BOGUE WILL FILED HERE FOR PROBATE

Son and Stepson Will Get Increased Amounts if They Have Abstained From Tobacco.

Byron J. Bogue, formerly of Mishawaka, who died in Chicago, Dec. 22, left an estate valued approximately at $11,000, according to the will filed in superior court yesterday. Of this, $9,000 is in real estate and $2,000 personal. The last will and testament with the codicil attached was also admitted to probate.

To Morgan Weir Bogue, a son, goes $500 in cash outright, the remainder going to his wife, Amy R. Bogue.

The will requests that Mrs. Bogue bequeath to the son, Morgan Weir, $1,000 on the event of her death. In case further, the will adds, that if he has abstained from "the use of tobacco as a narcotic and from the use of alcoholic liquors as beverage since the date of this instrument (Oct. 12, 1906,) in obedience to my oft repeated requests, then I ask and would be greatly pleased if my said wife will bequeath the sum of $2,000 instead of $1,000."

The will stipulates in the event that the son has indulged in the use of tobacco or alcoholic liquors as stated in the request, the widow is directed to bequeath $2,000 to the Children's Aid society—the Orphans' home—such fund to be known as a memorial fund to Maria Calvin Bogue, the deceased's first wife, who always took deep interest in the welfare of the home.

Mrs. Bogue is not legally bound to make the bequests mentioned above by the will.

In a codicil to the will drawn up and dated the same day, the father makes provision for his son to the extent of $4,000 with several stipulations. These are that he cannot realize on the amount until he is 25 years of age, but he is to receive the interest yearly on the money as long as he lives. He may recover the principal, $1,000 at a time, when he adds to his own estate a like sum of $1,000.

If the son Morgan fails to withdraw upon the principal according to the provision in the codicil, the whole or part becomes the property of his wife or children at his death. If the son dies without wife or children, the principal of $4,000 reverts to the present widow, and in turn if she is deceased, the amount passes to the Aid society.

The will further requests the widow at her death give to her own son, Warren A. Ruth, the sum of $200 absolutely, which sum he asks that if he has abstained from tobacco and alcohol since the date of the instrument he be given $500 instead.

Another request mentioned in the will is that Mrs. Bogue have the Maria Calvin Bogue scholarship to Scott's seminary added to in the sum of $200, making the total scholarship $1,000. The wife is also requested to have $2,000 placed in some educational enterprise to assist worthy young men to be a memorial to his wife, Amy R. Bogue.

If the estate dwindles to $2,000, it is to be used as a basis of a bequest to the deceased's brothers and sisters, or their heirs.

Amy R. Bogue, the widow, is named as executrix. Two heirs survive. The son lives at 219 S. Race st., Mishawaka.

Mr. Bogue lived at 525 Ashland av., Chicago at the time of his death. He was principal of the Mishawaka high school for three years and superintendent for 20. He was interested there for many years in real estate and handled a large business, it is understood, in land contracts.

ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED BY MACCABEE MEMBERS

Observation of the 50th anniversary of South Bend's No. 1 Maccabees, took place last night at the meeting of the tent with a number of other tents as guests at Beyer hall on E. Wayne st.

Prof. A. Lennox with his 30-piece orchestra or band surprised the Maccabees with more talent than they had anticipated. Prof. Lennox, who is an old time musician, played some beautiful solos and played in a number of duets despite the fact that he has not made a sound on any musical instrument for a number of years. The band was asked for encores until they were forced to leave the room after having played for a long time.

Vandeville acts were presented and addresses were made by prominent men of the Maccabee order. D. P. Markey, supreme commander of Detroit, and one of the organizers of the local tent 30 years ago, was present and gave a talk on the progress of the Maccabee order and the amalgamation of the Modern Maccabees and the Maccabees of the World during the past year.

Milo Meredith of Wabash and J. W. Reipolke, great record keeper of Goshen, delivered addresses on the state lodge.

An interesting event of the evening was the conferring of the "three years' warfare" degree on a class of candidates. This degree which was the first degree conferred upon a Maccabee in the state, was conferred by the original degree tent composed of a number of charter members of the lodge.

Notre Dame News

Between the hours of one and three yesterday a 14-course dinner was served at Notre Dame for the senior class of Mary's academy. The priests who had charge of the affair were Fathers Carrico, Eugene and Thomas Burke. The dinner was given in charge of Brother Florian. The rest of the day was spent by the girls visiting the various points of interest at the university.

The lecture course which has just been completed for the remainder of the year now contains 16 numbers. Opening Jan. 7 with a lecture by the Hon. Joseph Scott of Los Angeles, Cal. Commencement orator last year and the recipient of the degree of doctor of laws at the university last year. After Mr. Scott on Jan. 8, Prof. Michelson is scheduled to lecture on the European war. The entertainment course prepared for the students this year is one of the longest and best given in years. Besides the regular entertainments the Notre Dame dramatic club will give two more skits before the closing of school.

Rev. Charles L. O'Donnell of the department of English has just submitted a manuscript to Longman, Green & Co., entitled "Newman's Gentleman." This book is important in that it sets forth for the first time the complete mind of Newman on the "gentleman." The book is a study of the eighth discourse of the idea of a university. It is designed to be used as a text in the preparatory and college English classes at the university.

ENTERTAIN STUDENTS

Indiana University Alumni Give Affair for High Seniors.

Thirty members of the senior class of the high school were entertained by the South Bend Alumni association of Indiana university at the high school building Wednesday evening. About 25 local alumni and a number of South Bend students at the university attended the affair.

Enthusiastic talks were made by Fr. Charles Stoltz, president of the association; Iden S. Romig, vice president; J. Elmer Peak, secretary; Dan Nye, George Omacht, a member of the South Bend club at the university, R. W. Geyer, Robert Lang and others. Each speaker told of the advantages of a college course at Indiana and urged the high school seniors to consider the university when seeking an institution of higher learning.

Light refreshments were served, after which dancing was enjoyed. The association made arrangements for a dinner at the Oliver hotel on Jan. 14, in commemoration of Founder's day for the university, which occurs on Jan. 20. Similar banquets are to be held all over the state.

CIVIC CLUB HOLDS BIG ENTERTAINMENT

Large Number of Adults at Kaley School Enjoys Splendid Program Wednesday.

One of the most interesting civic club meetings of the season was held at the Kaley school Wednesday night. Music, dancing and athletic events were the features of the entertainment at which there was an attendance of 200 adults. Refreshments were served following the program.

The athletic events consisted of an indoor baseball game and a basketball game. The indoor baseball game was won by the J. D. Independents from a Kaley picked team by the score of 11 to 1. The captains of the respective teams were Szamanski and Renz and the batters were Stevens and Sapper and Fisher and Schwehart (Brown substituting). The basket ball game was won by the Kaley school girls from the Laurel school girls by a score of 12 to 11. This game was a most interesting one, the score at the end of the first half being a tie.

Mrs. W. E. Miller gave an instructive talk on "Neighborhood Social Life," calling attention to the great benefit being done to the various communities of the city through the activities of the civic clubs.

A wand drill was given by 12 girls under the direction of Mrs. Lela Scott. Folk dances were given by the Kaley girls with Miss Katherine Erhardt presiding at the piano. Miss Violet Strickler gave a reading. Following this part of the program there was a grand march followed by the dancing of the Virginia reel, various other old-fashioned dances and some modern dances.

The events of the evening were presided over by Pres't David Heintzleman. Roland Obenbach acted as master of ceremonies and the girls' athletic events were conducted by Miss Rosa Kraus.

PULMONARY SALES LIFE OF WOMAN

Mike Dietz Dies of Asphyxiation, But Police Arrive in Time to Revive Wife.

South Bend's second death by asphyxiation in one day occurred Wednesday afternoon, when Mike Dietz was found dead in his home at 326 Lawrence st., as a result of escaping gas from a coal stove. His wife, Mrs. Mary Dietz, was also overcome, but probably will recover.

Neighbors discovered the bodies at 6 o'clock. The body of the man was lying on the floor about three feet from the hard coal stove. He was dead when found. Indications were that the couple had been overcome by the fumes for about two hours.

Mrs. Dietz was saved by the use of the police pulmotor, operated by Officers Cutting, Kemerley and Westolek. Drs. Edgar Myers, J. W. Hill and Edwin P. Moore were called to attend the woman.

She was found lying on the floor in a bedroom adjoining the sitting room where her husband was. The gas fumes were strong enough to fill the bedroom, but not strong enough to cause death. It is believed that she was first affected by the fumes in the sitting room, and went into the bedroom, where she finally was overcome.

Coroner Swantz stated Wednesday night that the asphyxiation was probably an accident. It was found that the damper of the stove had been turned off, causing the gas to form. An inquest will be held today.

According to neighbors, Mr. Dietz had been away for some time, and returned home to spend the holidays. He was formerly employed here as a drayman. He was 37 years old, while Mrs. Dietz was 55.

Scenes of Civil War Are Revived Through Address

Members of the Lawyers' club were most pleasantly entertained Wednesday night by Samuel Parker who spoke on the subject, "A Journey Over Historic Ground." Mr. Parker gave an intimate description of civil war battle fields in Virginia which he had visited in 1914. He was able to hold the close attention of his auditors through his thorough knowledge of historic events and his talk left a vivid impression of the personal elements entering into the great battles which were features of Grant's campaign that resulted finally in the surrender of Gen. Lee.

An interesting sidelight on the events of the war was related by the speaker regarding Barbara Fritchie, the intrepid woman immortalized by the poet Whitier. According to the story told to Mr. Parker by a woman who claimed to have been acquainted with Barbara Fritchie, the latter was sweeping the sidewalk in front of her house when a troop of confederates passed through the town and some of the soldiers walked on the sidewalk which she was sweeping. Instead of the dramatic words as told by the poet it was related by this friend of Barbara Fritchie's that what she actually said was "Get off my walk, you dirty rebels, get off my walk."

There was an attendance of 25 at the meeting of the Lawyers' club which was the regular monthly dinner held at the Y. M. C. A. Brief talks of a reminiscent nature were given by Timothy E. Howard, L. M. Hammerschmidt, Dudley Shively, Stuart MacKibbin and Samuel R. Pettengill. The meeting was presided over by Francis E. Lambert.

PASTOR IS HONORED

Rev. Anthony Zubowicz Given Banquet by Members of Church.

Rev. Anthony Zubowicz, pastor of St. Hedwig's church was honored with a banquet given last night by the church members at the St. Hedwig's hall. More than 150 members were present.

Rev. Zubowicz was presented with a beautiful gift by Michael Haziqski from the congregation for the excellent work he has done during the past year. A short address was given by Rev. Zubowicz during the evening and other talks and toasts were made by Rev. Andrew Morrisey, provincial of the order of the Holy Cross; Lieut. Gov. William P. O'Neill, John Z. Smulski of Chicago, and Joseph Wypyszynski who acted as toastmaster. The banquet and toasts were followed by a social hour.

LODGE NOTES

South Bend serie No. 435, F. O. E., met last night at Eagle's hall for the last meeting of the year when a wind-up of the business took place and reports were made by various committees. The building committee reported on the progress of the building and stated that the roof will be put on in a few days if the weather is favorable.

Initiation of 18 candidates took place during the evening and a short talk was made by John Divine. Following the present meeting a banquet was served. The old officers retired from office and the new ones will be installed at the next meeting Wednesday evening.

Political Gossip

Things political are beginning to hum throughout Hoosierland. Rep. John A. M. Adair of Portland will be the busiest office seeker in the state for the next few days. He is booked up for 40 meetings in cities all over Indiana. Most of his trips he will be assisted by Sen. John W. Kern. Tonight they are in Muncie. Last night they spoke in Brookville. The itinerary is being arranged by Dale Crittenger.

Gov. Ralston, Rep. Adair, Sen. John Worth Kern and J. Hamilton Lewis, senator from Illinois, are speakers at the his democratic holiday affair tonight. They will address the Jackson club smoker at Lafayette. Adair and Kern have spent a few days in Indianapolis, where they have been looking after campaign plans during lulls in the speaking tour.

Gus Haslanger, S. Michigan st. cigar man, has decided definitely to enter the primary race as a democratic candidate for the representation of the nomination. George Y. Hepler will be a candidate to succeed himself, and the third candidate being sought is Frank Mayr, Jr. of this city. Mayr is reported favorable to the race.

R. H. Calvert is being talked of as a candidate for county coroner. Calvert recently completed his term as county physician. He was succeeded by Dr. Harry N. Helman.

Henry A. Roberts, editor of the Carmel Standard, and at the same time a traveling salesman, has announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for state statistician, says the Gary Tribune, which goes on to state that it does not know much about Roberts, nor about the office to which he aspires and its qualifications, but that it hopes the Gary delegation will go to Roberts.

Porter republicans are preparing to wage an active campaign locally and nationally, according to the Valparaiso press. A meeting will be held Jan. 8, at which time some organization efforts so far as candidates are concerned will be discussed. At a recent session of precinct committees, the primary law was taken up and interpreted by legal authorities of Valpa.

One of the interesting new stories that is going around in political circles is one to the effect that J. Frank Hanly may be asked by the progressive to accept their nomination for governor. What Hanly will say to this proposition is not yet known. He is in favor of making prohibition a political party issue and it is understood that the progressive leaders who are talking about Hanly for governor are willing to put anything at all in their state platform to get votes.

Edwin M. Lee, progressive state chairman, predicts a surprise, but has naught to say on the Hanly rumor, either affirming or denying it.

Evan B. Stotsenburg, attorney-general, says prosecuting attorneys are to be nominated under the provisions of the new primary law. Information to the contrary had been disseminated, he said.

The attorney-general also rules that a candidate for state senator or representative must pay 1 per cent of the total per diem that might be received by him as such officer, or 1 per cent of $266, and that mileage should not be taken into consideration.

The opinions went to Homer L. Cook, secretary of state, who asked concerning candidates for prosecuting attorney, whether the mileage should be taken into consideration.

SALESMEN SEE BOXING BOOTS

Chamber of Commerce and C. A. Club Entertain Knights of Grip at Smoker.

Three hundred commercial travelers of the city were the guests of the Chamber of Commerce and Commercial Athletic club at a fine entertainment given Wednesday night in honor of the men who are representing the city in other parts of the country commercially.

The affair was entirely informal, with something scheduled for every minute. Music was furnished during the evening by Elbel's band, and cigars and lunch were dispensed during the intervals between the various numbers on the program.

Interest centered around three high class boxing exhibitions, staged in the club gymnasium. Kid Cody, a promising fighter from the O'Connell gymnasium of Chicago, and Eddy Brady of South Bend furnished an eight-round match being the hit of the entertainment. The preliminaries consisted of a four round go-between Bobby Colip and Young Pop, and a two round exhibition between Young Pop and his brother Lew.

In the main bout, the Chicago pug easily had it on the local fighter, decisively making a decision in the fourth round every department of the game, and showed promise of becoming well known in the fighting game.

The first two rounds went to Brady. Cody evidently was laying up for the later rounds, and did none of the leading. Brady failed to land any very hard blows, but seemed to have the better of the few times when they mixed.

After the second round, the Chicago boy had the advantage all the way. He began to unlimber his left hook, which he worked to good advantage. The third, fourth and fifth were rather slow, Cody having a shade in each.

The last three rounds were all Cody's. In these frames the Chicago fighter repeatedly landed heavy blows to the head. He also opened up and gave a good exhibition of foot-work. His body blows were slow and ineffective, but Brady was unable to put a defense for the left hook that landed so many times on the head and face. Brady slipped over a couple good punches in the final round, but the gong found the Chicago pug doing all of the aggressive work.

Young Pop upheld the family reputation by earning a victory in the curtain-raiser with Bobby Colip. The first round was even, the fourth was Colip's, but Pop earned the two middle rounds and the fight. Both boys showed a wealth of cleverness.

Lew Pop, who was unable to appear in a regular mill because of a bay eye, went a two-round exhibition with his brother. He gave an exhibition of the ring skill that has given him a reputation here, being content to let his younger brother do most of the work, but putting up such a defense that it was almost impossible to touch him. Coach Rockne of Notre Dame refereed the bouts.

Martha Boggs, one of the stars of the "Song and Dance Revue" that is appearing at the Orpheum this week, made a good impression with her dancing. Virginia Luby of the same company sang one of the songs which she uses with good effect in the revue.

Ernest Staples' Billy Sunday and Dr. Phil impersonations went big, as usual, and Fritz Martin contributed to the success of the program by rendering several original numbers on the piano.
