NUMBER 17

UNDER THE HORSE-SHOE LIES PLYMOUTH

This Is the Slogan Adopted By the Commercial Club and Percy Troyer Received the Five Dollars In Gold for Suggesting It.

"Under the horseshoe lies Plymouth," is the slogan adopted by the Commercial Club Friday night. Percy Troyer is the author of this battle cry and to him was awarded the five dollars in gold promised to whoever should furnish the successful slogan.

Twenty one members of the club were present to vote. Ninety-three phrases had been handed in, most of them apt and the work of choosing was no easy task. Perhaps one feature which turned the trend of popularity to the slogan chosen was a letter from Marshall, Texas, whose slogan is "At the end of the Rainbow lies Marshall, Texas." This letter was lying on the table and read by most of those present and the similarity of conception attracted attention to our slogan.

Twelve copies of the ninety two slogans handed to the committee had been made. Each slogan was numbered and there was nothing to indicate the author of any. Each member of the club was requested to vote on the three slogans of his choice. The three most popular were numbers 2, 44, and 91. A second vote made the decision.

After the choice Mr. Wenzler suggested to Mr. Snoeberger, who happened to be standing near, that we ought to place a big horseshoe over the Michigan street bridge, with the word "Plymouth" under it. This would represent the idea of the slogan. He also suggested that Mr. Snoeberger contribute the electricity to light it. The latter replied that he would be more than glad to do so. It is expected that the contrivance would cost about $100.00 which will be paid for by subscription.

The committee presented a suggestion for letter heads which with some changes to include the idea of the slogan, will be adopted.

Following are the slogans presented:

- 1 Watch us grow.
- 2 Plymouth First Last and Always.
- 3 We want consistent co-operation.
- 4 Boom Plymouth now.
- 5 Keep agoin'!
- 6 Plymouthite Alright.

Morris Aeler of Plymouth took dinner Monday with his daughter, Mrs. Lloyd McFarlin.

Boys Capture Foxes

The Richards boys sons of Jacob Richard of south Center township bagged five foxes Friday. They were sowing clover seed on their place when they noticed the old fox go into its hole. The boys suddenly lost interest in the clover proposition and turned their attention to the fox. They dug the foxes out killing the mother but taking four young ones alive. They brought them to town Saturday where they were centers of attraction.

The 3rd Quarterly conference of the Donaldson U. B. church will be held at Burr Oak, Ind., April 28, 29, 1911 by Presiding Elder J. Simons. On Sunday evening Rev. S. H. Yager of Plymouth will preach. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

w20-27 F. Grow, Pastor.

The girls of the S. S. S. Club entertained by Irene Freyman at her home on west Garro street Friday. They played games and enjoyed the refreshments of ice-cream and cookies and wafers. Katherine Curtis was elected to membership.

Funeral Notice

The funeral of Eben Parish will be held at the residence of Daniel Walker, west Harrison street at one o'clock Thursday, interment at cemetery east of Argos.

Has Slight Paralytic Stroke

Daniel McDonald had a slight stroke of paralysis on his right side Sunday. He is reported to be improving Monday and it is thought he is nothing very serious.

Circus Passes Through City

Ringling Brothers Circus composed of eight train loads, passed through Plymouth Monday morning at about four o'clock enroute from Chicago to Zanesville, O.

POST OFFICE WILL CLOSE AT 7 O'CLOCK

INSTRUCTIONS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED BY POST MASTER STEINER THAT HE MAY SHORTEN HOURS

LOBBY OPEN UNTIL 8

City Delivery, It Is Said, Had Done Away With Much of the Desire For Evening Mail.

Pursuant to instructions received today from The First Assistant Postmaster General at Washington, D. C., the stamp and general delivery window at the local post-office will close at P. M. beginning Monday, May 1.

The lobby will remain open until 8 P. M. as now and all mail deposited in office letter drop before that time will be dispatched that night.

Box patrons will continue to have same privileges as before.

No change in hours has been made at the office since the establishment of city delivery service two years ago, and it has been found that service does away with much of the need of keeping the general delivery open until 8 o'clock.

Cities, in the state, of the size of Plymouth, and with the same benefits of city and rural service as a rule close their windows at six or seven o'clock and so give the post-office clerks some of the benefits that carriers enjoy.

It is probable that in line with the Department's policy of shorter days for its employees that a nine hour schedule will be arranged for the local clerks.

U. B. Church Notes

The fine weather brought to the Sunday morning service a number of people from out of town including Jessie Beldon and family, who came over in their auto to enjoy the meeting. We were glad to welcome them.

The Ladies Aid is becoming noted for its fine luncheon given at each monthly meeting. The last spread was given at the home of Mrs. Orval Leslie and nearly a hundred were present. The next meeting will be held at the parsonage Wednesday and a good time is expected.

The third Quarterly meeting of the year will be held next Saturday and Sunday. The Saturday evening service will be in charge of Rev. J. Simons of Peru, and Sunday morning Rev. Frank Thomas, our pastor at Warsaw will preach. Do not fail to hear him as he is an able speaker.

Rev. F. Grow will fill the pulpit Sunday evening. Our people will be glad to hear these ministers from abroad. The public is cordially invited to attend these services and hear these able men.

Home From the South

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Fisher returned from a trip of three weeks through Alabama, Georgia, Florida, and other points south. They report Moses Leland, Miss Sue Portness and other former Plymouth residents at Fitzgerald Ga., well and doing well. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hogarth in Florida. The crops in southern Florida are about all harvested but some tomatoes are still growing as far north as Jacksonville. The change in the appearance of vegetation between there and here is truly wonderful.

Plate Glass Window Breaks

The new plate glass window which was just put in the front of the new Lauer building Tuesday forenoon was cracked supposedly from its own weight and not being level.

Will Be Married in Ohio

Death of Wm. Wunderlich.

Mrs. Jas. Thayer was called to Columbia City Thursday by the death of William Wunderlich, the son of her sister who lives there, and a brother of Wert Wunderlich of this city. Mr. Wunderlich was taken ill Saturday with erysipelas of the head, but his death this morning was very unexpected.

Mrs. John Thayer

Bremen, April 20.—Mrs. John Thayer, aged 29 years, died at her home in Lapaz Wednesday morning at four o'clock, after a short illness. She leaves surviving her a husband, and two small children. The mourners will leave the house at ten o'clock Friday morning, and interment will be in the Bremen cemetery.

George F. Wolford.

George Wolford, son of J. W. Wolford of this city, was born in Plymouth, Indiana, Sept. 11, 1877, and departed this life in Denver, Col., April 17, 1911, aged 33 years, 6 months and 24 days. He was a graduate of the School of Pharmacy of the North Western University of Chicago.

He married Minnie E. Banwarth of Chicago, Jan. 5, 1906. His health failing, he went to Denver, Col., Aug. 1, 1908, hoping to regain strength and vigor by living in a milder climate. But after an unsuccessful struggle of three years at last succumbed. He is survived by a wife, two sisters, Mrs. C. R. Logan of this city, Sister Fidelia of St. Mary's, Ind., and a brother Fred, at present in New Mexico.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. Tremmel of St. Michael's Roman Catholic church April 21. Interment at the Catholic cemetery.

Erma May Foster

Erma May, daughter of Mr. Chas. Foster and wife, was born in Plymouth, Indiana, May 17, 1887, and departed this life on April 10, 1911, aged 23 years, 10 months and 8 days.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Brethren church at North Manchester, of which she was a member and Sunday School teacher, also member of the choir. Miss Foster was a well known school teacher in the township, having graduated from the High School in the class of 1907. She was teacher at the Concord school, southeast of North Manchester, at the time of her death.

She is survived by her parents, three sisters, Nellie, Irene and Mary and two brothers, Gay and Rudolph. She was an active worker in church and Sunday School and was very popular with a large circle of friends, who sincerely mourn her death. Funeral services were conducted by the Pastor, Rev. G. T. Ronk, and burial was made in Oak Lawn cemetery.

Joseph N. Low.

Joseph Newkirk Low, the seventh of a family of ten children was born in Wayne county, Ohio, Jan. 23, 1838; died at his home eight miles southwest of Argos April 21, 1911. He was reared to agricultural pursuits, attended the country school at intervals and remained with his parents until his marriage to Sarah Ann Thompson Sept. 13, 1860 when they moved to Illinois. To this union were born nine children; Lloyd (deceased), Mrs. Fairie E. Simons, C. Ellsworth, Mrs. Lillie M. McFarland, William E. (deceased) Mrs. Emma Shivers, Mrs. June E. Lawrence, Welcome J. and Mrs. S. Margaret Lawrence.

At the breaking out of the Civil War Mr. Low responded to his country's call and enlisted in the Ninth Illinois Cavalry Company M. His regiment was actively engaged in many of the successful and bloody battles of the war in all of which he bore a brave and gallant part, acting as color bearer. He was mustered out of service Dec. 1, 1864, and engaged in farming. He was for many years a member of the Lafayette Gordon Post No. 132 G. A. R. of Argos.

As a result due to exposure while in military service for his country he became paralyzed in his lower limbs and for more than 24 years has been unable to walk but such was his strength and his patience and sweetness of disposition that he never complained, but was always cheerful, humorous and full of quaint fancies.

He was a loving and thoughtful husband, an affectionate and indulgent father, a kind and obliging neighbor and beloved by all who knew him, none ever leaving his home but that they felt better for having been with him. About a week before his death, he called the family together to give them parting advice and instructions.

Among other things he said, "Be good to Mother, be good to each other, be good to everybody." This is a testimony of his truly christian character. He professed no creed belonged to no church but was always generous toward them and contributed for their support and helped build many of the churches in his neighborhood. In his younger days he was a great Sunday School worker and a singing teacher.

He leaves to mourn his departure, one brother, Peter D. Low, and one sister, Mrs. Connelia Lockwood, his devoted wife and companion for over 50 years, seven children, 18 grandchildren and one great grandchild, besides a host of relatives and friends.

He was 73 years, 2 months and 21 days old at the time of his death. The funeral services were conducted at the home Sunday at 10 a. m. by Rev. I. Coomer of Marion, Ind., and were largely attended. Mr. Low was very fond of children and as a last loving tribute to him his little grandchildren acted as flower bearers. He was laid to rest in the Popular cemetery.

Those attending the funeral from a distance were Mrs. Sarah Shirley of Chicago, Mrs. Martha White of South Dakota, Chas. Goheen and Mrs. John Goheen of Ft. Wayne, and Mr. Nye McFarland of Kentland, Ind.

On account of sickness in his family, the son, Welcome J. of Portland, Oregon was unable to be present.

"Eb" Parish ended his life Tuesday morning about 8:30 o'clock by leaping off the Lake Erie bridge into Yellow river.

Barefooted without hat or coat, his trousers rolled up to the knee, he ran wildly down the Lake Erie tracks stopped on the bridge over the middle pier, dropped to his knees, yelled "Good bye, boys," and jumped off to a watery grave.

He struck on the pier as he went down and then fell off into the river below. The total distance to the river is about fifteen feet, and the water is about six feet deep.

Seen by Mrs. Dimmitt
The suicide was seen by Mrs. Pearl Dimmitt who lives on Oak Hill avenue, near the bridge. She was in the yard, saw Parish running wildly down the track, saw him kneel, heard his good-bye cry and saw him jump and fall into the river. She at once told the neighbors and a rescue party went to get Parish out. They were unable however, to reach him before death.

Dragged Out by Marshal
Marshal Dan Jacoby with Bert Sisk as oarsman went down the river in a boat and with hooks made at the blacksmith shop dragged the river bottom and although the water was very muddy, soon found the body of the dead man, and brought it to shore. It was taken to Leonard's undertaking shop.

Cause of the Suicide.
The cause of Parish's suicide was drink and family troubles. A few weeks ago his wife brought suit for divorce and he seemed to be greatly worried about this. Every time he saw Dan Jacoby he would ask about the divorce and talk about his wife in a troubled way. He went on frequent drinks and was undoubtedly crazed by whiskey when he committed suicide. Yesterday he was on the streets selling fish, and with the money must have bought whiskey.

He stayed at the home of his brother-in-law, Dan Walker, and it was from there that he ran down the Lake Erie tracks to his death in the river.

He was thought to be under the influence of delirium tremens. Joe Glauk from the Interlocking tower saw Parish running down the track, and further on down he passed two "hobos" who called to him, but he paid no attention to anything. His actions were those of a crazy man.
