Among the Sunday school specialists with the party is Dr. George H. Lau of Detroit, who will direct the musical programs.

NAME HEIDEMAN HEAD OF CIVIC FEDERATION

Election Perfects Organization of Association of Community Centers.

George H. Heideman of the Lincoln school civic club was elected president of the recently formed Federation of Civic clubs at a meeting Monday evening in the office of F. B. Barnes at the high school. C. J. Rex, also of the Lincoln school district, was elected vice president and Miss Gertrude Vaughn, principal of the Coquillard school, was elected secretary-treasurer.

Ten Civic clubs were represented and reports were heard from each, showing increase in interest and attendance. Reports from the Lincoln and Henry Studebaker schools were particularly encouraging. Campfire Girls and Boy Scouts have been organized in both places and the standing committee work is strong.

The home and school garden project was outlined to the federation by Mr. Barnes and received hearty endorsement, and steps were taken to introduce the subject into the meeting of each of the civic clubs with a view to organizing garden clubs as a basis for competition for prizes.

The clubs represented in the federation are Kaley, Colfax, Coquillard, Muesel, Perley, Laurel, Lincoln, Studebaker, River Park and Franklin. Civic club meetings will be held at Kaley and Laurel schools this evening. The program for the Franklin school Wednesday evening is as follows: Piano solo, Miss Helen Burke; business meeting; reading, Marcella Hartman; illustrated talk on "Gardens," John Bordner; "Organization of Home Garden Clubs," F. B. Barnes; singing of special songs by the audience.
