

NEW PARTY IS PROPOSED BY PEACE LEADERS

General Organization of Pacifist Sentiment to be Used as Political Force is Contemplated.

EXPECT TO DRAW THE SUPPORT OF "HYPHENS"

Numerous Conferences in Washington of Bryan's Adherents Indicate Activity of Propagandists.

CRITTENBERGER INSISTS ON UNION LABORERS

International News Service: INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—An ultimatum by Dale J. Crittenger, auditor of state, that he would not permit booths to be erected in the state house for the exhibit of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections unless union men were employed, results in the work being held up today.

AGREES TO VACATE HIS DECREE FAVORING BACON

CHICAGO, May 1.—Judge Richard Tutbill, who a week ago announced the literary world by handing down an opinion that Lord Bacon wrote the Shakespeare plays, today agreed to vacate his decree. Judge Tutbill's decision came after a conference with four of his colleagues who were outspoken in their criticism of Judge Tutbill for handing down such a decision.

HOUSE AND SENATE ARMY CONFEREES AGREE

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The senate and house conferees on the army bill today practically agreed upon a regular army of approximately 180,000 men, peace strength and about 250,000 men, war strength. The agreement accomplishing a compromise on the Hay and Chamberlain bills will settle, if ratified, the main point of difference between the senate and house over the country's land defense.

GERMAN REPLY IS AGAIN DELAYED

Note to U. S. Over Submarine Situation Expected Last of Week.

STATE TAKES ANOTHER CONTINUANCE IN CASE INVOLVING BURGLARY

Another continuance in the case of Joe Laskowski, 335 Grant st., charged with burglary and assault with a battery, was taken by the state court Monday morning. It is expected that the grand jury will see the case under advisement for the present week.

CHURCH, NOT SOCIALISM, CURE FOR WORLD'S ILLS

J. Q. Ames, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., said that the solution to the great social problems of the day would not come through socialism in a talk on "Shall We Become Socialists?" at the Ministerial association meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Monday morning.

LAMAR MUST SERVE TIME

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—Conviction of David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall st.," of the charge of unlawfully impersonating a federal officer, was affirmed by the supreme court today. Lamar must now begin a term in the Atlanta penitentiary to which he was sentenced.

DENY "SPY'S" PLEA

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—The supreme court today approved extradition of Ignatius T. T. Lincoln of New York, the so-called "German spy," to England to answer to a criminal indictment for forgery.

FOUR GENERALS AND 500 OTHER OFFICERS TAKEN IN KUT-EL-AMARA SIEGE

International News Service: CONSTANTINOPLE, May 1.—The Turkish war office announced today that among the prisoners taken at Kut-El-Amara were four generals, 240 British officers and 270 Indian officers. Gen. Townshend, commander of the British forces, was permitted to keep his sword.

REINFORCEMENTS FOR FRENCH AT VERDUN

This picture shows motor transports filled with French reinforcements in a small village back of Verdun on the way to the firing line. Note how the heavy bombardment has destroyed the buildings in the background.

CRITTENBERGER INSISTS ON UNION LABORERS

International News Service: INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—An ultimatum by Dale J. Crittenger, auditor of state, that he would not permit booths to be erected in the state house for the exhibit of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections unless union men were employed, results in the work being held up today.

AGREES TO VACATE HIS DECREE FAVORING BACON

CHICAGO, May 1.—Judge Richard Tutbill, who a week ago announced the literary world by handing down an opinion that Lord Bacon wrote the Shakespeare plays, today agreed to vacate his decree. Judge Tutbill's decision came after a conference with four of his colleagues who were outspoken in their criticism of Judge Tutbill for handing down such a decision.

HOUSE AND SENATE ARMY CONFEREES AGREE

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The senate and house conferees on the army bill today practically agreed upon a regular army of approximately 180,000 men, peace strength and about 250,000 men, war strength. The agreement accomplishing a compromise on the Hay and Chamberlain bills will settle, if ratified, the main point of difference between the senate and house over the country's land defense.

GERMAN REPLY IS AGAIN DELAYED

Note to U. S. Over Submarine Situation Expected Last of Week.

STATE TAKES ANOTHER CONTINUANCE IN CASE INVOLVING BURGLARY

Another continuance in the case of Joe Laskowski, 335 Grant st., charged with burglary and assault with a battery, was taken by the state court Monday morning. It is expected that the grand jury will see the case under advisement for the present week.

CHURCH, NOT SOCIALISM, CURE FOR WORLD'S ILLS

J. Q. Ames, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., said that the solution to the great social problems of the day would not come through socialism in a talk on "Shall We Become Socialists?" at the Ministerial association meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Monday morning.

LAMAR MUST SERVE TIME

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—Conviction of David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall st.," of the charge of unlawfully impersonating a federal officer, was affirmed by the supreme court today. Lamar must now begin a term in the Atlanta penitentiary to which he was sentenced.

DENY "SPY'S" PLEA

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—The supreme court today approved extradition of Ignatius T. T. Lincoln of New York, the so-called "German spy," to England to answer to a criminal indictment for forgery.

NEXT MOVE UP TO U. S. GOVERNMENT

Important Evidence Against Carranzistas Claims Given to Gen. Scott.

PROGRESS of the War

International News Service: LONDON, May 1.—The British steamer City of Lucknow has been sunk, presumably by a German submarine. The vessel is understood to have been in the admiralty service.

VERDUN FIGHT IS GROWING HOTTER

PARIS, May 1.—Fighting at Verdun is increasing in violence. Today's official communique reported a number of attacks by the crown prince's army during the night.

WOULD PASS LAW TO PREVENT SUICIDES

Congressman Suggests Giving Farmers Financial Aid to Stop Self-Destruction.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Charles H. Rextrew, painter; Goldie McKeely; Albin Kolacz, farmer; St. Joseph church; Mary Rozsopa, New Carlisle.

LATE NEWS BULLETINS

LAMAR MUST SERVE TIME

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—Conviction of David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall st.," of the charge of unlawfully impersonating a federal officer, was affirmed by the supreme court today.

DENY "SPY'S" PLEA

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—The supreme court today approved extradition of Ignatius T. T. Lincoln of New York, the so-called "German spy," to England to answer to a criminal indictment for forgery.

CHURCH, NOT SOCIALISM, CURE FOR WORLD'S ILLS

J. Q. Ames, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., said that the solution to the great social problems of the day would not come through socialism in a talk on "Shall We Become Socialists?" at the Ministerial association meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Monday morning.

LAMAR MUST SERVE TIME

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—Conviction of David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall st.," of the charge of unlawfully impersonating a federal officer, was affirmed by the supreme court today.

DENY "SPY'S" PLEA

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—The supreme court today approved extradition of Ignatius T. T. Lincoln of New York, the so-called "German spy," to England to answer to a criminal indictment for forgery.

NEXT MOVE UP TO U. S. GOVERNMENT

Important Evidence Against Carranzistas Claims Given to Gen. Scott.

PROGRESS of the War

International News Service: LONDON, May 1.—The British steamer City of Lucknow has been sunk, presumably by a German submarine. The vessel is understood to have been in the admiralty service.

VERDUN FIGHT IS GROWING HOTTER

PARIS, May 1.—Fighting at Verdun is increasing in violence. Today's official communique reported a number of attacks by the crown prince's army during the night.

WOULD PASS LAW TO PREVENT SUICIDES

Congressman Suggests Giving Farmers Financial Aid to Stop Self-Destruction.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Charles H. Rextrew, painter; Goldie McKeely; Albin Kolacz, farmer; St. Joseph church; Mary Rozsopa, New Carlisle.

LATE NEWS BULLETINS

LAMAR MUST SERVE TIME

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—Conviction of David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall st.," of the charge of unlawfully impersonating a federal officer, was affirmed by the supreme court today.

DENY "SPY'S" PLEA

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—The supreme court today approved extradition of Ignatius T. T. Lincoln of New York, the so-called "German spy," to England to answer to a criminal indictment for forgery.

CHURCH, NOT SOCIALISM, CURE FOR WORLD'S ILLS

J. Q. Ames, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., said that the solution to the great social problems of the day would not come through socialism in a talk on "Shall We Become Socialists?" at the Ministerial association meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Monday morning.

LAMAR MUST SERVE TIME

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—Conviction of David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall st.," of the charge of unlawfully impersonating a federal officer, was affirmed by the supreme court today.

DENY "SPY'S" PLEA

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—The supreme court today approved extradition of Ignatius T. T. Lincoln of New York, the so-called "German spy," to England to answer to a criminal indictment for forgery.

NEXT MOVE UP TO U. S. GOVERNMENT

Important Evidence Against Carranzistas Claims Given to Gen. Scott.

PROGRESS of the War

International News Service: LONDON, May 1.—The British steamer City of Lucknow has been sunk, presumably by a German submarine. The vessel is understood to have been in the admiralty service.

VERDUN FIGHT IS GROWING HOTTER

PARIS, May 1.—Fighting at Verdun is increasing in violence. Today's official communique reported a number of attacks by the crown prince's army during the night.

WOULD PASS LAW TO PREVENT SUICIDES

Congressman Suggests Giving Farmers Financial Aid to Stop Self-Destruction.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Charles H. Rextrew, painter; Goldie McKeely; Albin Kolacz, farmer; St. Joseph church; Mary Rozsopa, New Carlisle.

LATE NEWS BULLETINS

LAMAR MUST SERVE TIME

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—Conviction of David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall st.," of the charge of unlawfully impersonating a federal officer, was affirmed by the supreme court today.

DENY "SPY'S" PLEA

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—The supreme court today approved extradition of Ignatius T. T. Lincoln of New York, the so-called "German spy," to England to answer to a criminal indictment for forgery.

CHURCH, NOT SOCIALISM, CURE FOR WORLD'S ILLS

J. Q. Ames, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., said that the solution to the great social problems of the day would not come through socialism in a talk on "Shall We Become Socialists?" at the Ministerial association meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Monday morning.

LAMAR MUST SERVE TIME

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—Conviction of David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall st.," of the charge of unlawfully impersonating a federal officer, was affirmed by the supreme court today.

DENY "SPY'S" PLEA

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—The supreme court today approved extradition of Ignatius T. T. Lincoln of New York, the so-called "German spy," to England to answer to a criminal indictment for forgery.

IRISH REVOLT SMOLDERERS AS LEADER QUILTS

"Provisional President" Peter Pearce Orders Followers to Lay Down Arms But Sniping Goes On.

LOSS IS LIKELY TO REACH $20,000,000

Countess is Among Many Women Taken Captive With Rebels—Casualties Will Number 500.

BULLETIN

International News Service: LONDON, May 1.—All the leaders of the Irish rebels in Dublin have surrendered to the British military forces, the war office announced today.

AMUSEMENTS UP AT CONFERENCE

Methodist Liberals Will Seek Change in "Book of Discipline."

CLAIM REVOLT IS CRUSHED

In official circles it is claimed that the revolt of the Sinn Feiners has been crushed. However, military law will be maintained in Ireland until order has been restored.

LOSS NEAR 20 MILLIONS

It is impossible to estimate accurately the loss throughout the zones of fighting in the southeastern and western parts of Ireland, but it is expected to exceed $20,000,000.

WAYNE ESTATE PROBATED

The estate of Charles A. Wayne, who died April 23, was admitted to probate Monday morning in circuit court.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Charles H. Rextrew, painter; Goldie McKeely; Albin Kolacz, farmer; St. Joseph church; Mary Rozsopa, New Carlisle.

LATE NEWS BULLETINS

LAMAR MUST SERVE TIME

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—Conviction of David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall st.," of the charge of unlawfully impersonating a federal officer, was affirmed by the supreme court today.

DENY "SPY'S" PLEA

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—The supreme court today approved extradition of Ignatius T. T. Lincoln of New York, the so-called "German spy," to England to answer to a criminal indictment for forgery.

CHURCH, NOT SOCIALISM, CURE FOR WORLD'S ILLS

J. Q. Ames, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., said that the solution to the great social problems of the day would not come through socialism in a talk on "Shall We Become Socialists?" at the Ministerial association meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Monday morning.

LAMAR MUST SERVE TIME

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—Conviction of David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall st.," of the charge of unlawfully impersonating a federal officer, was affirmed by the supreme court today.

DENY "SPY'S" PLEA

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—The supreme court today approved extradition of Ignatius T. T. Lincoln of New York, the so-called "German spy," to England to answer to a criminal indictment for forgery.

STRIKES AND LABOR UNREST MARK DAWN OF FIRST OF MAY

May day was ushered in with labor unrest prevalent throughout the country.

LOSS IS LIKELY TO REACH $20,000,000

Countess is Among Many Women Taken Captive With Rebels—Casualties Will Number 500.

BULLETIN

International News Service: LONDON, May 1.—All the leaders of the Irish rebels in Dublin have surrendered to the British military forces, the war office announced today.

AMUSEMENTS UP AT CONFERENCE

Methodist Liberals Will Seek Change in "Book of Discipline."

CLAIM REVOLT IS CRUSHED

In official circles it is claimed that the revolt of the Sinn Feiners has been crushed. However, military law will be maintained in Ireland until order has been restored.

LOSS NEAR 20 MILLIONS

It is impossible to estimate accurately the loss throughout the zones of fighting in the southeastern and western parts of Ireland, but it is expected to exceed $20,000,000.

WAYNE ESTATE PROBATED

The estate of Charles A. Wayne, who died April 23, was admitted to probate Monday morning in circuit court.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Charles H. Rextrew, painter; Goldie McKeely; Albin Kolacz, farmer; St. Joseph church; Mary Rozsopa, New Carlisle.

LATE NEWS BULLETINS

LAMAR MUST SERVE TIME

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—Conviction of David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall st.," of the charge of unlawfully impersonating a federal officer, was affirmed by the supreme court today.

DENY "SPY'S" PLEA

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—The supreme court today approved extradition of Ignatius T. T. Lincoln of New York, the so-called "German spy," to England to answer to a criminal indictment for forgery.

CHURCH, NOT SOCIALISM, CURE FOR WORLD'S ILLS

J. Q. Ames, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., said that the solution to the great social problems of the day would not come through socialism in a talk on "Shall We Become Socialists?" at the Ministerial association meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Monday morning.

LAMAR MUST SERVE TIME

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—Conviction of David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall st.," of the charge of unlawfully impersonating a federal officer, was affirmed by the supreme court today.

DENY "SPY'S" PLEA

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—The supreme court today approved extradition of Ignatius T. T. Lincoln of New York, the so-called "German spy," to England to answer to a criminal indictment for forgery.

CHURCH, NOT SOCIALISM, CURE FOR WORLD'S ILLS

J. Q. Ames, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., said that the solution to the great social problems of the day would not come through socialism in a talk on "Shall We Become Socialists?" at the Ministerial association meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Monday morning.

LAMAR MUST SERVE TIME

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—Conviction of David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall st.," of the charge of unlawfully impersonating a federal officer, was affirmed by the supreme court today.

COAL STRIKE IS AVERTED BY NEW CONTRACT

Anthracite Coal Miners Gain Increase of Twelve Millions a Year and 8-Hour Day.

PITTSBURGH CAR MEN WALK OUT MONDAY

Strike of 3,100 Forces 300,000 to Walk to Work. Concessions by Both Sides Fail of Result.

BULLETIN

International News Service: NEW YORK, May 1.—A strike in the anthracite coal fields has been averted.

AMUSEMENTS UP AT CONFERENCE

Methodist Liberals Will Seek Change in "Book of Discipline."

CLAIM REVOLT IS CRUSHED

In official circles it is claimed that the revolt of the Sinn Feiners has been crushed. However, military law will be maintained in Ireland until order has been restored.

LOSS NEAR 20 MILLIONS

It is impossible to estimate accurately the loss throughout the zones of fighting in the southeastern and western parts of Ireland, but it is expected to exceed $20,000,000.

WAYNE ESTATE PROBATED

The estate of Charles A. Wayne, who died April 23, was admitted to probate Monday morning in circuit court.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Charles H. Rextrew, painter; Goldie McKeely; Albin Kolacz, farmer; St. Joseph church; Mary Rozsopa, New Carlisle.

LATE NEWS BULLETINS

LAMAR MUST SERVE TIME

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—Conviction of David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall st.," of the charge of unlawfully impersonating a federal officer, was affirmed by the supreme court today.

DENY "SPY'S" PLEA

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—The supreme court today approved extradition of Ignatius T. T. Lincoln of New York, the so-called "German spy," to England to answer to a criminal indictment for forgery.

CHURCH, NOT SOCIALISM, CURE FOR WORLD'S ILLS

J. Q. Ames, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., said that the solution to the great social problems of the day would not come through socialism in a talk on "Shall We Become Socialists?" at the Ministerial association meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Monday morning.

LAMAR MUST SERVE TIME

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—Conviction of David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall st.," of the charge of unlawfully impersonating a federal officer, was affirmed by the supreme court today.

DENY "SPY'S" PLEA

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—The supreme court today approved extradition of Ignatius T. T. Lincoln of New York, the so-called "German spy," to England to answer to a criminal indictment for forgery.

CHURCH, NOT SOCIALISM, CURE FOR WORLD'S ILLS

J. Q. Ames, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., said that the solution to the great social problems of the day would not come through socialism in a talk on "Shall We Become Socialists?" at the Ministerial association meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Monday morning.

LAMAR MUST SERVE TIME

International News Service: WASHINGTON, May 1.—Conviction of David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall st.," of the charge of unlawfully impersonating a federal officer, was affirmed by the supreme court today.