

WOMAN, ENRAGED, IS NOT EASILY FOILED

Victim of Accident Tells How Identity of Truck Was Brought About.

The story of an auto accident and the means taken by the victim, a woman, to learn the identity of the truck which collided with her machine and the driver who drove on after the accident without giving his name, was revealed to the public Monday.

TWO CONCERNS ARE BURGLARS VICTIMS

Wilson Bros. Factory and Economy Department Store Are Entered.

Overnight burglary activities reported to the police for investigation were confined principally to two enterprises unsuccessful so far as the amount of loot is concerned.

Sues for $1,700 Damages as Result of Accident

Suit for $1,200 personal injuries and $500 for damages to his car are sought by Max Sieders in a complaint filed Monday in superior court against the Chicago, S. B. & N. I. railroad.

Three Republicans Enter Spring Primary Arena

Three non candidates for political offices indicated their intention of making the race in the primary this spring by filing with the county clerk Monday. They are:

CASTLE

Conway Tearle and Fairie Binney in their surprising melodrama of the thrill that can happen in a city where Volstead is acclaimed no saint.

AMUSEMENTS

Secrets of the Movies Revealed

Q—What vivacious little screen star denies she is to marry Jack Dempsey, the boxing champion?

A—Bebe Daniels, in whose company Dempsey was often seen while in Los Angeles, continues to deny that she is engaged to the champion.

Q—In what new picture will two armies take part?

A—In Wallace Reid's new picture, "The Dictator," founded on Richard Harding Davis' story, two armies take part.

Screen

BLACKSTONE

Thomas Meighan and Mildred Harris make an exceptionally attractive co-starring pair, comparable in merit to such famous ones as Eugene O'Brien and Norma Talmadge, and in their new offering, "A Prince There Was," now current at the Blackstone, they have a regular Cohan triumph.

For "A Prince There Was" is a tale of New York life, and it embraces within it episodes from all quarters, from the East Side and the West Side, from the apartments of the millionaire clubman to the cheap boarding house in which ambitious girls and would-be inventors and clerks and children hide their dreams.

Meighan has the role of a wealthy young man, traveling first class along the road to pleasure, retaining his road to being "a prince of a fellow."

LASALLE

There's mystery and mirth both in "Rent Free," and the Lasalle crowds are having the time of their lives laughing at the antics of Wallace Reid and at the sub-titles of the picture and puzzling over how this madcap artist, a refugee in a deserted apartment, is going to get away with it.

CASTLE

Conway Tearle and Fairie Binney in their surprising melodrama of the thrill that can happen in a city where Volstead is acclaimed no saint.

HOUSE SOLONS URGE ARMY CUT OF 42,000

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 13.—Reduction of the army from its present strength of 157,000 men to 115,000 men was provided by the house appropriations committee today in the annual army appropriation bill which it reported to the house.

GIRLS DIE FROM DRUG RING PLOT

NEW YORK, March 13.—Wholesale arrests of members of an international drug ring operating in the United States and Canada may be made in an effort to solve the mysterious murders of Dixie Dixon and Dorothy Waddell, showgirls, alleged victims of the gang.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tarrell of Danville, Va., parents of Miss Dixon, are enroute here to confer with Dr. Carleton Simon, head of the New York narcotic department.

SCREEN

AUDITORIUM

J. P. McGowan, the noted producer of Helen Holmes pictures and Eddie Polo features, is shown today at the Auditorium theater for the final times in his latest thrilling Western, entitled "The Ruse of the Rattler," said by many critics to be a top-notch in western pictures.

Tomorrow brings Corinne Griffith, one of the screen's most popular stars, in a "Breezy Stories" short story, entitled, "It Isn't Being Done."

HOUSE SOLONS URGE ARMY CUT OF 42,000

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 13.—Reduction of the army from its present strength of 157,000 men to 115,000 men was provided by the house appropriations committee today in the annual army appropriation bill which it reported to the house.

GIRLS DIE FROM DRUG RING PLOT

NEW YORK, March 13.—Wholesale arrests of members of an international drug ring operating in the United States and Canada may be made in an effort to solve the mysterious murders of Dixie Dixon and Dorothy Waddell, showgirls, alleged victims of the gang.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tarrell of Danville, Va., parents of Miss Dixon, are enroute here to confer with Dr. Carleton Simon, head of the New York narcotic department.

SCREEN

AUDITORIUM

J. P. McGowan, the noted producer of Helen Holmes pictures and Eddie Polo features, is shown today at the Auditorium theater for the final times in his latest thrilling Western, entitled "The Ruse of the Rattler," said by many critics to be a top-notch in western pictures.

Tomorrow brings Corinne Griffith, one of the screen's most popular stars, in a "Breezy Stories" short story, entitled, "It Isn't Being Done."

MAY CONNECT BRUNEN MURDER WITH TAYLOR

CAMDEN, N. J., March 13.—Connection of the killing of William D. Taylor in Los Angeles with the murder of John T. Brunen, his friend, last Friday night will either be firmly established or finally disproved by night in belief of detectives working on the case today.

The police are on the trail of the auto in which they suspect the slayer escaped after shooting Brunen with a shotgun, as he was sitting in his kitchen reading about the Osenchain murder trial in Los Angeles.

SUCCEEDS DR. WORK

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Former Gov. John H. Bartlett of New Hampshire today was sworn in as first assistant postmaster general. Bartlett succeeds Dr. Hubert Work who became postmaster general when Will Hays resigned.

SWANK—Master Cleaners—Phone Main 791.

LASALLE Organ and Orchestra

TODAY WALLACE REID and LILA LEE in "RENT FREE"

TOMORROW Fannie Hurst's "JUST AROUND THE CORNER"

WALLACE REID and LILA LEE in "RENT FREE"

TOMORROW Fannie Hurst's "JUST AROUND THE CORNER"

WALLACE REID and LILA LEE in "RENT FREE"

TOMORROW Fannie Hurst's "JUST AROUND THE CORNER"

Advertisement for Brandon's Great Fire Sale. Text: "every day the crowds are flocking to BRANDON'S GREAT FIRE SALE... there is but one explanation for the continuous crowds—this entire section of country has learned of the astounding bargains offered in this sale. COME TO-DAY! WATCH US GROW Brandon Durrill Co. S. W. Corner Michigan St. and Jefferson Blvd."

Advertisement for Blackstone Brevities. Text: "BLACKSTONE BREVITIES. Look what's coming! Breinig's Tokio Orchestra as a special attraction for next Thursday night. They sing and play an' everything. Charlie Speth from Wyman's 'Come and Saw Us' the other night. SPECIAL! EXTRA! BREINIG'S TOKIO ORCHESTRA. A musical treat! Don't fail to come out and hear this band of Jazz Kings. Thursday Night Only. That Blackstone lobby is a pretty big place, folks. If a sudden rain catches you down town you're mighty welcome to wait in there so you won't get the press all out of your suit. Don't want to seem to harp on one subject, but honestly, that picture, 'FOOL'S PARADISE' will give you a thrill or your money cheerfully refunded. Gee, that bunch from Studebaker's are a good-natured, orderly, happy lot. No wonder Studebaker stock is above par! What do you think of the new Spring styles? I should say so!"

Advertisement for The Auditorium. Text: "The AUDITORIUM —TODAY—LAST TIMES— J. P. MCGOWAN as the 'good-badman' who was regenerated through the love of a girl who did not fear him— AFTER YOU HAVE SEEN 'THE RISE OF THE RATTLER' you will agree that it's a top notcher in every respect. —TOMORROW— AN ELABORATELY STAGED FASHION SHOW CORINNE GRIFFITH in her very latest picture sensation 'IT ISN'T BEING DONE THIS SEASON' YOU'RE SURE TO ENJOY IT"

Advertisement for Orpheum Theatre. Text: "Orpheum THEATRE. Today and Tomorrow—Feature Extraordinary PERCY BRONSON & WINNIE BALDWIN Present 'VISIONS OF 1970' By Jack Lait. HARRISON GREEN & KATHERINE PARKER 'AT THE DEPOT' By JAMES J. MORTON. ONE ON THE AISLE With JAMES TENBROOKE & CO. By Paul G. Smith With permission from W. W. Dunkle. HANLEY & HOWARD 'Two Percolators of Harmony'. FRAZER & PECK 'Gymnasts DeLuxe'. FRANK & MILT BRITTON 'Say It With Music'. PATHE NEWS and TOPICS. COMING THURSDAY MRS. GENE HUGHES in 'CONTENTED PEGGY' By EMMET DEVOY. COMING NEXT WEEK MONDAY Your Ever Popular Comedian MAX BLOOM 'THAT'S MY HORSE' And ALICE SHER, Musical Comedy Stars. TARZAN 'The Sensation of the Season'"

Advertisement for Oliver Theatre. Text: "OLIVER PALACE THEATRE CORP. LESSE. TODAY 1:00—3:00—5:00—7:00—9:00 P. M. CONTINUOUS. WM. FOX Presents Another Hit WILLIAM FARNUM —IN— 'Perjury' PERJURY—False swearing. Voluntary violation of an oath or vow.—Webster's Dictionary. A THROB—A TEAR—A SMILE. At 7:30, 9:30 P. M. Special Musical Interlude of William Tell Overture by VITALE'S SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA Special Scenic and Electric Effects. Extra Added Attraction SYDNEY FORBES—Who Sings (Late Ziegfeld's Follies)"

Advertisement for Castle Theatre. Text: "CASTLE TODAY is your last chance to see CONWAY TEARLE and FAIRE BINNEY —in— 'A WIDE OPEN TOWN' 10 Cents—No War Tax. Call up your best friend and treat him to a regular meal today for 45c Short Ribs of Beef Roast Brown Potatoe Creamed Peas Celery Bread or Roll and Butter Coffee or Milk (The Oliver Cafeteria) Try News-Times Want Ads"