U.S. FORCE AT HAITI IS TO BE INCREASED

Additional 850 Marines Under Command of Col. L. N. Nailer to Be Sent on Another Warship.

AMMUNITION AND ARMS ARE HELD BY HAITIENS

Feeling Against Americans Is Said to Be Growing and Further Outbreak Is Feared.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Further trouble is expected by the United States in Haiti. That is the real reason why 850 additional marines under command of Col. L. N. Nailer, are to be sent there on another warship. Admiral Caperton's confidential advice to the state department, the International News Service learns, indicates that a far more serious revolutionary movement than had previously been reported was under way.

Admiral Caperton has reported the capture of considerable ammunition and arms. But it is known that still more supplies are held in various places by the Haitians. When the Tennessee reaches Haiti probably next Wednesday or Thursday, the American forces will total more than 2,000. They will have 29 machine guns and three small field pieces. With this force in his command it is felt certain that Admiral Caperton can command order despite any move the Haitians might make.

Minister Menos, of Haiti, today received a protest against the occupation by the American forces at Port Au Prince of the national palace, the barracks and Fort National. He has not decided what action he will take on the protest. It was called to the attention of the committee of public safety of Port Au Prince.

Admiral Caperton has sent the naval tug Osceola with a force of men, to Gonaves. A mob Thursday night attacked the customs house there.

Admiral Caperton also reported that American forces had occupied Fort National in Port Au Prince, without meeting resistance. American marines are quartered in the barracks.

The belief of officials here is that there is a tremendous popular feeling developing in Haiti and that the mob spirit is dangerous.

Anti-American Spirit Grows

Haiti is said to be growing more anti-American every day. One official went so far as to say that there might be a combination of the citizens of all factions against Americans because they may be led to conclude

BRITISH NOTE IS NO ULTIMATUM

United States to Deny Neutral Countries Were Blockaded in Civil War.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Emphatic demands for immediate action on the shipping situation are pouring in on the administration. The great importance of the country are angry because of the delay in definitely stating the position of the United States.

The demands was today expected to hurry the completion of the reply to the British note, the tentative draft of which has been sent to President Wilson by Sec'y Lansing.

It is positively stated that the note does not take on the form of an ultimatum at any time. At the outset it rejects the British declaration that the allies cannot make a blockade against Germany effective unless she also blockades neutral ports.

The United States emphatically asserts that this government did not blockade neutral ports during the Civil war. It is also pointed out that in all of the decisions cited by England in support of her contention, the question of expediency at that time was the moving spirit, but that since then, by means of various international conferences, a new code of international law has been drafted and that is what Great Britain is now violating.

ARREST CAPTAIN AND CREW OF "RED DEVIL"

Craft Carried Passengers Under Age Limit, Says Complaining Woman.

The captain and all his crew, owners and controllers of the launch craft, "Red Devil," were arrested Friday afternoon and an investigation into the boat's safety for transportation purposes was started. The "Red Devil" was said to have a hole in the bottom, and was not safe for river traffic, especially when there were children under six years old aboard.

Complaint was brought by a woman who claims she saw the craft—canoe, if you will—list dangerously when two or three passengers under the age limit were being ferried across the St. Joseph river near the Grand Trunk bridge. Officers of the local police department arrested Anthony and Roland Marbeter, aged 12 and 11 years respectively, 310 Lincoln way E.; Earl and Oliver Edwards, 10 and 11 years old, 407 Lincoln way E.; George Marie, 512 Carroll st., and Dallas Wallace, 226 Lincoln way E.

They were questioned as to the canoe's stability and general seaworthiness, and having answered all questions put by Police Chief Kerr, were allowed their freedom upon their solemn oath to hereafter observe the age limit in future passenger bookings.

CITY MARKET WAS BUSY SPOT SATURDAY

Several Thousand People Purchased Supplies During Morning Hours.

Produce of large variety and in great abundance was sold at the city market Saturday morning. There were over 30 rigs in the stalls and it is estimated that between 3,000 and 4,000 buyers visited the market Saturday morning between 6:30 o'clock and 11 o'clock.

Everything that has been scarce during the past week appeared in large proportions. Sweet corn selling at 15 cents a dozen ears, went easy, while spring chickens at 23 cents a pound, fresh eggs at 22 cents a dozen, were snapped up eagerly by the large crowd that flocked to the E. Colfax av. bridge.

Garden truck was at the market in the greatest profusion, and the corresponding prices were low as a result. Large heads of cabbage, weighing nine and 10 pounds went at the low price of five cents; string beans sold at three pounds for five cents, and other truck was for sale at the same prices that held sway earlier in the week.

HUSBAND ACCUSES WIFE

Claims Spouse Wrote Letters to Other Men.

Declaring that he had deserted his wife because she had written letters to other men and had not been clannish, Frank Warner, of the Turkey Creek road, pleaded not guilty to charges of wife desertion in city court Saturday morning. His wife, Edith Warner, was complaining witness. She testified that she had married Warner March 9, 1915, and since that time he had contributed $4 to her support.

Warner was fined $50 and costs, with his freedom allowed if he consistently made weekly payments toward his wife's support. She is at present living with her parents at 702 E. Wayne st.

BOTH ARE HELD TO BLAME

Potatoes Are Used in Dispute on Douglas Street.

John Koehalowski, 1501 W. Sample st., was a victim of circumstance Friday afternoon. He was arrested for assault and battery as a result of a combat with a peddler, Ben Pueri, 517 W. Division st., with whom he remonstrated for allowing his horse to eat the foliage from shade trees on Douglas st. Pueri was complaining witness, and the defendant was given a suspended fine of $11.

Pueri alleged that Koehalowski had hurled potatoes from his wagon, several of which struck Pueri about the face and shoulders. The court held that one party was as much to blame as the other.

NEW APPEAL TO BE SENT MEX RULERS

Latin-American Countries Are Not Disposed to Aid This Country in Armed Intervention Plan.

EXPECT SCOTT'S VISIT TO AID IN SOLUTION

Presence of Army Leader and Artillery on Border Will Go Long Way in Showing Country's Intentions.

EL PASO, TEX., Aug. 7.—Gen. Villa has deferred his departure for Torreón to await the arrival of Gen. Hugh L. Scott on the border. It was announced at Juarez today. At the same time the following statement from Villa was issued: "I am absolutely willing to follow any suggestion offered by Pres't Wilson and the A. B. C. delegates which promises to bring about an early peace in Mexico."

By John E. Nevin.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—The administration is intensely disappointed over the result to date of its Mexican conference. Instead of finding that the Latin-Americans were willing to go the limit in supporting plans for concerted action, Sec'y Lansing was forced to report to the president that many of them believed the Mexican people should be permitted to settle their own affairs.

So far as armed intervention by a joint force was concerned, the United States has been told none of the Latin-American countries would favor it. They believe that if the United States wants to use arms to settle the difficulties in Mexico, it should do so itself on its own initiative.

No date had been set today for a resumption of the conference in New York. Sec'y Lansing stated that he hoped they could get together by the middle of next week. But with which some of the South Americans receive instructions. It is understood that complete reports of all that has taken place have been sent to their home capitals by the diplomats. All approved the plan for another appeal—this time a joint one—to the Mexicans to get together in the interest of peace. But so far as further action was concerned the majority of the ambassadors and ministers were without authority to act.

To Prepare New Appeal.
Meanwhile Sec'y Lansing will prepare the new appeal. It is to be couched in stronger language than was the original appeal of the president. The plan is to have it circulated generally throughout Mexico and to serve copies on Carranza, Villa and Zapata. This appeal will point out that Mexico's right to settle her own troubles is recognized, but it will also be stated that in the interest of friendship the sister republics feel constrained to demand that this settlement take place at once.

Three of the conferees very frankly warned Sec'y Lansing that laying of blame was repulsive.

RUSSIANS ARE DRIVEN BACK BY TURK TROOPS

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 7.—In the Trans-Caucasus theater of hostilities the Turks have advanced more than sixty miles, driving back the Russians and are on the point of invading Russia again from the direction of Alaschgerd.

The capture of Alaschgerd was officially announced today. It is only 40 miles from the Russian frontier. At the Dardanelles, frontal attacks of the allies, following the explosion of mines, were repulsed.

The following official statement was issued by the Turkish war office: "Our right wing continues to gain ground on the trans-Caucasian front. We have occupied the whole of the Mudar valley and have occupied Alaschgerd, northwest of Karaklessch.
"On Wednesday night, on the Dardanelles front, the enemy exploded mines in front of the trenches on our left wing and followed it up with attacks which we repulsed.
"We counted a large number of dead bodies."
ARE ENGLISHMEN.
LONDON, Aug. 7.—Friday night's Gazette contains the names of five Americans who have taken out naturalization papers as Englishmen.

Bridge Over Vistula at Warsaw

Not the least important strategic value that the Polish capital will give the kaiser's army is the railroad facilities out of Warsaw to the east, north and south. The railroad bridge spanning the Vistula at this point will give the Germans splendid facility to bring their ammunition and supply trains into the city to maintain a garrison there and a headquarters for the army which they will send out against the Russian positions farther east.

ITALY IS INVADED BY AUSTRIAN ARMY

Important Positions Near Mt. Peralba South of Drave River Are Taken.

VIENNA, Aug. 7.—(Via Berlin and Amsterdam.)—Austrian troops have invaded Italy and captured important positions near Mount Peralba south of the Drave river, the war office announced today. This is the chief feature of review of military operations on the Italian front, which also declares that the attacks of the Italian troops on Doberdo plateau have been repulsed at severe losses to the enemy.

The Italian positions near Mount Peralba were taken in a surprise attack at night. The Italian defenders attempted to escape, but were cut off by a flanking force and compelled to surrender.

The review praises the bravery shown by the Italians in their efforts to carry Doberdo plateau, and open the way to Gorizia.

"Time after time the enemy charged our front in vain," it says. "His troops were mowed down by the Austro-Hungarian artillery. The Italian losses on Doberdo plateau have been terrible."

VIENNA, (via Berlin, (wireless) Aug. 7.—Official announcement was made today that an Italian airship had been shot down by the Austrian guns at Pola, and its crew captured. Italy admitted the loss of this airship yesterday, but stated that the cause of its fall was unknown.

The official announcement follows: "At midnight on August 6, the Italian airship Citta Di Jost, while endeavoring to approach above Pola, was brought down by shrapnel before it could do any damage. All members of the crew, consisting of three naval officers, one mechanic and two men, were taken prisoners.
"The airship was brought to Pola."

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—Developments involving Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink, famous operatic contralto, and her daughter, Marie, now Mrs. Hoher Guy, came today with the investigation of "R. Miller," supposed to be Count Richard von Miller, the German spy, who sought to kill himself by leaping from a speeding train at Denver to escape from a deputy sheriff Wednesday.

If "Miller" or Count von Miller holds the key to a secret movement ordered by the kaiser to collect munitions and submarines in the United States the Denver police and operatives of the Burns detective agency declare Mme. Schumann-Heink and her daughter and other women in Chicago and Milwaukee share his secret. Federal operatives in Chicago and Milwaukee have been assigned to the case.

A letter signed "Marie" found in the man's personal effects, was traced to Grossmont, a suburb of San Diego, Cal., where the singer and her daughter are passing the summer. The writer gave "Miller" the telephone number of the Schumann-Heink

MEN FEARED TO JUMP BECAUSE OF GUARDS

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 27.—Twenty-seven convicts today were suffering serious injuries and two of them were expected to die because they preferred to take their chances in a collision between a switch engine and a motor truck, to running the risk of being shot. Thirty-seven prisoners were riding in the truck and they saw that a collision was inevitable. None of them jumped for fear that a party of guards in an automobile following the truck would fire on them.

NINE MEN ARE MOBBED IN SOUTH IN ONE DAY

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 7.—Within the last 24 hours nine negroes were hanged, seven legally and two lynched in southern states, and today a lynching party is pursuing a 19th negro near Liberty, Mo.

There were four legal hangings in Alabama. Robert Watkins and John Salter were executed for the murder of Mrs. Mary Lassiter at Evergreen. A militia guard prevented a mob from burning the negroes. The other two executions in Alabama were for the murder of white men.

At Fresno, Miss. Peter Bolen and Jim Seales, who killed another negro, were executed while 5,000 persons sang "There is a Land of Pure De-light."
Bunyan Walters was executed at Fayetteville, Miss.

A dispatch from Shawnee, Okla., relating the story of the lynching of Ed Berry, stated that the affair was "one of the most orderly lynchings in the history of the state." Berry was hanged from a railroad bridge and his body was riddled with bullets, after which the mob dispersed "in a quiet and orderly manner."
In Tribby, Pa., a crowd of citizens lynched Will Leach, accused of attacking a 12-year-old girl.

Early today a report from Liberty, Mo., stated that a lynching was almost certain if a mob caught a negro laborer who attacked a farmer's wife near there.

CHANGES MADE IN OFFICIAL FAMILY

Mayor of Terre Haute Finds Job of Running City Is Too Much for One Man.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 7.—Finding the job of running the city of Terre Haute too much for one man, Mayor James Gosson, successor to Donn M. Roberts, has decided to reconstruct his official family and a large portion of those men on the board of safety and public works. To this end the resignation of Herman J. Deming, president of the board of works, and that of Earl W. Manson, members of the same body, have been accepted and William J. White and Fred Rush appointed in their places.

The mayor also has requested the withdrawal of two members of the board of safety to be succeeded by Rev. A. E. Motze and William A. Braden.

The new members of each are prominent in religious circles, but without political records. Since taking office Mayor Gosson has exercised an unusual degree of dictation in the meeting of the city's affairs in an effort to bring about conditions to increase public confidence.

REAR GUARDS PUT UP GAME BATTLE

Five Attempts to Cross the Vistula at Ivangord End in Failure.

By Francis Lavelle Murray.
PETROGRAD, Aug. 7.—Grand Duke Nicholas' retreating hosts are still holding the Austro-German forces at bay in Poland despite the fall of Ivangord and Warsaw. The destruction of the bridges over the Vistula river prevented rapid advance by the Prussians over that stream, and a large rear guard force left on the east bank has thus far prevented the construction of pontoons in any number.

Latest advices received at the war office state that five attempts by the Germans to bridge the Vistula with pontoons north of Ivangord Thursday night met with complete failure. The Russia machine guns on the east bank poured a deadly hail upon the German engineers engaged in the work and they finally forced an abandonment of the task.

While the Russians are being extracted from the carefully planned trap with which Germany and Austria hoped to win a complete victory in the eastern theatre, the work of establishing great munition factories is proceeding rapidly throughout the interior of Russia.

All Russia realizes that this is an enormous task. Only by long and arduous work will the empire be able to equip its forces for a renewal of the conflict under favorable conditions.

RETREATING ARMY IS DESTROYING EVERYTHING

Russians Are Leaving Nothing for Victors—Forts at Novo Georgievsk Expected to Fall Soon.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 7.—Six hundred thousand new recruits are on the way to the front to reinforce the Russian army, it was announced today. More soldiers will be dispatched daily. The announcement of the strengthening of the forces at the front says the Russian army retains all its cohesion, strength and energy."

BERLIN, Aug. 7.—Devastation unparalleled in the present war is being wrought by the Russian army of the Grand Duke Nicholas as it falls back before the advance of the Austro-German troops in Poland. Railroads are being torn up, bridges destroyed and the towns and villages given over to the flames.

Food supplies that cannot be carried along are destroyed and crops wiped out. Nothing that could be of any value to the Austro-German army is being left behind.

The outer forts of Novo Georgievsk are being vigorously bombarded by the Germans. Novo Georgievsk is now completely isolated and German military experts predict its early capture along with the army are about 50,000 men that is believed to be in the fortress.

Big Intrenched Camp.

Novo Georgievsk, which lies upon the Vistula about 20 miles northwest of Warsaw, is not a city, but a big intrenched camp, guarded by powerful forts of modern construction. It was one of the natural strongholds discovered by Napoleon in 1807 and as long as the Russians hold it, the Germans will be unable to use the Vistula river nor the railway line running south from Soldau for the transportation of supplies. The forts at Novo Georgievsk are situated on both sides of the Naraw river at the point where it flows into the Vistula. The fortress has two powerful citadels, eight bridge head positions and 24 forts containing batteries of 10, 11 and 12 inch guns.

Gen. von Buelow's army is still driving against the Russian forces despite
