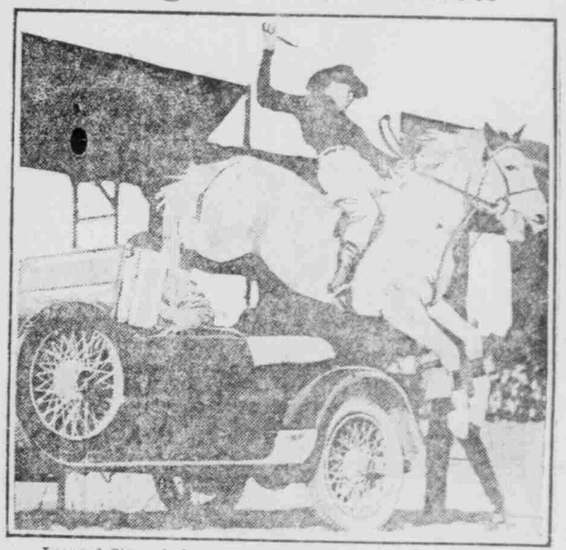
A Beauty From Virginia

One of the most prominent figures in the younger set of Washington society is Miss Elizabeth Woods, daughter of Congressman John P. Woods of Virginia.

Sailors Saved the Victims

Sailors rescued the two aviators who were in this giant airplane when it plunged into the North River Sunday afternoon as it was skirting the lower part of Manhattan Island.

Getting Even With the Auto



Leonard Stround, former world's champion rider, gave his broncho a chance for revenge on his mechanical rival in this brilliant feat of horsemanship. In one magnificent leap the spirited animal carried his rider over the high touring car.

He Did It

When a health institute broadcasted a photograph of pretty Mrs. Marion Morton O'Reilly, much trouble arose. The picture which showed Mrs. O'Rielly in tights she says was not for public exhibition. Now she has filed suit against the institute for $100,000 declaring that because of the picture her husband, wealthy New York broker, left her.
