

SEEBIRT COMMITTEE TO ISSUE BULLETIN

Progress of Housing Campaign Will be Detailed in "New Homes News."

To inform South Bend citizens of the progress of the housing campaign, a weekly bulletin will be published under the direction of Mayor Seebirt's expansion committee. The first issue of the bulletin, "The New Homes News," will appear next week. W. K. Lampert, chairman of the sub-committee on publicity, announced today.

Thirty-five hundred representative citizens will receive the bulletin every week. According to present plans, a special message on a topic concerned with expansion will be featured. Editorial appeals will appear, as well as a digest of building activity news for the week preceding the issue.

The bulletin is the outgrowth of a belief that South Bend people are interested in knowing what progress is being made in the expansion campaign in a more detailed manner than can be told in the newspapers. Interest in the campaign is being made in the expansion committee, who believe that "The New Homes News" will supply the demands for detailed information.

SHORT SKIRTS ARE TABOO AT NORMAL

NEW ORLEANS, La., June 23.—Skirts worn above the knee are banned by the student body of the normal school here. It was announced recently.

The announcement was made because of criticism of attire worn by the girls on a recent trip aboard an excursion steamer.

Critics said the girls were "em above the bend."

In their announcement the student body terms the accusation an insult. "Normal school girls know better than to wear skirts above the knees," says the announcement. "They have never appeared like that in public. Never will they. While we want none of our girls to feel as if they must not wear skirts above the knees, we do not believe we should regulate the length of dresses, for some girls are taller than others."

Occupants Escape Serious Injury in Truck Collision

Slight bruises were sustained by Mrs. Hazel McManus, 738 S. Main st., when a Ford truck in which she was riding was run into by a Dodge truck. The accident occurred shortly before 9 o'clock Friday morning at the intersection of Wayne st. and Lafayette Blvd.

The police ambulance was called but its services were not needed.

Aber Eder, 127 Franklin pl., the driver of the Dodge truck was going south on Lafayette Blvd. and according to the story he told the police, was required to swing to the wrong side of the street to prevent an accident with another car ahead. In doing so, his machine collided with the Ford truck. Neither Henry McManus, the other driver, or Eder were injured. Some damage was done to both trucks.

Baptist Church Women Repair Children's Suits

The ladies of the First Baptist church, under the direction of Mrs. Charles Armstrong, 593 Harrison av., spent Thursday afternoon mending and repairing the suits which the children wear at the open air school at Healthwin. The work was done in the basement of the church. The work of storing and getting the suits in proper shape was accomplished in a single afternoon and those in charge of the tuberculosis league expressed gratitude for the work accomplished.

It was also announced that David Thornton, 526 Hill st., had contributed a Victrola, together with a supply of records for the use of the children at the camp at Healthwin. Mr. Thornton's son, Richard, is in charge of the camp.

Hubbard Secures Permits For Six Houses "to Rent"

The initial step this year in building houses "to rent" was taken Wednesday when one owner secured permits to build six, in addition to another in which he intends to live. The "to rent" houses, contracted for at $2,000 each, will have three rooms and bath.

DeVere Hubbard, the applicant, proposes to build three houses on each of two adjoining lots, ample in depth, and lay out a court between. The land investment holds him little, he maintains, and the income to be derived will show the wisdom of his course.

Hubbard will build his six houses on Hanev av., in the 500 block, on lots designated by the city engineer's office as 510 and 514 E. Hanev av. In addition, he secured a permit to build a one-story frame dwelling at 1137 E. Hanev av., which he said he proposes to make his own home.

Rhods Receives $100 Fine and Suspended Jail Term

A fine of $100 and costs and a suspended jail sentence of 120 days was Friday assessed against Adolph Rhodes, Woodlawn, on his plea of guilt to unlawful possession of intoxicating liquor. Rhodes was taken into custody Thursday by Federal Prohibition Agent Mathers. The case came before City Judge DuComb.

Peddlers Warned to Secure Licenses for New Quarter

Offer Prize For Best Names For Children's Camp

Tuberculosis League Seeks Less Ponderous Name Than 'Preventorium.'

Mrs. T. A. Olney of South Bend, president of the Tuberculosis League of St. Joseph county, as chairman of a committee including other officers of the league, John Herosek of Mishawaka, Mrs. Horace Greenlee, Robert J. Long and Miss Jane Hufford, has decided to hold a prize contest for the best name for the children's camp.

Any boy or girl of school age, including high school pupils, may try for the prize. The first prize will be $10.00, the second, $5.00, the third, $2.00. The name and address should be in a sealed envelope accompanying the titles submitted and the name should not appear elsewhere in his communication so that the judges may not see it until after their decision has been made.

There will be a judging committee of five, consisting of one representative of the board of directors of the league, one from the Healthwin board, one selected by the News-Times and one by the Tribune. The fifth to be chosen by the other four. South Bend, Mishawaka, and some other part of the county will be represented on this committee if possible.

What the Camp Is

The Children's Camp or Preventorium is one of the most important pieces of work conducted by the Tuberculosis League and has been in operation for a number of years. It is maintained at Healthwin and is on the same grounds with the hospital but is not a county institution and is entirely separate although the Healthwin staff and that of the league work in cooperation in the matter of the Preventorium.

Miss Jane Hufford, the league executive, and Miss Merle Doty, the tuberculosis nurse are closely connected with the operation of the camp and see that all necessary equipment is provided.

The board of directors and the executive staff of the league are well as many others interested in the Children's camp think that preventorium is a rather weighty word for children and that a popular title for it might be suggested. Having this come from one of the boys or girls of the county seems so desirable that this offer of prizes is now being made. Contestants will please address the Tuberculosis League, Room No. 5, Court House, South Bend and write the word, "Contest" plainly on the outside.

Asks Injunction to Prevent Sarber From Moving House

A temporary restraining order and injunction is sought in superior court by George F. Strauss against Daniel Sarber to prevent the latter from attempting to remove a dwelling situated on lot E. Robinson's second addition to the city of South Bend, from its present location to another site on the lot.

The property, the suit sets out was sold to the defendant on a lease and option contract on June 11, 1921. One clause in the contract, sets out that the defendant will do nothing which will tend to depreciate the value of the property, and the removal of the four room dwelling will lessen the value of the property, the plaintiff further alleges as the reason for seeking an injunction.

Clifford B. DuComb has been appointed receiver for the McCready Construction Co., this action following the petition of the South Bend Lumber Co. for the appointment of a receiver. The court order was made by Judge Pro Tem A. N. Hilderbrand.

Issue Permit for New Parish Church and School Buildings

Permits to build a church and a school building, each costing $6,000, were Friday secured by contractors for the trustees of the new St. Matthews Catholic parish.

The school building, to be erected on the church property, will front on Duball av., 1029 E. Duball av., being the number obtained at the city engineer's office. The church, construction of which is already underway, faces Miami st.

Both buildings are of frame, one-story construction, and are designed eventually to give way to more substantial buildings.

U. S. FILMS SEEK GIRL IN MURDER

Former Captain of Yank Army Also Offers to Marry Mlle. Bessarabo.

PARIS, June 23.—(By I. N. S.)—Offers of marriage and opportunity to star on the screen were received today by Mlle. Pauline Bessarabo from the United States following her acquittal of the charge of participating in the murder of her father.

According to Petit Parisien a former captain in the American army offered to marry Pauline if she were acquitted.

One American moving picture company offered the girl a large salary if she would star in a screen version of the murder of M. Bessarabo, whose body was hidden in a trunk after his death.

GRANDMOTHER AT 32 OUTDOES FLAPPERS

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 23.—(By U. P.)—American flappers, watch your laurels!

In St. Louis resides Mrs. Joseph E. Dehner, a grandmother at 32, and now 23, in possession of all her "flapper" attractions—laughing brown eyes, impatient feet and a taste for wearing sport clothes in a truly flapperish manner.

Mrs. Dehner, who keeps house for her husband and 12-year old school-girl daughter, has the charm of youth with the wisdom of age. "The call of the dance, the joy of motherhood and the delight of grand-motherhood are all hers."

When Mrs. Dehner was 14 she married the man of her dreams, then a youth of 23. Within a year she was the girl mother of a daughter. Sixteen years later her baby, now Mrs. R. W. Covert, presented her with a grandson.

"Marriage seems to run in my family," she smiled. "I married at 14 and my daughter at 15. Early marriage, however, is all right only when the girl is serious. She must be ready to settle down."

INVESTIGATE CHARGE OF CREMATING BABES

SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 23.—(By U. P.)—Investigation is under way by police here today of charges that bodies of new-born babies were burned in the yard of a local sanitarium.

The charges were made by Miss Margaret A. Weaver, 22, a student nurse employed at the sanitarium. She was supported in her statements by Miss Elizabeth Estelle Metcher, 18, another student nurse.

Mrs. Violetta A. Lott, 53, who runs the sanitarium and her son, George Lott, were detained at police headquarters overnight and were still held today pending further investigation of the strange story told by the two girls.

No charge had been filed against them. Both deny the assertions of the student nurses, who admit they quarreled with Mrs. Lott before making the allegations.

AMUSEMENTS

Secrets of the Movies Revealed

Q.—How are silhouette motion pictures made?

A.—The silhouette is made by having the actors perform behind a white sheet or screen, in front of a powerful light. Both living actors, and models of some thin material with jointed lines are used. The contrast in sizes of the actors is produced by the distance from the light at which the person performs. The camera is placed in front of the sheet, so that merely the shadows of the figures are reproduced.

Q.—Who is she? She was born in Birmingham, Ala., and raised in Birmingham, Ala. First appeared in pictures in "The Dumb Girl of Portici." Was leading lady for Wally Reid. Recently with Tom Meighan in "Our Leading Citizen." She had dark brown hair and eyes.

A.—Lois Wilson is the young lady the description fits.

Q.—What trying task did the cameraman in "The Valley of Silent Men" have?

A.—The poor cameraman had to stand for hours in an ice crevasse, with the temperature far below zero.

Q.—Who is the most "unsuccessful lover" on the screen?

A.—Casson Ferguson, who has been awarded this title because he has played more rejected lover parts than any other screen actor.

J.—What actor, now appearing in pictures, has been on the stage fifty-seven years?

A.—W. J. Ferguson, who has a character part in "To Have and To Hold," has been on the stage for that long period. He was on the stage of Ford's theater the night Lincoln was shot.

Q.—What effect is both difficult and expensive to obtain in the movies? Look for the answer tomorrow. (Copyright, 1922, Thompson Feature Service)

INFURIATED HORSE KICKS COW TO DEATH

FAIRMONT, W. Va., June 23.—(By I. N. S.)—A friendship that existed for years between a horse and a cow owned by Joseph Portney, of Antioch, came to a fatal ending when the cow was kicked to death by the horse. The accident is regarded as a queer freak of nature by the people of that community.

The cow, a fine Jersey, had been pastured in the same field with the horse and there seemed to exist a strong friendship between them. Often they would be seen grazing very close to each other and they would follow each other around the field.

Members of the Portney family saw the cow near the horse, as was her custom, and were horrified to see the horse turn his heels on his companion and literally kick her brains out.
