BOUGHT WILLIAMS' LUCK "Planted" Horseshoes to Keep "Kid" in Humor for Match.

Sammy Harris, manager of Kid Williams and the matchmaker who clinched the Kuhnke-Chaney championship title, tells a good one on Kid Williams. "When the Kid was training for his fight with Coulton on the coast, he became very superstitious. If he found a horseshoe on a road trip in the morning, he was happy all day. I bought two dozen old horseshoes and had one of his sparring partners drop one on the road each day. The Kid found 'em and never grew grouchy."

New Year's Resolutions. "Never again will I build 1400 bladders so close to Duffy Lewis and Harry Hooper."—William F. Baker, owner of the Phillies. "I'll fight as often as I can get $50,000—and can choose my opponent."—Jess Willard. "No more baseball leagues for mine."—James A. Gilmore. "I'm offa that bird Willie Johnson."—Maurice McLoughlin. "No more football teams like 1915."—Yale. "$15,000—or nothing."—Fred Welsh.

MEET TONIGHT. International News Service: NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 3.—Sam Langford and Harry Willis will box 24 scheduled rounds for the colored heavyweight championship in this city tonight.

Penn State and Brown were among the teams dropped from the 1916 Harvard schedule. The answer is simple: They're too rough.

Do You Know How To Waltz On Skates

Do you skate? If you don't, you'd better learn if you want to be in vogue this winter. Better still, if you do skate, turn your efforts to fancy stunts and dancing on the ice. New York society has taken up skating as the sport for this winter, and New York sets the pace for social diversion. The Castles had the entire country fatigued and dizzy with their steps last season, and now the ballrooms and the dance halls have been deserted for the more healthful sport—skating. The vogue came about through the finale of the present Hippodrome spectacle, the "St. Moritz" scene, in which a collection of skaters of international reputation set the pace for the new winter pastime. In order that everyone may learn the most popular dancing step on skates, the waltz hesitation, Fred Crilfield, one of the foremost amateur skating experts, explains the movements of the waltz. To make it more easily understood he and his skating partner, Miss Fritzi Stanford, posed for the photos here shown. By Fred Crilfield. (Illustrated with Photographs of himself and Miss Fritzi Stanford.) Skating the waltz hesitation may sound difficult, but really it is not. Any person with ordinary skating ability can master it with very little effort. The whole action of the waltz hesitation is a figure eight forward and reverse. Of course you know the position taken by a couple in starting a waltz on a dance floor, well the same position is used on skates. The gentleman leads with his left foot, using his right foot to push with. The lady raises her right foot and slides backwards on her left foot. The first circle of the figure eight is made on the foot on which they start, changing to the opposite foot for the second circle. Upon the completion of the last circle of the figure eight comes the reverse. This is nothing but a short step to make the turn, the gentleman skating backwards on the left foot and the lady forward on her left. Each circle is made on one foot, enough force being used in the start. There you have the complete steps and action of the waltz hesitation, the rest being only a repetition of what has already been explained. It is great sport and breaks the monotony of straightaway skating. Try it yourself and see.

PITTSBURGH IS ON SYRACUSE SCHEDULE

Will Take the Place Formerly Held by Michigan University.

International News Service: PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 3.—Pittsburgh will take the place formerly held by the University of Michigan on Syracuse university's indoor track schedule this winter. Contracts have been signed for the appearance of the blue and gold delegation in Syracuse, the date to be settled later. In all likelihood March 11, will be the time set. This adds one more important link to the chain of athletic events scheduled between these two universities. Pittsburgh and Syracuse are also on the program for an outdoor track contest, in Pittsburgh, in May. Announcement between the two rivals, Syracuse being the scene of the first class.

CENTRAL LEAGUES TO MEET NEXT SUNDAY

Session Will be Held in This City or in Fort Wayne.

News-Times Special Service: GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Jan. 3.—Frest E. W. Dickerson of the Central league has announced that a meeting of the league moguls, at which the makeup of the 1916 circuit will be definitely decided upon, will in all probability be held next Sunday at either South Bend or Fort Wayne.

Harry Stahlhefer, owners of the Evansville club, and vice president of the league, will arrive in Grand Rapids early this week and will accompany Frest E. Dickerson on a tour around the circuit for the purpose of ascertaining just what kind of shape affairs have assumed in the towns regarded most likely to be awarded franchises.

Ahearn Gets Chance. Dan McKerrick is a happy person since his protege, Young Ahearn, has been rematched with Mike Gibbons for Jan. 18 in St. Paul. "No one realizes what a wonder Ahearn is," says the prolific Daniel. "I've been trying for a year to get him a scrap with any of the best middleweights in the country. But most of them ducked him. Just watch that boy of mine when he goes against Gibbons. Mike is ranked as a scientific wonder. Well, just ogie Ahearn."

There may be quite a bit in what Daniel says—even though he is Ahearn's hired press agent. The batter didn't size up very formidable when he began fighting around these parts a few years ago, but a trip to foreign climes seems to have benefited him wonderfully. While abroad he became a pugilistic sensation, and was touted as one of the best youngsters that ever stepped within the roped arena. Ahearn's real test will come in his fracas with Gibbons. Should he win—and win decisively—he surely will deserve all the nice things that have been said about him.

Jack Dillon's Plight. And, in the meantime, there is Jack Dillon, scowling away in the office, hungry for a fight—and with appetite unsatiated. Dillon occupies a peculiar position in the prize ring—a fighter who cannot get a fight. He is a legitimate middleweight, but he wants to fight the heavies. He's willing to "spot" them from 40 to 80 pounds and from three inches to a foot in height—but even at that they don't want his stuff. Dillon is a truly marvelous fighter; one of those rarities—the man with the fighting heart. Tom Sharkey had such a heart; so did John L. and Bob Fitzsimmons. But when they passed out of the pugilistic limelight fighting hearts became extinct among the heavies until Dillon hove into view. "I'll fight any man in the game today—and I won't quibble over weights, heights or terms," asserts Dillon.

AGREEMENT NOT SIGNED. Peace Session Will be Delayed Several Days. International News Service: CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—Ban Johnson, president of the American league, left last night for Cincinnati to attend the regular annual meeting of the national commission today, but announced before going that the peace session would not be held for at least a week, and perhaps 10 days. Johnson understood that peace waited on the sale of the Giants to Harry Sinclair.

DARCY, CHAMPION OF AUSTRALIA, IS COMING OUR WAY

Expects to Pick Up About $30,000—Wonder is Heralded as Having Punch in Either Mit.

By Frank G. Menke. NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Les Darcy is poised for a leap upon the soil of Uncle Sammy. The "Kangaroo" middleweight hopes to extract about $30,000 from our jeans while in our midst.

Darcy seems to be a real fighter and he ought to be a good investment for the promoters who will guarantee him $30,000 for three battles in the U. S. A.

Those who yelled "huke" when Darcy scored his first knockout victory over Eddie McGoorty during the summer, have been strangely silent since Darcy's second knockout triumph over the once-time king of American middleweights.

Of course, there are some who attempt to discount Darcy's achievement by declaring that McGoorty is a has-been. That is hardly true, because just before Eddie left for Australia he seemed to be in tiptop condition.

Darcy's Great Record. Darcy is only 29 years old, yet he has met and beaten some of the greatest middleweight fighters in the game. In addition to scoring two knockout victories over McGoorty, he has won from Billy Murray (twice), Jeff Smith, Jimmy Clabby, Mickey King and a host of other tough birds.

When Darcy comes to America his foe will be picked from among Young Ahearn, Mike Gibbons, Jack Dillon (if he can make the weight), George Chip and Jeff Smith. It is likely that Gibbons or Ahearn will be the first to face the Australian wonder, who is heralded as having a terrific punch in either hand, a masterful defense and a nimble brain.

Darcy probably will hurry his trip as he is growing so rapidly he soon may bulge over the 155-pound middleweight limit.

Ahearn Gets Chance. Dan McKerrick is a happy person since his protege, Young Ahearn, has been rematched with Mike Gibbons for Jan. 18 in St. Paul. "No one realizes what a wonder Ahearn is," says the prolific Daniel. "I've been trying for a year to get him a scrap with any of the best middleweights in the country. But most of them ducked him. BOWLING TOURNEY BRINGS OUT MANY OF THE NEW STARS

Veterans, as Predicted, Fall by Wayside in Many of Games During Past Week.

With the city tournament on in full blast there is plenty of food for the dopesters and there seems to be none than the veterans, who can appreciate the many reverses of fortune shown by prominent bowlers. This was held up constantly to the new brigade of exponents in the various articles in this column from time to time but it seems but few of the clan took advantage of the advance notices. There are many of the new blood, who are not on the outside looking in, with a cry of "I wish I had taken a chance," who rue the existing condition but they have none to blame but themselves. Bowling is like everything else. Beginners at this as well as all other sports, are skeptical although there is no necessity of the fear if they would but take the time to investigate the solid foundation this old bowling game is built on. Many Veterans Fall. It is remarkable that many of the steady old guard, who have already fallen by the wayside during the first week of the big tournament. For instance, Walter Schneider, of the C. A. Club team, going through the entire series without a boot, yet unable to collect but 455, Charlie Van Kirk, steady as a clock, leading off for the leading Hulle & Mike's, is another veteran bowler, who went clean the whole route, yet was under the 500 mark when hostilities ceased. There are many others, who might be mentioned but space does not permit. However, it may be expected that a good many of the regulars, who were down in their five men event will be heard of substantially in the others, as practically none but the old guard are entered clear across the board. There will be a big squad of regulars on this evening in an attack in the two-men team events beginning at 7:30. The five-men teams will have two more nights of it, another Studebaker squad and the K. of C. No. 2 going Tuesday while Wednesday evening shows seven teams.

A. B. C. Lists Open. While the city tournament occupies the spot light right now the bowlers, who expect to take part in the National Tournament of the American Bowling Congress at Toledo in March, should not lose sight of the fact that the entries for the big classic close on February 15. This is less than five weeks and if local bowlers expect any choice of dates they must get in communication with the officials of the city association.

In a pleasing note to the secretary of the South Bend Bowling association, the secretary of the American Bowling Congress congratulates the South Bend bowlers on the splendid showing of membership, which is by far the largest in the state of Indiana in spite of the fact that Indianapolis is a dangerous candidate for the 1917 tournament for the American Bowling Congress tournament and will also hold the Indiana state tournament in the capital city.

COACHES TO GET BUSY AT N. D. THIS WEEK. Big Squad Will Answer the Call For Baseball Candidates. Plans will be made by the Notre Dame coaches this week for the coming big games of the season, and the lists of games for the year will be announced. Baseball practice in the big gymnasium will be one of the new features of the training next week. The squad of old baseball men that Harper has to start with are Captain "Charlie" Sheehan for his pitching staff other members of this staff last year who will be out for berths this season are "Slim" Walsh, Oscar Borwin, "Cliff" Cassidy and Ederlin. The last named was not a candidate for the 'varsity last year, but was considered one of the best interbal pitchers. Other members of the team are "Mal" Edward, rf; "Chief" Myers, ss; "Jake" Cline, 3b; "Pete" Motta, c; "Chuck" Corcoran, cf; "Mintz" Mooney, cf; "Gille" Ward, 2b. Besides the old men, a good lot of new material will be out for positions. With the services of four good pitchers at the outset, one of the best teams in college circles should be easily formed.

Notre Dame meets Illinois this year on two occasions which is the first time in 16 years. This game will attract unusual interest among local fans since Illinois boasts of one of the strongest teams in the middle west. Harper will be unable to get his basket ball men on the floor the first of the week, since the ground has not thoroughly settled, and it is being footed daily so that the new preparation of iron will become compact. In the meantime the coach will have ample time to close all of the football and track contracts that are still pending.

FATE OF FED PLAYERS HANGS IN BALANCE. National Commission Takes Up Question of Disposition of Disbanded Tribe. International News Service: CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 3.—The national baseball commission went into annual session here today for the purpose of taking up some important baseball problems in addition to the business of electing officers. The commission will attempt to fix the values of the Federal players and to draft rules covering the sale and trades of the Federal stars. The commission plans to adopt laws which will throw all the Federal league stars into the open market and give all clubs a chance to bid for them. If this plan is put through it may bring about complications. Phil Ball and Charles Weeghman, former Federal magnates and now owners of the Chicago Cubs and St. Louis Browns assert that they have the first right to the services of all the Federal stars.

SPORT NOTES. Lester German, who used to be the south's greatest pitcher a generation ago, now ranks as one of the best trapezoiders in the country. Simply can't get over the habit of blazing them over in the groove. Sue McManamy, an actress, who appeared with Ty Cobb while Ty was doing a vaudeville skit during the fall, says that "traveling with Mr. Cobb is rather strenuous." That's what his associate ball players think, too. Joe Tinker takes exception to the statements that he will have nearly 50 "ball players" when the merger of the Chicago Whales and Cubs is effected. "Fifty candidates—that's the idea," says Joe. "Some men are ball players—and some are just candidates. Statistical persons who compile figures on racing results declare that the Juarez ponies are running true to form. Favorites have won nearly 50 per cent of the races, a surprising showing, as it is figured that 33 per cent is extremely good.

WHEN HELLER SAYS IT'S OAK IT'S OAK

Men, Make No Mistake Seek the Leader—Not the Follower

Reasons Why All Weak, Worn-out, Discouraged and Diseased Men Should Consult

DR. FLEENER CO., longest established, most successful and reliable specialists in PELVIC, RECTAL AND NERVOUS DISEASES OF MEN, as medical diploma, licenses and records will show. Your whole future may depend upon the kind and quality of treatment you get first.

Chronic Diseases of Men No Matter How Obstinate or How Contracted, CURED

Modern methods of treatment for all Pelvic Diseases. We never use the surgeon's knife, if it can be avoided, and only then upon the expressed wish of the patient. Enlargement of the Prostate Gland we cure by reducing it, not by removing it. We cure Piles and other Rectal Diseases without surgery. Under our superior treatment, Varicocele quickly vanishes; the stagnant blood is absorbed and the circulation is restored to the parts affected. We have extraordinary success in curing Rupture by reliable and painless methods, without recourse to trusses. Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder are speedily healed, and the patient saved from fatal results which generally follow neglected cases of long standing. Don't delay taking treatment for Chronic Pelvic Diseases; the sooner we begin to cure the sooner we will restore you to health, vigor and vitality. Nervous troubles often have their seat in local causes, which we can ascertain and remove. The gloom and despondency which attend those who are fearful that they never can be cured of their ailments will instantly vanish as soon as our treatment begins to take effect. We positively cure Rupture, Varicocele, Piles, Fistula, Fissures, Rectal Ulcers, Prostate Enlargements, Contracted Diseases, Lost Vitality, Stricture, Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Liver, Stomach, and all Vital Disease of Men by our Painless and Bloodless Methods.

We will accept any case of Rupture, Piles, Varicocele or Hydrocele and permit you to deposit a draft in the First National Bank, or your Bank, made payable to yourself and instructing them to place same to our account after you have been cured. We are the only reputable physicians in this line of work who will take such cases on a guarantee. By doing this, you are absolutely certain of a cure. You have nothing to lose and everything to gain, and if we were not perfectly sure of our work we could not do business this way very long, but instead, have been doing so for years. We have adopted this plan because so many have been swindled by quacks and fakers; not one of them will permit a patient to deposit his money until a cure has been effected.

Many patients have told us that at first they hesitate to begin treatment with us, fearing that on account of our great reputation the fee would be more than they could afford to pay. Our fees are always moderate, wholly within your means, and at no time more than you are willing to pay. DON'T let money matters keep you from beginning treatment. If you will call and see us we have a system by which you can begin treatment and pay as you can.
