

LOSS OF LIQUOR LICENSE IS NO CUT

With Less School Children Than Last Year The Amount For Distribution in Marshall County is Greater Than in 1909.

County Auditor Charles M. Walker has just completed the July distribution of the state school fund, to the various townships, towns, and city in Marshall county.

in the county but the amount is made up by the greater amount of the dog fund, distribute. A comparison of the figures of the years 1909 and 1910, are as follows:

Table with columns: Township, Children, State School, Congl. Int., Totals. Rows include Bourbon, Center, German, Green, North, Polk, Tippecanoe, Union, Walnut, Argos, Bourbon, Bremen, Culver, Plymouth, Totals.

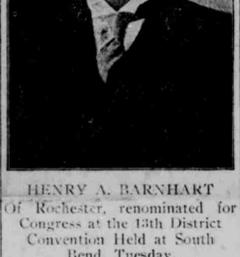

BARNHART IS CHOICE WITHOUT OPPOSITION

DEMOCRATS OF 13TH DISTRICT OF IND. NAME ROCHESTER MAN FOR CONGRESS

In Speech Fulton County Man Scores Cannon and the Tariff—Senator Shively Speaks.

Without opposition, Henry A. Barnhart, of Rochester, was named by the Democratic convention of the Thirteenth District of Indiana, to be their candidate for re-election, field at Springbrook Casino, near South Bend Tuesday.

At no time has there been any opposition to the re-nomination of Barnhart and he received the entire 136 votes of the convention.

HENRY A. BARNHART Of Rochester, re-nominated for Congress at the 13th District Convention Held at South Bend, Tuesday.

me an apology, I want to talk briefly of myself. It matters little to you and to all the people of the district what individual represents you in Congress, so far as personal favor or political glory is concerned.

"I want to also assure you, in this connection, that if there is any harsh reference to political competitors in this campaign any mud pies, tin pans or pitchforks thrown or any insinuations that the people are to be bowed down in shame if the majority votes this way or that some other than myself will do so, for I am resolved, as I was two years ago, to win this race out in the open, on the square, and in a gentlemanly way or not at all.

"When you gave me the great confidence of a nomination two years ago I said to you that I could accept only on the condition that, if elected I should be free to work and vote for legislation that I believed to be right, regardless of dictates of party politics.

DAN CUPID GETS BUSY IN CITY

FOUR LOCAL COUPLES MARRIED IN PLYMOUTH OVER SUNDAY.

Miss Gertrude Peterson Becomes Bride of Mishawaka Man—Ideal Day for Nuptials.

County Clerk Whitesell was busy Saturday afternoon and evening, issuing marriage licenses. Four local couples who decided against single blessedness secured licenses to annex a partner for better or for worse.

At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Catherine Peterson on north Michigan street, Mr. Harry E. Suders and Miss Gertrude E. Peterson were united in marriage Saturday evening.

FRANCHISE FOR BREMEN INTERURBAN

ST. JOSEPH COUNTY COMMISSIONERS GIVE LEGAL RIGHT TO OPERATE ELECTRIC CARS.

Work Must be Started by July 1, 1911 and Finished in About Eighteen Months.

An electric line from Marshall county on the northeast, connecting Bremen with Mishawaka is more of a possibility, judging from the action taken by the Board of Commissioners of St. Joseph county Monday.

FUGITIVES FROM CITY NOW NUMBER FOUR

Hiram E. Atkins is Latest Addition to Quartet Which Includes Jack and Lena Foley and Ray L. Metsker—Probation Officer North Busy.

Hiram Atkins is the second fugitive from justice from this city, caused by the Metsker gambling game of Saturday night, June 25, when Raymond L. Metsker assaulted and stabbed Bert Altman, with evident intent to kill.

North was on his trail, and was about to arrest him, and have him jailed for violating his parole. It was up to Atkins to either forfeit his bond, or be jailed.

Atkins was arrested charged with gambling. He gave $50 bond for his appearance and took a change from Center to North tp. Thursday was the date set for his hearing and he failed to materialize.

Probation officer A. C. North and policeman Jacoby shadowed the Atkins quarters all day Wednesday watching for their man. Atkins has been in the custody of Probation officer North since he pleaded guilty to the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors.

THREATENS SUIT AGAINST BIG ESTATE

DR. WESIER SAYS HE WILL BRING ACTION AGAINST LEWALLEN ESTATE FOR $20,000.

Will of Wealthy Tippecanoe Tp. Farmer Probated in Court—Hundreds of Acres Divided.

The last will and testament of the late Simeon Lewallen of Tippecanoe township, was probated Thursday. The will designated several deeds to real estate, all of which were filed with the record yesterday.

BUSY TIMES FOR MASONS OF THE CITY

MUCH DEGREEE WORK IS GIVEN IN PREPARATION FOR TRIENNIAL CONCLAVE THIS FALL

Five Candidates Taken Through Four Degrees by the Lodge Yesterday—Brought Through Royal Arch.

These are busy days for the Plymouth Masons. Lodge men are being put through the various degrees, in preparation for the Triennial Conclave, which is to be held in Chicago this fall, and which many local Masons are preparing to attend.

Boys' City Opens July 25. Arrangements for the Boys' City at Winona Lake have been completed and all is in order for the opening July 25.

Grand Hotel Sold. The Grand Hotel was sold Monday night to John Cahill of Michigan City, who has been chief clerk of the Vreeland Hotel in that city.

Attend District Convention. Among those who left Plymouth Tuesday a. m. to attend the Democratic District Convention held in South Bend Tuesday afternoon were the Messrs. S. N. Stevens, Harry L. Unger, L. G. Harley, Nathaniel Lee, Senator Harry E. Grube, John Leonard, Chris Fisher, J. C. Whitesell, Michael Ryan, H. L. Singrey, C. M. Walker, L. M. Lauer, C. W. Metsker, Fred H. Myers, Eldridge Thompson, E. R. Monroe, Clarence Holloway of Plymouth; George McCoy, Thomas Twomey and Homer Slough of Bourbon and Jas. B. Severns of Tippecanoe; John M. Wickizer, Elmer Rockhill, Wm. R. Schooner, George O. Reed, A. S. Good and L. D. Walker of Argos; Judge Harry L. Bernetha of Rochester.

Ready to Can Beans. Preparations are being made at the Canning factory of the Van Wert Canning company to begin the canning of string beans. It is now planned to start this work on next Tuesday when the force will again be increased to about twenty-five or thirty.

John Carpenter Insane. In the justice court of Clarence Holloway Tuesday morning John Carpenter, aged 60 years, who resides south of Plymouth, was declared of unsound mind and application has been made for his admission to Longcliff.

Has Position With Circus. Hugh Keiser has secured a position with the Barnum and Bailey circus, as ticket taker, and joined the show at Elkhart Friday as its accompaniment.

Clover Hay on State Team. Lieut. Clover Hay of Company G, of Goshen, won a place on the state team of sharpshooters and will compete with other state teams of the United States at Camp Perry for national honors.

Buys Thomas Auto. L. F. Overmyer, the shoe man and son General, went to Chicago Friday afternoon and will drive home overland a Thomas Plier automobile, which they have purchased in that city.

Harold Oglesbee Married. Announcements have been received by Plymouth friends of the marriage of Miss Zelma Billheimer and Mr. N. Harold Oglesbee.

Dancing Party. A hot weather dancing party was given at the Apollo Club Thursday and was attended by twelve couples.

Warner-Myers. At the home of and by Rev. S. H. Yager, Saturday, Mr. Wm. Warner and Miss Pearl M. Myers, both of Bourbon were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Bollenbacher-Davidson. John D. Bollenbacher, a promising young farmer of Center township and Miss Cleta B. Davidson of Inwood, two estimable young people were married by Rev. E. C. Wareing of the M. E. Church, Saturday evening.

Eighty-Four and Hearty. Uncle Henry Breenbrook, celebrated his eighty-fourth birthday Thursday. He is in the best of health and walked from the Infirmary to town and back.

Crops Improved Following Rain. DRY WEATHER KILLS MOST EARLY POTATOES IN VICINITY. Farmers Busy Cutting Wheat—Conditions Are Generally Encouraging.

Party of Plymouth Girls and Guests, Camping at Culver Cottage. A party of six young ladies, four Plymouth girls and two guests are spending this week, camping at Lake Maxinkuckee, occupying the Menominee cottage of Daniel McDonald on the south side of the lake.

141 Tickets Sold to Culver Where Presbyterians Meet—Others to Pretty Lake. One hundred and forty-one tickets were sold to Culver Thursday on account of the Presbyterian Sunday School picnic which was held at Lake Maxinkuckee.

Myers-Spitzer Reunion. The Myers-Spitzer family reunion will be held at the fair grounds at this city on Saturday, August 13th. Members of the two families from over the entire country are expected.

FIRST TO MARKET NEW WHEAT

JOHN RICHARD HAULS 700 BUSHELS TO LOCAL ELEVATOR—GRAIN OF GOOD TEST.

Wheat is Bringing 96 Cents Per Bushel—Two Days Earlier Than the Year of 1909.

The first new wheat to be marketed in Plymouth this year, was brought to the Ball and Bankert (successor to J. P. McFadden) elevator by John Richard, from his farm near Twin Lake Thursday morning.

CROPS IMPROVED FOLLOWING RAIN. DRY WEATHER KILLS MOST EARLY POTATOES IN VICINITY. Farmers Busy Cutting Wheat—Conditions Are Generally Encouraging.

AT MAXINKUCKEE. Party of Plymouth Girls and Guests, Camping at Culver Cottage. A party of six young ladies, four Plymouth girls and two guests are spending this week, camping at Lake Maxinkuckee, occupying the Menominee cottage of Daniel McDonald on the south side of the lake.

141 Tickets Sold to Culver Where Presbyterians Meet—Others to Pretty Lake. One hundred and forty-one tickets were sold to Culver Thursday on account of the Presbyterian Sunday School picnic which was held at Lake Maxinkuckee.

Myers-Spitzer Reunion. The Myers-Spitzer family reunion will be held at the fair grounds at this city on Saturday, August 13th. Members of the two families from over the entire country are expected.

LOCAL MEN FIGURE IN POLICE COURT

AN EMPLOYE OF MYER FRANKLIN STEALS LATTERS WATCH TO PAWN FOR DRINK. Gets Taken up by South Bend Police—Will be Transferred to This Court.

Leaving Plymouth for territory more wet, and not having quite enough money to get drunk on Joseph Grangelesky, left a watch, which he is charged with stealing from his employer Myer Franklin, the junk dealer, at a South Bend saloon, where he obtained $5 on it.

In city court Wednesday morning however, Mr. Franklin stated that he did not think that Joe who is his employe really took the watch with the intention of stealing it, but that he had merely taken it for a day or two until he should return to Plymouth. But Joe with a gold watch in his possession and craving for a drink could not resist the luring temptation.

The case is beyond the jurisdiction of the South Bend court and the prisoner will be turned over to Plymouth authorities.

C. W. Metsker Struck by Large Belt on Threshing Machine Saturday. C. W. Metsker, editor of the Plymouth Democrat was slightly injured Saturday afternoon, when he was knocked to the ground by a belt off a threshing machine, on the Wm. Bertin farm, two and a half miles south of this city. Metsker had driven to the farm in his auto with Andrew Richard, to look after the interests of his brother Raymond, who owns a share in the farm. Metsker was assisting in the threshing and attempted to pass under the long belt, connecting the engine to the separator, when it is alleged, one of the men playfully threw off the belt, with the result that Metsker was prostrated. His injuries were not severe and he will probably speedily recover.

MANY PICNICS THURSDAY. 141 Tickets Sold to Culver Where Presbyterians Meet—Others to Pretty Lake. One hundred and forty-one tickets were sold to Culver Thursday on account of the Presbyterian Sunday School picnic which was held at Lake Maxinkuckee.

Myers-Spitzer Reunion. The Myers-Spitzer family reunion will be held at the fair grounds at this city on Saturday, August 13th. Members of the two families from over the entire country are expected.

Myers-Spitzer Reunion. The Myers-Spitzer family reunion will be held at the fair grounds at this city on Saturday, August 13th. Members of the two families from over the entire country are expected.

Myers-Spitzer Reunion. The Myers-Spitzer family reunion will be held at the fair grounds at this city on Saturday, August 13th. Members of the two families from over the entire country are expected.

Myers-Spitzer Reunion. The Myers-Spitzer family reunion will be held at the fair grounds at this city on Saturday, August 13th. Members of the two families from over the entire country are expected.