VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR DIES SUDDENLY

William H. Dunnington, 74 Years Old, Victim of Acute Indigestion.

ELKHART, Nov. 23.—William H. Dunnington, 74 years old, a Civil war veteran and long a Lake Shore employe, died at the home of his son, Charles Dunnington, 121 Myrtle st., Sunday morning.

Death was caused by an attack of acute indigestion complicated by heart disease.

A short funeral service will be held at the home at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, Rev. Dr. J. C. White of Trinity Methodist church officiating.

Mr. Dunnington was born in Boston, July 28, 1841. He served three years in the civil war as a member of Co. E of the Fourth Indiana cavalry. He was a member of Elmer post and of the Knights of Macca-bees. Mr. Dunnington was employed by the Lake Shore at Laporte as an upholsterer and came to Elkhart with the shops when they were moved here in 1871. He was retired at the age of 70.

George Harris, 1625 Francis st., 50 years old, a N. Y. C. yard switchman, suffered the amputation of his right leg just above the ankle as the result of an accident near the Tenth st. crossing Sunday. He is at the General hospital.

Mr. Harris also sustained a fracture of the nose, a cut over his right eye, abrasions to his right thigh and injuries to his back.

Pleasant Himebaugh, yard foreman of the engine which was switched in the car, says that it seemed Harris had placed his foot on the rail preparatory to climbing onto the car and that it was caught by a wheel before he had time to step off. He is said to have made three efforts to rise after he was knocked over, falling in each attempt because, it is thought, the car wheel was still on his foot.

The six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wall, 1414 Michigan st., sustained a seven-inch gash in her right forearm Monday when she fell through a glass door. About 15 stitches were required.

Robert Perry Hinman, who worked in Elkhart livery barns before locating in Bristol several years ago, died in the county infirmary at 5:30 p. m. Saturday, a victim of tuberculosis. His funeral service took place Monday afternoon in the Methodist church at Bristol. Hinman, who was 27 years old on Aug. 4, last, was a soldier in the Spanish-American war.

John Atkins, 79; his wife, Ella, 37; two daughters, Lucy and Anna, 11 and 7, and son, Seymour, 3, arrived here Sunday in two ramshackle vehicles drawn by two rambled horses. They say they are on their way from Rock Island, Ill., to Springfield, O. They were given shelter in the city building and fed by the humane society. The family had very little clothing and no money. They told local officers they spent Saturday night in a barn in South Bend.

STUDENTS SENT HOME

Three Poor Pupils Forced to Leave Michigan University.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 23.—Three poor students in the University of Michigan have had to quit college within the week because they were unable to find work and had exhausted the little money with which they had come.

The fact that this fall has been so mild, accounts for their having been able to stay as long as they did. There are at least two dozens more without jobs who are doing all in their power to find something that will enable them to earn enough to stay at least through the first semester.

One student applied to Philip Lovejoy, head of the employment bureau of the University Young Men's Christian association, begging for work. He said he had been living on 1.30 a week and simply must have a job now or he would be forced to leave college at once.

That times were hard all over the country during the summer, is blamed for the fact that students are now suffering. In years when there is no financial depression, many students in the summer earn enough to put them through the university, if they are able to land jobs that pay for their board or room rent.

MARION, Ind.—Working hours at the Marion Handle factory have been reduced from 10 to nine hours a day. Wages have not been reduced.

SAVED FROM GAS BY WOMAN CUSTOMER

Forces Way Into Store and Reises Windows, Then Summons Aid of Police.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 23.—Mrs. Mary Mason, 61 years old, and her two daughters, Marie and Martha, were saved from asphyxiation Monday. Mrs. Mason conducted at 451 W. Fifteenth st. and, becoming alarmed when she found the store and the entrance to the living rooms above locked, forced the door and discovered the three occupants unconscious. Windows were hastily opened and when Lieut. Merrill and a squad of police arrived Mrs. Mason and her daughters had recovered consciousness. They had been overcome by gas escaping from a base burner.

After placing coal in the stove last night Mrs. Mason neglected to fasten the door and the living rooms were filled with gas. Mrs. Ward, who rescued Mrs. Mason and her daughters, called at the store about 7 o'clock, she told the police, and said Mrs. Mason always had the store opened before that time. When no one answered her repeated knocking on the door she said she feared some harm had befallen Mrs. Mason and she forced her way into the building.

TWO NEAR DROWNING

Canoe Tips Over But Boys Are Rescued From Lake.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 23.—While great steel freighters were storm-buried, two young duck shooters ventured into lower Lake St. Clair in a canoe and were barely rescued from the water in the frigid water by the U. S. tug Sapper, which sighted them on its way to port.

The canoeists, Raymond Rogers of 285 Delaware av., a toolmaker, and Edward Files of 475 Fourth av., an enamel rubber, were battling their way to shore from Peche Island when their frail craft was swamped by the waves. Making for Detroit, the tug Sapper, which has been placing buoys and lights in the St. Clair cut, sighted the canoe, and turning back from the entrance to the channel, got both boys aboard after the best seamanship of its crew was called into play by the tossing waves.

MAN GROWS LIKE DOG

Is Afflicted With Strange Disease, Barking and Biting.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 23.—Local physicians are confronting with one of the most puzzling cases that has ever developed in Tippecanoe county. Alfred Noble, 22 years old, yesterday seemingly lost all human sense, and instead developed the instinct of a mad dog. He fell to his hands and knees and growled and barked like a dog, and bit everything that he came in contact with. He bit on the legs of tables, tore up paper with his teeth and did many other strange things. After a battle, the police succeeded in overpowering him and he is now in a straight jacket at the county jail. Ten physicians have examined him, but none would say he was afflicted with hydrophobia. He has rational moments and talks.

IS BURNED TO DEATH

Saginaw Woman is Victim of Kerosine Flames.

SAGINAW, Mich., Nov. 23.—Mrs. Annie Shebasta, 77 years old, was fatally burned late this afternoon when kerosene, with which she attempted to light the kitchen stove exploded, throwing flames over her body. She died three hours later. Mrs. Shebasta suffered a stroke of paralysis last spring and had little control of her left side.

So rapidly did the flames consume her clothes that she fell at the stove. When neighbors responded to her screams, they found her garments burned off and her body charred. She was taken to the woman's hospital.

GRASPS WIRE, HURT

Crawfordsville Lad Sustains Badly Burned Hand in Accident.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Nov. 23.—Fred Lowellen, 12 years old, is in a serious condition today as the result of injuries he received yesterday when he caught hold of a telephone wire dangling over an alley. The wire had fallen over a heavily charged power wire and the boy was unable to get away. Another boy was hurried several feet by the shock when he tried to rescue him. His father, Bert Lowellen, was knocked down, but finally succeeded in pulling the boy loose. Fred's hands were burned and lacerated and he was unconscious.

NOT INTERESTED IN SUIT TO TEST LAW

Attorney General Says He Will Not Participate in Marion County Case.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 23.—Atty. Gen. Evan B. Stotsenburg says he will pay no attention to an attack being made upon the primary law in the Marion county courts. "It is simply a suit between two individuals in which the state or other people can have no interest," says the attorney general.

"One man who says he is a democrat, but I doubt it, is being used by another man who pleads guilty to being a republican, and who complains because the man claiming to be a democrat will not let him vote in the primary. The attorney who represents the complainant are employed by the republican state central committee. The man being sued is employed by the Marion county republican committee. They have brought the suit in a republican court.

"If the suit were seeking to determine any point touching the new primary law then such a suit would be useless. A suit was brought recently in the New Albany courts and Judge Paris rendered a decision upholding all the law save one section. An appeal has been taken to the state supreme court on all the points involved touching the constitutionality of the law, and this case on appeal has been set down for an early hearing."

The appealed case has been set for hearing in the supreme court Dec. 15. The Marion county suit to which the attorney general refers was simply filed so much bunk. It is a suit with lots of other moves made by the standpaters of Indiana, trying to make the people imagine the progressives are breaking a leg to get back into the standpat camp to vote for Fairbanks and Goodrich and Watson and the rest of their bunch. Each new move serves to make them just a little bit more ridiculous.

WANT MICHIGAN DRY BY 1918 SAY DRYS

Campaign to Abolish Liquor Traffic Will Continue Until Polls Close in 1916.

ESCANABA, Mich., Nov. 23.—"Michigan dry in 1918" will be the battle cry of every saloon opponent in this state from now until the polls close on the evening of Nov. 5, 1916, said E. J. Baldwin, a leader of the dry forces here today. In that day Baldwin will render judgment upon the proposed amendment to the state constitution prohibiting the manufacture and sale of liquors after May 1, 1918.

On Nov. 2, at Lansing, and Nov. 4, at Escanaba dry conventions were held at which Rep. Hobson of Alabama, Rep. Landis of Indiana, and Dr. T. A. Cairns of New Jersey were the principal speakers. At these conventions committees were appointed and plans made for an aggressive fight.

Prohibition Issue for 75 Years. Prohibition has been an active issue in Michigan for nearly three-quarters of a century. State-wide prohibition was in effect from early in the '50s until 1877, when the sale of liquor was again legalized. Immediately opponents of the saloon began a crusade for restoration of a constitutional prohibition. Strict laws were passed by the legislature to regulate the traffic, principally in the sessions of 1883-5, when the temperance forces were led by the late S. W. LaDu, member from Montcalm county, and an even more aggressive "dry" Michigan ever had. It was under his leadership that the dry forces forced a vote in 1885 on state-wide prohibition. The amendment carried by a substantial majority in the lower peninsula of the state. The returns from the upper peninsula counties were held up for several days, and when they finally were received the figures showed that the prohibition amendment was defeated by about five thousand. It was charged by the temperance forces that the returns from two or three upper peninsula counties, which gave almost a solid vote against prohibition, showed that nearly as many voters were polled as there were men, women and children residing in the counties.

Over Half State Now Dry. In 1890 a local option law was passed, and the same year Van Buren county adopted local option by a large majority and it has remained dry ever since, although the "wets" brought the issue to a vote five times.

Van Buren was the only county to adopt local option for several years. In 1894 two other counties voted dry but returned to the wet column two years later. In 1895 the State Anti-Saloon league was organized, and at that time Van Buren was the only dry county. Between that time and 1907 a number of the counties were sawed back and forth on the local option issue, some voting dry but returning to the wet column, so that in 1907—only eight years ago—Van Buren was still the only dry county in the state. Today 43 of the 83 counties in the state are dry.

Brazil Men Hurt When Handcar and Auto Come Together.

BRAZIL, Ind., Nov. 23.—W. D. Skelton was seriously injured, Lewis J. Anderson was painfully hurt, and John Cagle was severely shaken up, but escaped serious injuries, when a motor handcar on which they were riding on the Illinois Central railroad was in collision with an automobile, driven by Thomas McCrea, at the Hendricks st. crossing today. McCrea was driving east and saw one motor handcar, but did not see the other because of a large oil wagon which stood between him and the railroad. Skelton was hurt about the head. The automobile was badly damaged.

ALLEGED MURDERER IS CAUGHT AT FORT WAYNE

H. O. Lucas Wanted For Killing Deputy Captured as He Withdraws Bank Funds.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Nov. 23.—After having once been arrested and lost through the carelessness of a town marshal in Dewitt, Ark., H. O. Lucas, wanted in Owatona, Minn., for the murder of deputy sheriff, was caught this afternoon by detectives. Beyond acknowledging that he was wanted in Minnesota for killing a deputy sheriff, the man refused to talk.

It was through his applying at the Tri-State for $40 which he had deposited in that institution that Lucas was apprehended. Several weeks ago he drew $40 by telegraph and was located at Dewitt, Ark., and arrested, but escaped again. Today he appeared at the bank in person and the officers were notified and caught him as he was leaving.

The killing for which Lucas is being held occurred Oct. 9, 1914, and a reward of $200 was placed on the man's head by the Minnesota authorities.

FAMILY IS HUNGRY; QUARREL IS BLAMED

Kokomo People Go Without Food as Officials Clash Over Who's to Pay Bills.

KOKOMO, Ind., Nov. 23.—The family of James Little was permitted to go several days without food because the city health department and the township trustees are at loggerheads.

The Little family was quarantined three weeks ago by Dr. Edward Cox, city health officer, because of diphtheria in the family. His husband and father could have provided for the family had he been permitted to leave home. The city officials failed to do anything for the family and the township trustee insisted it was not his place to provide for them. The trustee has helped the destitute family during the past few days, but he is intending to take the matter higher up. The question of whose duty it is to care for persons who have been quarantined by the city health officer has been hanging fire here for the past year.

JUMPS INTO RIVER FOR LACK OF MEDICINE

Youth Gives Mother All of Belongings and Commits Suicide at Morristown.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Nov. 23.—Oscar Zimmerman, son of A. F. Zimmerman of Morristown, committed suicide some time Sunday afternoon by jumping from the Indianapolis & Cincinnati traction bridge at Morristown. The body was found today in eight feet of water. Ill health is supposed to have been the cause of the suicide. Zimmerman left home Sunday at noon, after giving his mother his check book, his bank book and some change. She asked him where he was going and he told her she would find out later. He had been taking an imported medicine for epilepsy and on Sunday the doctor told him he had to get any more of the medicine because of the war. The possibility of having to do without the drug is assigned as the cause of the suicide.

HELD AS PRISONER

Brother of Michigan Woman Taken by Bulgarians.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Nov. 23.—Mrs. Benjamin Harbster of Constantine received word that her brother, Glenn B. Bell of Denver, Colo., who has been a member of Lady Paget's medical staff in Ukub, Serbia, has been taken prisoner by the conqueror Bulgarians.

Mr. Bell, a senior in the medical department of Columbia college, sailed last June for Serbia with 24 companions. During the summer the expedition, known as the Committee of Mercy, has accomplished wonderful results in stamping out the typhus fever which infested that country, and in relieving the suffering of the wounded.

In September Mr. Bell joined the staff of Lady Paget instead of returning to resume his work at Columbia as he fully intended doing when he left this country last June.

ACCOUNT IS OUTLAWED

State Board Will Not Act in Case Against Former Brazil County Clerk.

BRAZIL, Ind., Nov. 23.—The state board of accounts, it is reported here, will take no criminal action against Clayton C. Chambers, former clerk of the Clay circuit court, who has been sued by the county commissioners for $2,187.21, the amount of an alleged shortage in his accounts.

The statute of limitations has run against Chambers and the state board was unable to act on this account. Chambers has paid back $300 in the last four months, but he has refused to pay certain alleged shortages. His friends declare Chambers is honest although he may have erred in his interpretation of the law. Chambers now lives in Indianapolis.

PLUCK NOVEMBER ROSES

Michigan Produces Flowers Not Afraid of Frosts.

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., Nov. 23.—While some have been gaining fame picking strawberries, Richard Sawyer of the G. & M. block has been gathering roses. Frost and roses are not generally on speaking terms, but those on the Sawyer farm near Higman park do not seem to mind the intruder. Mr. Sawyer picked a dozen and a half American Beauties, as fragrant as any ever grown in a hot house.

Various Forms Of Headache

"It is necessary in order to treat headache properly to understand the cause which produces the affection," says Dr. J. W. Ray of Blocton, Ala. Continuing, he says, "Physicians cannot even begin the treatment of a disease without knowing what causes give rise to it, and we must remember that headache is to be treated according to the same rule. We must not only be particular to give a remedy intended to counteract the cause which produces the headache, but we must also give a remedy to relieve the pain until the cause of the trouble has been removed. To answer this purpose Anti-kamnia Tablets will be found a most convenient and satisfactory remedy. On table every one of these hours of comfort and rest in the most severe cases of headache, neuralgia and particularly the headache of women."

When we have a patient subject to regular attacks of sick headache, we should caution him to keep his bowels regular, for which nothing is better than "Aetoid", and when he feels the least sign of an oncoming attack, he should take two A-K Tablets. Such patients should always be instructed to carry a few Anti-kamnia Tablets, so as to have them ready for instant use. These tablets are prompt in action, and can be depended on to produce relief in a very few minutes. Ask for A-K Tablets. Anti-kamnia Tablets can be obtained at all druggists.
