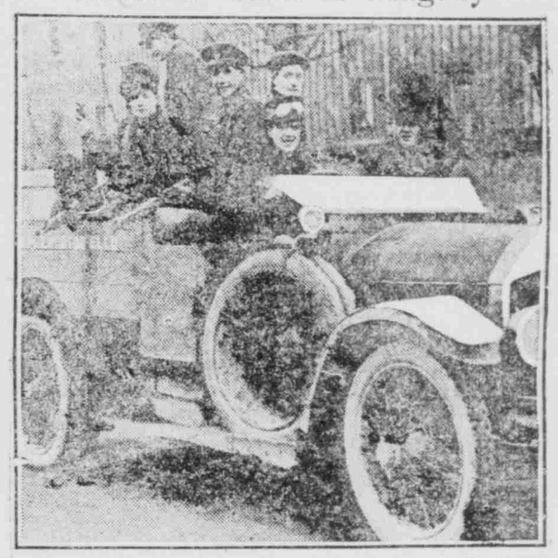
Statesmen on a Day of Rest

Mayor Hylan of New York and Senator-elect Henrik Shipstead of Minnesota are shown here recovering from the hard labor of political campaigns. New York's mayor is admiring the results of a day's fishing in Lake Michigan. Senator Shipstead can bag ducks as easily as votes judging from this photo taken on his return from a day's hunt near Brooten, Minn.

Smiles in Land of Tragedy



The extreme youth of the Irish militarists is shown in this picture of a Free State motor patrol. Smiles as happy and carefree as those of American joy-riders are on the faces of these boys whose pictures were taken just after a fierce attack had been made by republican rebels on the Free State troops at Wellington Barracks.

A Modest Hero

Ann Morgan.

Very few pictures have been taken of Ann Morgan, sister of J. Pierpont Morgan, noted financier. This picture was taken on her return to New York from France where she has been engaged in reconstruction work.

Robert J. Kuebler, 15, has performed no feat of conspicuous gallantry. His courage works in obscure ways. This is his feat. Without outside aid, this 15-year-old boy spent 42 days painting the ten-room house of his parents in Kearney, N. J. He thereby saved his parents $100.
