SOCIETY In Filmy Crepe the June Bride Will Be Decked on Day of Days

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Crockett, 627 W. Colfax av., for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ethel Miller Crockett, to M. Z. L. Fuller of Birmingham, Ala. The wedding will be solemnized Tuesday evening, June 23, at 8 o'clock at the Crockett home. Miss Crockett will be the honor guest at a number of social events, among them a luncheon to be given by Mrs. Hugh Miller, 615 W. Colfax av., next Friday evening at Hudson lake. The Ohio circle, of which Miss Crockett is a member, and a number of intimate friends will comprise the party.

The senior Kindergarten Training school girls entertained the juniors at a picnic Tuesday evening at Leeper park and, following that, a theater party at the Auditorium. The affair was in the nature of a farewell surprise to the juniors. A box luncheon was enjoyed at the park.

The marriage of Miss Laura Lubke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lubke, of Laporte county, and Truman Lemert was quietly performed Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Lemert, 806 Clifford st., River Park. Rev. Henoch Holle, of St. Paul's German Lutheran church officiated and Miss Myrtle Lubke, sister of the bride, and Dr. Lemert attended the young couple. The house was decorated with pink and white roses and valley lilies. The bride was becomingly gowned in a white lingerie frock and wore a full tulle bridal veil. Immediately following the ceremony a bridal dinner was served after which the bridal party left for the bride's home, seven miles east of Michigan City, where a reception will be held for them Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Lemert will live in Montana, where the groom is a successful ranchman.

BY MAYBELLE MONTIMER. June, the month of brides and roses, is looked forward to by thousands of girls who just now are sewing into their trousseaus all the dreams of future happiness that come to the girl about to be married. The bridal robe this year is made of white crepe, taffeta or charmeuse, and about the hips, reaching to the knees, is a frill of princess lace. Over this is a turned-under ruffle of the silk material which is put on at the belt with an upstanding ruffle. The upper part of the waist is made of princess lace. The June bride this June will carry a prayer book with a marker of ribbon and flowers. The bridesmaid's gown is of pink taffeta made with a narrow pleating about the skirt. The tunic is very full and hangs straight and long on one side with a bias short effect on the other. The sash is of pink taffeta with a wreath of small

TODAY'S HEALTHOGRAM.

Pinkeye frequently is caused by a scratch from dust or some other foreign body. At this season of the year, when wind and dust are spreading many diseases, there are many cases of sore eyes. In most instances only the mucous membrane lining the lids and covering the eyeballs is involved. The eyes are red and there is a discharge in the morning which sticks the lids together. Pinkeye is infectious. People who have it should not use towels that other people use.

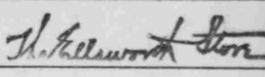

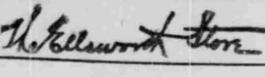

Church Affairs

The Young Women's Bible class of the First Baptist church held a monthly business meeting at the home of Miss Sadie B. Kopf, 427 W. Madison st., Monday night. Miss Lena Turner gave several readings and piano solos were furnished by Miss Marian Kopf. Games were played and refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Tascher of S. Michigan st.

Federal Bureau Will Reduce Infant Deaths

The bureau of education at Washington, through the home education division, is inaugurating an educational campaign to help reduce infant mortality. The bureau has obtained thousands of copies of a leaflet called "The Care of the Baby" from the public health service bureau. To get this into the hands of the people who need it, circulars have been sent out addressed to teachers, club women, trained nurses, physicians and social workers in all parts of the country, asking them to help get this bulletin to every mother in the country. Mothers will be given every help possible in caring for their children.

pink roses through the center. A white chip hat with pink roses and black velvet ribbons, a cane and a large bunch of La France roses, pink slippers and stockings, make the pretty girl who will wear them look like rosy dawn. The groom, who usually holds about the same relative position at the ceremony that he does in the illustration, is correctly garbed in striped gray trousers, black cutaway coat, light waistcoat and dark tie.

Veranda Easily Made Attractive

Inexpensive Furniture for Out Door Living Room By Needlewoman's Art.

The greater portion of the warm summer days is spent on the cool, vine-shaded veranda, and the furnishing of this outdoor living room is as important as any room indoors. Most women display good taste when selecting the furniture, and the mission or wicker seems to be favored. When the furniture has been placed in position there is much the needlewoman can do to add to its attractiveness. The chairs should be provided with protectors which will cover the backs and seats. These can be fashioned of linen crash of a natural color, hemstitched at the top and lower edges; or they can be ornamented with a simple embroidered design. These protectors are almost an absolute necessity, for no matter how particular you may be, dust will accumulate on porch chairs. Linen crash is inexpensive, but when practical wear is demanded it is the most decorative of materials. It corresponds with the craftsman or wicker furniture. The protectors can be made in one strip sufficiently long to cover the back and seat of the chair or they can be divided into two sections, one of a rectangular shape and the other a square. If you decide to have them in one piece, make a two-inch hem at each end and hemstitch them or embroider a band in a conventional design, using colors that will blend with the furniture and awnings. The pinecone design, with its rich browns and greens, is always effective for the veranda. Another design much used for summer is the pond lily. Either of these will be appropriate for your summer living room.

The porch swing occupies a prominent position on almost every veranda and the cushions and throw should be fashioned to match the protectors. If the scrim cannot be had wide enough to cover the swing, joint the narrow strips, stitching them firmly together on the machine. Hem the ends and ornament the corners with an embroidered design, or, if preferred, a narrow border can be worked at each end.

The cushion covers should be made to button over the pillow, so that they can be easily removed and laundered when soiled. They do not require an elaborate design to ornament them, just a simple motif of the pine-cone or pond lily design in one of the corners. You should supply a half dozen or more cushions for the veranda. Of course, you will have a table for books and the bouquet of flowers, without which no living room is complete. For the table make a table runner of the narrow crash and ornament the ends to harmonize with the other articles of needlework. The porch rug should be selected with care, so that it, too, will blend with the furniture and accessories. The pretty green-an-tan fiber rugs displayed in the shops are particularly lovely and will correspond with any furnishings.

There is no excuse for having an unattractive veranda nowadays, and since the modern hostess does much of her summer entertaining in the outdoor living room, it must be inviting and home-like.

Caroline Coe's Famous Recipes

Beef Balls with Relish. To six tablespoons of cold cooked beef, chopped fine, add one tablespoon of suet, chopped fine. Mix together and add one tablespoon of parmesan cheese and the well-beaten yolks of two eggs, the juice of half a lemon, salt and pepper to taste and a teaspoon of minced parsley. Mix all together and add four tablespoons of fine bread crumbs or cold cooked rice. Fold in the stiffly-beaten whites of two eggs and mold into ball shape. Set aside for three or four hours. When ready to serve dip in eggs. Roll in crumbs and fry in hot, deep fat until golden brown. Serve on platter with lettuce leaf cups filled with relish.

Pickle Relish. Put three small or two medium-sized pickles, one slice of raw onion, three olives and one piece of horse radish an inch long through the grinder quite fine. Drain and add to one tablespoon of salad dressing. Mix thoroughly. When ready to serve beat in one tablespoon of lemon juice and one tablespoon of heavy cream.

WILL THE PUBLIC RESPOND? St. Joseph's hospital stands ready to serve the public. It is a public necessity, yet only once a year does it seek public assistance. Will the public express its appreciation by a generous response to the tag day call June 6?

Doctor Tells How to Shed Bad Complexion

We cannot restore degenerated facial tissue any more than we can restore a lost limb. It is useless to attempt to convert a worn-out complexion into a new one. The rational procedure is to remove the complexion instead—remove the degenerated tissue. Not by surgical means, however, as the underlying cuts is too thin, too tender, to withstand immediate exposure. Applying ordinary astringents will gradually absorb the offending tissue. By degrees, a new, youthful skin appears; a skin soft and delicately tinted as a rose petal. No lady need hesitate to try this. Procure an ounce of mercurochrome wax of the druggist. Spread on a thin layer before retiring, removing this in the morning with soap and water. In from one to two weeks the complexion is completely transformed.

An approved treatment for wrinkles is provided by dissolving a source of pond-dew salolite in a half pint of witch hazel. Bathing the face in the solution brings prompt and remarkable results. Dr. R. Mackenzie in Poole's Medicine—Adv.

TO PUBLIC SPIRITED CITIZENS.

In its Out Patient department, established this spring in answer to a growing demand for free treatment of those who are unable to pay, St. Joseph's hospital is doing a wonderful work. Not a day passes but what some call is made upon the good sisters for help. The hospital is not a profit-making institution, yet it is glad to give free treatment to those who cannot pay. All those interested in charitable institutions, such as the Out Patient department is, will have an opportunity to contribute to its support on Tag day, June 6. Adv.
