

Three Big Attractions Saturday—Hoosiers Go to Saginaw For Series

HELMER'S RIVES AND HOOSIERS IN DOWNING BEAVERS

Right Fielder Starts Trouble With a Triple and Then Adds Two Doubles—Loudermilk Pitches a Steady Game.

BAY CITY, Mich., May 7.—Ed Smith's prediction that "Helmer will get started soon" came true here this afternoon with the result that the Hoosiers' lead in the game played in this town by a count of 8 to 1.

Louise Loudermilk had something to do with it as he held the Beavers to eight hits and one of their four runs was due to an additional tally.

The visitors did not linger long in the second they got to Mr. Schulz. Helmer was the lad who started it. He was first up and slammed one good for three sacks.

Henry came along and poked one good for a half way ticket, Helmer scoring. Lake laid down a bunt, Hixenbaugh taking third. Beal walked and stole and both trotted home on Claffey's single.

Schulz sent to the bench. Hickman was called in and stopped the onslaught. In the third Helmer started things once more with his sacrifice. Taylor's double and Hickman's single counted a run.

In the fourth Bay City got another run on Barry's single and Hartwell's sacrifice. Taylor's double and Hickman's single in the sixth sent the Beavers' fourth and final marker across the plate.

"Some Knockouts I Have Seen"

BY ED. W. SMITH— Famous Referee and Ring Expert.

What more thrilling for the ring enthusiast than to see a thoroughly beaten man turn about suddenly and with one despairing effort, throw the last ounce of his strength into a final punch that lands and lays low the opponent?

It seldom happens in really important events. It might be said to have happened in a measure in the Carson City fight, when Bob Fitzsimmons, bested as a boxer, by the superlatively clever Corbett, finally cooled the great California master and sunk one into his solar-plexus thus turning what looked to many like defeat into an imposing victory.

But that wasn't a startling case because Fitz never was groggy. I've in mind now two cases of men, who were groggy and rocking and weaving about, almost falling, but suddenly coming to life for just that fraction of a second with the punch that wins.

One of these was the sensational defeat of Johnny Griffin, the "Brain-tree Lad," by Solly Smith of San Francisco at Roby, Ind., on July 10, 1893.

The other was the equally amazing defeat in one round of Joe Choyanski by Eddie "Kid" Carter in Chicago in March, 1902.

Had Good Record. Zeke Abrams brought Solly Smith to Chicago to beat of many a trumpet. He had knocked out Dal Hawkins, Dan Dailey and Johnny Vanheest on the coast and they thought him a world beater.

Griffin was a brick-topped young man of pleasing personality and a lion-hearted fighting machine. When Smith and Abrams came to Roby, they thought Griffin would give him the worst licking of any of them and sent for him. Terms were arranged easily and almost under the shadow of blazing lights that covered the world's fair buildings along the midway the men fought. I saw Griffin smile at the most artistic lacing man ever got for the first five rounds.

Solly's nose was split in the second round and in the fourth his left eye was almost completely closed and he looked out into tatters.

At the start of the sixth, Griffin, seeing his man was at his mercy, went in to put the finishing touches on. He rocked Smith a couple of slashing lefts to the head and then barely missed with a straight right for the back east broken-hearted.

He boxed some the following year, but was beaten by both George Lavigne and George Dixon and then a rapid decline set in and Griffin never was heard of again.

Griffin was not only knocked out, but he was put out of the business by that blow. He was dazed and mentally uncertain the next day and went back east broken-hearted.

Johnny dropped like a wet towel. The referee could have counted 10,000 over the prostrate form.

I've seen wild scenes around rings, but never one that quite touched that one in Roby. They had beat heavily on Smith and had lost, to all intents and purposes. But suddenly they won—and went mad.

Griffin was not only knocked out, but he was put out of the business by that blow. He was dazed and mentally uncertain the next day and went back east broken-hearted.

He boxed some the following year, but was beaten by both George Lavigne and George Dixon and then a rapid decline set in and Griffin never was heard of again.

Chinese University Players Are Unable to Touch Bergman With Any Success—Muffed Fly Came to Defeat.

Outfielder Let let one drop through his hands in the seventh inning and the result was that "Dutch" Bergman scored what proved to be the deciding run in Thursday's game, Notre Dame defeating Chinese university, Honolulu, 3 to 2, in a beautifully played contest.

The visitors started the scoring in the first inning, after Ayau had fanned, Laitin singled and stole second. J. Chin's triple scored him, Chin counted a moment later on Mark's two-bagger. Yim fanned, and Lee rolled out to Mills.

Notre Dame scored its first run in the third inning. Walsh singled to right. After Bergman had fanned, Duggan singled and Walsh went to second, runner on base. Walsh, but Duggan was caught between third and home, Lathrop taking second and going to third on Mills' single. Kenny rolled out to Let.

In the fifth, Bergman singled and went to second on Mark's bad throw. Duggan fanned, but Lathrop's hit scored Bergman. Lathrop was forced out at second on Mills' tap to Laitin and Kenny went out, Laitin to Yap.

The locals scored the winning counter in the seventh. Bergman singled and went to second when Yap fumbled Duggan's bunt. Lathrop fanned and Mills fled out to Ayau. Kenny rolled out to Let, center and after settling under the ball, Center Fielder Let muffed it and Bergman crossed the platter, Duggan taking second.

"Mike" Carmody fled out to Let. Walsh was backed up by almost perfect support. "Dutch" Bergman pulled the thriller of the day when he leaped into the air and speared Kau's hard drive. The only hobble charged to the locals was a fumbled grounder by Corcoran run, this was due to over anxiety at fielding it.

The visitors proved to be one of the best fielding aggregations which has appeared on the local diamond this year, as they pulled out of several rather tight holes.

DAVID WAS A GOOD WAITER

Watches 'Em Go by For 17 Years, But is to be Married.

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., May 7.—Seventeen years ago David L. Fultz, president of the Baseball Players' fraternity, then a ball player himself, pushed the baby carriage of a friend down the street. The occupant was a tiny girl, "in going on wait for you." Fultz jested as he checked the tot under the chin.

Thursday the engagement of Fultz and Miss Ida M. Verlin was announced. He met her at a New Year's party given by Mr. and Mrs. William Lauder. She is the baby of seventeen years ago. The marriage will take place in June.

"JOEY" GETS INTO FORM

Glen Helmer, the Hoosier right fielder, last season one of the heaviest hitters in the South Bend, Mich., broke into the stick column Thursday with a regular bat.

His triple and two doubles were responsible to a great extent for the victory of the Snitties over the Bay City club.

In the second inning Helmer opened for the Hoosiers with a slashing triple and scored on Hixenbaugh's hit. In the third "Joey" started with a double and scored when Lake repeated. Helmer scored Broder in the ninth with another hard double.

There was talk that Helmer was a poor fielder before he came to South Bend but in the six games at Springbrook "Joey" did not appear to lack ability in the fielding division. He cut down some two-baggers and singles with speed, and has a cracking good arm.

Homeland Wants Popp to Weigh in at 128 Pounds.

Homeland, the Chicago boxer slated to meet Lew Popp, the South Bend youngster, here on May 20, has written Popp that he will not give the local lad a two-pound handicap. In a letter the Windy City boy intimates that he has heard Popp will be a hard man to beat and does not care to take the risk of the two pounds. The local boxer wants to weigh in at 130 and asks for Homeland to tip scales at 128. It is probable that the matter will be arranged satisfactorily, Popp has started training for the bout, one of his instructors being George Manda, a former lightweight of London, England.

Printing Point Does Not Bob Up and Down

In an L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter the point on the paper which is to receive the type impression is stationary at the instant the type hits. The carriage does not bob up and down when the shift is made to write capitals.

Why? Because the type is shifted—not the carriage.

The only movement of the carriage is back and forth on its closely adjusted ball bearing runways—and this does not take place while the print is being made. There is no lifting of the carriage.
