

MISHAWAKA CONTINUED

FOUR BASKETBALL QUINTETS WILL BE SELECTED TUESDAY

Coach Skaar to Pick Material for High School Teams at Practice Tuesday.

Because of the exceptional material that has shown up among the 20 aspirants to the Mishawaka high school basketball team who have shown up for practice during the past week, Coach Carroll O. Skaar will be enabled to cut the squad to 20, Tuesday night at practice, according to a statement made Friday night.

Several players featured on the high school's first team, last year as well as several new players have been exhibiting regular skill on the floor. Although no definite action has been taken yet, it is said that at least four players from the 1921 team will be given berths on the new quintet lineup.

In reviewing the work done so far, Coach Skaar especially commended a number of players for their floor work, including Eoswick, Lovell, Kravitz and Wrascoe, all members of the 1921 first team. Heide, Marker, Sprague, Dennis and Addison of last year's second team, Fisher and Fuson of last year's sophomore team, winners of the interclass tournament; and Seaman who made his first appearance on the floor this year.

Plans to have four complete teams in the high school, all of first class material and in first class condition, are at present under consideration by Coach Skaar.

The season's opening game is scheduled with the Lakeville quintet on the Battell school's floor, Dec. 12. This game is expected to be one of the hardest on the high school's schedule, as all the members of the Lakeville team are said to have played in the same position for the last three years. This squad appeared in the semi-finals of the inter-sectional tournament last year and was only defeated by the fast LaPorte quintet by one point.

THREE PROMINENT WOMEN ENTERTAIN FRIDAY AFTERNOON. Mrs. Karl D. Warner, Mrs. Ivan E. Smith and Mrs. F. H. Irwin, of the city's prominent matrons, delightfully entertained at 4 o'clock luncheon in the Fellowship hall at the Hotel Mishawaka Friday afternoon. There were 80 guests present, including those from out of town: Mrs. L. N. Baughman, Mrs. L. N. Baughman, Mrs. George W. Blair, Mrs. W. S. Beckson, Ridgewood, N. Y., guest of Mrs. Ivan E. Smith; Mrs. Robert Clark, St. Joseph, Mo., guest of Mrs. J. Fred Bingham.

The tables were formed in order of the Maltese cross and with their effective display of pom-pom and large chrysanthemums in various shades, from pale to bronze, smilax, tulle and crystal candlesticks with yellow tapers were most original and exceptionally pretty.

After a four-course luncheon was enjoyed, the votaries of bridge took up their places and enjoyed the games to the limit. Prizes were awarded in the order named to Mrs. Harry M. Beamer, Mrs. Daniels, Mrs. Frank Huber and Mrs. Donald Baker Smith.

"Yawn" in Court Costs Partridge 50 Days in Jail

Headling guilty to his fourth repeated offense, Alan Partridge, 115 W. Washington av., listened to Special Judge Kovacs' lecture on prohibition in city court Friday, sniffed a disrespectful yawn and five minutes later was behind the bars of the county jail—50 days to "think it over."

Alan was arrested by Officer Kolo at Chapin and Division sts. The officer told the court that Partridge had gone on a "high and lonesome" that made a new altitude record for booze flights.

"This being your fourth offense, it demands a greater punishment than—" The judge stopped short in his unbridling of the defendant at the bar.

"Ah—excuse me," yawned Partridge. "Fine you $10 and cost and sentence you to the county jail for 30 days," thundered Kovacs, adding in a lower voice, "I guess that will trim the wings of the 'partridge.'"

Pays $100 Fine for Booze Sale in Cops' Presence
Admitting unlawful possession of liquor on a charge set for hearing before Special Judge Kovacs in city court, Friday, Frank Burgess, 747 Prairie av., paid a fine of $100 and costs and took a suspended jail sentence of 90 days.

Burgess was one of the six arrested in Sunday's raids without the use of search warrants. Police details leading their turns at numerous "soft drink" parlors on that day and made their arrests upon detection of sales of liquor.

Father Asks Cops Here to Find Missing Son
Chicago police have been asked to take into custody Mattie Bejer, 16, living at 615 S. Grant st., this city, charged by his father, Frank Bejer, with having run away from home and going to Chicago.

A description of the boy was forwarded to the authorities there and a request made to hold him for the arrival of the elder Bejer. He had about $20 in his possession when he left here Wednesday, taking the second New York Central 10 a. m. train.

POLICE HOLD BOYS.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 24.—(By I. N. S.)—Police today were holding Louis H. Lowenstein, age 19, while they investigated his story that he had run away from his home in Newark, N. J., in an automobile belonging to his sister. With Lowenstein, when they arrived here today, was Edward Walz who, it was said, had accompanied Lowenstein from New Jersey. Lowenstein's father is a wholesale confectioner.

LAUNCH MOVEMENT TO REMOVE 'DRY' CHIEF OF JERSEY

Sen. Walter E. Edge Demands Thorough Investigation of S. H. Cone.

By J. BAIRD CAMPBELL, (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The state of New Jersey—battled scarred by the bitter fight between the "twists" and "drys" which culminated in the election to the senate of Gov. Edward I. Edwards on a beer and wine platform—is today seething under the grave charges against its chief prohibition enforcement officer which Sen. Walter E. Edge has formally requested National Prohibition Commissioner Roy A. Haines to investigate thoroughly.

If the charges should prove to be true, and Sen. Edge said he already possessed sufficient unmistakable evidence that they are, the summary removal of the accused prohibitionist, officials who bears the unusual name of Sammie Henri Cone, will be demanded.

A strange aspect of the situation, according to Edge, is that the charges originated with no less an enthusiastic prohibitionist than "Pussfoot" Johnson when he was identified with the Indian bureau and when Cone was employed by it as a special agent to run down bootleggers engaged in smuggling intoxicating liquor to the Indians.

Edge gets letter.
In a letter Edge received from Charles H. Burke, commissioner of Indian affairs, he stated that "one Sam Cone was appointed a special officer in connection with the suppression of the liquor traffic among the Indians as far back as 1910, although he could not find the name of Sammie Henri Cone on the Bureau's rolls."

Edge explained, however, that Haines subsequently admitted that "Sam Cone" and Sammie Henri Cone were, indeed one and the same man. "It appears," Burke wrote to Edge "that Cone was at different times charged with what amounted to irregularities, if not malfeasance."

Burke then referred to a telegram signed by "Pussfoot" Johnson when he was still with the Indian bureau, which, as made public by Edge, read as follows:

Cone Attacked.
"Very important that you dispose of Special Officer Cone matter quickly. I requested his resignation four months ago for cause. He has since managed to keep on payroll by various subterfuges. He has done practically nothing for eight months, but still time. I urgently request that payroll be relieved of this expense immediately."

Sammie Henri Cone has admitted Edge asserted, that he was the "Sam Cone" so indignantly referred to by "Pussfoot" Johnson. Cone is reported, however, to have vehemently denied the charges.

You're Lucky to Live in South Bend

WHEN business was booming in every American community, the advantages of South Bend possibly were not so evident, but when the test of depression came, then our city has been one of the very few where—

- 1st. Business has kept its usual steady pace, untroubled by the readjustment period.
- 2nd. Workers have been steadily employed, in the great South Bend factories whose wares are known throughout the world.
- 3rd. Homes have been provided for newcomers as well as for older residents through the unceasing efforts of our banks and trust companies.

THE "ST. JOE BANKS" have aided the citizens of South Bend in the most practical way by loaning hundreds of thousands of dollars in the past year alone for the building and financing of homes.

To continue this great work, we invite the savings of thrifty folks who wish the safest investment, and who desire to assist in building up our fine city.

If you wish to add to your savings, or if you have a friend or neighbor who wishes to open an account, remember the "St. Joe Banks," where every banking service is available for you within one complete bank organization.
