

CITY AND COUNTY.

Court adjourned last Saturday. The city election comes off on the first Tuesday in May. The wife of Rev. Geo. A. Little is visiting friends in Ohio. The wheat fields all over the country are looking splendid. John W. Patterson is building a new residence on Center street. A. L. Allenman will buy wheat for Snyder Bros. the coming summer. Our Donelson correspondence came last week too late for publication. Services at the Reformed Church each evening this week, by Rev. J. B. Henry. Everybody is making garden this week, weather warm enough or summer. The Tyler City drama troupe will play in Walkerton on Friday evening next. J. M. Dale, of Goshen, and daughter, were visiting friends in the city the past week. We learn that Bruce Joseph has been lying quite ill for the last three weeks, at his home on North Michigan street. J. P. Byrman, of Kosciusko county, has located in Bremen for the purpose of practicing law. The Bureau wishes him success. Joseph A. Blonied received from England, yesterday morning, a box of seeds of almost everything that grows in the "old country." A lady named Leeper, from German township, was adjudged insane this week. She remains in care of Sheriff Astley until she can be ascertained whether she will be received at the asylum. T. J. Perkins sold two of the Perkins wind-mills to Mr. H. Hummelous Monday. Mr. Hummelous evidently believes in wind work, especially when it will save a great deal of elbow grease. Sheriff Astley returned from Huntington county, Tuesday, with John Migrants, who was wanted at the last term of court, but had given him the slip. He now languishes in jail. He resided near Linkville. Our reporter says that men from the out townships and boys fourteen years old voted at the Greenback convention Saturday. Many of them ought to vote cast from five to twenty years out for their favorite candidates. It will always pay our readers to buy goods of men who advertise. They also keep posted, and can always sell you goods that are in style and as they buy at less figures and sell in more profit than the old fogies, they can afford to sell cheaper. Mrs. S. A. Baxter has bought the millinery establishment of Mrs. S. M. Babcock and will consolidate it with her large stock. The grand opening of this grandest and largest millinery store in Northern Indiana will take place May 31, one week from next Saturday. T. J. Perkins, one of the manufacturers of the Perkins Wind-mill who recently put up a mill for D. L. Gibson, has this week sold mills to Wm. Pomeroy and Miles VanVactor of the same neighborhood, to replace worn out Stover mills, put up only four years since. The editor of the the Porter county Val thinks that Marshall county and all other counties can guard their prisoners dry and tight and make them to work enough to pay for the damage their misdeeds has incurred, a great deal cheaper than they can build jails. Charles Gossage & Co., of Chicago, know that it pays them to advertise in the Republican, and to our readers who have been in the habit of buying from Plymouth merchants who do not advertise, can save money by going to Chicago and purchasing of Gossage & Co. We give the nominations of the Greenback convention in another column, but they have reconstructed their ticket and left part of the nominees out in the cold. We shall wait until next week before giving names, as they will no doubt fix it up differently between now and that time. Charles N. Lee, of Indianapolis, Deputy U. S. Marshal, was in town this week supervising witnesses to testify before the United States Court, May 28th, in the case of the United vs. Robert Rudowsky. We understand Rudowsky is charged with violating the revenue laws in the sale of tobacco and cigars. Miss Barbara Langenbach, who was for several years employed in the Republican office has been for several months at work in the Herald office, Ft. Scott, Kansas. It is well pleased with that country, and from the looks of a "photo" recently taken she is certainly enjoying good health. Her many friends in Plymouth wish her success. The lecture of Hon. Schuyler Colfax on the "Life and Character of Abraham Lincoln" Thursday evening drew a large audience, notwithstanding the slurs and ungentlemanly slings sent out each week by the "Pomeroys" sheet in Balcany hall. If Mr. Hohman thinks as he pretends that he has any intelligence, he will sue them for damages. Had the Republican correspondents said as much or tried as hard to keep people away as did the correspondents of Mr. Hohman's favorite organ, there would not have been fifty tickets sold.

Our thanks are due J. N. Hess, of Ft. Smith, Ark., for late Arkansas papers. James Stevens is the latest Greenback candidate for councilman in the Third ward. T. K. Houghton has had a bran new sidewalk in front of his residence on Walnut street. Mr. O. C. Babcock moved into his new residence, corner Walnut and LaPorte street last week. Uriah Frush, of Pleasantville, Iowa, spent a part of the week in Plymouth visiting the editor of the Republican. Read Simon Becker's new "ad" in another column. He wants you to come and see him, and ascertain that he tells the truth. Hon. H. G. Thayer, who will be the next Republican Congressman from the Thirteenth district, has been visiting eastern cities during the past ten days. The C. C. C's. at the Opera House were greeted by a large audience Saturday evening. We learn that the receipts in excess of expenditures amounted to about fifty dollars. Hon. Daniel McDonald, late editor of the Democrat, left on the 3:45 train Monday afternoon for Leadville. He has an interest in the celebrated Dyer mine and goes out to see how things look. He will remain five or six weeks. Quite an excitement was caused last Thursday evening by the alarm of fire sounded from the P. F. W. & C. depot. The ice house was on fire, but the fire was soon extinguished and boys and men and firemen and engine went back without having to do any work. Last Sunday was one of the most beautiful and pleasant days that we have had for six months, and everybody seemed happy. There was a good attendance at all the churches, and the ministers seemed imbued with more energy, pathos and genuine christianity than usual. Lucius Overmyer, of Marmont was in town one week ago last Saturday and lost his pocket-book containing about one hundred and seventy dollars. There was a road tax receipt and some other papers containing his name in the pocket book. He authorized us to say that he will give a reward of fifty dollars for the return of the pocket book and money. Rev. Whipple of O'Leary, Peria, preached, or rather lectured at the Presbyterian church in this city last Sunday morning and evening, to large audiences. The lectures gave a vivid description of heathen custom and manners, and the difficulties under which missionaries have to labor. These present obtained much valuable information in regard to the religion, customs and usages of the Oriental nations. Mr. and Mrs. H. Lerfesty, of this city, celebrated their silver wedding Thursday last. Mr. Lerfesty's sister and mother from Marion, Grant county, were present. Mrs. Lerfesty was presented with numerous articles of silver ware and Mr. Lerfesty was the recipient of a silver headed cane. A splendid dinner was given and all went merry as on the day when they united their destinies and determined to navigate life's rough sea together. The Rochester Sentinel says Rochester is securing much trade from persons residing outside of the county. This is all owing to liberal advertising. Last year Bourbon let our merchants get ahead of them advertising, but last week the Bourbon Mirror had six times more space occupied by home advertisers than any Plymouth paper had. Some of Plymouth's merchants will some fine merriment wake up to a realization of the fact that they might have made thousands of dollars by a liberal use of printer's ink, but it will then be too late. A curiosity can now be seen at this office. It is an oak barrel sawed from a tree about twenty inches in diameter in which is embedded a portion of a buck's horn about ten inches in length. The entire horn was in the tree and was only revealed when the saw brought out the piece, sawn while cutting the log in to lumber. The tree grew on the farm of D. L. Grossman, near Wolf Creek, and was sawed at his mill. It was probably hung on the twig of the sapling by a dusky hunter long ere the soil of Marshall county had been pressed by the foot of the pale face, and in some way entered the wood and was finally entirely concealed by the growth of a hundred years which have probably elapsed since then. The doors of the residence of Mrs. J. A. Leonard, on Sophia street, were thrown open Tuesday night and the good lady was surprised to see what looked like the whole town coming to visit her. But she soon found that the crowd consisted of relatives, friends and acquaintances, and a cordial welcome was extended to the sixty guests who seemed perfectly at home, and proceeded to unfold a nice dress, an apron and neck tie, and then brought to view a well filled purse of money, all which Rev. J. B. Henry presented in a neat little speech because it was Mrs. Leonard's birthday. Sixty-one birthdays have come and gone for this good lady who is the mother of John and Wm. Leonard of this city, but she has never, during those sixty-one years, been more completely and happily surprised than on Tuesday evening. The party enjoyed the occasion and were as happy as Mrs. Leonard.

Time flies, the winter is gone and spring is here, but our patrons keep step to the onward march of time, by coming in and paying the printer, that they may have clear consciences and be happy while reading the events of the coming year. Those who came on, those who paid since last issue are as follows: First, L. Stanley, of Argos, is an excellent man to start with, because being a first class citizen and one of the best Republicans that ever voted an unscratched ticket, he can always be depended on to do what he promises, even though the hand of disease has for more than a year made it almost impossible for him to do any work. The next man is J. F. Bowman, of Bremen, a young and rising attorney who has just located in that place for the purpose of practicing his profession. He comes from Kosciusko county and shows that he intends to identify himself with the interests of the county by enrolling for the Republicans. The next visitor is also from Bremen—Mr. Bair, of the popular firm of Bair & Helwinger, one of the most genial and pleasant men we ever met. He remained but a few minutes, but placed his subscription a year ahead and left us happier for the day. The next is W. E. Peterson, one of the handiest men in the county. A man who can set type for a newspaper, handle a team, make music good enough for a king and repair any musical instrument from the finest piano down to the cheapest Jew's harp. After him comes J. C. Gordon, a man as honest as the days are long one of the best men and best Republicans of this county. He is a young and goes on his way rejoicing. Then comes that wheel horse of Republicanism, Stephen White, of West township, and lays down the cash for another year, just like he has done for almost a score of years, and just as he will do while life shall last which we hope will be a long long time yet. But his son, Joseph White, of Michigan City, was just a little ahead of him having sent the money to pay his subscription, which we received just a few minutes before the old gentleman came in. "Train up a child in the way he shall go," Well Stephen has a right to be proud of his boy who is one of the guards at the State prison. Alfred Allen one of Marshall county's best citizens is one of our best subscribers dropped in Saturday and left two dollars to send the paper to John Lemaster, at Sterling, Rice county, Kansas. The next is one of your sturdy countrymen, who is full of business always reads the papers and always pays for them, his name is D. L. Grossman. He brought us a curiosity of which we speak more fully in the local columns, and paid for the Republican and later on, paid for the Republican and later on, paid for the Republican in the city came in just as the gold coin was sinking in the west and enrolled as a new subscriber. The next man on the list is man that can probably do more work than any other in Marshall county. Every body knows that we refer to Wm. Holland, whose fame as a nursery man is known throughout the west and Holland is just as good a Republican as he is a business man, and is one of the best patrons that the Republican can boast of. After Holland comes another of the Republican workers of the county, John McAdams, of Inwood, and you can always bet that he will work for the right with all his might whether it be in the temperance cause or for the success of Republicanism. But here comes Plymouth's sturdy dryden, honest, conscientious, industrious James Stevens. Jimmy is just a little might touched with the disease called Greenbackism, but he is not one of the "fool kind" and he will be just as straight in the Republican ranks in 1880 as John Sherman, for Mr. Stevens is trying to do right and will work for the success of the party that is doing better things for this country than any other party ever did, just as soon as he sees that it is on the right track. What can I do as a church member that I could not do outside the church? This question will be the subject of the sermon at the Episcopal Church next Sunday evening, April 27th. City Convention. The Republican voters are requested to meet at the Opera House, Wednesday evening, April 30th, at eight o'clock, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Mayor, Treasurer, Clerk, Marshal and one Councilman for each ward. By Order of Committee. Plymouth, Apr. 23, 1879. The Greenback Convention. The Greenbackers of this city met in convention, Saturday evening, and nominated John S. Bender for Mayor, J. B. N. Klinger for Treasurer, J. C. P. Smith for Clerk, and Robert Nell for Marshal. For Councilman, Conrad Bergman was nominated in the first ward, Christian Loesch in the second ward, and Jacob Ball in the third ward. In their attempt to catch the Catholic vote, they were compelled to nominate two men belonging to the same business firm. All of the candidates for Councilmen are Germans. As there were but one or two of the nominees present, they will probably have to reconstruct their ticket, and if by that they discover that the Germans and Catholics will not vote for the leaders of the Greenback party to secure some petty office for a man of their own nationality or faith, they will leave them out in the cold. Corfectioneries and canned goods, also all the sweet meats that can be desired, at Fred Koozitz.

ARGOS. BY EN EYE EX. Mrs. D. K. Brown starts for Iowa in a few days. Mr. Will Williams is fixing his property up in good style. Dr. Duke and Wm. McClure of Walnut, were in town last Saturday. Uncle Billy Worthington is building a buggy shed and fixing up generally. Mrs. Benval Jordan and daughter will start on a visit to Ohio in a few days. S. B. Davis, of Plymouth, was in Argos last week looking after the interests of the county. Miss May Brazleton, of Chicago, is making Argos a visit, and will stay a few weeks. Dr. R. B. Eaton is preparing to build a dwelling house on Sugar street in second ward. Silas Thompson, of Argos, will return to Rochester in a short time to engage in wagon making. Cal Stokes, our smiling Assessor, has been faithful to his calling in and around Argos the past week. Harvey Atkinson and mother started last Tuesday for the West. They go to Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri. Mark L. Smith is painting his house and is making quite an improvement in the appearance of his property. A new milliner has come to town and located on Michigan street, one door south of Pickers' bakery. Have not learned the name. Argos' new postmaster, Frank M. Hite, Place Hickman's drug store for the present, until a building can be built expressly for an office. Rev. W. J. Beiber has moved into the house purchased of Anthony W. Rogers, on Michigan street. We cordially welcome him to our society. Dr. A. H. Johnson contemplates building a new doctor's office near W. C. Kibler's drug store, which will be an improvement to our town. Dr. J. H. Wilson and lady of Plymouth, made Mrs. "E. Eye Ex" a visit last Saturday, as the Dr. was attending the Marshall county medical institute. County Superintendent Law W. Marshall, visited his friends in and around Argos, last week. Rev. Thomas Hubson Melker, of Legansport, Ind., will address the temperance union at Argos about the first of May, 1879. Let there be a good attendance, as he is one of the big guns of our State. INWOOD. BY EQUINOX. Sol Stevens is manufacturing beer here, J. McStevens is visiting his father in Michigan. Our schools commenced last Monday with a good attendance. Mrs. Charles Cook was in town last week visiting at D. Hollis'. Steve Lockon our only brewer, is nearly ready to move into his new house at the State prison. Last Wednesday Constables Miller and Cushman arrested three of the late rioters. They are now boarding at Hotel D. Astley. Dr. Smith has moved from Tyler City to this town, and Dr. Sell has moved to South Bend. He has been admitted to the Bar, and I don't know whether he intends to practice law or medicine. About eleven o'clock a. m. last Monday, Wm. Mowbray's barn was discovered on fire, and in four ten minutes was beyond control, and was destroyed with everything it contained. The crowd had hard work to save other buildings near it. John Baxter's and Thomas Davis' houses both caught fire, but by prompt action were saved. James Klinegan's buggy was in the barn and could not be got out, consequently burned with it. Barn and contents insured for $1500. Weber and Kuhn will sell the best meat in the city this week, as cheap as ever. We have received a car load of the celebrated "Murray" Wagons, which must be sold. Call and examine them. McKelvey & Co. have made arrangements for Uncle John Hohman to accompany the Grandest Excursion to the seaport to Nebraska, Wednesday, May 7th. Mr. Hohman has been there before, and will make it delightfully interesting to the boys who will accompany him. The Wheeler Reaper and Mower, front or rear cut, is the boss machine. Sold by Beck & Toan. Money to Loan. In amounts from $300 to $5000 on approved real estate security, by H. Corbin & Co. For the best made and cheapest clothing go to S. Becker.
