

Benders Get Even Break at Wheeling by Making Sunday Game--Hensling is Hurt

HEAVE OVER THIRD NETS FOUR RUNS

New Shortstop, Zieger, Gets Into Game for Hoosiers. Kelly Relieves McColl.

News-Times Special Service: WHEELING, W. Va., May 21--Four singles and a wild throw by Pitcher Douglas gave South Bend four runs here Sunday and allowed them to beat Wheeling 5 to 1. It was an uninteresting and poorly played game, in which the locals passed up chances to score in every inning but two. McColl started for the Benders and pitched fine ball until the sixth, when a single by Blackwell and a triple by Seibold, negating the Smokes' lone tally, forced his retirement in favor of Kelly. The latter had the bases choked in the eighth, but the Smoke cleanup swatters remained harmless.

Benders Start in Fourth. The Benders did not get a hit until the fourth. They had two on in the first when Bashant and Donnelly walked, but the side was retired without scoring. In the fourth Donnelly led off with a single to center, Fisher rapped one of the fourth length to right, Tannehill rolled one through second, scoring Donnelly. Seidl laid down a roller towards the box. Douglas fielded it nicely, but was forced to throw quickly to third in order to get Fisher. The throw was wild and before the ball was retrieved the three Benders had dented the rubber. Zieger singled to right and Douglas retired in favor of Eccles. McColl popped to Cleveland and Bashant forced Zieger at second. Grimes walked, but Koehler fled to Lear.

Beall Doubles. In the fifth Connolly walked and Fisher sacrificed. Tannehill popped to Seibold, but Beall came through with a double to right and Donnelly scored. Zieger fled to Sheern. The Benders were held hitless and unless thereafter.

Now that the Brooklyn Dodgers are battling for the head of the list in the National League, the entire team is playing its best ball, but no member of the organization outshines Ed Pfeffer, the twirler, who made such a brilliant showing in 1914. Ed is back to his stride of two years ago and is pitching like wildfire and adding not a little impetus to the upward climb of the Brooklyn.
