SHEEP SCAB

Purdue University Agricultural Experiment Station.

Among the acts of the last session of the Indiana legislature was one making it compulsory to dip all scabby sheep. The object is to stamp out this expensive but unnecessary disease. The reports of the state statistician for the past few years have shown that there has been a considerable number of sheep affected. The forth coming report will show more than 8,000 head reported to be affected for the year ending June 30. There is no question but there have been many errors in reporting but deducting these there still remains a large number of affected sheep.

Scab is produced by an itch mite, that causes itching, rubbing, pulling and shedding the wool, causing a bare and scabby skin. The parasite can not live for any great length of time off the skin and does not thrive on any other animal. It is therefore possible to stamp out the disease by killing all mites by dipping. Solutions of tobacco, lime and sulphur and arsenic are effective for this purpose. The tobacco solutions have preference. They may be made by taking from 20 to 25 pounds of tobacco leaves and stems and soaking for one day in sufficient water to cover. Then boil for an hour and draw off after six hours. Dilute to 100 gallons. Add 20 pounds of sulphur and use while warm. The lime and sulphur dip may be made by slacking eight pounds of lime in some water, adding 24 pounds of sulphur and diluting to 100 gallons. It is troublesome to prepare the tobacco solution and is about as cheap to buy the extract ready for use.

The lime and sulphur dip is injurious to the wool. It requires on an average of one and one-half gallons of dip solution per head for more than 25 head. The second dipping is necessary at the tenth day so that the cost for material must be reckoned at about five to seven cents per head. The coal tar or creolin dips are excellent for ticks but not as effective as they should be for scab. As far as known nearly all affected sheep have been dipped but any person knowing of such disease should report the same to the state veterinarian, Lafayette, Ind., at once, as efforts will be made to complete the work before cold weather.

The Johnson Obsequies.

At 2:30 Sunday afternoon, in the presence of a large concourse of people, the funeral of Amasa Johnson was held at his late residence. Rev. McKenzie of the Methodist church conducted the service and a selected choir sang. The Grand Army post, of which Captain Johnson had for many years been a member, attended in a body and furnished the bearers who carried the flag-covered coffin to and from the hearse. The post exemplified its beautiful and patriotic burial service at the grave.

The attorneys at the Marshall county bar, led by Judge Capron, acted as honorary pall-bearers and followed the remains of their brother lawyer to the cemetery. Many members of the Royal Arcanum attended but the organization was not present in a formal way. The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

The lawyers, at their meeting Saturday, appointed a committee to prepare resolutions in memory of Mr. Johnson and present them at the first day of the ensuing term of court. They also arranged for a handsome floral piece to be placed beside the casket.

But It Wasn't.

One night last week at Rochester, after having considerable trouble with small boys at the door, Manager Wade ordered the little fellows all down stairs and out of the way. In a few minutes one of the young nuisances came back, carrying a paper bag, and said:

"Mister, if you let me in I'll give you a pineapple."

The proposition looked good so Mr. Wade took the bag and passed the boy in. After the show the manager produced the pineapple and started in to treat the company, but the fruit turned out to be far from tempting and was rejected. Next day Mr. Wade saw the boy on the street and said:

"Here, son, that pineapple was rotten last night."

"So was the show," howled the precocious youth and took to his heels.

South Bend Police Troubles.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 2.—Because Superintendent of Police Wilber E. Gorsuch and the board of public safety were unable to agree on the manner in which attention was to be given to the law, Superintendent Gorsuch has resigned his office.

Gorsuch was appointed in April. His radical measures caused the friction, he being unable to agree with the board as to the manner of enforcing the law.

Gorsuch's successor has not been named. The vacancy may be filled by promotion from the ranks, and Peter Kline may get the place.

Goebel Decision Delayed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 1.—Governor Durbin yesterday informed the Kentucky officials here with a requisition from Governor Beckham of Kentucky for the return to that state for trial of W. S. Taylor and Charles Finley, charged with complicity in the Goebel murder, that he would not render formal decision for a week or more.

This final answer of the governor was in compliance with the request of the Kentucky representatives that the governor read carefully the transcript of the record and the briefs and decisions of the court of appeals in all the Goebel cases, together with the dissenting opinions of the judges of the court of appeals from the decision of the court.

Relying upon the old saying that the shortest way to a man's heart was through his stomach the fond wife, who wanted a new Worth gown, regaled her husband with costly viands for a month. Then she made her request. But the heartless wretch replied: "Can't stand it now. The grocery and meat bill was too heavy this month."—Baltimore American.

Black Dress Goods Exhibit

This Department again holds the palm. No efforts have been spared to make it the strongest department in the city. The Fall Display is in every respect worthy of this great progressive store. The showing of HENRIETTAS, SERGES, ZIBELINES, BROAD CLOTHS, VENETIAN CLOTHS, PRUNELLAS, MOHAIRS, ETC. is certainly the handsomest ever shown in many years. The prices range from 25c to $1.50 per yard. And the trimmings that go with them are surely beyond a doubt the grandest, handsomest ever shown here
