DEATHS.

MISS CAROLINE MOREY. Caroline E. Morey, 85 years old, died Wednesday morning at the home of William H. Yoder, 32 E. Edwin st. Her death came only a few minutes after she arrived in the city from Watertown, N. Y., where she has made her home for the last four years. She formerly lived in South Bend.

She was born in Otsego county, N. Y., June 1, 1830. The funeral is to be held at the Yoder home at 2:30 Friday afternoon, with the burial in Bowman cemetery. Rev. C. A. Decker will officiate, Miss Morey being a former member of the Baptist church of this city.

MRS. FRANK P. HARTZELL. Mrs. Frank P. Hartzell, 61 years old, who had lived in South Bend since her birth, died Thursday morning at 3 o'clock at her residence, 223 S. Taylor st. She had been ill for more than a year from complications. She is survived by her husband, two children and a sister, Horace W. Hartzell and Louis O. Hartzell, both of this city, and Miss Emma Weaver, 21 S. Taylor st., is a sister. Two granddaughters and a grandson also survive. She was born in South Bend Feb. 17, 1852, and was married to Mr. Hartzell Dec. 26, 1872.

PAUL L. MEYERS. Paul L. Meyers of Clay township, son of Jacob Meyers, also of Clay township, died Thursday morning at 1:15 o'clock after an illness of three years. He is survived by his father, wife and one child, three years old, and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. W. E. Schumaker, Mrs. E. A. Humphrey, Mrs. Albert Odlet and Mrs. W. E. Humphrey, all of South Bend; Joseph Meyers of Michigan City; Ernest Meyers of Lees Angeles and James Meyers of Battle Ground, Ind.

PLACE CHARTS IN SCHOOLS. The St. Joseph County W. C. T. U., through Mrs. C. L. Warner has just placed in the public schools of South Bend including the high school and South Bend business college and in some of the county schools, 100 charts. The charts include pictures and texts and will greatly aid in topical reading from the Bible which through the effort of the W. C. T. U. promises to be long to become a general custom in the public schools of the state.

WISCONSIN LEGISLATOR WILL SPEAK TONIGHT

Jacob Litza to Address Democratic Meeting in St. Stanislaus School—Plan Parade.

Jacob Litza, a member of the Wisconsin state legislature will be the principal speaker at the democratic meeting to be held Thursday night at the St. Stanislaus school. Mr. Litza has taken an active part in the legislative affairs in Wisconsin and is conversant with the effect and result of the public utilities law of that state after which the Indiana law was modeled.

Other speakers will be Henry Sties and Joseph V. Wypysynski, democratic nominee for justice of the peace. A number of county candidates will also attend the meeting. Plans are being made for an automobile parade to be held at the home of B. P. Shively and Congressman Henry A. Barnhart speak at the Oliver opera house here on Wednesday night, Oct. 28. Indications that there will be a large number of automobiles in the parade. The committee in charge of the parade is also planning a number of other novel features for the event.

WILL DISCUSS CHARITY FEDERATION THIS EVENING

Representatives of Various Organizations Will Meet With Chamber of Commerce Committee.

A meeting of representatives of all benevolent organizations will be held at the Chamber of Commerce building tonight when definite steps will probably be taken toward effecting a consolidation organization.

As a result of the meeting last Sunday afternoon when representatives of the city charities and philanthropies were present to confer with members of the Commerce Chamber regarding the plan, Pres't Harry A. Engman, Jr. has appointed a special commerce committee to meet with the representatives tonight.

The committee consists of L. P. Hardy, U. G. Manning, Mrs. J. M. Studebaker, Gertrude Oliver, Mrs. Thos. Viney, Louis F. K. and W. E. Crabb. Statistics will be presented showing the deficits of the various organizations and statements will be presented to give the meeting an idea of the amount of money raised every year in South Bend for charities.

Should the chamber accept the task of taking all the organizations as a city federation "under its wing", it will mean that a campaign will be launched probably before the end of the year to raise a fund to be appropriated among all the charities of the city. Each charity will set forth the money needed giving a statement of where it will be expended and these and other information facts will be placed before the contributors by the commerce body and the donor will be asked to make a single contribution appropriating specific sums to the various charities he may wish his money to go to.

WIFE SAYS HER HUSBAND TREATED HER LIKE SLAVE

Rudolph C. Gerbert treated Marie Gerbert, his wife, "like a slave," according to a complaint for divorce filed in the circuit court Thursday by the latter who alleges that since they were married on Jan. 16, 1910, Gerbert has used her cruelly. The complaint states that during last February the husband attacked her and injured her and threatening to cut her throat because she had gone to the country to help her mother and had stayed longer than he thought she should. The husband is alleged to have been refused by anything for his wife and to have ordered her to go to work. She states that she left him on May 13 and that on May 18 he sought her out and beat her severely.

SUE SALOONKEEPER TO COLLECT LIQUOR BILL

John and William Klein filed suit in the circuit court against John Nagy and Laslow Horvath to collect a bill of $220.70 alleged to have been contracted by Nagy for goods and merchandise. According to the complaint Nagy transferred his business to Horvath on Sept. 8, 1914, but failed to make any provision for payment of the bill and therefore the plaintiffs ask that judgment for $220.70 be awarded by the court and that Horvath be made receiver of the property formerly owned by Nagy.

TEMPER CAUSES WIFE TO REQUEST DIVORCE

An uncontrollable temper is given as the basis for the suit for divorce filed in the circuit court Thursday against Roy L. DeSonia by Edith DeSonia. The wife states that DeSonia often became enraged, throwing dishes about the house and striking and beating her while he cursed in the presence of their two children. She also states in the complaint that DeSonia drank and associated with other women, spending many evenings in carousals.
