Averts Awful Tragedy. Tiaely advice given Mrs. C. Wiloughby, of Marengo, Wis. (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" cough and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery. "I have been using it for some time," she wrote, "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Fred Wenzler.

But these things the country too dry, And would prefer a shoemaker's bench near by, And there with repairing from early till late, Will keep starvation away from his gate, And for fear the people might on him look, Will take for himself a blue eyed cook.

The Shatford Dilemma (The following verses were written prior to the double wedding of the Shatford brothers on Sunday, April 2). The Shatford family are in such a stew, For something will happen that is quite new. The boys will be married next Sunday they say, And we are hustling things out of the way. To Plymouth we'll move and the farm give over, That Chester might have a start, or more. The horses and cows we'll leave for him too, And chickens have also for what they will do; It's a good beginning I am sure you'll state, For one like him and "Leona" his mate.
