GOLD AND BLUE LOSES ON ERRORS

Marshall College of West Virginia Defeats Notre Dame 8 to 6.

Errors proved costly to Notre Dame yesterday and Marshall college of West Virginia won a freak contest from the Hoosiers on Car-Star field, 8 to 6.

Although the visitors made but seven safe hits off Charley Sheehan, as compared with 14 gathered by the local batsmen of Maynard, some of the errors came before hits and as a result the majority of the bingles counted in the scoring.

Tom Spalding had an off day yesterday. Spalding has been playing second base, but he was used at shortstop yesterday and his throwing from the new position was way off gear. Two of Spalding's errors were on bobbles, but the other three were on wild heaves to first base, two of the had throws coming after beautiful stops by Meyers, Kline and Lathrop made the other local errors.

Marshall Off in Second. Marshall started the scoring in the second inning. With one dead, Dearien doubled along the third base foul line. He took third on Dorsey's out, Spalding to Meyers, and scored on Hill's single.

Notre Dame came back with three tallies in its half of the same inning. Meyers started the session with a double. Dorsey dropped Jones' fly to right and "Lefty" made second. Meyers going to third, Spalding singled, scoring both Meyers and Jones, and he took second on the throw-in. On Motts' hit, Spalding took third, from where he scored on Sheehan's out, Hill to Dearien.

The visitors counted again in the third. Maynard got to second on Spalding's wild throw and he advanced to third on Cook's sacrifice. Spalding bunted Eckols' grounder and Maynard scored.

Marshall forged into the lead with three runs in the fourth. Dearien reached first on Spalding's error and took second on Dorsey's sacrifice. Spalding let loose another wild heave on Hill's tap and the batter got to second and Dearien scored. Calloway singled and Hill took third. Calloway got to second on the throw-in. Maynard followed with a single, scoring both Calloway and Hill.

The Hoosiers tied it up in their half. Motts singled and Sheehan doubled to deep left, scoring Motts. Wolfe fled to Eckols and Sheehan was thrown out trying to score on Elward's tap, Calloway to Dearien. Elward stole second and scored on Lathrop's single.

Win Game in Fifth. Marshall won the game in the fifth. Eckols was safe when Meyers bunted up his grounder. Fisher walked. Hollinworth fouled to Lathrop. Motts and Dearien got to fourth. Dorsey singled, scoring Eckols, and Fisher reached home when Lathrop juggled the hit a bit. Hill walked and Calloway bounced a hot one off Kline's shin, scoring Dorsey.

Notre Dame scored its final run in the eighth. Spalding reached first on Eckols' error. Motts popped out to Hill, but Sheehan singled, sending Spalding to second. Wolfe fled to Hill. Elward singled, scoring Spalding and sending Sheehan to second, but Lathrop grounded out, Maynard to Dearien.

In the ninth, with one dead, Meyers walked. Jones fled to Fisher, but Spalding doubled to right. Motts' fly to Eckols ended the game.

By Frank G. Menke. The Yankees ought to be ashamed of themselves the way they played before the president. Maybe they had the patriotic spirit and did not want to trip the Nationals in the capital.

Jack Dalton has joined a ferocious bunch. He's now a member of the Tigers.

It was a great day for Greater New York—all three clubs chalked up another defeat.

The Phillies didn't believe in outside interference. Palmoro did well, but the Cubs were found for the winning run in the 11th.

The Tigers waited until the ninth and they grabbed off the victory from the White Sox.

Those Boston teams will not be downed. They appeared a couple more victories yesterday.

The Pirates were tamed easily by the Cardinals. A line of goose eggs was their food.

The Cubs came from behind and posed out the Reds in the 11th.

FIGHT RESULTS. International News Service. NEW YORK, April 21.—Benny Leonard outboxed Phil Bloom, the Brooklyn lightweight, in 10 rounds.

Young Brown of New York stopped Jack Grazzo of Hazelton, Pa., in the eighth round.

Ashenfelter, who was released by Mr. Koehler, will be in the box Saturday for a few innings and expects to go the route on Sunday. "Lefty" has informed the Benders that when he steps in the box friendship ceases and that he in ends to show them "some" hurling.

CUP IS PRESENTED

Turners Get Trophy for Basketball Championship.

At a meeting of the gymnasium class of the South Bend Turnverein at Turner hall, N. Michigan st., Thursday night, the silver trophy for the championship in the amateur basketball ball contests of the past winter was presented to the Turner team.

F. B. Barnes, municipal recreation director, presented the ten-inch trophy, the gift of George Hull and Mike Calnon, after a short talk in which he praised the attitude of the Turners toward athletics.

Following the presentation, the gymnasium class went through its drills and exercises.

In speaking of the amateur league of the past year, the first of its kind in the city, Mr. Barnes expressed a hope the next winter would find many more teams contesting. He said the movement had been a great success and that the interest maintained the first year spoke well for the future of such a project.

While six teams made up the past year's schedule, it is thought next season will find 40 or 50 teams in line.

CARSON BANQUETS FACTORY BALL MEN

Enjoyable Evening Spent at Expense of League's President.

Anyone present at the banquet tendered the directors of the Factory league and newspapermen by the league president, Dr. F. R. Carson, Thursday night at the Hotel Mishawaka, could not help but be impressed with the optimistic feeling which prevailed around the board.

As Dr. Carson stated, the affair was an informal "get acquainted" soot time, in which things connected and not connected with the league were discussed. Baseball was the chief topic among the banqueters and the old national game was discussed backwards and forwards, of plays and players, some humorous, the most in fact, and some of a pathetic nature flew thick and fast around the table when the heavy work of the evening, stowing away the cuts, had been finished.

Discuss Prospects. Prospects of the league for the coming season were discussed and the consensus of opinion among the directors was that Factory league baseball was due to have the most successful year the league has ever known. Interest in the game is being revived in all factories, and the teams are the all-absorbing topic among the workmen.

"Old Bill" Studebaker said that his tribe of wagonmakers would make things hum this year and that they would be backed by the employees in all their power. Bill said that he knew baseball was going to be boosted as more than 700 booster tickets for the South Bend central league club had been disposed of among the factory employees.

Other directors were not to be outdone in the prophesy stunt and reported that as far as they could see now baseball was going to go big at their respective places.

Programs Arranged. Big opening day programs will be arranged for both the Singer and Ball Band parks on May 20, and record breaking crowds should be handled at both places. At the Singer park, Singers and Olivers are scheduled to hook up, while the Ball Band and Studebaker gangs are due to mix things at the north side park in Mishawaka. Thursday was the last day in which to enroll players and keep inside the 90 day employment rule and every squad has all its stars signed and at work, according to the directors.

Dr. Carson spoke highly of the work of the newspapers and the manner in which they have handled Factory league news in past years, and said that he expected even better support from the typewriter punchers this year as this was to be the banner year in Factory baseball.

Those who enjoyed the president's hospitality were Fred Sommers and A. A. Fredericks of the Oliver Club, Ed Plow Works; William Studebaker and F. J. Bickelhaupt of the Studebaker corporation; George Williams and A. E. Gardiner of the Ball Bands; E. K. Todd, league secretary, and E. J. Murray, D. C. Grant, G. A. Maurer and W. A. Thelan, newspapermen.

According to a bulletin issued by the department of commerce, there are 5,672 radio stations in the United States.

BENDER HURLING STAFF REDUCED

Willis and Carpenter Are Handed Releases—Only Six Men on Roster.

Mgr. Koehler reduced his hurling staff further yesterday when he handed out two releases. Pitchers Carpenter and Willis were the men to get the pink slips. Willis is an old, experienced pitcher, but Koehler and Smith figured that the youngsters were just as good as he, and that they would prove of more value to the team.

Carpenter was the second man to be let go. "Buck" was one of the leading pitchers in the Southern Michigan league last season and lacks only the weight. He has plenty of stuff, good speed and knows the pitching end of the game, but is not heavy enough to stand the work, according to Koehler.

This brings the local hurling staff down to the following men: Walker, Crossman, Hill, Valden, Madden and McCoil. These six men are sure to be carried for about 20 days after this season opens. Two are expected to be dropped then, and while Smith and Koehler have about made up their minds as to what men will stick, they are taking no chances, and by holding on to the six, will have two to fall back on in case any of those they select as regulars are injured and go dead.

O'pergelt, a candidate for the outfield, has been handed his release by Smith and yesterday signed up with the Studebaker club in the Factory league. O'pergelt is a natural hitter and a fast man for the gardens and should be heard from after a few more years' experience. "Lefty" Ashenfelter, who was released several days ago, has been signed by the Studebakers.

Thursday was a busy day with the local athletes and most of their attention was devoted to getting their eyes on the ball. The hurlers were kept on the hill, and they tossed up breakers with speed. The men hammered the ball to all corners and appeared to be getting back into the habit of hitting them.
