the outfield for the first hit of the game. Wabash was not to stay long in the rear. With two down, Sweet rapped a single over short and stole second. Nichols walked. Kerns singled to center, cutting Sweet with the first scariet run. Coffing flew to Duggan for the last out.

Notre Dame and Wabash will battle again today at 2 o'clock. Coach Harry Miller, Bergman, and Harry Newning will be on the job once more and with Kelly to do the hurling Notre Dame is banking on winning. The Little Giants intend to put up another scrappy battle, for they always have been the best in playing Notre Dame. This will be Notre Dame's last home game of the season.
