HAPPENINGS IN AND ABOUT TOWN

PAGEANT HERE TO COST $3,300

F. B. Barnes, Pageant Master, Also Announces Dates in First Week of October.

St. Joseph county's pageant which will come as a part of the state-wide celebration of Indiana's 100th anniversary will cost $3,300, according to the report made by F. B. Barnes, pageant master, at an executive committee meeting at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday afternoon. The date of the local celebration was changed from the week of Sept. 12 to the first week in October.

Mr. Barnes' report included only the cost of putting on the pageant. This part of the celebration will portray the history of South Bend, St. Joseph county and the state. This money will be used to get the interstate fair grounds into shape for the event, the building of scenery and the rental of the costumes that will be used in the production.

The date of the celebration was changed after a conference with the directors of the Interstate fair. It had been planned to hold the event in connection with the fair, but it was thought that the pageant would be too large an event to have a counter attraction. Members of the Indiana historical commission, who were in the city three weeks ago, suggested that the centennial celebration be held separately from anything else.

Letters were read showing what other cities are doing on the celebration. Fort Wayne will spend $50,000, the greater part of which will be used in staging a pageant. Evansville and Terre Haute will have celebrations that will cost similar amounts.

Various methods of raising money for the celebration were discussed, but none was decided upon.

CONSERVATORY PUPILS GIVE GOOD PROGRAM

A recital featuring a well-chosen program of works of some of the best-known composers of music was given last evening by the pupils of the South Bend Conservatory of Music. The program was so arranged that the younger pupils appeared first on the list, while the advanced pupils gave the closing numbers. Each one showed complete self-composure and knowledge of technique, and the vocal and violin numbers were of exceptionally good quality.

The program was as follows: "Return of the Gondolier".....Schmoll Ruby Tomber. "Gypsy Dance".....Lichner. "A Curious Story".....Heller Maurine Martin. "Uncle Remus".....Grant Schaefer. "Scherzino".....Karkano Ruth Hershenow. Violin.....Selected Guy Thrans.

"At Dawning".....Cadman. "Scherzando".....Carl Beecher Hazel Streeter. "Oh, Eyes That Are Weary".....Brackett Anna Bauerlein. "Serenata".....MacDowell Ruth Gove. "An Open Secret".....Woodman Anna Fox.

NEW GENERAL STORE
OPENS IN SOUTH END

Henry C. Stegmann Establishment
Draws Big Crowd—Souvenirs Given.

A general store, carrying a stock almost as complete as some of the downtown establishments, in a building which was erected in 90 days, was opened yesterday by Henry C. Stegmann at Wenger and Fellows sts. Hundreds of people throughout the southern part of the city attended the opening. The store is located in a new modern brick building. A large store room, 30 by 60 feet, with a basement of nearly the same size accommodates an unusually large stock of goods for a store in an outlying district. Hundreds of flowers and other favors were given away at the opening. An orchestra played during the afternoon and evening.

Another unusual feature of the Stegmann store opening was that 14 different demonstrations of food products were in progress throughout the day. The firms demonstrating, with the names of their representatives, are as follows: Armour & Co.; Henry Probst; Woolson Spice Co.; J. L. Wilder; Reed Murdoch Co.; W. M. Kuehl; South Bend Wholesale Grocery Co.; James Ward; National Biscuit Co.; Frank Poinleau; Washburn Crosby Co.; W. L. Morris; Quaker Biscuit Co.; Charles Spoonholtz; Starr Milling Co.; Mrs. L. E. Old English Art On Display At Oliver Hotel

Arthur Ackerman & Sons, one of the oldest art firms in existence, will have an art display in room 807 of the Oliver hotel on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The firm has been producing old English prints since 1782 and the exhibit here will show the history of English art.

The collection will comprise old English color prints, modern etchings, mezzotints and water color drawings. It will include the color prints in mezzotint, stipple and aquatint engravings after Morland, Wheatley, Ward and Bartolozzi. These pictures caused the period of 1800 to be known as the golden age of color printing.

After these will come prints to show the old hunting and coaching subjects of the Dickens period, the mezzotints of the mid-Victorian era by Samuel Cousins of the Royal Academy and modern mezzotints and etchings. In the modern work, mezzotints of Sydney Wilson, Edwards, Gulland, Clifford James and Jewett, including the most recent proofs of these engravers, will be shown.

Among the best etchings are two plates by Howarth of Rheims cathedral and two color etchings by Fonce, one "The Rose Window of Rheims" and the other "Town Hall, Louvain." A selection of water colors by Lillian Stannard, whose work is exhibited every year at the London Royal academy, will be shown.

PLAN SUPERVISED PLAY FOR THREE CITY PARKS

Leeper, Howard and Studebaker parks will have supervised play for the first time this summer, if the park board accepts the recommendations made by the municipal recreation committee at a meeting Wednesday night. Five of the playground directors who were in charge last summer were reappointed.

Extensive improvements will be made at each of the new places that are to have supervised play. Baseball diamonds, tennis and volley ball courts and new apparatus will be installed at all of these places. Supervised play at Studebaker park was recommended by the committee after considerable agitation on the part of the people of that district. The park board will take up the recommendations at its meeting Friday night and the recreation committee will hold a special session Monday night.

The following playground supervisors were reappointed: Miss Rosa Krause, Sample st.; M. C. Knapp, Oliver; Miss Gladys Hamilton, Laurel; Miss Ellnor Gaik, part time; and Miss Olga Rosencranz, probably at Howard park. Miss Rosencranz was at Cogullard playground last year, this place having been closed by the committee.

SUFFERERS SUDDEN ATTACK.

Al Wilson of Chicago suffered a sudden attack of illness while walking north on Michigan st., near Jefferson Blvd., Wednesday night, and was taken to police headquarters in the police ambulance. After medical aid had been administered, he was removed to his room at the Lealand hotel, W. Washington av.

BARBER FINDS SIMPLE WAY TO EASE HIS FEET

Barbers are great foot sufferers, as a rule. One barber who has been for years a victim of this trouble recently discovered a simple way to relieve his foot aches, pains and discomforts. He is telling all his friends and clients about it and there is general rejoicing among those who formerly suffered terribly from this trouble. This barber discovered a preparation called "Wa-Ne-Ta" in the corner drug store. He bought a 25-cent package and, taking it home, dropped two tablets in a bag of hot water and bathed his feet for a few minutes. To his delight, every ache and pain disappeared and his feet no longer trouble him. You can do the same. You can use "Wa-Ne-Ta" with delightful effect in your home. Leave your feet soft and antiseptically clean. If your druggist hasn't "Wa-Ne-Ta," send us 10 cents and we'll mail you a sample package prepaid to your address. L. C. London, South Bend, Ind.—Adv.

RELIEF FOR COLONICS URGENTLY DEMANDED

But what is a colonic? Anybody's liable to be one. A colonic's disposition is liable to be as sour as his stomach. He's a melancholy individual and suffers from headaches and a poor appetite—in fact is out of sorts all over. His entire trouble is due to the absorption of poisons from fermenting food substances which have remained too long in the intestinal canal. The simple and universally recognized treatment for such a condition is castor oil which can now be taken without suffering from the nasty taste and smell. Castor oil is the only medicine that heals the bowel membranes, and it doesn't form a habit. Covington's CASTOR-OIL is 94 per cent pure, old reliable castor oil, with a delicious orange flavor added. It's the laxative found in the home medicine chest of physicians. On sale at Chas. Conley Co., Ralph H. Kuss, Louis C. Kreidler, Public Drug Store, American Drug Co., G. A. Senrich & Co., Apiegale's Drug Store, Nicholas Schilling, The Castor Products Co., Cleveland, Ohio.—Adv.
