SOCIETY

Miss Mildred Orr entertained with a miscellaneous shower last evening at her home, 321 N. Johnson st., for Miss Lena Schrickler, whose marriage will take place next week. A telegram was received during the evening announcing the coming marriage of Miss Orr and Carl Hausmann of near South Bend, which is to take place on Oct. 12. Contest was a feature of the evening's entertainment and musical numbers were given by Miss Helen Haslanger, Miss Mildred Turner and Miss Grace Bernhardt. Dainty refreshments were served. The decorations were arranged from the chandelier to the table and were cleverly carried out in pink and blue. The guests numbered 32.

A very pretty wedding took place Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Runkle of Edwardsburg, Mich., when their daughter, Miss Margaret Elizabeth Runkle, became the bride of B. J. Andrews, son of Mrs. S. L. Andrews of this city.

The Rev. Benjamin Jones of Edwardsburg and the Rev. Charles A. Decker, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, performed the ceremony. Miss Lena M. Turner of South Bend acted as bride's maid and Merle A. Andrews, a brother of the groom, was the best man. The Misses Gladys and Bernice Runkle acted as ring bearers and during the ceremony "To a Wild Rose" was played.

Immediately after the marriage a wedding collation was served. A profusion of garden flowers in pink and white were used effectively throughout the house. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews will be at home in South Bend after Oct. 6 at 154 E. Dublin av. Mrs. Andrews is well known here as a music teacher and Mr. Andrews is connected with the Hibberd Printing Co.

Organization of the G. O. K. W. club was effected Thursday evening at the home of Miss Louise Champaigne when election of officers and other early steps for the organization were worked out. The purpose of the club is to furnish entertainment for the 12 club members with their friends throughout the winter months. The result of the election was as follows: Miss Marie Champaigne, president; Miss Kathryn Koehendorfer, vice president; Miss Bertha Prashway, secretary and Miss Louise Champaigne, treasurer.

The business session was followed by card playing and refreshments. The next regular meeting of the club is to be held at the home of Miss Kathryn Koehendorfer, Sept. 23.

Mrs. Fred Helquist and Mrs. Andrew Helquist were hostesses at the regular meeting of the Ladies Aid society of the Swedish Lutheran church Thursday afternoon at the church. A program for the afternoon consisted of an address by the Rev. Carl O. Olson; recitation by Miss Esther Johnson; duet by Mrs. C. E. Mollander and Mrs. B. Edner; reading by Mrs. John Kullenburg. Light refreshments were served during the social time. The society will meet in the church Sept. 29.

The Nonpariel club was entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Collard, 721 S. Michigan st., at 12 o'clock dinner. In the afternoon the regular business meeting of the club was held and contests given at which Mrs. Nettie Price won first favor and Mrs. Emma Wollpert, second. On Sept. 30 Mrs. Hazel Stout, 1955 Riverside dr., will be hostess.

Mrs. Fred Kromer, Mrs. William Dumke, Mrs. Henry Miller and Mrs. Emil A. Schmok entertained members of the Helena Rebekah lodge sewing circle in the hall Thursday. The afternoon was spent in a social manner with needlework and light refreshments. There were 40 members present at the meeting. Another meeting of the circle will be held Sept. 20.

Mrs. Clem Bill, Cushing st., was hostess on Thursday to the Swatika club. The members spent the time in crocheting work, after which a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess at a table centered with a large bouquet of garden flowers. Mrs. Harry DeBaumerling, Kinyon st., will entertain the club in two weeks.

Announcements

The Women's Union Bible class of districts 7 and 8 will meet with Miss M. Millhouse, 1043 Riverside dr., next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single grain and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

Chinese Fashion Appears in U. S. in Mandarin Suit

Old Mother Fashion is not to be denied. War may stifle the ingenuity and enterprise of the Paris modistes, but she will still find a way to surprise and thrill the jaded pinning for "something new."

So here we have from far off, mysterious China a novelty to delight the heart of feminine fashion extremists. A Mandarin morning suit, if you please, in which mildness may be entirely comfortable as she lounges about in the early hours of the day.

These suits are for those with a well-filled purse, for there is scarcely a limit to the extent of elaborateness and richness of design in which the woman of fashion may indulge herself.

Brocaded satin, worked with golden dragons, or silver flowers, forms the basis for the outside material. This photograph is just received from England and foreshadows a novelty that will soon arrive on our shores. That it will be accorded a long welcome is the prediction of the London fashion experts, who declare that the new garment has "caught on" immensely in the British capital.

General meeting will be held, and the teacher, Rev. T. J. Parsons wishes to meet all the members of the class and also any others who might be interested in Bible study. The class is open to all without respect to denominational affiliation.

"Touch" is Sought By Good Dresser

Is "the Something" That Makes the Gown Stand Out.

The fastidious dresser willingly pays for exclusive design, something not actually visible on the face value of a model, but which tells in the long run, likewise for cut, fine workmanship—which represents time—and that intangible element designated "touch." The tailoring art is replete with "touch"—although it is frequently erroneously supposed to be chiefly based on a cut and dried method of calculation, a species of mathematics. The high-class tailor of any repute has strong appreciation for perfect ligne, and although he may base his schemes on regulation measurement, the first fitting resolves into a question of eye and touch. What these two masters dictate must be, and with the true tailoring artist it is ever a pleasant task to achieve and never the least short of perfection, writes Mrs. Jack May in the Queen (London).

Now that the really simple tailor-made has come into its own again, we are brought face to face once more with the value of the subtle nuances of cut, finish and touch which go to the consummation of the really distinctive tailor-made. We have already something more than a report to assume that the costume coats of the autumn will tend to greater length. This was particularly noticeable in a somber but choice selection of models that arrived the end of last month. The coats, without a single exception, were three-quarter length, and many were trimmed with braid. Save for actual sporting purposes, the circular belt is gradually disappearing. It is, however, introduced, and very pleasingly, in a certain intermittent style, sometimes at the back, sometimes in front, or, again, either side.

Cheese Squares. Out of a pint of milk take enough to wet up a quart of a cup each of flour and cornstarch, seasoned with a half teaspoon each of salt and paprika. Add this to the remainder of the milk, scalded in a double boiler. Stir constantly until the mixture thickens, then occasionally for 20 minutes. Add the yolks of two eggs beaten up with a quarter cup of creamed butter and a half cup of grated cheese. As soon as these are cooked, turn out into a shallow pan, and when cold cut in shapes. Lay these in a baking pan apart from each other, cover thickly with grated cheese, reheat, and brown in a quick oven.

WORK WAS NOT ENTERED. Miss Clara Schafer Refuses to Accept Awards For Exhibits.

Miss Clara Schafer, 858 Forest av., who entered a display of china painting in the fine arts exhibit at the Interstate fair, was awarded first prize for her work, but has asked for a new judgment because, being a professional, she did not enter her work for competition. Eleven of her pupils entered as amateurs and received blue ribbons. Though a misunderstanding her work was not entered among competitors and as a consequence she has asked the superintendents to place the first prize elsewhere.

DENIES CHARGE. Joseph Putz, 123 1-2 S. Laurel st., denied charges of child desertion when arraigned in city court upon complaint of his wife, Mrs. Johanna Putz. The case was set for Sept. 18, and Putz is held under $200 bonds.

PESKY BED BUGS Doctors declare that bed bugs and other vermin are the most to be feared means of spreading such diseases as consumption, spinal meningitis and other infectious troubles. There is no escape in getting bed bugs in your home, because that can't be avoided, but it is a disgrace to permit them to remain and thrive, when it is so easy to get rid of them with the new chemical compound, P. D. Q., which actually puts an end to these pesky devils. A MILLION BED BUGS A 25-cent package of this golden chemical will make a quart of a mixture that is so deadly to bed bugs that it would kill a million of them if you could get that many together. If they were as big as your hand it would sweep them just as well. And not only the live ones, but the future generations as well, because once it hits the eggs they are gone. CUT THIS OUT Your druggist has P. D. Q. (Pesky Devil's) Quinoids and will be glad to furnish it for 25 cents. One 25-cent package makes a quart of the mixture and is equal to a barrel of old-fashioned bug killer. Some druggists may try to tell you something else. Don't accept a substitute. If your druggist hasn't P. D. Q., send us his name and 25 cents and we will send you a package postal prepaid to your address. WILL NOT DAMAGE GOODS P. D. Q. will not injure delicate fabrics, clothing, carpets, furniture, bedding, wall paper or woodwork. In fact, it is often used as a deodorizer and disinfectant. KILLS FLEAS ON DOGS If you have a pet dog who is infested with fleas take a little P. D. Q. mixture in your hand and rub it in the fur. Then watch the flea loop the loop. They will be deader than King Solomon before they hit the floor. CHEEKS LIKE DESTROYER - Have your chickens got lice? Don't hesitate. Get a 26-cent package of P. D. Q., make a gallon of lice-destroyer from it as directed and then get busy in the hen house. It's so easy you'll laugh and so will the chickens. By the way, did you ever see a chicken laugh? Try this and watch 'em. FOR ANTS AND COCKROACHES The ants and cockroaches stand just as good a chance of surviving a treatment of P. D. Q. as a snowball in a just famed Heat Resort. It swats them and their eggs with a wallop that puts their whole generation out of business. Use it on furs in storage to kill and keep out moths. A HERBES SPORT Every package of P. D. Q. contains a patent spot that fits any ordinary bottle. It will enable you to reach the hard-to-get-at places and save lots of heads. When buying look for the Devil Juice on every package of P. D. Q. then you'll be sure to get the genuine OWL CHEMICAL COMPANY, Terre Haute, Ind.
