DENIES HE TRIED TO BRIBE A POLICEMAN

Case Against Noah Broadstreet Will be Held in City Court Wednesday Morning.

Noah Broadstreet plead guilty to the charge of intoxication brought against him in the city court Monday morning but declared that he was not guilty of attempting to bribe an officer. The $25 bond in the intoxication charge was held over and a $100 bond was asked for the second charge. The testimony in the case will be heard by the court Wednesday morning.

Carson Climer admitted that he had been before the court before, when he was charged with intoxication. The court took the case under advisement until Wednesday. Silver-haired Fannie Phillips, who appears to be about 60 years old, declared to the court that she was not altogether guilty of the charges of intoxication. She will have a hearing on Tuesday, when John Powell also appear on similar charges.

In an effort to aid Elmer Finn, who is married and has a family, to correct his craving for drink, the court suspended a sentence of 30 days in the county jail. He was ordered to report to the court in 30 days. He was warned further that should he be arrested again this sentence would operate and the court would be authorized to make a new sentence and send him to the penal farm at Putnamville, Harry Reelingberg of Niles accepted a sentence of $1 and costs when he plead guilty of intoxication charges.

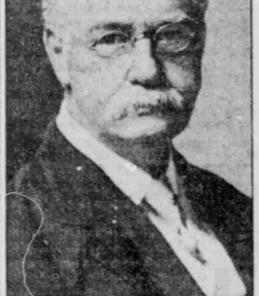

MINISTERS MEET.

CATHOLICS WILL USE HIGHLAND CEMETERY

All Parents Invited to Visit High School Thursday.

Arrangements have been made through Bishop Herman Alerding, of Fort Wayne, to have a portion of the new Highland cemetery on the Portage road, set aside for the use of the Catholic population of St. Joseph county. Announcement to that effect was made in Catholic churches Sunday. Cedar Grove cemetery, which has been the Catholic burial ground since the founding of Notre Dame university, is now full. No more lots are to be obtained there and Notre Dame university does not expect to open any more ground for that purpose. A portion of Highland cemetery, therefore, has been set aside for Catholic use and the ground will be consecrated as burials are made.

Highland cemetery is the newest and largest cemetery in the county and is beautifully laid out. It is equipped with a very attractive little chapel and the promise of perpetual care goes with each contract for a lot.

CANDIDATES TO SPEAK

Meeting Will be Held at River Park School Tonight.

Democratic county candidates will address a meeting at the River Park school building tonight. A liberal turnout is expected at the meeting. WORKERS TO BE BANQUET GUESTS

State Campaign For More Members Closes With Local Y. M. in Lead.

South Bend finished first in the Y. M. C. A. state membership campaign which was held last week. Local workers divided into two teams, the Reds and the Greens, together amassed the total of 7,475 points, or a margin of 1,346 points over the nearest competitor, Evansville. The work of the Evansville Y. M. C. A. is worthy of praise as that association starting at scratch made 61,135 points and finished in second place.

Two hundred and seventy-eight new members were secured by South Bend and $5,775 collected for membership fees. A large loving cup won by Indianapolis last year will be awarded to the local institution.

In the local side competition, the Reds, headed by L. A. Walker, defeated the Greens piloted by J. W. Taylor by 893 points. S. R. Arbogast's team led 19 other teams while Charles Loring secured the highest number of individual points. The gold watch offered by F. C. Stahly, president of the Y. M. C. A. and also leader of the campaign, was won by J. D. Kindig, who secured 20 new members.

A complimentary dinner will be served Tuesday evening, Oct. 24, to all new senior members and to all workers who secured 12 or more points.

OFFICERS TO VISIT CITY

Prominent Salvation Army officers from all over the county will address an officers' council of the local Salvation Army headquarters Monday afternoon, Oct. 23, at 2 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. Col. G. Marrett of New York will be the principal speaker, while Co. A. E. Kimball of Detroit and Brigadier Simonson of Indianapolis, together with officers from other cities, will make short addresses. Field officers from several towns in northern Indiana are expected to attend the council.

A public meeting conducted by the Salvation Army will be held in the evening at 8 o'clock at the First Methodist church.

IS STRUCK BY AUTO

Margaret Talbert Injured on Alighting From Street Car.

Miss Margaret Talbert, 750 Sancome av., was severely injured about the head and hands when she was struck by an automobile driven by R. C. Jones, manager of the Oakland garage, while she was alighting from a street car at the corner of Sancome av. and Lincoln way W., Monday afternoon about 12:15 o'clock. The machine struck Miss Talbert as she stepped into the street and started for the sidewalk. She was knocked down and the machine dragged her for several yards before it could be stopped.

She was removed to her home, a block away, and medical attention given.

FIGHT FOR ESTATE

Beneficiaries of Policy Are Opposed by Distant Relatives.

A legal battle for $1,500 insurance money left by Sherman Lammede was started in circuit court Monday. The suit originally was brought by William F. Whiteman, administrator of the estate, against the Tribe of Ben Hur, but this organization has turned the money over to the court, where the fight will be decided. Louis, Glen and Charles Heinzman, who were named as beneficiaries in the policy, are being opposed by several distant relatives. The jury was selected Monday morning and the case got underway in the afternoon.

ARCHITECT IS ON STAND

Case Against the Local Aeria of Eagles Being Heard.

Cross-examination of Ernest W. Young in his suit of $1,365 against the South Bend aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, was resumed in superior court Monday morning and the witness remained on the stand throughout the day. Considerable arguing over the admission of evidence slowed up the trial Monday. The case has been on since last Thursday and it was expected that it would be finished by Monday, but the defense has not started its case.

TWO NEGROES LYNCHED BY MOB AT PADUCAH

One Attacked Woman—Other Said He Would Have Committed Same Crime.

International News Service: PADUCAH, Ky., Oct. 16.—An infuriated mob of more than 500 persons stormed the county jail here shortly after noon today and lynched two Negroes within two miles of the city. After the bodies were cooled down they were thrown on a burning brush heap and cremated.

The lynchings followed a forenoon of terror, during which the mob was practically in control of the city. One of the Negroes, Frank Kinley, was accused of having attacked Mrs. Eria Rose last Friday night. The mob took him to the Rose home, two miles from the city, and she identified him as her assailant. The other Negro, Jesse Thornhill, was hanged because he boldly declared that he would have committed the same crime.

FOUR CONTRACTS LET

County Commissioners Pick Builders For County Bridges.

Contracts for building four bridges were awarded by the county commissioners at their weekly meeting Monday morning. The largest contract, which was awarded to the Elkhart Bridge Co., for repainting and paving the county line bridge over the St. Joseph river, was $241,280. Vanskyhawk and Knoblock were given the contracts for putting in a concrete bridge and the Harris-Penn township bridges, their figures being $2,000 and $475, respectively. Samuel Hay was given the contract for the German township bridge, his figures being $1,812.
