

SOCIETY AND OTHER INTERESTS OF WOMEN

SOCIETY

The marriage of Lester Livingston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Livingston, of Chicago, and formerly of this city to Miss Edna May of New York will take place at 6:30 o'clock this evening at Sherry's restaurant, New York. Mr. Livingston is well known here, having attended the high school and also Notre Dame university. Mr. and Mrs. Livingston will enjoy an extended trip to the Bahama Islands and upon their return will reside in Chicago. Leon Livingston, a cousin of the groom, left here this morning to attend the wedding.

A reception for Miss Emma Nourse, a returned missionary from Africa, was given Monday afternoon by the Women's Foreign Missionary society of Grace M. E. church in the church parlors. A short program was rendered with instrumental solos by Miss Pearl Entzian, vocal solos by Mrs. Dr. Baumgartner of Elkhart and interesting talks by the honor guest on her experience in the mission field. Following this a social hour was enjoyed with refreshments served by Mrs. W. B. Schaefer, Mrs. M. L. Minnick, Mrs. George Eickler and Mrs. Charles Brodbeck.

Mrs. Walter Passnacht, 413 W. Navarre st., entertained the Young Women's Home Missionary society of the First M. E. church Monday evening, assisted by Mrs. F. E. Coates, Mrs. E. D. Lloyd, Miss Alma Reed and Miss Edith Holbrook, Miss C. K. Swartz of Washington, for a number of years a missionary worker in Utah and one of the national organizers of the society, gave an informal talk before members of her work in that part of the country and spoke of many interesting incidents in connection with her mission. Reports at the business meeting showed that the various pledges of the society have been paid. Refreshments were served late in the evening. Another meeting will be held April 19 with Mrs. Fred Woodward, S. St. Joseph st.

A meeting of the department of art of the Progress club was held Monday afternoon in the club rooms. Mrs. R. C. Shanlin opened the program with a discussion of "The Immaculate Conception" and "Vision of St. Anthony of Padua." Miss Addie Vandenberg gave a comparison of children of Sheel, with Rembrandt's "Night Watch" and "Fruit Sellers" and "Flower Girl," and also had pictures of the Immaculate Conception and "Night Watch," which added much interest to the afternoon's program. A general discussion followed. Members of the department are to meet March 27, at which time Mrs. W. W. Funk and Miss Nina Doolittle will supply the program.

The Young People's society of the First Baptist church met last evening at the home of Miss Dorothy Chard, 610 Leland av. Miss Josephine Simon, president of the society, opened the meeting and Miss Violet Solarek had charge of the program. The "Mother's Prayer" was given by Miss Chard and Miss Gyneth Moore gave a reading, "Motherhood." A delightful social hour followed the business time. Another meeting of the society will be held April 19 at the church.

The marriage of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Westfall of this city, widow of the late Dr. B. H. Westfall of St. Louis, Mo., and W. O. Harding, sr., 312 S. Columbia st., was solemnized Sunday evening with a quiet wedding ceremony at the Grace Evangelical church at 8:30 o'clock. The Rev. D. D. Speicher officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Harding left for a wedding journey to Toledo, Cincinnati and other points in Ohio. They will make their home in this city.

Mrs. Jewel Whaley, 845 Smith st., River Park, was hostess Monday

TODAY'S BEAUTY HINT

It is not necessary to shampoo quite so frequently if your hair is properly cleaned each time by use of a really good shampoo. The easiest to use and quickest drying shampoo that we can recommend to our readers may be prepared very cheaply by dissolving a teaspoonful of castor oil, obtained from your druggist, in a cup of hot water. This rubbed into the scalp creates a thick lather, soothing and cooling in its action, as well as very beneficial to scalp and hair. After rinsing, the scalp is fresh and clean, while the hair dries quickly and evenly, developing a bright luster and a soft fluffiness that makes it seem very heavy.—Adv.

TRIBUTE TO A WOMAN

When the Lustrania went down to a watery grave, taking one of our prominent workers and his wife, leading papers published a remarkable literary tribute previously paid by the husband to the wife. This was because she had been such a helpmate to him in carrying out his ideals. Thousands of women have the ambition to be such helpmates to their husbands, but lack the necessary health. Every such woman should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one remedy which will restore health and strength, the untried medicine to woman's ailments.

day evening at a very delightful meeting of the Live Oak Grove drill team. The evening was spent in an informal social manner after a brief business time, and a dainty luncheon was served. There were nine members and three invited guests at the meeting. Members of the team will have another meeting March 27.

Mrs. Mary Vinson, Mrs. Margaret Monroe, Mrs. Maude Swintz, Mrs. Emma Sausman and Mrs. Anna Archer entertained very pleasantly members of the O. E. S. auxiliary Monday afternoon in the Masonic club rooms. After a brief business session the afternoon was spent socially with sewing. Refreshments were served. The next meeting of the auxiliary will be on March 27.

The monthly social meeting of Carol court, No. 1095, W. C. O. F., was held last evening at the K. of C. home. Following an interesting business meeting, the time was spent socially with light refreshments. Mrs. J. Cogan and Miss Anna Disch were in charge of the evening. Another meeting of the court will be held in two weeks at the same place.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Slick, Navarre pl., were host and hostess Monday evening at the fortnightly dinner of the Navarre Place Dinner club. Seven small tables effectively appointed, featuring spring flowers, a variety of shades, seated the 27 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf H. Horst, Navarre pl., will entertain the club March 27.

Miss Anna Green acted as leader at the weekly meeting of the Worth club last evening, discussing the history of the overthrow of the Manchu dynasty. On March 26 the program will be in charge of W. E. Miller, who will have as his topic "The New China."

The regular meeting of the Keora club was held on Monday afternoon at the Young Women's Christian association. The time was given to the usual business and social meeting.

POTATO BISCUIT.

Materials—Two cups flour, 1 cup hot boiled potatoes, 2 teaspoons of baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon oleomargarine or shortening, 1 cup milk.

Directions—Put the freshly boiled potatoes through the potato ricer into bowl; sift flour, salt, baking powder into the potatoes. Then add shortening and rub in very lightly. Add milk enough to make soft dough, so it can be handled easily. Put on bakeboard (handle as little as possible), roll or pat 1 inch thick. Cut with biscuit cutter. Put on floured bake sheet or pie tin; brush top with milk and bake 15 to 20 minutes in hot oven.

CREAM OF PEANUT BUTTER SOUP.

Materials—Two cups rice stock from noon, 2 cups milk, 1/2 cup peanut butter, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon grated onion, 1 tablespoon chopped or dried celery top, 1 tablespoon flour.

Directions—Put rice stock and milk in top of double boiler. When it comes to a boil add peanut butter; stir until dissolved, add flour and celery; boil 5 minutes and add stock until smooth. Add onion and salt and boil 5 minutes. Sprinkle with celery and serve with bread croutons.

BAKED OR STEAMED RICE CUSTARD.

Materials—Two cups rice stock, 3 eggs, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract, 1/2 teaspoon butter.

Directions—Break the eggs into bowl, add sugar, salt and extract. Beat well, mix with custard and rice stock. Beat well. Brush cup with butter, pour in the custard; set the cup in pan of water and if there is a hot oven, put in and bake until firm; or, if there is not hot oven, set pan on top of stove and bring to

MRS. GRUNDY.

An article in one of our new books called "The Passing of Mrs. Grundy," says that we cannot announce with certitude that Mrs. Grundy is no more, yet "that poisonous breath which has so long prevailed, like numbing miasma, the frost air of the world, will soon be out of her foolish, hypocritical old body, and, though it may still linger on here and there in provincial backwoods and suburban fastnesses, from the great air centres of civilization it will have passed away forever."

Although Mrs. Grundy has been "a mere hearsay, a buzzaboo being to frighten society," are we any better for the lack of her chaperonage? Many of us have at times been called to a halt, by the fact that Mrs. Grundy stood in the way. She has proved to us that we cannot always lead our lives independent of our neighbors either in the city, or in a small community.

We agree to the fact that Mrs. Grundy has at times been too censorious, too dictatorial, for one's own independence. We are glad she has grown more lenient in letting us live our own lives, and to express our beliefs and heresies, without being ostracized as was the case in days gone by.

The world has grown more independent, too much so, we are inclined to think in some ways, as is the case with woman's dress. A man said to me: "Is it any wonder so few men marry nowadays? Just look at the dress of the modern girl; the transparent, low-cut waist, the open work stockings. When he sees the same kind of thing on the vaudeville or musical comedy stage, a man realizes that this is not the kind of girl he wants for a wife."

Another man who is at the head of a corporation that employs hundreds of young girls, told me the foreman had notified the girls that if they did not dress differently when they came for business, they would have to wear long aprons buttoned up to their necks.

Mrs. Grundy may be strict but she is a good censor in many ways. At one of the football games last fall, a friend of mine was most indignant because a young man she knew was sitting in front of her with a "saw looking girl." "Why," she exclaimed, "I would have introduced him to any of the daughters of my friends, but look at the kind of girl he has brought here."

"Don't be too sure as to the kind of girl he is with," I replied. "She may belong to one of the best families in town. Her make-up and costume mean absolutely nothing."

Mrs. Grundy used to taboo all that sort of thing. So, for many reasons, let us hope the pronouncement that "she is on her deathbed, and that surely, if slowly, she is breathing her last," is a false alarm. Here is wishing that she may be with us for many a year.

PLAYGROUND APPARATUS FOR STUDEBAKER PARK

Studebaker park is to be equipped with playground apparatus and one or two supervisors placed there this summer to take care of the children of the south end of the city. This announcement was made by Gus F. Haslanger, president of the Federation of South End Civic clubs, at a meeting of the Franklin Civic club at the school Monday night. Agitation for playground paraphernalia for the south part of the city has been going on ever since the recreation department was established.

Pres't Haslanger's announcement Monday night was favorably received by the people of the Franklin school district, although Studebaker park is some distance away. The proposed equipment there will take the place of the gymnasium that was asked for by the people of that section for Franklin school.

Following the business session a program of entertaining features was given. An especially interesting reading was given entitled "A Bit of Humor," by Ernest Staples. He was followed by James Cover with a group of songs, and also Paul Anderson, a song by Mr. Staples, and a trio by Staples, Cover and Anderson. This was followed by a play hour of games and contests.

Another meeting will be held on the last Tuesday of this month.

COCONUT OIL FINE For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mild-lathered coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap of anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One of two teapoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mild-lathered
