DETROIT MAN SAID TO HAVE ABETTED LEFLER

Sandwich, Ont., Dynamiting Case Given Attention of Authorities.

WINDSOR, Ont., July 29.—Albert Kahlschmidt, a Detroit business man, was named in a conspiracy charge read against William Lefler of Windsor when the latter was arraigned before a justice at Sandwich, Ont., charged with attempting to dynamite the plant of the Peabody Manufacturing Co. at Walkersville several weeks ago.

Lefler did not answer the second and third charges. A motion to quash them was taken under advisement. He was held for trial on the first count. Kahlschmidt had not been detained either by United States government officials or by dominion officials. It is said that "Schmidt" has not been located.

RECEIVE WORD FROM MAN DECLARED DEAD

Madison Dibble, Member of Once Prominent Danville Family, is Found in Omaha, Neb.

DANVILLE, Ind., July 29.—The whereabouts of Madison Gregg Dibble, formerly a citizen of Danville, and who was about 20 years ago, declared legally dead, has been learned. A letter was received by Dr. F. H. Huron, president of the Danville Rotary board. It was from a woman in Omaha, Neb., who said one of her roomers was quite sick. She had learned that his family for a number of years had been ignorant of his whereabouts. He told her, she said, that his name was Madison Gregg Dibble; that his father was John W. Dibble, who formerly lived at Danville.

WILL INVESTIGATE DEATH

Administrator of Chinese Estate Takes Court Action.

FRANKLIN, Ind., July 29.—A bill of discovery is to be filed in the United States court at Chicago before Judge Landis by the administrator of the estate of Lee Moy, a wealthy Chinese of this city, who died in Chicago last week. The investigation is to be made because of unusual circumstances surrounding his death. A day before his death four Chinese came to this city from Chicago, and without permission visited the laundry owned by Lee Moy, unlocked a large trunk in which he kept his private papers and valuables, and removed everything of value. They left immediately, and word came in a short time that Moy was dead. An attorney of this city went to Chicago to investigate, following which the case was taken to the United States circuit court.

ACCIDENTS IN HAY FIELD

Man Has Leg Cut to Shreds by Knives and Horses Strike Woman.

MARLETTE, Mich., July 29.—Thrown in front of the knives while cutting hay, when his team ran away, Gale Bruce, a young farmer, sustained shocking injuries. One leg was cut to shreds.

IS FOUND UNCONSCIOUS

Man May Have Been Robbed and Thrown Off Train.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., July 29.—William Myers, 58 years old, of Remington, W. Va., was found half dead and unconscious today beside the railroad tracks at the interlocking plant south of the city. Evidently he had been beaten and robbed. On his head were two gashes which required the attentions of surgeons. He also was suffering from concussion of the brain. Myers has not been able to tell what happened to him. One theory is that he was robbed and thrown from the train. He was a veteran of the Spanish-American war and members of the Spanish War Veterans association took charge of the case. Myers was taken to a hospital.

STOPS THRESHING FOR MARRIAGE CEREMONY

Engineer Decides to Get Married Before Days' Work is Done and So Crew Are Witnesses.

PRINCETON, Ind., July 29.—The Rev. Robert P. Stockton of Oakland City, and Hosea Uesery, a young man of the same vicinity, are running a thrashing outfit in partnership. Yesterday Uesery put a man on it, his place and said he would lay on for a little while. A little later he appeared with Miss Fredia Myers of Somerville, and a marriage license and told Mr. Stockton, who was running the separator, that he wished a ceremony performed. The thrasher whistle was sounded and work was shut down, and there under a big hickory tree on the Louis Laib farm the Rev. Mr. Stockton married the two, with the thrashing crew as witnesses. Uesery took his bride to their new home, then returned to his work as engineer.

YOUTH DIES AS RESULT OF JOKE BY FRIENDS

Former Employers of Dead Boy Are Held For Manslaughter at Muncie.

MUNCIE, Ind., July 29.—As the result of a "joke," Harold Haney, 16 years old, who lived with his father, a carpenter, near Daleville, died. Ward Walker, 23 years old, and his brother, Chester, 25 years old, who are charged with manslaughter because of injuries received by the boy at their hands, were released on bond of $2,000 each, provided they return to Muncie.

AD IS CAUSE OF SUIT

Merchant Objects When Competitor Says "Bought For a Song."

KOKOMO, Ind., July 29.—Ten days ago Julius and Charles Lyons, local clothing dealers, bought a stock of goods of Ike Myers, a competitor, whose business had not been profitable for some time, and put the goods on sale, advertising that they had bought the stock "for a song."

DIES FROM SUPPOSED MINOR HURT ON HEAD

Taken to Hospital, Physicians Declare No Bones Broken, Yet Man Passes Away.

BAY CITY, Mich., July 29.—Lavelle P. Sperry, salesman for a local wholesale grocery house, met with what was supposed to be a slight accident when he was struck on the head by the automatic gate of an elevator and knocked into the pit. He was taken to his home, where doctors examined him and found no bones broken, pronounced him seriously injured.

MAIL CLERK BOUND OVER

Mail is Fixed at $2,000 and Prisoner is Taken to Detroit.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., July 29.—John R. Murdy, a clerk at the Jackson postoffice, was held to the grand jury on a charge of embezzling, opening and destroying mail. U. S. States Commissioner O. Scott Clark, Tuesday.

BATHE DOG; BOYS DROWN

Lads Lose Balance on Edge of Quarry and Go Down Together.

MARQUETTE, Mich., July 29.—After taking a swim in a pond in an abandoned quarry at Eben, 15 miles out here, Emil Lomra, 13 years old, and John Mantoloma, 19 years old, tried to force their dog to take a bath. The dog resisted when on the edge of the quarry and the boys lost their balance and fell in. They grasped each other and sank together, drowning. The bodies were recovered.

TO WAR ON DISEASES

All Kinds of Illnesses Must be Reported to State Health Board.

LANSING, Mich., July 29.—To guard against the spread of communicable diseases which may be brought from the scene of war, the state board of health, which is to meet in Detroit this week, will include Asiatic cholera and lumpy jaw among those which must be reported to the health authorities.

PIONEER RESIDENT OF ELKHART DIES

Mrs. Susan Hitesman Had Lived in County For Sixty-five Years.

ELKHART, Ind., July 29.—Mrs. Susan Hitesman, who had lived in this country 65 years, died Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred M. Eby, four miles east of the city, on the Middlebury st. road. She was well known to Elkhart people, many of whom she had met in recent years at the home of her daughter. Mrs. Hitesman was born in Pennsylvania Aug. 24, 1838, and was nearing her 77th birthday. Her marriage to Charles Hitesman took place 57 years ago last month. Mr. Hitesman survives her, with Mrs. Eby and the following children: Jesse and Asa Hitesman, and Mrs. Emma Emers of Elkhart, and George Hitesman of Valparaiso, Ind.

James Wilcox, Portland Farmer, Dies From Injuries Received.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 29.—James Wilcox, a farmer living near Portland, was trampled to death by a bull. Wilcox was transporting the animals in a wagon when his team ran away. In trying to recapture the bull Wilcox was charged and before the arrival of help he died. He was 60 years old and is survived by the widow and several children.

SARNIA MAN'S BODY FOUND

Mysterious Disappearance Solved by Grosse Discovery in River.

PORT HURON, Mich., July 29.—The body of George Crawford of Sarnia, who has been missing for a week, was found in the St. Clair river by Joseph Thompson, an Indian boy. Crawford was a watchman at the Imperial oil plant. He has two sons fighting at the front with the Canadian contingent. How he came to his death is a mystery and a rigid investigation will be made.

ENGLAND SUFFERING FROM COAL FAMINE

Recent Strike and Entrance of Men Into Army is Given as the Cause.

LONDON, July 29.—England is suffering from a coal famine as a result of the entrance of the coal mine workers into the army and the recent Welsh strike. In an effort to stimulate the output of coal during the war, a mass meeting of 2,000 miners' delegates was held at the London opera house today when patriotic addresses were made by Minister of Munitions David Lloyd-George, Pres't Walter Runciman of the board of trade, and Home Sec'y Sir John A. Simon. The home secretary declared that England is suffering from a shortage of 3,000,000 tons of fuel monthly.

BRIEFS.

INDIANAPOLIS.—Federal revenue agents are about to begin wholesale taxes collecting campaign on "wet" picnics and summer camps near Indianapolis and along the front of Lake Michigan. It is alleged that "camps" have been running for the sole purpose of dispensing liquor without paying the $25 bar license in compliance with the law. Peter J. Kruse, collector of internal revenue, has directed that all picnic camps be investigated and if it be found that the law is being violated the operators either pay the tax or face federal prosecution. It is expected that the revenue will be considerably increased by the proposed action of the federal authorities.

COLUMBUS, Ind.—These are the reasons for Mrs. Flozcie Covert's suit for divorce: Hubby refused to bathe; made her work in a factory; appropriated her wages; forced her to cut and saw wood. When he compelled her to resign from a Ladies Aid society, Mrs. Covert thought the limit had been reached and the suit resulted.

EVANSVILLE, Ind.—Married in the presence of a picnic party in a city park, was the novel method resorted to by William Armstrong and Miss Lora Duncan. The Rev. E. G. S. Burdette, former pastor of the Baptist church, neglected his duties as a special policeman long enough to accommodate the young couple.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind.—Seventeen crudely executed lead dollars in the possession of David Turner of Linton landed him in jail here. Turner admitted that the coins had not been "finished" yet, but he had tried to pass some of them at Linton. He admitted they were "home made."

EATON RAPIDS, Mich.—Peaches in this section will be abundant this year, but apples, pears, plums and grapes suffered by late frosts.

YPSILANTI, Mich.—Miss Pearl Clark, critic teacher in the Normal Training school for several years, will be married to Lawrence Cort of New York, Aug. 23.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich.—The body of Charles Lewis, 50 years old, who filled his pockets with stones and jumped from a boat at Gosport lake Sunday, has been recovered. A note, on which was his name and that of his sons, Roy of Jackson and Ralph of Coldwater, was found in his pocket.

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—William Welsh of this city has been chosen by the National City bank of New York as one of 20 young men for service in World War I. He is a 1913 graduate of the university of Michigan.

MUSKOGON, Mich.—The Fremont Times-Indicator has taken the Heperia Union, another weekly paper. Tom Campbell of Lansing will be the new editor.

HILLSDALE, Mich.—Garry Sarles, 91 years old, who lived for more than 70 years on the homestead half a mile west of Bankers, died of apoplexy.

MARSHALL, Mich.—David Ferro, a prominent Cesareo man, is in jail, charged with trying to kill his wife with a hatpin.
