"Preparedness" "Preparedness Day" is being celebrated in South Bend today with a pageant including thousands of men and women marching in a parade—the motive behind which is—"Preparedness."

The first credit for having popularized this phrase should really be accorded the Boy Scouts. And the loyal enthusiastic Boy Scout is prepared. He is prepared in—First aid to the injured. He is prepared in—Being able to answer those seeking information, if he knows, if not, to direct them to some one who does know. He is prepared—To be quick to help the poor, tired women across the street with her basket of clothes. This store seeks perfect PREPAREDNESS. To have all employees ready to answer questions quickly and promptly. To have all customers directed correctly. To have salespersons trained to HELP customers. To have stocks ready when they are needed. GEO. WYMAN & CO.
