—J. W. Maxey, agent of the Water-town insurance company, this week paid Mr. Morehouse, of Inwood, the full amount of insurance on his barn, destroyed by fire a few weeks ago.

—There were fewer people in town during the forenoon of last Saturday than we have seen in Plymouth on that day of the week since we came here. The men were at home plowing corn.

—Circuit Court has been engaged most of the week trying John W. Platt, of West township, for larceny. The jury found him guilty, fined him five dollars, disfranchised him for three years and sentenced him to the State prison for two years.

—The fastest time ever made by a railroad in America was made we believe by the fast train which passed through here on the P. F. & C. Railroad, Wednesday of last week. It ran from Chicago to Ft. Wayne, one hundred and forty-nine miles in one hundred and forty-five minutes.

—The Presbyterian sociable will be held at the residence of S. L. McKelvy, on Center street, this (Thursday) evening. Refreshments of the season served during the evening. The public is cordially invited to attend, and knowing Sam's genial nature as a host, we guarantee a happy time for all.

—Centennial Hall is splendidly decorated for commencement exercises to-morrow night. There are eight graduates. They are William McDonald, Leslie D. West, Charles Drummond, Fred Hill, Miss Edith Griggs, Miss Carrie Loomis, Miss Lella Stout and Miss Anna Graves. We shall give full particulars next week.

—E. F. Shearer made a table for our paper cutter Tuesday, of this week, which beats any table of the kind ever seen in Plymouth. When we asked him the price he said he was almost afraid to tell us lest we would think it too much; but, said he, "I shall ask a year's subscription;" and we think we never got a bigger two dollars for our paper.

—If any of our readers want to buy a stock of dry goods clothing boots and shoes, they should read the advertisement of Wm. Rosenthal, assignee, in another column of this paper. Little Mack's stock of goods will be worth more money than we can raise, so you need not be afraid that we will bid against you. The sale is Saturday, July 19, 1879.

—The great temperance camp meeting will commence at LaPorte, Tuesday, July 15. Among the speakers who have been positively engaged, in addition to the ones reported, are Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, the Rev. Frothingham of New York; Dr. De La Maty, of Indianapolis; the Rev. Isaac Erritt, of Cincinnati; and Rev. A. I. Hobbs, of Illinois.

—State Superintendent Smart's report places the number of children in Marshall county between the ages of six and twenty-one years at 8,385. Amount derived from tax, being the sixteen cents assessed on each $100 of property, $7,649.51. Interest collected on common school fund since last apportionment, 1,230. Amount derived from unclaimed fees, fines, forfeitures, etc., $104.51. Total collected from county and ready for apportionment $8,984.12. Total amount apportioned to county $12,495.11. Per capita $1.49.

—In a card published in the Bourbon Mirror last week, Robert Schroeder, of North township, accepts the proposition of H. Barnaby and others to publicly discuss the proposition "Are the Teachings of the Old and New Testament Scriptures true and of Divine Origin," allowing Barnaby to fix the time and place for the discussion. Mr. Schroeder will affirm that the Scriptures are true and of Divine origin.

—Commissioner Barnaby informs our readers that an application for a liquor license will not be rejected because a town or neighborhood demands that it be rejected. He says the applicant from Argos was refused license because he was not a resident of the township. We have no reason, however, to change our opinion in regard to the matter. We have not a particle of doubt that many of the men licensed to sell liquors by the commission are no more entitled to a license than the applicant from Argos, and if the citizens of the communities in which they are located had come forward en masse with their objections, they would not have been licensed.

—The boss refrigerator of the city has been erected in Blain's grocery store this week. It keeps butter as solid as in winter and is large enough to hold all the fruit and berries or any thing else of a perishable nature that a grocer is likely to have on hand at one time. It fastens on the outside with a heavy iron bar that fits in a "catch" made to hold it. Jerry will testify that it will hold, for before he fairly understood the thing he went into the refrigerator to put away some butter and shutting the door after him found himself fastened in, and there he had to remain till some of the boys came and released him. He has it fixed now so it cannot fasten by slamming the door.

—William Holland, Marshall county's energetic nurseryman, can do more work and sell more stock in the same length of time than any other nurseryman between the two oceans; besides this he raises more fine small fruits than any other man in the county. Monday he set out fifty-thousand evergreens and had picked and shipped twelve bushels of strawberries. His berries have been pronounced the finest in the Chicago market this season. He left us a sample of the Continental and Cinderella Monday evening. These berries were so large that you could cut off slices almost like cutting beef steak, and there are we believe no finer flavored berries in the market.

—The festival for the Band on last Saturday night was not all it could have been wished, and yet, considering the weather it was really a success. The attendance was good and it was very evident that the people who were there manifested a real interest in the welfare of the Band; or they would not have ventured out in the unfavorable weather, that prevailed on the occasion. To the young ladies and others who volunteered their services, the members of the Band take great pleasure in returning their sincere thanks, and realize that where they are placed under renewed obligations to all for assistance and patronage that will not soon be forgotten. One more concert will be given by the Band during the season.

New Firm in Plymouth. Casler & Bennett having bought the grocery of Thomas Tribbey are now at the old stand selling groceries of all kinds so cheap that it will astonish you. The meat market will be kept up to the highest standard, and when you want the best meat of any kind do not forget to call on them.

The Result of Insuring in the Water-town. This is to certify, that I received this day of the Watertown Fire Insurance Company, of Watertown, N. Y., through the hands of J. W. Maxey, their agent, $250, in full for my loss on barn burned at Inwood, on the 21st day of April, 1879. I cheerfully recommend the company, believing it to be sound and perfectly reliable, and would advise others having dwellings or barns, to insure with Mr. Maxey, their agent at Plymouth. W. L. MOREHOUSE, Plymouth, Ind., June 16th, 1879.

Payee Personal.

The month of June, one of the busiest months for farmers in all the year is a month in which we expect to get but little money on subscription, and we had made up our minds that receipts would be very light; for the past week, and were contemplating an offer to sell the receipts from subscription for a week to the boys for five dollars, when H. Work, of this city, one of our oldest subscribers whose time had not expired came in and renewed for another year, stating that he might not be able to get up stairs again before his subscription expired, but we hope that he may soon be restored to perfect health and live long to enjoy life's richest blessings. After Mr. Work was gone we were aroused by the genial voice of Stephen S. Staley who always leaves a ray of sunshine when he comes into the room. "I am in a hurry," he said, "and as I never like to read anybody's paper but my own, here's the money for another year, and as Carey's subscription will expire in July, I'll just renew for him while I am here." The Carey alluded to is a Methodist preacher now in Alexandria, in this State, and his wife's daughter of Mr. Staley.

The next day we were thinking "well we had a streak of good luck yesterday which seldom comes in the busy season, when a good looking young gentleman stepped in and said, "I want to subscribe for the Republican, Phillip Siekman, Marmont, Ind., and "you bet" we had that name on our books in a hurry. Mr. Siekman seemed in a hurry too, and was gone in a moment, but through the next year the REPUBLICAN will give him the news and we shall get better acquainted, though we are perfectly satisfied that he is a splendid fellow. "Well, boys," we said, "we have got a new subscriber, how is that for this week." Then the tramp of feet was heard on the stairs, the door opened and E. W. Deemer and Wm. Bryan from down at Argos, (the town to which we each week send a bundle of REPUBLICANS that almost fills a mail sack) walked in. "Sit down gentlemen," said the cashier. "No," said Deemer, "we have not time, we want to subscribe for the REPUBLICAN, and soon the names of two of the best fellows in the country were on the books and the money safely rolled up, and stowed in the Editor's pocket. Mr. Bryan and Mr. Deemer departed, having our best wishes, and we shall do what we can to make them happy by giving them a good paper. The next man was Mr. Martin, of Bourbon. He said "I'd like to pay you some money on the REPUBLICAN." "You are one of our subscribers then," we said, "No, father takes the paper and I live with him." He said, "Frank Martin is the name you will find on the books." We had never seen Mr. Martin, but a glance at the books showed that he always paid his subscription in advance, and that is just as good evidence as you can find anywhere that a man is honest and a good fellow generally. The next man was Charles Morgan, of Argos; he like all the others was in a hurry; had just come to town, but did not want to go home until he renewed his paper. When he was gone we just thought, if it were not for a host of such men as Morgan an editor could not live with all the verifications that fall to his lot. Then we went over to the postoffice, and there we found a postal card from our old friend, N. E. Barr, of Argos, telling us that we had another new subscriber at that place, and his name, it is W. C. Board, and Mr. Board shall have the paper, and we believe he will be just as much pleased with it as we are to enter his name on our list. Then "Hank," that is Mr. Henry Born, compositor in the REPUBLICAN office, brought us the name for another new subscriber, and John Fender, of Heller's Corner, Allen Co., Ind., will be made happy just as long as he reads the REPUBLICAN, especially if he lives up to its teachings. The hours rolled on, and the sun was sinking in the west when one of Walnut township's best citizens who resides north-east of Argos, came in and said, "I want to pay for Sarah Hess's paper until June, 1880." Sarah is his daughter, and every boy of his that has a family takes the REPUBLICAN and pays for it. If we had all such men in this county we could furnish our subscribers with a paper as big as the New York Tribune.

INWOOD.

Little Johnny Schaffer is very low with drugs. Williams & Blessingham are doing a rushing business burning coal. Several very much soiled doves have been perambulating the streets and wheat fields for the last three or four nights. John McCauley has purchased a vibrator threshing machine, and he and Ambrose Adams are going to thresh together. The primary department of our subscription school closed last Saturday. The time for which the teacher was hired having expired. It is expected the other department will continue another month. Argos and Inwood unions will hold a two days temperance meeting next Saturday and Sunday, on the west line of section 33. Good speakers from a distance are expected, and his girl is cordially invited.

DUNELSON. School closed last Friday. Mrs. Butler is slowly gaining from her illness. J. Scott moved to Starke county a few days ago. Dr. Short, of Bourbon, was in town on Saturday. Mrs. G. H. Short is visiting at Bourbon this week. John Learnin has moved his saw mill to Grovetown.

Mrs. Howe, of Hamlet, was visiting friends here last week. One of John Learnin's children is very sick with pneumonia. George Uncapher's goods were sold at Assignee's sale last Friday.

A Sabbath school has been organized at the U. B. Church, by electing Rev. H. E. Butler, Sup't; C. T. German, Sec'y; N. Sheridan, Treas.; S. Thapton, librarian and Ella German, chorister.

MARMONT. ORA PRO NOBIS. Plowing corn is the order of the day. The wheat never promised a better crop than now. Apples and peaches will be numbered with the things that were in this locality. The attenuated form of the late editor of the Plymouth Democrat, was visible on the streets of Marmont last Friday. We learn that the Reicher club have let the contract for building their house on Long Point, one half mile south of here, to the Bohmer boys, to be finished by the first of August. McClure and family of Argos, having completed their labors here, returned to their home last Friday. Mr. McClure did a good job for the company, which they accepted without a murmur, pronouncing it better than the contract called for. Dr. Dunlap, after having dined at Marmont about as long as he lives at any one place, took us as he did on last Thursday, and has taken up his abode in Keokwa, Ind., where he will probably remain till he departs. We wish the gentleman abundant success, but a "rolling stone never gathers moss." Death visited our neighborhood last Friday, and removed two of "Adams' race," to that bourne the final destiny of all men, from which none ever return. Mrs. Wylie, wife of our township trustee expired suddenly, having as we understand, prepared dinner for the family, after which she took a congestive chill and survived but an hour or two. She left no family except a husband and an adopted son, to mourn their loss. She was interred on Saturday in the Mosher burial ground. Mrs. Mike Uery, who has been confined to her bed for many months, died of consumption about four o'clock p.m. A husband and a number of sons and daughters weep because she is no more. The remains were laid away in the Vories cemetery Sunday.

VIEWE AFUOT. BY FLY. Angus, Ind., June 19. H. G. Thayer is repairing the warehouse at this place. Joe Potter starts out with his wagon to grease harness this week. L. W. McClure has moved back from the lake to Argos. D. K. Brown has gone to join his family at Cedar Falls, Iowa. The time of picnics hath arrived, and the child's heart leapt with gladness. The three cusses, the crocus, the circus and the tramp cuss were in town last week. Bucher's new fence and sidewalk adds greatly to the appearance of Walnut street. There will be a Sunday school concert at the Christian Church next Sunday evening. The S. S. concert at the M. E. Church last Sunday night was a pleasant affair and well attended. The nomination of officers for the Murphy society took place last Wednesday evening. Election next Wednesday evening. Farmers have all commenced plowing which is generally looking well, although some had to be planted the second and third time. Simon Ralsback's baby fell and broke its leg just above the knee, on Friday of last week. At last accounts it was getting along nicely. Argos has no licensed saloon, still the work of poisoning men's minds, souls and bodies goes on under authority of this great moral (?) government of ours. Married, at the residence of the bride's father in Argos, on last Sunday, by the Rev. Mr. Strickland, Mr. Charles Fink to Miss Edith W. White. The couple have our heartiest congratulations. We have often read romances in which a young hero would endanger his life to save his lady love, but never before heard of a married lady throwing herself into the briny deep to save her husband, when marriageable gentlemen are so plenty. S. J. Holley, our popular Justice of the peace, says he has raised one thousand dollars on the price of his wife since the occurrence at the lake last week. Next Saturday and Sunday will be a general gala day for the temperance people of Argos and Inwood. The above named societies have united in making arrangements for a temperance jubilee and picnic, to be held on the west side of the walnut section, north east of here, lasting two days. All neighboring societies are invited to help make it one of the grandest affairs of the season. The Rev. Hudson McKee, of Logansport, is expected to be present, and all wishing to hear the best temperance lecturer in the State should not fail to attend. One of the prominent features of the occasion will be a reformed men's speaking meeting. Every person should be present and help to further such a noble cause.

Minutes of the Temperance Union Picnic.

The temperance societies known as Center, Jordan and The Brick met in the grove west of the Hopewell Church in Green township, Marshall county, Ind., Saturday, June 14th, 1879, for the purpose of spending the day in discussing the subject of temperance. On motion, Mr. Wm. McClure, of Walnut was appointed president of the meeting. President McClure came forward in the discharge of the duty intrusted to him in that pleasant manner which gave zest to the occasion. Silas S. Fish was then chosen Secretary and James Davis Treasurer. Exercises were opened by vocal music, after which prayer was delivered by Rev. Mr. Jones, of Argos. Next on programme was singing by the choir, followed by a speech for the benefit of the society by Mr. Peronette, of Maxinkuckee. Rev. McClure, of Argos, was then called to the stand and with his brilliant flow of language held the entire audience spellbound with his forty minutes' speech which was a series of noble thoughts and wise suggestions. The meeting was then adjourned to partake of a bountiful dinner, which the good people of that community spared no pains in preparing. The appearance of rain detained the Argos brass band until afternoon, when the sound of approaching music appeared to give new life to all who were present. First on programme was music by the choir, followed by prayer by Rev. Mr. Allen, of Iowa. Next, music by the band, after which Mr. A. J. Wickizer, of Argos, was called to the stand. Mr. Wickizer had mapped out a noble speech which would have much interested his hearers, when to the regret of all, it was announced that a heavy rain was just upon us, which made it necessary to adjourn. Though sympathizing with the many disappointed speakers who were present, we know they are of untiring energy, and that it will be but one week to wait (June 20 and 22) that grand temperance meeting on section thirty, 3 1/2 miles north of Argos, will take place and they will have the benefit of one more week's experience.

Wm. McClure, Pres. S. S. Fish, Sec'y. B. S. Frank, Cash.
