

Influenza or Grip

Dr. John M. Mayhew describes influenza as a contagious disease, the symptoms of which are sometimes so obscure that a "multitude of sins" are sometimes hid under the diagnosis. It often comes on with a marked chill, or possibly several hours of chilly sensations accompanied by aching which is soon followed by a distressing cough and sweating, with pains in all parts of the body. Unless checked the disease develops into bronchitis, pneumonia or a croupous pneumonia. The patient should be put to bed or compelled to rest. The absolute rest is essential, but the diet should be light, but should consist of nourishing food and one Anti-Kamina Tablet should be taken every two or three hours. This treatment will usually break the disease in a remarkably short time. Anti-Kamina Tablets may be obtained from all druggists. Ask for A-K Tablets, they are also unexcelled for Headaches, Neuralgia and All Pain.

MAN'S ATTITUDE ON RELIGION DISCUSSED

Interesting Meeting of the Worth Club Held at Progress Club Rooms.

The subject of toleration in religion and man's attitude toward religion was discussed broadly and comprehensively at the regular meeting of the Worth club Monday evening in the Progress club rooms. Mrs. Albert D. Ware led in the talk which was entered into by a number of persons with interesting results. As a general topic, Mrs. Ware introduced the subject, "Toleration in Religion" followed by the query, "Is there toleration in religion, and if so what are the factors which brought it about?" The fundamental principles of religion, the spiritual nature of man, his recognition of other spiritual natures and his instinctive reaching out for a supreme spirit, were discussed. Factors of development of the toleration of religion were also considered and some time given to the discussion of the scientific attitude of man today as it has been applied to religion.

A review was made of the recent organizations for social service, chief among them the great "Men and Religion Forward Movement," as demonstrative of the natural brotherhood of men and its constant expression in various projects. The discussion rested particularly with U. G. Manning, Iden S. Romig, Miss Caroline Walbridge, Mrs. J. W. Vandenbosch and Dr. C. R. Vickery.

NEW CITY HALL IS PLANNED FOR ELKHART

Structure, Two Stories High, to Cost $100,000 With Building Site.

ELKHART, Jan. 5.—Elkhart is to have a new city hall. The structure is to occupy the vacant lot at the northwest corner of High and Second streets, is to be two stories in height, with a basement, and is to cost, with the site, $100,000.

The long-coveted public building was assured when the city, through its board of works and mayor, entered into a contract and lease with Sen. A. R. Beardsley, and the action was ratified at a meeting held Dec. 30.

Beardsley to Erect Building.
By the terms of the lease and contract, within 100 days after the document is acknowledged and ratified by the city, Mr. Beardsley is to erect a suitable building, which with the necessary fixtures and furnishings is to cost $85,000.

The lot of ground upon which the building is to stand, with a frontage of five rods on Second street and extending back along High street a distance of 10 rods, is valued at $15,000.

The lease is to run 21 years and the city agrees to pay an annual rental of $7,000 with interest at the rate of four per cent on $100,000. The contract provides that the city at any time during the 21-year period may purchase the building and ground at $100,000 less four per cent interest on the total amount paid in rental.

What the lease and contract really provides is that the city can acquire a new city hall, paying the contract price of $100,000 in annual installments of $7,000.

Owing to the constitutional provision which prohibits municipalities from contracting an indebtedness beyond two per cent of its taxable valuation and appraisal, it would be impossible for Elkhart to build a city hall, which would meet requirements at this time and for some years to come, by through the thoughtfulness and patriotic consideration of Mr. Beardsley, the city will no longer be hampered in the matter of a public building to meet her official needs, and will be enabled to enter into the enjoyment of the structure within the present year.

The Indiana legislature of 1905 enacted a law to meet such exigencies as confronts Elkhart and the lease and contract with Mr. Beardsley is legal and binding.

FIREMAN BACK TO WORK

Chester Van Arsdale About Recovered From His Injuries.

Chester Van Arsdale, who has been absent from the Central hose company for two months on account of injuries received when he fell from the second floor of the fire station to the cement floor below, has returned to work. Although he is not fully recovered from his injuries, he chose to resume active duties again. He will be in charge of the public scales in the rear of the station.

STATE BRIEFS.

LEBANON, Ind., Jan. 4.—If nothing new happens to him, "Sam" will take his place between the shafts of John Reynolds' milk wagon again in a few days. "Sam" for years has been credited with as much sense as any horse in Lebanon. But his reputation was shattered when he ate oats with such avidity that he broke his jaw. The bones were laced together with silver wire and "Sam" necessarily masticates his food less ravenously.

FAIRMOUNT, Ind., Jan. 4.—Stewart Carter, 10 years old, is enjoying the sight of the first snow he has ever seen. The boy, who has lived in League City, Tex., is visiting here with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Carter.

MARION, Ind., Jan. 4.—County Agent Otis Crane is in a peculiar predicament. A picture illustrating Crane's efforts to exterminate hog cholera in this county appeared recently in an eastern farm publication. Crane's dog happened to get into the picture and a woman in Iowa has written him that she and her children are positive that the dog is the one that was stolen from her home and that her children are greatly distressed and will continue to be so until the animal is returned. Grant purchased the dog in question in Huntington when it was a puppy, but he cannot convince the Iowa woman of this fact.

FRANKFORT—With a bullet wound in the head, the body of Walter Thomas, 32 years old, a farmer, was found in his barn near Middlefork. It is thought that he was murdered and bloodhounds will be put on the trail.

KOKOMO—The Kokomo Steel and Wire Co. plant which has been shut down for several weeks, will resume operations this week with probably 800 men.

LAFAYETTE—Twelve hundred men and boys without guns, clubs or dogs, participated in a fox round-up covering a territory of 15 square miles in the region west of Purdue university. The hunt was held because of damage to farmers' crops by foxes, and on account of the ravages of the hungry animals.

WARSAW—Miss Amanda Reisch, 55 years old, was found dead in bed at her home within a block of the business district by neighbors who broke into the house. It is believed that she had been dead for a week, but an investigation had not been made as she had said that she was going away on a visit.

HIRED MAN FILES BIG SUIT FOR OVERTIME

Clarence Taylor Alleges E. R. Jaques Co. Owes Him for 13,320 Hours' Time.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 5.—A suit of an unusual nature was brought to the circuit court here on a change of venue from the Boone county court and will probably come up for a hearing here during the January term of court. The case is that of Clarence Taylor against the E. R. Jaques Co., dealers in poultry and eggs. Taylor alleges that he has worked 13,320 hours extra, while an employe of the company, and he asks remuneration for all this overtime. He avers that the interest on this sum has accumulated until it now amounts to $1,500 while the pay due him for the actual overtime is $2,120.67. Judgment of $3,620.67 is asked in the complaint which was placed on file here.

Taylor states in the suit that he commenced work for the poultry company at Thorntown in September, 1913, and he says he remained in their employ until the latter part of this year. He alleges that he was employed to work 10 hours a day, six days a week. His salary when he was first employed was $7.50 a week, the plaintiff says. He says his wages were raised three times until he was finally receiving $10.80 a week. In the beginning he was informed by the company that he would receive extra pay for all the overtime he put in for the firm, he says, and the management instructed him to keep an account of all this overtime, stating that he would be paid the full amount at one time. He alleges that he frequently called attention to the fact that he had overtime pay coming but says he was always told to go on keeping an account of the sum until a final payment.

In a bill of particulars setting forth the alleged number of hours of overtime worked by Taylor, he begins at the date of his first month with the company and sets forth the number of hours he worked each month above 60 hours a day. These figures range from 57 to 90 hours a month and the plaintiff says that in one month a few years ago he worked 100 hours extra. He says he spent Sundays and evenings working for the company. The average overtime alleged by Taylor is about 12 hours a week.

The plaintiff states that he was employed in a responsible position for the company, part of the time serving as overseer of other workmen. He lived in Thorntown at the time he was working for the company, but now resides in Indianapolis. The Jaques Co. has offices in many Indiana cities.

PAPERS PRAISE THIS COUNTRY FOR ACTION

LONDON, Jan. 5.—With the exception of the Globe, the London press Monday was practically unanimous in complimenting the United States government upon its vigilance in suppressing the so-called "passport conspiracy" organized to aid German reservists in leaving that country to serve against the allies. The Globe, which was the only paper to give voice to harsh criticism in the comment upon President Wilson's note protesting against it, by British warships, says: "We do not ask much of the United States but laxity in the government offices which makes it possible to obtain stamp and regulation documents upon which they should never appear indicates a condition of affairs requiring a remedy."

The Palm Mall Gazette says: "President Wilson's firmness in dealing with the monstrous conspiracy to aid German and Austrian reservists to Europe from New York should be warmly recognized in this country. We do not know what the American people think of the German abuse of American hospitality, but it should show them the sort of foe with whom we are dealing and the urgent necessity for vigilance at sea which lies upon us."

"The incident will also serve to make us realize the difficulties under which the government of the United States is laboring to preserve its neutrality and thus it should lead to a better understanding in the minds of both peoples."

HYDE TRIAL HELD UP

Must Get Legislature to Pay Costs of Case.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 5.—The fourth trial of Dr. B. Clark Hyde, charged with the murder of Col. Thomas H. Swope, was this morning continued until April 5 by Judge Porterfield, pending the efforts of Floyd Jacobs, county prosecutor, to secure funds from the Missouri legislature to pay the costs of this trial.

A taxpayers' suit prevents the county from paying the costs.

DEFENSES WILL BE DISCUSSED TONIGHT

Two Secretaries With Chairman of Committees Are to Meet.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—The ultimate attitude of the administration on the question of the preparedness of the country for defense is expected to be defined at a meeting Tuesday night of Sec'y of War Garrison, Sec'y of the Navy Daniels and the chairmen of the naval and military committees of the house and senate.

The secretary of war, the secretary of the navy and chairmen of the naval and military committees of the house and senate have been noting very carefully all the protests which have been made against a too conservative policy both as to the naval construction program of only two dreadnaughts and the apparent lack of sympathy on the part of members of congress with the demand of Sec'y of War Garrison for adequate needs of the army as it now exists.

Sec'y Daniels has already made one concession in his bill to create a naval reserve of 25,000 ex-sailors. There has been no concession made to the army. Sec'y of War Garrison and the secretary of the navy know that bills have been introduced and will continue to be introduced without the committee sanction asking for four battleships and adequate equipment for the army. It is understood there will be an effort Tuesday night to get together and decide what is the maximum that can be obtained and to stand by that as an administration measure.

JOINT MEETING IS HELD BY WOODMEN

Installation of Officers of Various Camps Takes Place—Special Program Given.

Joint installation of officers took place last night at the W. O. W. hall by the following W. O. W. camps: Fidelity camp, No. 28; Harmony camp, No. 78; Linden camp, No. 42; Enterprise camp, No. 46; of Mishawaka, and Warren Center camp, No. 70, of Warren Center.

Smart MacKibbin, deputy sovereign commander, acted as the installing officer. Dan Pyle, chairman of the meeting, gave a short introduction upon the good of fraternal orders. As an illustration of the purpose of fraternity he said: "In the various countries across the waters there are a great many men being killed each day and many are left upon some of the battle fields to be devoured by wolves and other animals. This is what we call an anti-fraternal case, while in our own country one who dies and is a fraternal member is taken care of by the order to which he belongs. This will show the good of belonging to some body or order that makes a person feel that he is not to be left uncared for after death."

The program consisted of vocal selections by the Lyric quartet, readings by Miss Laura Hagey, and violin selections by Bessie Arbor.

The officers who were installed are as follows: Fidelity camp, No. 28—Edwin C. Meyers, consul commander; A. Griffith, adviser lieutenant; C. L. Heady, banker; Wm. M. Bunbury, clerk; Geo. E. Jones, escort; M. S. Seaton, watchman; George W. Fisher, sentry; B. W. Thompson, manager; Drs. Dugdale, Moore, Lockwood, Rosenberg, Fink and Baer, physicians.

Harmony camp, No. 78—E. H. Beahm, consul commander; Ois Hosler, adviser lieutenant; O. F. Stevens, banker; Dr. E. G. Freyer, clerk; John Andrews, escort; A. Stafanski, watchman; S. Wegienka, sentry; Drs. Varier and Freyer, physicians; J. F. Kne, manager.

Enterprise camp, No. 46—Fred Byam, consul commander; Ralph Aert, adviser lieutenant; Frank Anthony, banker; C. E. Nicholas, clerk; Grover Dean, escort; Dave Mickel, watchman; Fred Metzler, manager; J. M. Strantz, sentry; Drs. Seaman and Seymour, physicians.

Linden camp, No. 42—William Schwan, consul commander; Adolph Drayer, adviser lieutenant; Charles Engle, banker; John Hartsten, escort; George Glozer, watchman; Jacob Wilder, sentry; Jacob Rothballe, manager; Dr. Freyer, physician.

Warren Center camp, No. 70—Daniel Milliken, consul commander; Orville Riner, adviser lieutenant; James Plumbeck, banker; H. W. Lydiek, Bert Cox, escort; Jesse Jones, watchman; Edmund Beck, sentry; Albert Morse, manager.

After the installation refreshments were served and a dance followed. Music was furnished by the Clarence Engie orchestra.

NEED MILITARY STRENGTH

Display is Not Necessary Says Princeton President.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Pres't John Grier Hibben of Princeton university, in the current issue of the Nassau Literary magazine, advocates military training for college men.

After suggesting the danger of foreign invasion and the need of preparedness, he writes: "There are several ways in which we may prepare for the defense of our country. What I would emphasize is the need of military strength without military display."

NAVAL RESERVE ENDORSED

Radio Stations Will Not Be Thrown Open to Public.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—The naval reserve proposed by Sec'y of the Navy Daniels was endorsed by a sub-committee of the house committee on naval affairs Monday. Sec'y Daniels' plan of throwing open the radio stations of the government to commercial use, was turned down. The sub-committee decided to recommend an increase in the marine corps of 20 commissioned and 110 non-commissioned officers, and the establishment of a permanent chief of operations, which naval experts regard as the first step in the establishment of a naval general staff.
